I really enjoy hiking and exploring British Columbia with my dog, Luna. For a day job, I work at a restoration company as a remediation technician, but if given the chance to travel for modeling, would leave in a heart beat. I started modeling four months ago and quickly found a love for it. I am a freelance model and I use my instagram (@a.mber.rose) to promote myself and find photographers. My favourite type of modeling is lingerie and implied. I hope to start promo modeling in the future. I started modeling to gain confidence in my body, to embrace every rib and hip bone, and to show myself I didn't need big boobs or hips to feel sexy.

How to find the perfect BACHELOR PAD!

Graduating from college, leaving home for the first time or moving out of the dorm? This is what to look for, and what to avoid when searching for a new bachelor pad for the first time. Some of this advice is common sense and some of it has been figured out the hard way.

APPLIANCES: Take a look at the age and condition of the appliances like the oven, dishwasher or refrigerator. The condition of the appliances can tell a lot about how the apartment complex is run. If the appliances are fairly new, that's a good sign. If they are pushing 2 decades then that may indicate just the lack of enthusiasm that the management company has for keeping their apartments in good condition.

PARKING: How much guest parking is there? This is very important if you entertain a lot, have friends visiting your place or even have a significant other spending the night. Some apartment complexes don't have any guest parking. You don't want your significant other having to park on the street or in a pay lot which could become very expensive for you.

CURRENT RESIDENTS: Ask who lives around you (older working professional, students, etc...). You might find a great apartment, but if it's around older people who don't like noise then you will want to reconsider choosing to live there.

HOW MUCH ARE THE UTILITIES?

This is extremely important to know for budgeting purposes. Ask what average electrical bill and utility bills are. Also, keep in mind you'll be paying for cable or satellite and internet services. Your bills for your apartment can easily go over $200 a month if you are not careful.

WALKING DISTANCE

to restaurants, convenience shops, and bars: Being able to live close to any one of these is a huge bonus. Especially if it's a bar, walk there and crawl home.

AMENITIES: Some apartment complexes offer gyms, dry cleaning services, free morning coffee. Don't be suckered into renting a place that has a crappy gym because you want to save 30 bucks a month.

GRILLS: Love grilling, planning on taking your current one with you, or buying one? Some apartments will not allow charcoal grills, some will not allow you to have a grill on your balcony, some apartments don't allow grills. Check your Lease or with the management office before buying, don't rely your new neighbors for information.

POOL AND HOT TUB/SPA:

Renting a place that has a pool is essential. Pools are social places and a great way to meet your neighbors and have BBQ's/Parties at. Always remember NO GLASS by the pool. Have a party by the pool during the day, and bring the party back to your place for cocktail hour. Also keep in mind what the pool hours are, you don't want to be at place that shuts the pool down at 8pm every night. Also, no matter how nice the view is don't live by the hot tub, you'll hear people in it at all hours of the night.

Visit www.bachelorhaus.com to find out more about how you can customize your place that will impress any guest. USE "ForGuysMag" to save $100 off any purchase over $899. Shipping is always FREE!

Remember Rome wasn't built in a day, so take your time and spend your money wisely when looking for a new place. It's an expensive endeavor trying to break a lease early due to a roommate or other issues you have with apartment management.

Chelsea Dylann

Photographer: Joshua Paull

Chelsea was born and raised in North Carolina until she moved to Florida to play basketball at a NCAA DII University where she received a full athletic/academic scholarship. There she graduated with honors and received her BA in psychology, minor in biology. Chelsea was a captain of her team 3/4 years and led the conference (ranked toughest DII conference in the nation) in rebounding her last 2 years. She loves hiking, playing sports, playing video games, and can probably out drink most men, yet still hold herself together as a lady. While growing up, her family bred and raised pit-bulls, which she will always have a spot in her heart for, but as of now she has a Min Pin named Brooklynn, who she is slightly obsessed with, but who isn't obsessed with their pet.

Jessa Hinton, she is not only beautiful, but has an amazing personality along with that "IDGAF" attitude.

Do you have a favorite behind-the-scenes story from a photo shoot?

Yes, when a security guard told me and another model we couldn't shoot by the pool because it was too "risque", yet when we moved to the beach to continue, he decided to watch! But that isn't the best part...the other model yelled up to him "NOOOO you can't watch, it's too "RISQUE!!!. Turn around!"

Aside from modeling, what are you focusing on these days?

Other than my career, myself. I want to be the best me I can be in this lifetime. Seeing how we only get one shot.

What would your fans be surprised to know about you?

I am very laid back and can make friends with anyone. That's the one thing I hear most from people, "wow, I never would have guessed how cool you were because most pretty girls are stuck up!"

A little advice to everyone, get to know someone before you start judging them, you might meet some pretty neat people.

Do you have any piercings or tattoos? How many and where?

Yesssss I do! I have 7 tattoos working on number 8. It really is an addiction. My dad always told me "they're like potato chips, you can never just have one." Damn was he right! My piercings, I have 4 on the cartilage of my ear, 2 on each ear lobe, and that oh so cute belly button ring!

What's the most memorable pick up line you've ever heard?

Did you sit in a pile of sugar? Cause you have a pretty sweet ass. I'm not a photographer, but I can picture me and you together.

What's the most unusual place you've ever hooked up?

I "had fun" in a hospital. My boyfriend had to stay a few nights for some tests and he was bored and dying to get out, so I may or may not have been a little eager to help! I'm sure you guys can fill in the blanks!

What's one thing you think all men should know?

The right way to treat a lady! They're not your balls, you can't just play with them when you want to.

What qualities drive you wild in a man?

Passion, drive, desire, energy (wink wink)!

What's your idea of the perfect date?

I'd much rather a guy bring me some flowers and take me to the beach to watch the sunset, then try to wine and dine me.

How do we win your heart?

I don't like drama, I don't like rude people, I don't like conceited people, I don't like assholes! Stay away from all that and you got me.

On an average Saturday night, what are you doing?

Probably watching TV cuddling with my poochy poos because I'm exhausted from the week.

If you could go on a date with one person, dead or alive, who would it be?

Channing Freaking Tatum!

Which physical feature do you most often get complimented on?

The booty or my lips

What do you feel most comfortable wearing?

Probably whatever I'm wearing in these pictures.

When do you feel sexiest?

Whenever a really good sexy song comes on. Every girl has that song that'll turn them from daddy's little girl to a stripper before the lyrics ever start.

How did you get started modeling?

My mom pushed me to get out there and contact photographers, so I guess that's how.

Who is your favorite model?

Tianna Gregory

Aside from modeling, what are you focusing on these days?

I'm working on finishing my degree and getting my Paramedic License.

What would your fans be surprised to know about you?

I don't like compliments, they are sweet but they make me uncomfortable and I'm a very feisty person.

Oh and I'm a HUGE country fan!!

And, finally, what made you want join the GUYS family?

I love the magazine and reading all the little articles.

What's your favorite sport?

Hockey, I've watched the Redwings since I was a little girl. Although the Wings aren't as good as they used to be, watching them now reminds me of the good old days watching them with my dad.

What's your favorite movie?

Furious 7, I think the movie was so touching. The way they paid tribute to Paul Walker couldn't have been done more perfectly. I have never cried so much during a movie.

Who's your favorite actor?

Gerard Butler.

What's your favorite song?

"Hurt" by Johnny Cash. It's a song that has great meaning to it. I love songs that go far beyond a catchy beat.

Who's your favorite artist?

Big Sean when I'm feeling some rap and when I need something a little calm John Mayer is a go to.

Do you have any piercings or tattoos? How many and where?

Yes, I have a cross on my back, a bear paw on my lower waist and a Queen of hearts tattoo on my wrist. I used to have a ton of piercings but are all taken out now so only my ears are left.

What's the most memorable pick up line you've ever heard?

"Do you have a map? Because I keep getting lost in your eyes" lol or there's the typical over used line " Are you from heaven? Because you look like an angel."

What's one thing you think all men should know?

I think all men should know how to cook. I love food and there's nothing more attractive than a man that can make me a meal after a long day.

What qualities do you like in a man?

I love a strong man. Someone who can be independent and take care of business. I like a man that has goals and doesn't care what anyone thinks of him. I like an honest man because at the end of the day you can have a perfect man but if he's not honest or trustworthy he's not boyfriend material.

What's your idea of the perfect date?

A perfect date is a movie night with lots of candy and slurpees!

How do we win your heart?

My heart can be won with honesty. To me honesty is the number one aspect in any relationship.

On an average Saturday night, what are you doing?

I'm usually having a couple cocktails at a bar or club. Sometimes a good movie night is nice after a long week too. So it just kind of depends on my mood.

If you could go on a date with one person, dead or alive, who would it be?

I would go on a date with a young Elvis Presley. He's a legend.

Which physical feature do you most often get complimented on?

I get complimented most on my eyes. People say there very cat like and striking.

What do you feel most comfortable wearing?

I feel most comfortable wearing nothing. I love to be naked.

When do you feel sexiest?

I feel sexiest when I'm in bikinis or lingerie. They make me feel like all eyes are on me. I feel like I model best in them.

How did you get started modeling?

I started off by myself, building my portfolio and connections. It's been a real struggle because of my height but it is definitely starting to pick up as I learn the dos and don'ts.

Who is your favorite model?

My favorite model/actor is Eva Longoria. She's short, only 5'2, and has shown the world it is possible to model and become world renowned at any height.

Do you have a favorite behind-the-scenes story from a photo shoot?

Yes, I remember being so hungry during a shoot I went to the vending machine in the hall way and bought myself a coke and bag of hot Cheetos. I then continuously had to clean my fingers throughout the shoot. I love hot Cheetos.

Aside from modeling, what are you focusing on these days?

I'm focusing on my health I've been eating clean and in the gym everyday. That means no pop or hot Cheetos. I also plan to go back to school in the fall for anesthesiology.

What would your fans be surprised to know about you?

I am a complete tomboy at heart. Growing up with four brothers I've learned the care free ways of life that men have lol.

And, finally, what made you want join the GUYS family?

I love GUYS magazine because while being sexy they're still tasty. They don't over expose woman, they give the audience just enough. It's very easy to cross the fine line between classy and trashy. However GUYS Magazine has figured out the balance. That's what has made me want to join the GUYS family.

What was your first job?

At my parents restaurant called The Flamingo, when I was 12. As a bus girl/food runner.

TOP 10 BEARDS IN FILM

(Not in order of best, this is just our Top 10)

1. Gerard Butler - 300
2. Kurt Russell - The Thing
3. Christoph Waltz - Django Unchained
4. Tom Hanks - Cast Away
5. Dumbledore/Gandalf
6. Samuel L. Jackson - The Caveman's Valentine
7. Tom Hanks - Forrest Gump
8. Harrison Ford - The Fugitive
9. Pai Mei - Kill Bill Vol. 1&2
10. Salma Hayek - Cirque du Freak

Gerard Butler - Leonidas - The Spartan warriors of 300 are clearly worth 20 soldiers for every one of them, but we all know their power really derives from their strong beards. Butler's power scruff in this film is as perfectly chiseled and defined as every muscle on his body. With a beard that strong, you couldn't even be mad if he push kicked you into a bottomless hell pit.

Kurt Russell - Aside from looking badass and the practicality of fighting the Arctic chill, he pours a glass of whiskey into his computer and calls it a "cheating bitch" for beating him at chess. Steel wool and a cold heart.

Christoph Waltz - "The man with the exceptional beard". There's never been a beard that is both so lovable that you feel you cuddle up to it, while also fearing he might pull a 6 gun and blow you to hell. Auf Wiedersehen!

Tom Hanks (Cast Away)- As if we couldn't love Hanks any more, then he goes and grows this man mop and sticks out the rough island life with his boy Wilson (who also appropriately becomes shaggy along with Tom). This is a beard of companionship.

Dumbledore/Gandalf - This one was too close to make a call, and I won't be in the middle of a wizard fight, so it's a tie. Between the epic hair that enchants their faces, to the bad ass men who portrayed the characters (Harris&Gambin/McKellen), this is a set of long wizardly white beards that could stand toe to toe with anyone.

Samuel L. Jackson - I've never actually seen this movie, but when my main man Sam Jackson dons a full beard, you'd better bet it's going to demand attention! Honorable mention, Sam's beard in the upcoming Hateful Eight!

Tom Hanks (Forrest Gump) - The lovable savant steals our hearts and everyone's women with this incredible beard. Yes, yes, this is the second time Tom made the list, but what the hell? The guy knows how to wear it.

Harrison Ford - While he only dons it for a fraction of the movie, it's just such a joy to see Harrison really take on the appearance of the "scruffy looking nerf-herder".

Pai Mei - Tarantino makes a third appearance in our list, this time in the form of the Kung Fu Master Pai Mei. Between the 5 point palm exploding heart technique, teaching The Bride how to snatch out eye balls and constantly flipping his beard to side and laughing maniacally, this man was an easy choice for us. Quentin knows how to place a good beard.

Selma Hayek - It's Selma Hayek with a beard. No words are necessary.

Which physical feature do you most often get complimented on?
My legs

What's your favorite sport?

Basketball by far!

What team?

The Dallas Mavericks – When they won the NBA Championship in 2011 I cried for a solid 30 minutes and I honestly don't think I've stopped celebrating that win.

What's your favorite movie?

Too many to pick from! I love action movies, comedies, and rock music documentaries.

Who's your favorite actor?

Matt Smith

What's your favorite song?

'Seasons of Wither' by Aerosmith

Who's your favorite artist?

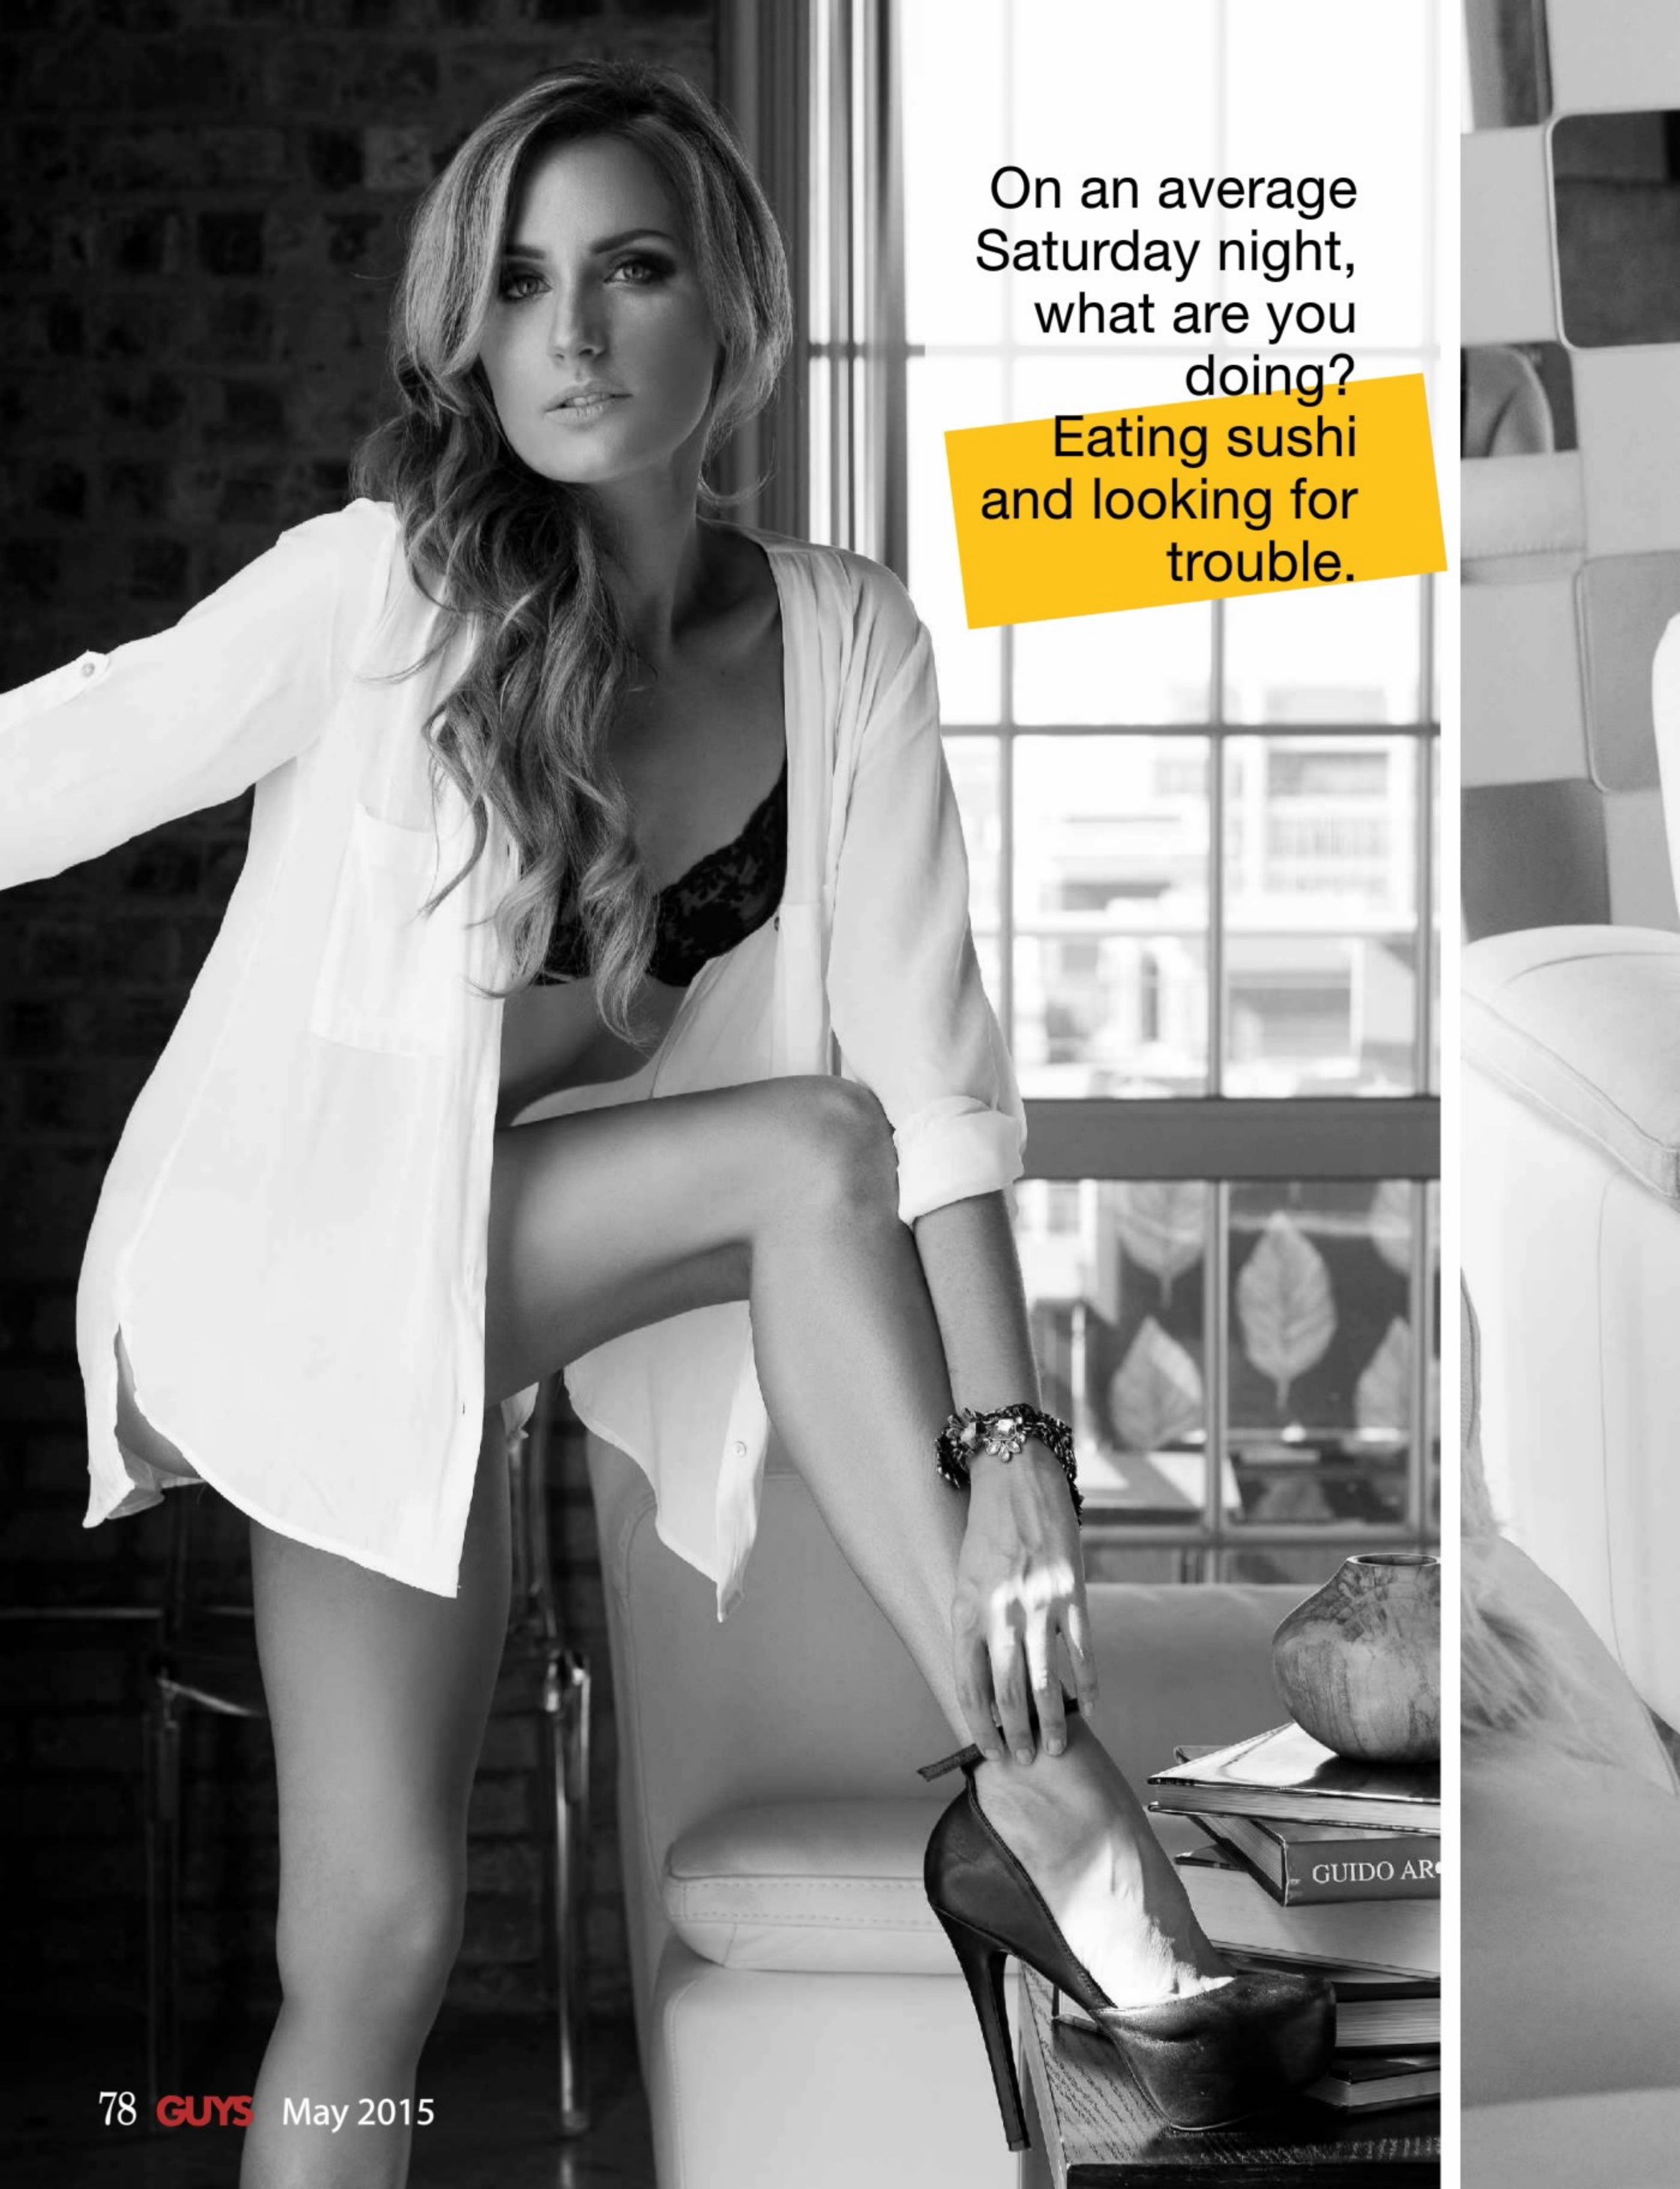

Aerosmith is my favorite band of all time - I'm a HUGE classic rock and hair metal fan.

What was your first job?

I was an assistant director on a few productions for a local theatre and it was an amazing experience.

What's the most memorable pick up line you've ever heard?

I've had quite a few that were so out there I just ended up laughing. A friend of mine said he used to try and pick up girls by looking them up and down then asking them, "Are you really wearing that here?" He said fifty percent of the time it works and gets the girl laughing and the other fifty percent they get mad – So be careful guys!

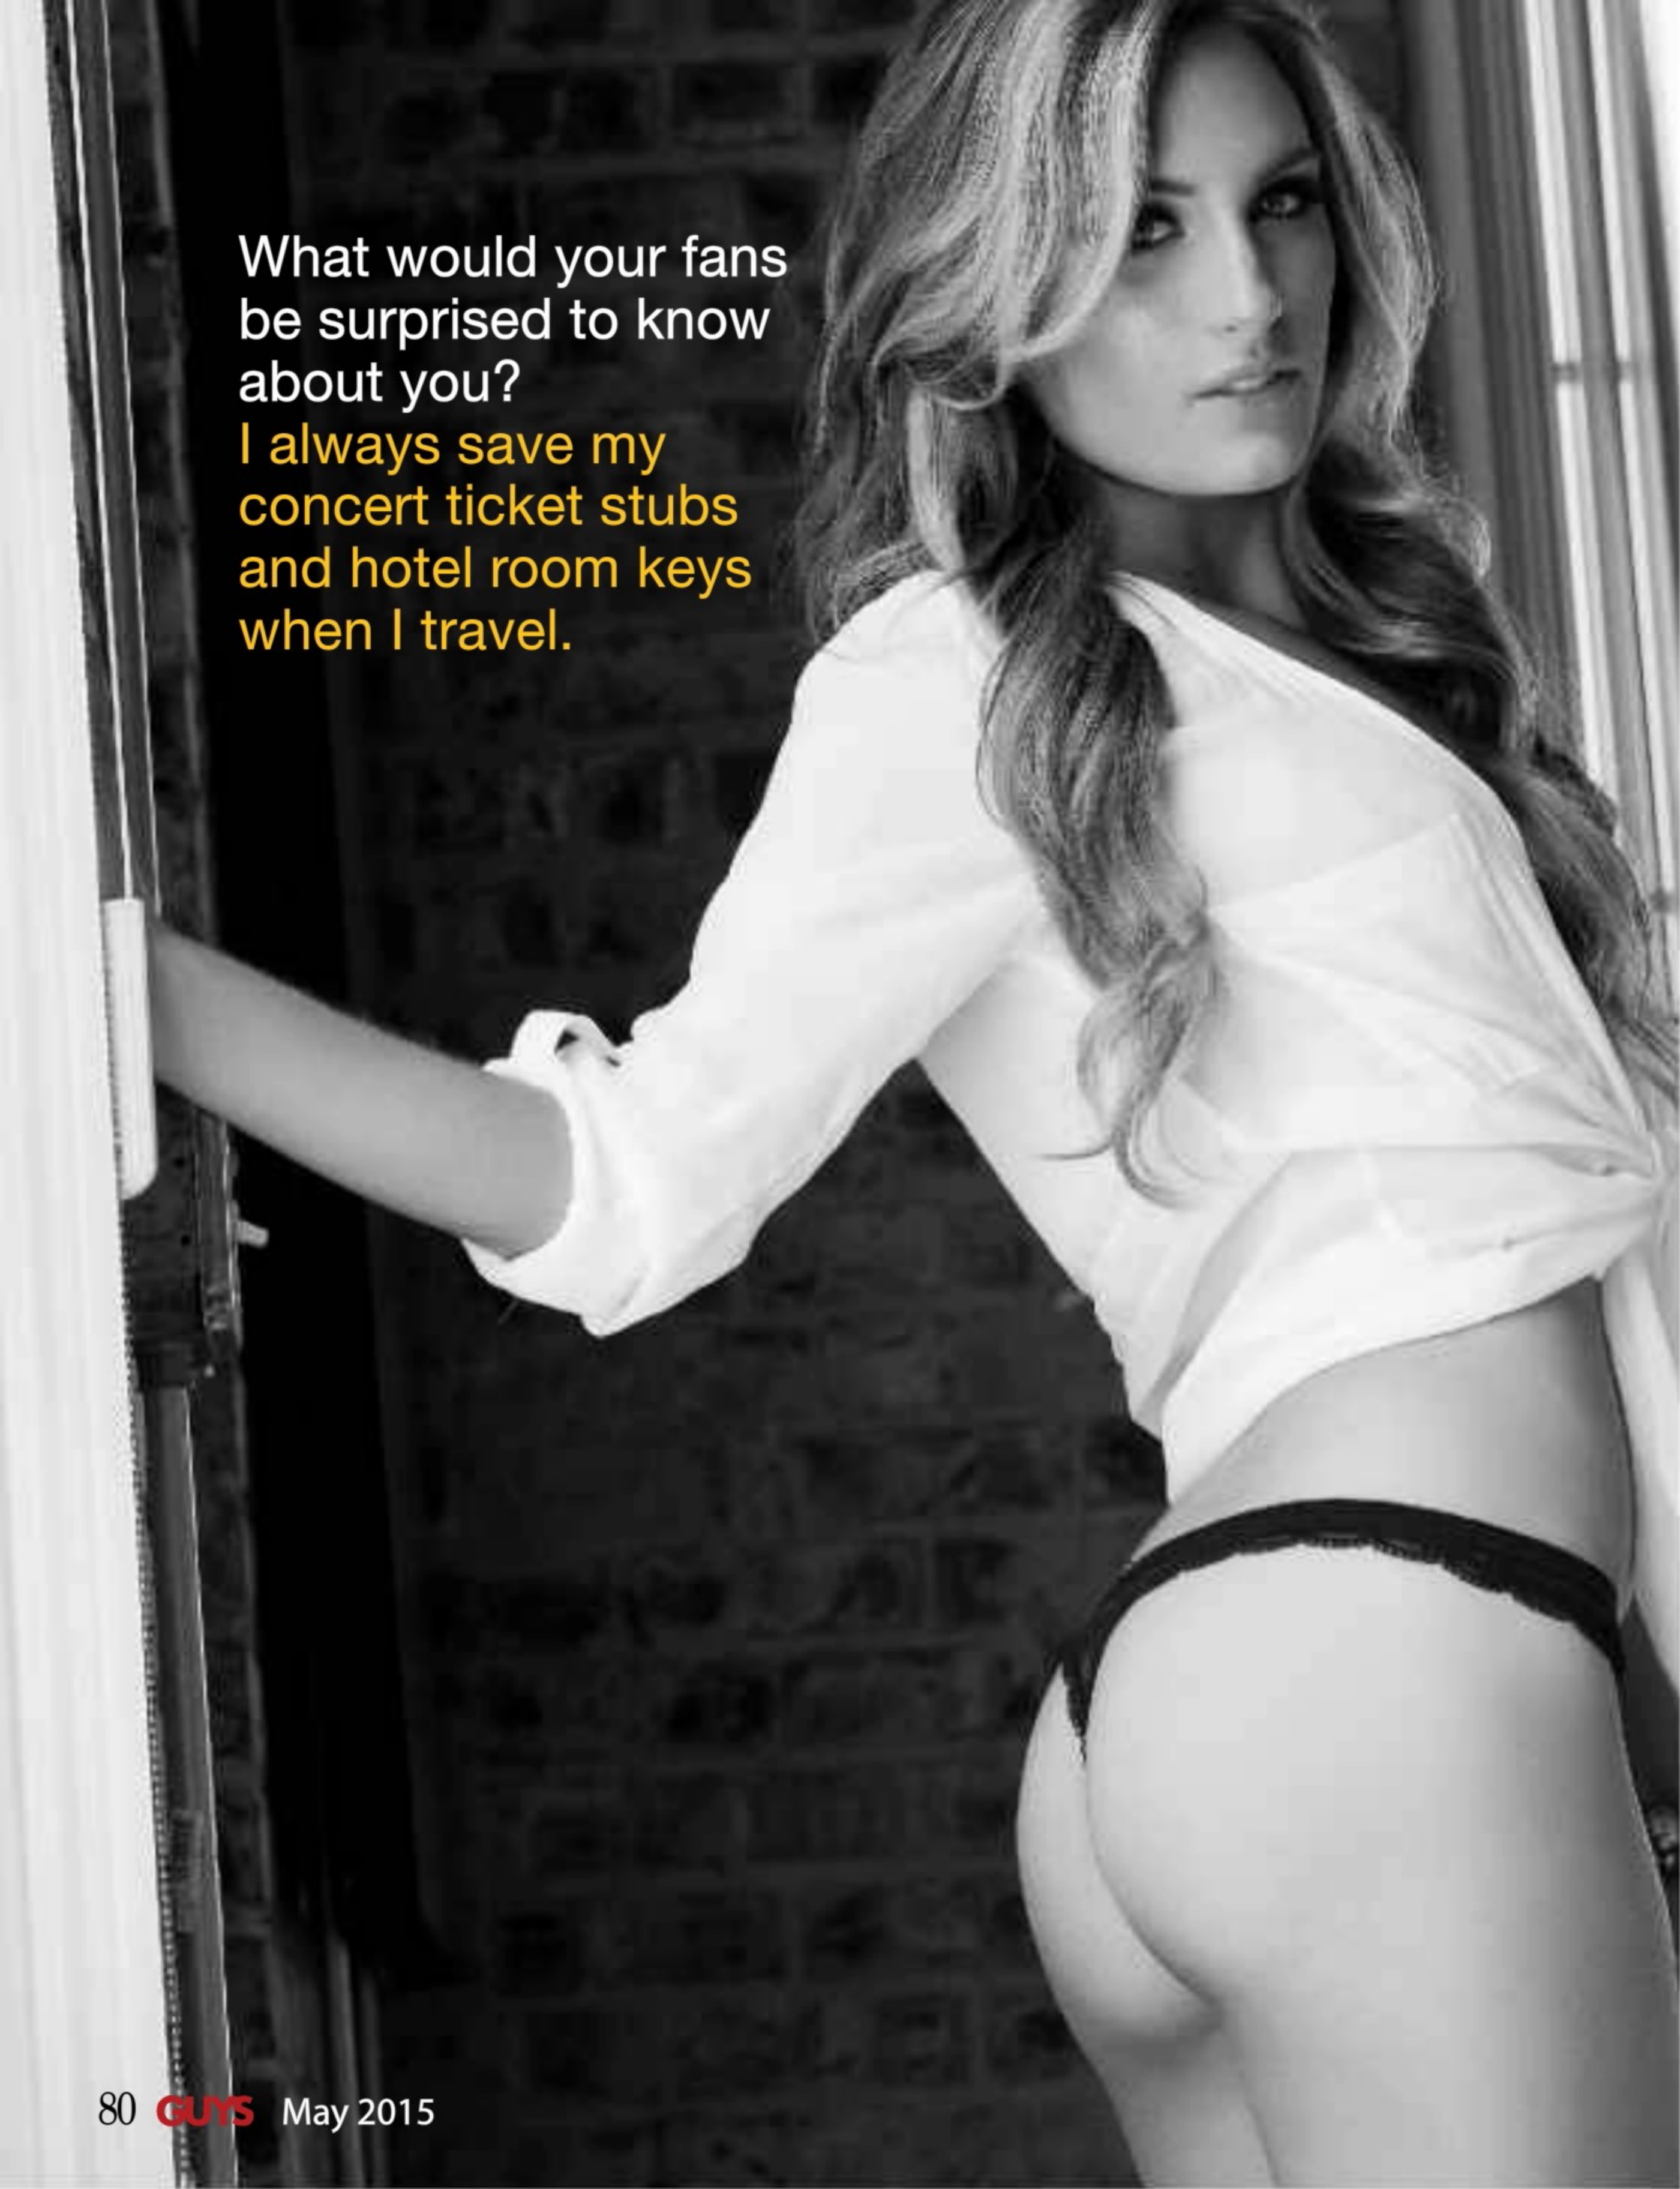

On an average
Saturday night,
what are you doing?

Eating sushi and looking for trouble.

When do you feel sexiest?
In a tight little dress and sky-high heels!

What would your fans
be surprised to know about you?

I always save my concert ticket stubs and hotel room keys
when I travel.

What's the most unusual place you've ever hooked up?

On a balcony that overlooked the dance floor of an after hours club with my boyfriend and another girl

What's one thing you think all men should know?

In my opinion, jealousy is the worst quality to have. It doesn't get anyone anywhere and it complicates everything. If another man compliments your girl, embrace it – Don't get angry.

What qualities drive you wild in a man?

Someone who can make me laugh, is always up for an adventure, has great taste in music, over 6ft tall, dresses well and has great hair!

What's your idea of the perfect date?

I love getting to know people and finding out what makes them tick. Take me on an adventure. And if there is sushi involved, it's a great date!

How do we win your heart?

Have a good heart, be kind, be passionate, take me out and grab my butt.

If you could go on a date with one person, dead or alive, who would it be?

Steven Tyler

What do you feel most comfortable wearing?

If I could live in lingerie I would but I also am a sucker for a big comfy t-shirt. It all depends on my mood.

How did you get started modeling?

A friend of mine needed a promotional model for their website and asked me. As a photographer, I immediately loved the contrast of being in front of the camera as well as behind it.

Who is your favorite model?

I absolutely adore Dani Mathers (Playboy's Miss May 2014) – She is STUNNING and my girl crush!

Do you have a favorite behind-the-scenes story from a photo shoot?

I have so many great stories from photo shoots that it's difficult to pick one in particular. One of the most rewarding things about this job is getting to work with such talented artists and becoming friends. That and dancing around in my underwear because that almost always happens!

Aside from modeling, what are you focusing on these days?

My photography. One of my favorite places in the world is the front row of a concert with my camera.

And, finally, what made you want join the GUYS family?

I absolutely adore the magazine and the features. I also feel like you get to know the girls a little better because the Q&A asks GREAT questions. It's always a good laugh when I get to read other models stories and I love it when their personalities come through too! All around, a fabulous magazine, and I truly feel honored that I get to work with you all.

What do you

She is looking towards the camera with a slight smile. The background shows a bed with white and beige pillows and a window with sheer curtains.

When do you

A woman with long, wavy brown hair is sitting on a dark grey couch. She is wearing a red, low-cut top and is looking out of a window with white horizontal blinds. Her hand is near her chin, and she appears to be in a thoughtful or contemplative mood. The room is decorated with some dried floral arrangements and a small branch with red berries on the couch.

What qualities drive you wild in a man?

Dexterous hands, fantasy and original ideas.

What's your favorite sport?

Horse riding.

What's your favorite movie?

It would be the Shawshank Redemption

Who's your favorite actor?

Channing Tatum.

What's your favorite song?

Weather With You by Crowded House.

Who's your favorite artist?

Boris Vallejo. Come on, google him, he's incredible.

What was your first job?

Selling sports shoes.

Do you have any piercings or tattoos? How many and where?

None, and let me tell you why. I hate pain and try to avoid it at all costs.

What's the most memorable pick up line you've ever heard?

When I got picked up in a Ferrari FF, the sound of the 660hp V12 was pretty memorable. But honestly, nothing can beat the guy who serenaded me Love Me Tender.

What's the most unusual place you've ever hooked up?

I'd say the lookout tower for hunters and gamekeepers.

What's one thing you think all men should know?

Big boobs are not just fun, they also hurt my back.

What's your idea of the perfect date?

Take a day off, turn off the smartphone, show me that you meant it when you said you want to spend quality time together. Let's go somewhere we don't usually go, do something we don't usually do, anything that stimulates other parts of brain we don't use at work or at home so much. And then, let the "grand finale" begin early enough, so that there's still plenty of energy left for it.

On an average Saturday night, what are you doing?

If I'm not on tour: spoiling myself with a glass of Kahlúa even though normally I don't drink alcohol.

Then drawing a bath and relaxing, reviewing the past week. When I'm shooting it's a whole different story: I'm usually running naked around a studio or a cool location, trying to squeeze the triple Ds into a tight corset or giving the femme fatale look and flirting with a Canon 5D.

If you could go on a date with one person, dead or alive, who would it be?

Stephen King. Alive, please. And not really on a date, I know he's married and I'm no marriage crasher. I would just pick his brains about life and listen to his stories, perhaps tell him I'm his number one fan.

Which physical feature do you most often get complimented on?

It might surprise you, but it differs geographically. In Florida where every woman invested big bucks in her rack, I actually got complimented on my legs and feet the most. It's a cliché, I'm aware of that, but it's also a fact that in Germany (and especially in Bavaria) my chest is almost exclusively the hot topic from the very first moment. Swedes like to compliment on my skin color or hair, while Parisians (pretend to) stare deep into my eyes.

How did you get started modeling?

After sending too many CVs and doing too many interviews for regular 9-to-5 jobs. Nobody scouted me, nobody knew me, I just decided to.

Who is your favorite model?

Eva Green, more famous for her acting. But she's gorgeous whatever she does.

Do you have a favorite behind-the-scenes story from a photo shoot?

There's too many! Like when a plastic surgeon was walking past a window in which I was posing and he told me "great job" later explaining that he could not decide if I was a nature's work or one of his colleagues'. Or a huge fan of everything Bavarian (BMW and beer especially), living on the Gulf Coast, asking me to wear an Oktoberfest outfit and pour Bud Light on myself – all that while shooting in a jungle-like natural reserve in Florida, some 8 hours flight from Munich... yeah, it's definitely a fun job to do.

Aside from modeling, what are you focusing on these days?

Improving my English, going to gym, scouting interesting shooting locations and travel destinations, brainstorming on the use of crowdfunding in my business, learning new makeup and hairstyling techniques, sporting a new décor "down there", creating a new website, a visual identity and a custom merchandise for my fans, as well as an ebook.

What would your fans be surprised to know about you?

That starting from spring 2015 I'll give out a hand-signed fine art nude print, with a personalized dedication, to every photographer that I'll work with.

And, finally, what made you want join the GUYS family?

One of my favorite Dutch photographers, René Kiviet, whom I got the honor to pose for, also got me to write this so that you GUYS can get to know the truth behind Nikolart. It was my pleasure to do this interview and I hope you enjoyed the view as well as the read! Xoxo and see you on the set! Niky

Her right hand is near her face, and her left arm is raised. The background features a large window with blinds, a fireplace mantel with decorative items, and a white shaggy rug.

How do we win your heart?

Get me a Friesian horse (to pet, to ride, or just to watch) and I'm in the best mood ever.

BE CAREFUL

Where You Stick It!

WHAT THEY DIDN'T TELL YOU AT SCHOOL

I asked my male friend last week what advice he would give himself as a teen to help him with his future life. I'd seen this question on Facebook and thought I'd have a little fun! I expected an answer about career, finance or his relationships alike other people's answers I had read; and alike the advice I would have given myself (which for the record was care less about other people and make yourself number one) his answer was mind blowing and I had to ask more questions after I had heard his response which was; "Be careful where you stick your dick".

I was half way through swallowing a mouthful of bourbon and coke when he spat out those words. I also spat! I spat bourbon and coke ever so elegantly out of my hysterically laughing mouth. Don't quote me here, but I believe; by memory, I responded with questions such as "Really? You would advise yourself to be careful where you stick your dick? Why?" (As you would; I guess, how else was I to respond to this seemingly ridiculous answer?).

Not to alarm anyone, but he had great points to this answer he'd given, this and these points need sharing with my Guys readers. I figure after hearing the advice he would give himself and seeing the seriousness behind his reasoning that it was only right for me to protect my readers and give you this advice he would give himself in a way you may never have been given it before. Most of his points were theoretical in his case (but so real for some), except in the case of his never ending battle to see his now 9 year old daughter without spending a million dollars and suffering mental pain and heartache whilst he watched his loved ones (parents etc.) do the same.

At school they teach us all about sexual health. They tell us to use rubbers (frangers, raincoats, condoms or whatever else you may call them) to prevent sexually transmitted disease and of course unwanted pregnancy. What they don't explain though is the common sense behind the pregnancy part. I'm thinking that sexual education should be touched on a little more based on my article and the costs of dipping your dipstick in the wrong hole. I'll leave that up to you to decide. I'm not going to get all politic and start petitions on change.org over it.

His answer (be careful where you stick your dick) had covered the advice that every male advising their younger self had posted. Being careful where you stick your dick can save your career, your finances, your brain from almost exploding, it covers the lot. It covered every piece of advice every man had given their younger selves (almost anyway).

Let's face facts, humans can be cruel and vindictive and women are humans. As a woman, I have all rights to diss us and hope that females worldwide don't suddenly start stoning me over all of this (please hide your mag copies well this month boys). The actions of 'sticking your dick' into a woman can have a massive impact on your life even if it's just a one night stand. It can affect your career, your finances, your mental health and well being and it can destroy your life! It can also have impacts on love and relationships now (and in the future) that have nothing to do with where you put your penis! With these facts in mind he gave his younger self better and smarter advice than any other male commenting about careers etc. that were CLEARLY affected (I repeat) by insert my wink to you here sticking their pee pee in a troublesome spot even though they STILL don't realise it.

I'm not telling you all to not "do it" by the way (in fact telling you to do it more is more my style, ask my current and very lucky boyfriend). I'm explaining how that pee pee of yours can cause "WHY GOD? WHY??" issues for you on every level.

Let's just say by the grace of god (that God you may be screaming at now or in the future) that you last popped your cock into a female hunter and that this female hunter that you bonked saw you as her fox; the hunted. She led a lonely life and wanted to change that. One pin, one condom packet and you're the daddy! In the words of Ace of Base "all that she wants is another baby, she's gone tomorrow boy, be careful what is flashing in her eyes, she's going to get ya!", and she did. What are you to do? This piece was literally a wet hole to you and now she's carting around your future legacy.

She may not want you to have anything to do with her or her baby and or you may never know it exists. Not knowing, that may be a good thing! What if you find out though? What if she was a toy for a few months and friends started pinpointing out she's the size of a whale or has just popped out a miniature look alike of yourself? What do you now do? You run for the hills and fuck over your brain wondering for the rest of your life if it's yours or of course; are stuck in courts rattling on shamefully about banging her in a crowded room in effect to get DNA tests done.

From this point on, depending on the DNA outcome (if it goes that far) it gets worse no matter which way the sperm had swum!

Yours: hello daddy, issues with work, finance and more court room attendance (aka as the advice other men had given their younger self). Not yours: you're laughed at and a lot broker. You could have paid 100 hookers and had the same result!

Her motives may be financial rather than "leading a lonely life" if you've been hunted like a fox and have a pocket full of notes. If her motives are financial you can say goodbye to your financial freedom, what was a free fix for a night, a week or even a few months is now a lifetime payment, a big payment. Again, hookers come to mind, you could have paid a million by the time your hunting lady is finished with you.

As you deal with these problems your penis caused you and you scream at the God that may or may not exist for punishing you, look around! Every other person in your life is also being punished and if you have another lady in your life you are in a big hole of shit! You'd better hope that lady is one hell of an understanding woman that loves every inch of your body and not just the thing that spits frothy white stuff as far as the bourbon I spat out hearing his answer did!

It goes further than one night stands. Make sure the ladies that you're shacking up with and marrying are not going to suddenly grow Devils horns and take your 'planned' children away causing you and your entire family heartache, money and job problems. You can usually spot them by their relationships with their own family and similarities in their personalities. If their moms a bitch that took them from their dad and is still calling him names, it's likely they will end up following in moms footsteps.

Now you're all petrified and paranoid or the opposite and thinking "this couldn't happen to me" I would love to offer you a solid solutions!

-Never ever trust a woman that you've not long known (especially if collected at a bar)

- Don't trust a girl after just a few months when she swears to the God you could wind up screaming at that she's taking her birth control pills or is in menopause and unable to reproduce.

These are of course the most solid of all solutions! Use your own rubbers (because you don't trust her remember), make sure you put them on properly and also make sure you check them throughout your steamy sessions so they remain just that, steamy but not conceivey (made up word just for giggles). Of course you should also take the rubbers off correctly too. I emphasis that YOU should take them off. Remember, you do not, can not and will not trust this woman. Not any woman until you're certain she's the one. Until you're positive she's the one you wish to carry your offspring into the future.

If all else fails, I suppose you're the daddy and it was meant to be. Fathering children is something most men do at one stage or another. I can only hope for your sake it is, or was, with a decent woman that does the right thing by you and your new born tiny tot (if as mentioned you ever do find out about it). If you don't find out about it because all that she wants is the baby to herself due to her loneliness, selfishness, fear, anti-man syndrome or unrealistic futuristic thoughts of your involvement I'm sure your baby will be healthy, happy and truly loved regardless and what would you know anyway? You wouldn't! In the words of one of my facebook friends: life is a gift to make the most of what time we are given, obviously to the best of our abilities and for your sake, something's are best left unsaid. (According to her).

With all this now read, I must repeat, something's are best left unsaid, remember that I'm far from a sex therapist, a psychologist or a doctor. I am however very appreciative of all my male fans and guys..... I have your back!
