Often imitated, never duplicated. There are a lot of fakes out there but I'm the real thing! Physically, I am all-natural and I am really into working out and keeping fit. Whether it's boot camp class, kickboxing or spinning, I'm in there going hard. Taking care of my body is very important to me. Not only do I want to look good now, I want to look good in years to come. There's something satisfying about looking good and knowing I put in the hard work to get that way, contrary to the popular alternative of running to a local surgeon. But there is so much more to me than just what is on the outside.

I've always described myself as a true Jersey Girl and I still stand by that 100 percent. Yes, I do follow the GTL routine religiously, and yes, I am an Italian-American chic living' it up. But unlike what the media describes these days as a "Jersey Girl", what I really mean is that I love where I'm from, I love going down the shore, I love my Jersey accent (to those who can hear it), and I'm real, inside and out. I'll tell it like it is. If you're about drama, I'm keeping it moving. I'm all about positive energy, karma, and things like that. I try to surround myself with good company at all times.

Over the past few years, modeling has grown to be something I love to do. Graphic designing is really where my heart is, but modeling gives me so many opportunities to meet new people and travel to new places. I love hosting events in cities all over because I get so much out of the different kinds of people I meet. So whether I'm out in Miami or LA, modeling and networking, I bring that energy from home with me and show them all that I am a phenomenal woman ready to take on the world!

Black Lingerie
by SHINA

worldmags

Jennifer is an all-natural swimsuit model from Sacramento, CA. She has been featured in over 30 calendars and numerous magazines, including the cover of March 2010 Biker Magazine. Over the last three years Jennifer has been travelling non-stop, flying coast to coast, competing in the top swimsuit competitions in the world. By making her way into one of the top three finalist positions in each competition, she now represents companies such as Dos-Equis Beer, Ambhar Tequila, BlueStar, and Player XT; and websites such as BullzEye.com, CollegePinUpGirls.com, ShowGirlzExclusive.com, BodyPaintingX.com, and many others.

Even through all this travelling, Jennifer has been able to attend school full-time and already has two degrees under her belt. She has an associate's degree in product development/fashion merchandising, and another in accounting. She is currently working on her bachelor's degree in accounting and will later pursue her masters in business.

While taking online classes and travelling the world she has been able to work on her swimsuit and lingerie line, and later plans on opening up her own international chain of stores and boutiques. The line is in its first stage of production and more information will be made available on Jennifer's website.

Jennifer may live the life of a glamorous swimsuit model when she's travelling the world, but when she's home she's just a normal girl. She purchased her first home when she was nineteen years old, and if you can't find her there then she's out riding around in her 1972 Buick Skylark. Besides spending time with her friends and family, she loves to cook, kick box, dance, and work-out at the gym.

Jennifer's personal website will be completed in August, so for now she can be contacted at Myspace.com/Jynnifer and for booking information email JenniferLynn.booking@gmail.com.

Hi!! I'm Belle from Newport Beach, CA. and this is my first time in SHOW magazine, although you can definitely check out more pictures of me as a Web Gem on www.Showgirlsexclusive.com.

I grew up as a nationally competitive dancer and loved dance so much that I went on to dance professionally and earn my Bachelor's Degree in dance. Currently, I teach Pilates and I absolutely love it! Dance and fitness have always been a huge part of my life. I want to live a long, beautiful, healthy life and working out and staying in shape is definitely the key to achieving that. Especially since I have a huge sweet tooth.

I'm a super sweet girl and can get along with any and all good people. While I believe it is important to be kind to all, I believe it is super important to always surround yourself with positive, sharp people because whether you like it or not, it will have an impact on who you are and become as a person.

I highly value kindness, maturity, honesty, intelligence, and most importantly genuineness in those that I surround myself with. When it comes to looks, I love dark hair, bright eyes, and smooth skin on a nice strong guy. It's also sooo sexy when a guy has ample muscle definition on his entire body.

Nevertheless, when I chose the guy I want to be with I always remember this quote I was told growing up,

"Don't go for the looks, it can be quite deceiving. Don't go for wealth, even that fades away, go for someone who makes you smile because only the one who makes you smile can make any dark day seem bright!"

Always remember smiles and passion for life are contagious... spread the true treasure!

Belle

My name is Jessica Barton and I'm 26 years old from Orlando Florida. I have been modeling and hosting for over 8 years now. I have been featured as a print model in magazines such as, FHM, American Curves, Modified, Super Street, Performance Auto and Sound, and Show. As far as television I have hosted shows that have aired on, ESPN2, Fox Sports, and Speed. I love working in the motorsports industry because I am a true gear head! I have been drag racing for over 8 years and have my own 1200hp supra that I have been 9.0 @161mph in. My love doesn't just end at drag racing because I follow all types of racing closely and work very hard to become well versed in as many forms of racing as possible. Hopefully I can build my resume further and continue with more hosting and more spokesmodeling in the future! Victoria Moore, British Model from Essex was born February 1988. Originally growing up wanting to do a number of things such as teaching, law or professional writing Victoria had a lot of options and was a very creative teenager. After pursuing a career as a make up artist, where she met various photographers and people in the industry, Victoria took photographers advice and started experimenting behind the camera. The first ever pictures shot were featured in a national publication in South Africa and Victoria has been in demand ever since.

After just a year in the industry the UK model had appeared in various publications around the world and in doing so has bagged her some loyal followers!

Whilst celebrating her 21st Birthday in Las Vegas Victoria complained about some bad food in a hotel restaurant, which led to a free night in the hotels nightclub! Surprisingly that night they were holding a competition which Victoria cautiously entered after being encouraged by a security guard. The Brit Babe was about to call it a night when they announced her WINNER...she became Playboy Club MISS APRIL 2009, won a thousand dollars and plenty of other goodies! Victoria then shot with Playboy, visited the Mansion and now has plans to move across the pond!

In the UK Victoria is a commercial/lingerie model and has worked with some of the biggest brand names in the UK. Moore has been featured in various TV shows, commercials and music videos and is in talks about taking part in a documentary for a UK Television company. Victoria has recently launched a new I phone application that allows fans or followers to download her right to their phone!

Victoria is in demand more than ever and winning the playboy competition has certainly changed her life.

In the future Victoria plans to start up her own charity helping children and young adults that have no parents or guardian's, it is something very close to her heart.

"I'm a commercial/lingerie model and have worked with some of the biggest brand names in the UK."

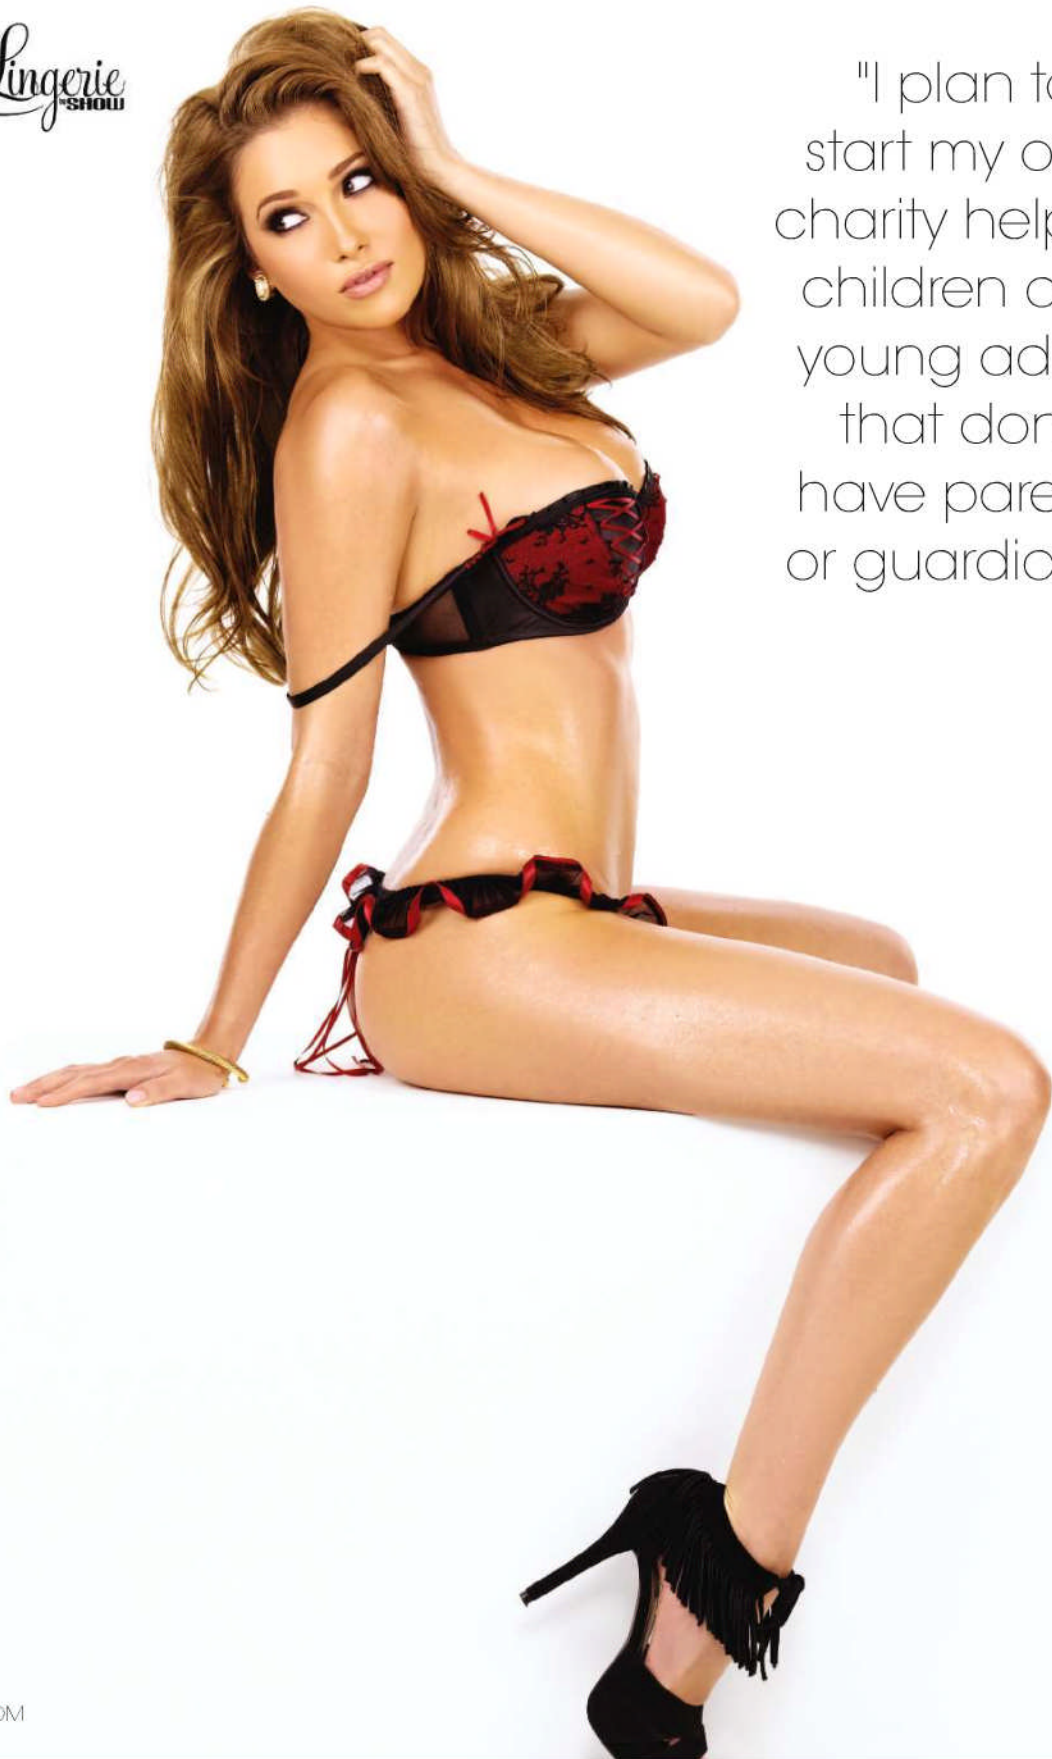

"I plan to start my own charity helping children and young adults that don't have parents or guardians."

Sophie Burles otherwise known as the 'the goddess' in the UK is a fashion and lingerie model. At just 21 Sophie has had great success modeling for some of the best brands and leading designers.

At 18 Sophie started modeling mostly on the runways for fashion shows but was soon in high demand to model lingerie. Being a curvy UK size 10 Sophie is not the typical size for a fashion model but is obviously breaking the mould as she proves more and more popular every year.

Know lingerie modeling is also proving a successful area for this British model. Sophie was told by agency's that she was too curvy and was told to try and loose her hips yet one agency saw her body for its natural, beautiful shape and Sophie has not stopped since.

Known as the goddess for her flawless skin, amazing body and her ability to glide down a runway like a floating angel it is easy to see why Sophie is in demand.

Sophie's views have also won her respect within the industry as she makes clear what she feels comfortable doing and is no push over. With her dark skin and hair combined with her strong and driven mind a lot of people have thought Sophie has some Latino or Spanish background but this isn't the case. Both her parents are white British and Sophie is one of four sisters all of whom are beautiful young women. It must be something in the water!

Sophie is currently working on her own fashion designs and hopes one day to share them with the world and launch her very own collection. The designs will be made to be suitable for the average size girls and not size zero models.

"I was told by an agency that I was too curvy and was told to try and lose my hips, yet one agency saw my body for its natural, beautiful shape and I haven't stopped since."

Allured - to attract with something desirable, to be highly (often subtly) attractive or the power of enticement...something British model Francesca Allured knows all about. Since turning 20 this British Model has not stopped. After being scouted on networking site, Facebook by fellow model; Francesca is now a highly successful model in the UK.

After her first ever shoot the UK magazines went crazy for Francesca and she was featured in 3 top magazines in one same week! This was just the beginning for Francesca as since then she has been in high demand. Dubbed as 'the new Kelly Brook' Francesca does resemble the ex UK model in some way.

In early 2009 a story broke out on Francesca in the English Newspapers, suggesting she was dating 'Jack Tweed' a British lad who had earlier married reality TV star Jade Goody who died of cancer on Mothers day 2009. Even though Jack and Francesca were just friends the public didn't take kindly to the idea of a swift move on so soon after Jade's Death, which did cause some problems for Francesca.

Not long after that incident, things were back to normal for Francesca and she continued working for various magazines, clothing company's, TV commercials and lots more.

Francesca has decided to take a short break from the modeling world and has decided to travel and experience different cultures and countries. Fran has been known as a bit of a party girl and under the watchful eye of the press in England it has lead to far too many paparazzi pictures being published so Francesca has decided to take her party else where for the mean while. That's not to say she has stopped modeling altogether though as Francesca was last spotted on a yacht in Monte Carlo posing for pictures in a bikini.

"I've been dubbed as 'the new Kelly Brook' because I resemble the ex UK model in some way."

After seeing SHOW for the first time, I was so impressed that I knew I wanted to feature in it. The models had beautiful physiques; they looked womanly, exotic and natural. Slickforce's photography captured the beauty of these girls perfectly. I just knew I had to shoot for the magazine! The way in which the girls are portrayed and the way their curves are celebrated really inspired me.

I'd been working for Apple Bottom Jeans UK, posing as their main model in 2009 adverts and catalogues. Modeling for them opened up a whole set of new experiences for me, like more modeling work, free clothes and travelling abroad for work. As a company they always appreciated my look and I was hoping SHOW would too. I contacted Sean Cummings myself and finally got the chance to visit the USA on a modeling job, so stopped by at the office to meet Vanessa Veasley. She was lovely, and I stayed in touch with the magazine. I got the chance to shoot with SHOW when they visited London!

The day of the shoot was just as I'd imagined, both Nick the photographer and Sean himself were a pleasure to work with. I was happy that I'd pushed for the chance to be involved in the magazine.

My body shape is unusual in the UK glamour market at 30, 22, 38. We need more hips and booty! With American influences like SHOW Magazine I think we will see the English market changing soon! I predict a curve revolution!

Contact me for work through my agency at www.helsbelles.com
Thanks guys! See you again.

As you all know SHOW is all about the Art of Sexy, and if you have the confidence within yourself your beauty will shine through, and that is what the Art of Sexy is about. My name is Jenna Shea and I'm back for another cover of SHOW magazine. I'm super excited to grace another Black Lingerie issue. I am so lucky to work with Sean Cummings again.

I've been focusing on my website www.iluvjennashea.com. My fan base has been growing wildly on the internet. I'm infamous for my camera phone pix. Guys love real images and video of me doing regular things. I want my site to be perfect. I'm a Virgo so I'm a perfectionist and I want the sexiest galleries and videos just for you! I have so many requests for webcam videos, and one on one time with my fans. I will also have a blog for my updates.

I've been hosting parties from Miami to LA and Texas. I love meeting new people and I treat fans as friends. Come up to me and say hi. I don't bite. *Wink*. Also don't be afraid to ask for a picture I love taking pictures. I live for this!

Some things you might not know about me is that I love hip-hop, especially west coast music. I was raised in Inglewood, California. Some of my favorite artists include Easy-E , Dr. Dre, Ice Cube, Nipsey Hustle, Gmalone , Mack 10, Tupac, Hot Dalla, Crooked i, Game, and of course Snoop.

I also love Chevys! I have a Came-ro myself and I get down and dirty. My dad always said you can tell a lot about a man by what he drives and how clean he keeps it. I love a manly man one who takes charge, and if you can fix a car, even better. It's the biggest turn-on ever!

To all my fans I want to say thank you I appreciate your support! Come follow me on twitter www.twitter.com/iamjennashea and visit my website www.iluvjennashea.com coming soon xoxo
