BIG BRUV BEAUTY!

Sexy Chanelle managed a whopping 62 days in the Big Brother house before her eviction.

Big Brother babes rated!

By someone who should know –
ex-Big Brother hottie Chanelle Hayes

THE DADDY of all reality telly shows is back for its 13th outing, bringing the usual mix of oddballs, big-mouthed berks and stupendously sexy girls! We've put together a saucy selection of this year's hottest housemates, and asked Nuts' very own Big Brother beauty to cast her expert eye over them and dish out a bit of advice. Over to you, Chanelle!

WORDS: SI CUNNINGHAM PHOTOS: JEANY SAVAGE/DAILY STAR, REX FEATURES

LAUREN • 20 • JERSEY

Chanelle says: "I can't believe Lauren's only 20 – she's got a bit of a cougar vibe! I'm enjoying all her karate action, though. She's really feisty!"

Advice: "Put those kung-fu moves to use – especially if there are any arguments in the house!"

SARA • 22 • EDINBURGH

Chanelle says: "Sara's so pretty and cute. But I sometimes struggle to understand her strong, Scottish accent!"

Advice: "She'll get lots of male attention, so she needs to stay clear from any sleazy characters."

VICTORIA • 41 • READING

Chanelle says: "She looks like Stifler's mum! I hope I look that good when I'm in my forties. Every house needs a cougar."

Advice: "Don't try to compete with the younger girls - she'll get more respect for that."

SHIEVONNE • 28 • SOUTH LONDON

Chanelle says: "I'm shocked that she was a Playboy bunny, but she's been pretty funny so far."

Advice: "I think she's going to become quite feisty, so if she's going to pick any fights down the line, she needs to pick the right person."

LYDIA • 25 • CHESHIRE

Chanelle says: "I love Lydia's body, probably because she's a dancer. She's been a bit whiney though."

Advice: "Moan less about her nomination, or it'll be the main reason that she could get evicted!"

Turn for BB's
Victoria topless!

"Check out my big brothers, boys!"

It's BB's Victoria topless!

This season's cougar, as nature intended!

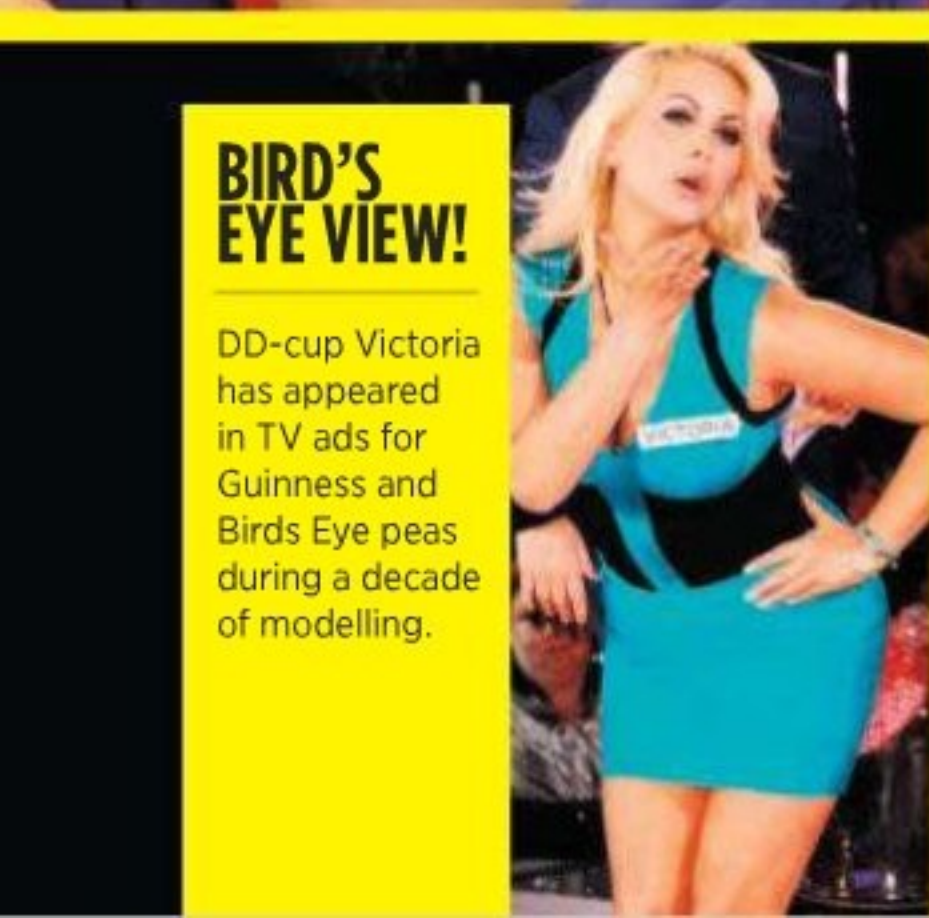

The new scout leader always got full attention in scarf-knotting class

"This top feels strangely airy"

WHILE YOU may have been watching camp impresario Brian Dowling corralling this year's housemates down a rainy runway last week, your dad may have been muttering, groaning and shifting in his seat. It's because, in the back of his brain, synapses were spasming as he fought to recall Victoria Eismann in her guise as '80s glamour stunner Vicky Lee, shown here paying the bills, back in the day.

BIRD'S EYE VIEW!

DD-cup Victoria has appeared in TV ads for Guinness and Birds Eye peas during a decade of modelling.

An Andy Carroll-friendly guide to Krakow!

Where England's party animal might want to unwind!

➔ AS CHRIS Kamara points out in this week's column, England haven't exactly picked the quietest of venues for their Polish base. Nope, Krakow is – how to put this? – more or less Party Central in Poland, a stag do hot spot for Brit blokes and generally quite good fun all round. Kammy is particularly worried about the distractions Andy Carroll may find – and Nuts being the magazine that likes to help out, here they all are for his convenience!

● Information by The Stag Company – visit www.thestagcompany.com or call 01273 225 070

1 Where to drink

The Stalowe Magnolie club, next to Market Square, is Krakow's answer to A-list hang-out Chinawhite – proper fancy and the bouncers will keep rowdy fans away while shepherding local lovelies to a table to share your shandy. Andy (below, asleep in a club, will love it!)

2 Lady landmarks

The name might put Andy off, but the Paparazzi bar on Mikolajska 9 is where Poland's most beautiful girls go to drink. There's also Prozak on Market Square or the Taboo Gentlemen's Club on Szewska street – which is also above a branch of KFC!

"This new kit is so slimming!"

"My new Liverpool shirt is a tad large"

He always had to be restrained
at opening time

3 Hairdresser

If Andy feels the need to have his ponytail neaten (if that's possible), then he'll want to head to the exclusive Salon Roman on Ul. Golebia 1, where a full hair pamper costs a princely £22! The website says to ask for Bartek, Andy.

4 Police station

If you're a little bit naughty after a few light ales too many, you'll probably end up at the central Krakow police station, Rynek Główny 29. Happily, local sources tell us that you can pay your way out of most misdemeanours – good news if you earn £60,000 a week.

Poland

The new *Loose
Women* line-up was surprising

He was having a good run of luck
at Top Trumps

5 Airport

Let's imagine the worst and Andy's antics reach Joey Barton proportions – it may be necessary to whisk him to the John Paul II Airport, where, luckily, a direct flight to Liverpool leaves most nights. It's Ryanair, but hey – you can't have everything.

6 Where to gamble

We know Andy likes casinos – in 2011 he injured himself falling off a casino stool at 5am, shortly (and non-coincidentally) after ordering a round of 30 Jägerbombs. Head to the Royal Casino on Westerplatte, open until 5am with a fully licensed bar. Result!

Useful Polish phrases!

Like: "Jestem sławny piłkarz" ("I'm a famous footballer, you know")

1 "Just cut an inch off my ponytail, please."

"Proszę, poprostu obetnij centymetr mojego kucyka."

2 "Hello Officer. Yes, I am a licensed taxi driver and this is my car."

"Dzień dobry panie policjancie. Tak, jestem licencjonowanym taksówkarzem i to jest mój samochód."

3 "Miss, would you and your friend like to come to my hotel room and watch television?"

"Czy chciałbyście pójść do mojego hotelowego pokoju pooglądać telewizję?"

4 "30 more Jägerbombs, please barman."

"Poproszę następnych trzydzieści Jägerbomb."

5 "I'm not saying anything until my lawyer gets here."

"Nie powiem nic więcej dopóki nie zjawi się tu mój prawnik."

6 "I'll give you 1,000 zloty to forget the whole thing."

"Dam Ci tysiąc złotych żebyś zapomniał o całej sprawie."

A quick word with Simon Pegg!

The beardy Star Trek actor on yoga, his goolies and sitting around in his pants!

Hi Simon! In your new film, you play a crime novelist so spooked by the serial killers he's writing about that he spends most of the film sitting at home, utterly paranoid, in his pants.

Yes. It's an adaptation of a short story called Paranoid In The Launderette. I loved the way it was written and, as an actor, the character was a gift because I got to spend a lot of time in my pants. Who wouldn't want to come to work in their underwear and sit there all day? That was the biggest draw for me. Pardon the pun. Draws! Geddit?

Umm. Yes. Didn't the other actors mind you sitting around in your pants between takes?

I don't think so. I sat in my special chair, which I take to jobs. It's a deck chair that reclines. I just sat in my pants and a cashmere sweater and relaxed. It was delightful. The first time, people were like, "Weird!" After that, nobody batted an eyelid.

Pants aside, your character, Jack, looks rather dishevelled. How did you prepare?

I tried to get inside the mind of a guy who's not left his house for three weeks. We wanted Jack to have that rakish, dishevelled look of a smart person down on his luck. I was instructed not to shave or cut my nails. My nails were like talons. They used to jam dirt under them every day. And I lost a lot of weight.

Blimey. How much?

Forty pounds. Oh, I don't know. I'd come off the back of Mission: Impossible – Ghost

Protocol, so I'd already dropped quite a lot of weight. I didn't want to look like I'd been working out. I tried to keep it skinny. I did lots of Bikram yoga, which makes you sweat. And I didn't eat very much. I wouldn't advise it. I'm not going to release a book. It was unhealthy. Do WeightWatchers, it's much better for you.

Was it hard shooting a film that's basically you, with your long hair and long nails, alone in your house, in your pants, slowly going mad?

It was tough. No, it was easy! No, it was tough! The set was this giant room with high ceilings and big windows, like a reflection of Jack's mind. It was easy to be hyper. I just drank a lot of coffee. That helped.

Your character is obsessed with people trying to murder him. What are you most obsessed with in real life?

Carrie Fisher's arse [Princess Leia from the original Star Wars films – Nuts' Film Ed]. It's hard to beat.

Would you like to do a film that lets you take on more of a romantic lead, rather than a man who sits around every day with his balls nearly hanging out of his pants?

Rather than my balls? Which are distracting to say the least. Maybe. I don't know. I've kind of played that character already in Run, Fatboy, Run and How To Lose Friends And Alienate People. I've made out with Kirsten Dunst and Thandie Newton. So... eat that!

Now that you're acting in big Hollywood blockbusters like Mission: Impossible and Star Trek, can you really be bothered to come home to appear in these small British films like A Fantastic Fear Of Everything?

Yeah, as soon as I don't have to, I'm off. No, it was really nice to come back after Mission: Impossible, which was seven months of filming, to do this, which was five weeks of unsupervised film-making. It felt exciting and cool.

Your friends/actors like Nick Frost tend to pop up in your films such as Shaun Of The Dead, Hot Fuzz and Paul. Any of your mates in this film, too?

Slashtors I call them. Um... no. I'm not in a "jobs for the boys" thing. But you make friends with people who you share a chemistry and a rhythm with. I'm sure you'll see some familiar faces in The World's End [the follow up to Shaun Of The Dead and Hot Fuzz – Nuts' Film Ed] when we do that. Or maybe you won't, we haven't cast it yet.

But it's always good to work with people who you like, if you can.

What's your favourite Simon Pegg film to date?

They're all my babies so I couldn't possibly choose. Paul was a huge one, as my daughter was born in the middle of it. Shaun Of The Dead was a huge one, as it was our first film and I've just done Star Trek 2, which was the most fun ever. I guess I'll say Shaun Of The Dead as it was the beginning of everything and I owe that film a lot. It was tough. We were making a film without much money. We didn't know if it was going to get released in the UK, let alone America. So I'll say Paul!

Thanks for the chat, Simon. But before we go. Spaced – any chance of a third series?

Spaced was a sitcom we did in 1999. Get the fk over it, ha-ha! You know, it happened. We didn't do a third series because it was hard to make a show that ambitious for such a small budget. As much as we loved it, we got to make a movie after series two and that movie just happened to be Shaun Of The Dead and everything changed. I loved Spaced and I miss everyone in it. But we're so past it now. Spaced was about a 27-year-old guy. I'm 42 now.

So you're saying there is a chance?

There's a chance. We start shooting next year. Alright?

● A Fantastic Fear Of Everything is in cinemas across the UK now

Awesome all terrain motor!

It's a space-age emergency response truck!

- If anyone was going to combine the ideas and designs of a McLaren F1, military response machine and the sort of thing the Thunderbirds tooled around in – it would be the man behind TVR with this, the Scamander.
- There are no doors – rather a fighter jet-style electric sliding cockpit. Inside, you sit close to the front wheels and in the same orientation as the McLaren F1 – with the driver in the middle. Lots of swooping glass at the front ensures excellent visibility, but seeing behind is assisted by TV cameras with huge screens on the dash.

- The Scamander gets its power from a Ford V6 that hides behind the driver's seat. There's 275bhp on tap, sufficient to get the 1.6-tonne oddball to 62mph in around eight seconds.
- Top speed is estimated at 120mph on tarmac, and its softly sprung suspension has almost twice the ground clearance of a Land Rover Defender (11 inches).

- Just like all TVRs, this battle wagon isn't 4WD and only gets drive to the back tyres. Until you point it into a river that is...
- On water, the V6 engine gets the you up to six knots (7mph). You steer it with a lever next to your left knee. The throttle pedal remains.
- This is British innovation at its maddest and, at Nuts, we like that. Made to order, it's yours for around £200k!

World's biggest swimming pool!

Welcome to Chile's man-made lagoon. Bring your trunks, eh?

THIS IS the artificial lagoon at San Alfonso del Mar resort, halfway up Chile's Pacific coast, in the city of Algarrobo. And it's just been recognised by that Guinness World Records as the planet's biggest pool.

And at over 1km long, with crystal-clear waters, it does rather make our local municipal baths look a bit like a beery puddle.

We suppose it's too late to move the Olympics here? Watching Rebecca Adlington power to swimming gold from a warm, artificial Chilean beach sounds like a perfectly dandy way to spend the summer.

WORDS: RORY BUCKERIDGE PHOTOS: BARCROFT MEDIA

We don't care how big it is, heavy petting is still banned!

"Yes, It's very nice,
but we wanted a rectangular one"

Pool facts

- The lagoon covers eight hectares and holds 250,000m³ (66 million gallons) of water. It's over 35m deep and is longer than 20 swimming pools.
- It took five years to dig and fill.
- Maintenance costs £2m a year, including sucking in sea water, filtering it and warming it to 26C.
- It has a roofed beach with heated sand for bad weather days.
- Amazingly, it uses ten times less water than a professional golf course and costs a quarter as much to maintain.

➔ LOOKING AT these pics, we do wonder why Nuts doesn't do cat news more regularly. First, we've got a weighty slugfest between a Brit and Yank over who's the world's fattest.

In the red corner is UK fat cat "Sponge Bob", a nine-year-old tom with a 27in waist, weighing in at 2st 5lb. And in the blue, "Garfield" – a 2st 12lb monster from Long Island, New York.

OK, so the American wins, but we like to think the real victors here are the ladies, who are just having the best time ever, holding the moggies up!

"Careful. I've

Cat news 2!

Is it a cat? Is it a plane? No, it's a Catcopter!

➔ CATS ARE essentially lazy, indolent beasts, so what moggy wouldn't want to become a dive-bombing, catty quadricopter – like this, the "Orvillecopter". Sadly, Orville was run over by a car, but the plucky puss can rise again – and hover, spin and land – thanks to his propellers. It's what he would have wanted.

My mates say I'm under the thumb. I love my girlfriend but I realise she does tell me what to wear, what way to get my hair cut, where I can go and what time I have to be home. I thought this was all part of a normal relationship. Do I sound like a total wimp to you?

HUGO Leeds

No, you're correct. This is just part of a normal relationship. You'll find you give her orders too. Do you like your hair the way she likes it and the clothes she wants you to wear? If so, you've nothing to worry about.

She's wild!

My other half wants sex all the time no matter where we are. At a family dinner recently, she spent all night trying to get her

LETTER OF THE WEEK!

I can't go down on her!

My lady won't let me go down on her and she never has. I thought all girls liked that. Should I be offended?

ROBBIE Birmingham

Have you heard the phrase, "Give me five minutes"? Some girls like some "bathroom time" before intercourse so they feel cleaner. Some have a very sensitive clitoris and find cunnilingus too intense. Ask her. If she's too sensitive, lick and press down harder instead of being delicate. Never be offended, everyone is different. Communication is the key to good sex. If it's the cleaning issue, try going down on her in the shower, but be careful – it's slippery!

hands down my pants. How do I tell her to calm down a bit?

LEEROY via email

It's hard to keep up with a woman's hungry libido but you must learn to take control. If you don't wish to be disrupted under the table during a family meal, you have to order respect from her. Before dinner, tell her what she must not do. Explain in detail how she must not reach for your c*ck, pull at your belt buckle or unzip your trousers. Reward her with sex at a later stage for obeying you.

His missus is awful!

I'm worried about my friend's new girl. Every time he turns his back she makes fun of him and says quite nasty stuff about him to her friends. I think she's only with him because he's got a few quid. What should I do?

DAVE London

Yes, it's possible this new girl is rinsing him, but take into account how she might make him feel. If he doesn't have time to meet girls or is too shy, she may be giving him confidence. Perhaps introduce your friend to new women and see what happens that way.

It's Danielle!

Say hello to our latest discovery!

DANIELLE SHARP

“Yorkshire girls have the best boobs!”

Hi Danielle! How are you enjoying your summer?
Hello! It's been amazing, thanks, and I'm excited to be back in Nuts so soon after the big boob shoot with Lucy and Stacey. That was fun!

How are you finding your first solo shoot?

It's really good fun. I think the styling has been pretty edgy. I'm rocking the whole "messy hair" look today which is good – that's how I normally look!

Have you made friends with any of the other Nuts babes?

It was nice that Stacey Poole was on a shoot with me because she's from just down the road from me. Yorkshire girls have the best boobs!

What's really made you laugh recently?

Ha-ha! I'm a big fan of Ricky Gervais. He makes these really awful faces and posts pictures of himself on Twitter.

Are you watching any of the new Big Brother?

I like the celebrity ones. I reckon I'd give it a shot if I was asked to go on. I think it needs a few Nuts girls to spice it up!

What advice can you give our readers on talking to girls?

Just be yourself. A good sense of humour is so important. I know girls say it a lot, but it's definitely possible for a bloke to laugh a girl into bed.

What sort of man do you go for?

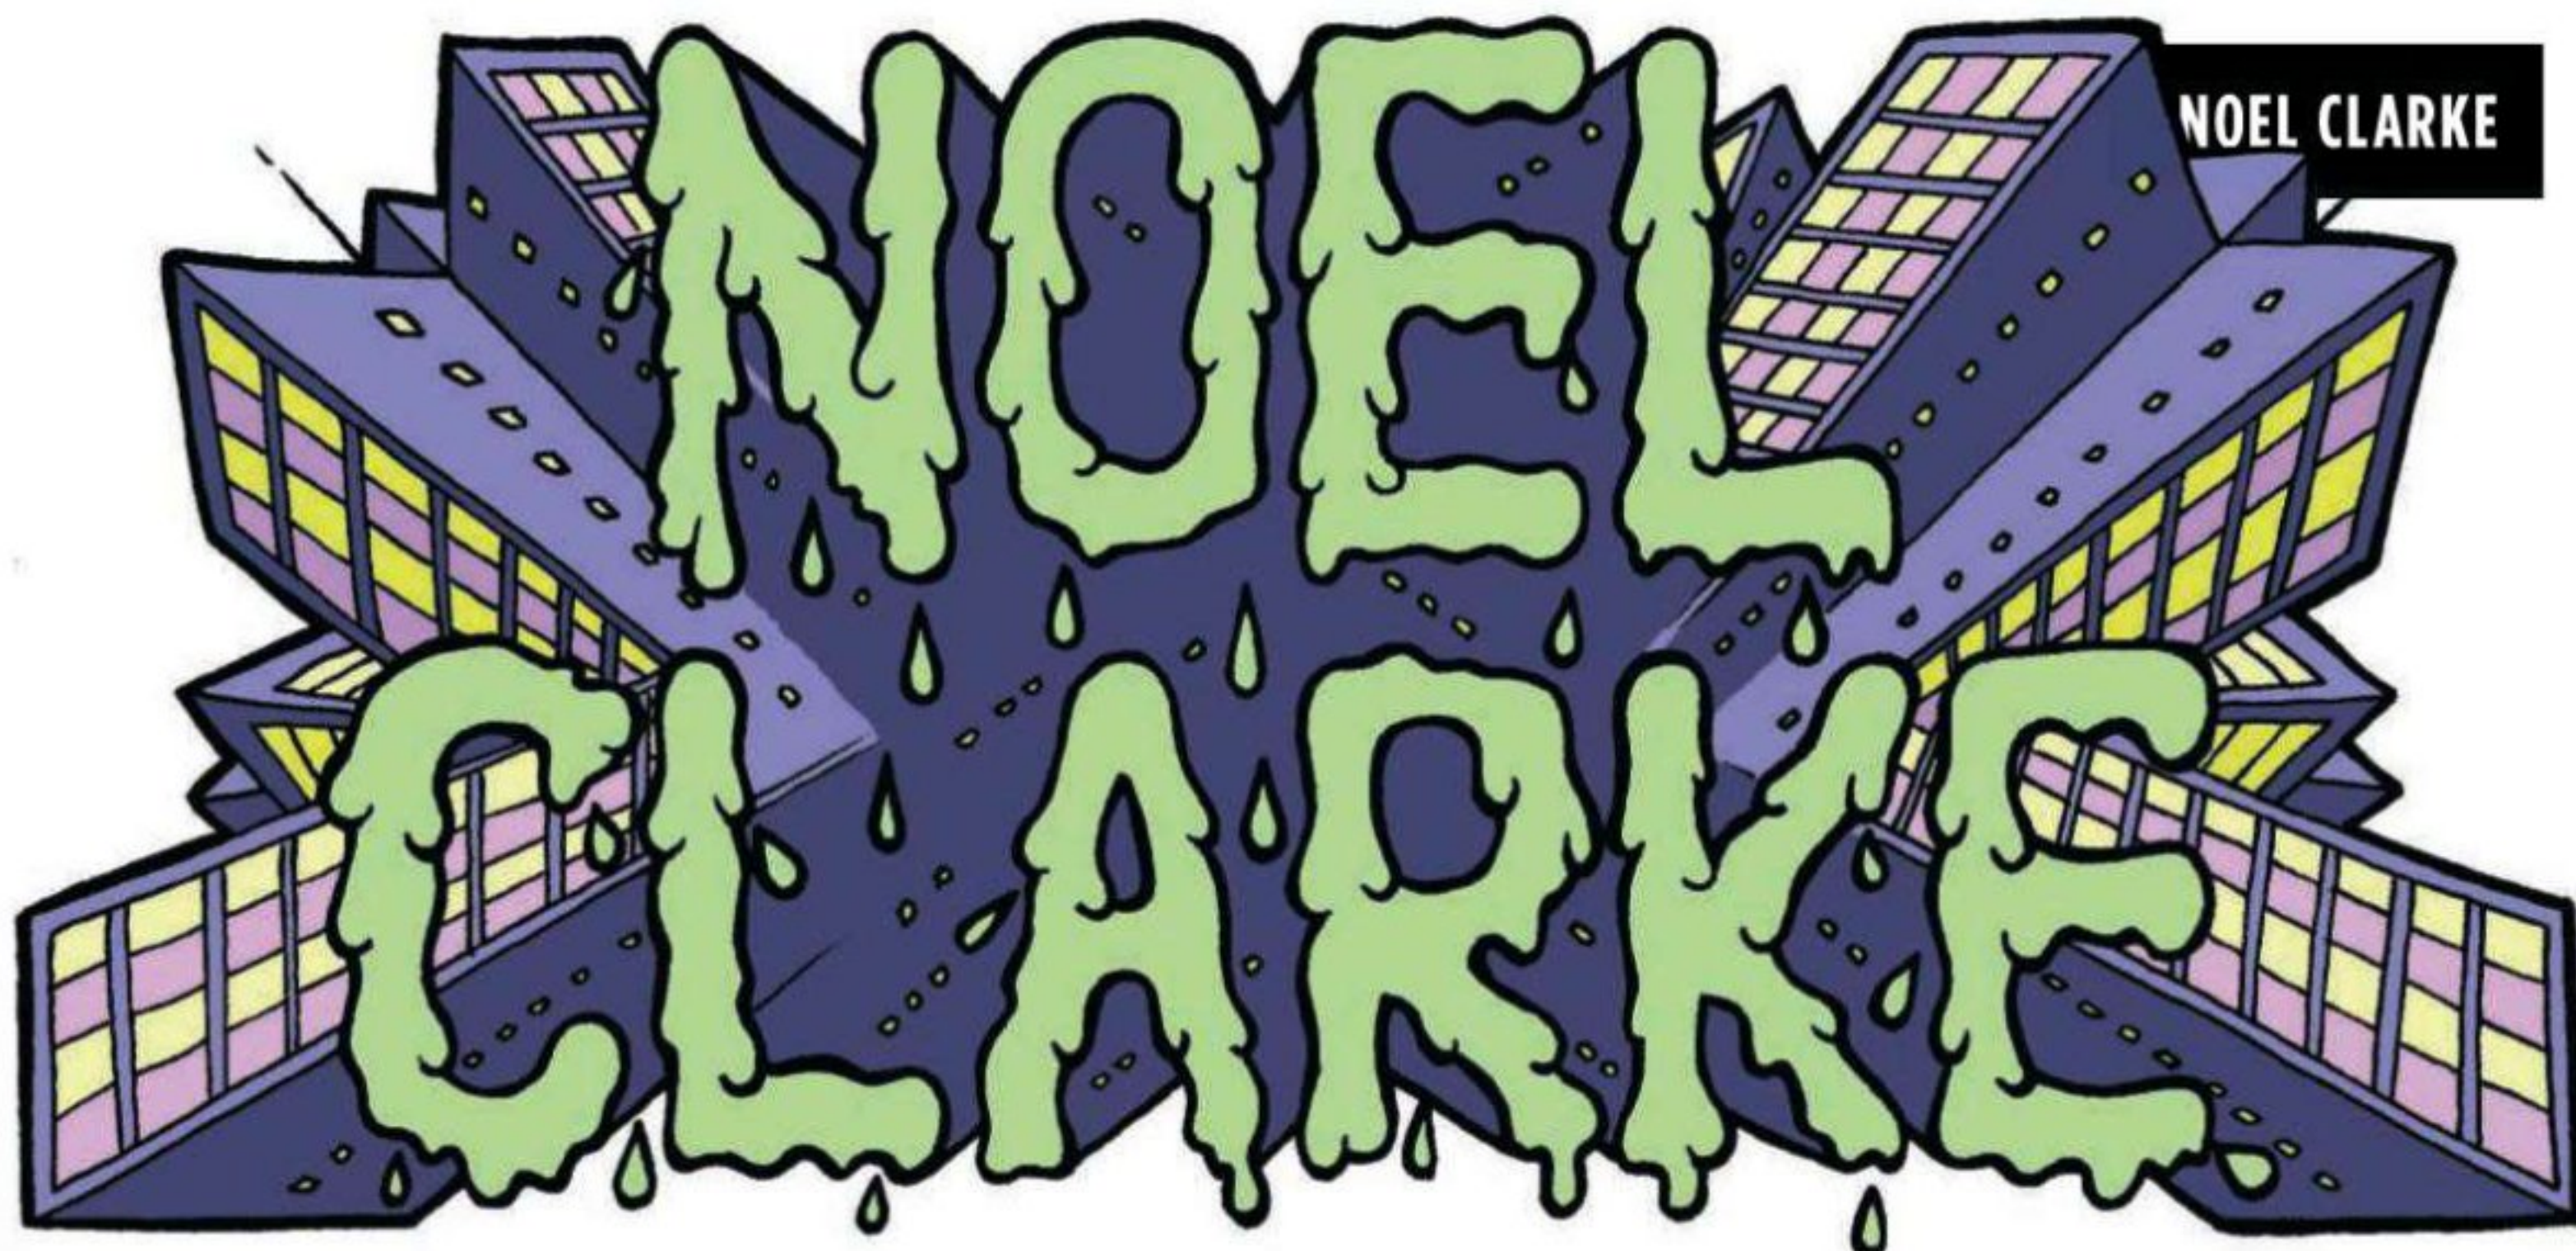

I like the tall, dark, handsome type. But I think there's a lot to be said for someone who's a real gentleman, holding doors open for you and stuff. I'm pretty old-fashioned like that.

Thanks, Danielle! Finally, has anyone ever told you that you look remarkably like Liz Hurley?

I get that all the time. I guess that's a very nice thing to say, so I'm happy with that. Maybe I can be a professional lookalike later on in life! X

The top Brit actor bloke on aliens, the Star Trek sequel and Doctor Who groupies...

Hi Noel! You've got two films out this month, Fast Girls and Storage 24. Tell us about Storage 24. The corridors in self-storage centres are kind of freaky. I love Alien, so I came up with the idea of a group of people trapped in one of these places when a government cargo plane crash lands, releasing a dangerous extra-terrestrial beast. I wanted to do for these places what Jaws did for the beach!

Sounds creepy. Were you scared during filming?

I was scared it'd be the end of my career! I wanted a 10ft humanoid, so on set it was a guy on stilts in a rubber suit. I'm thinking, "Why did I write this fking film?" But the creature guys who worked on Attack The Block make it look amazing.

Speaking of sci-fi movies, you're also in Star Trek 2 – what can you tell us about your role?

Nothing! I'm in it – that's all I'm allowed to say. It was an honour working with JJ Abrams – he's the Spielberg of our times. That guy's a genius. He must be an alien, because he's so smart. He makes you want to quit because he's at the pinnacle and if you can't get there, what are you doing it for?

So tell us about Fast Girls.

It's a feel-good film I wrote following a British women's relay team going to the World Championships, so it's going to put you in the mood for the Olympics. It's not often you'll see a film with four black women in the lead roles, so I'm proud of that.

You used to be in Doctor Who. Did you have groupies?

There were a few, but I was with my missus. If a girl said, "I want to show you my boobs!" I'd be like, "Go on then!" If she wants to pull 'em out, I don't care. But I'm not touching any!

What's the worst job that you've ever had?

I've never seen any job as crappy. If you've taken a job, do it the best you can. I'd shovel sh*t for my family. My first job was as a water slide attendant. I took that sh*t seriously. Then I was a lifeguard, and became a gym instructor and trainer.

We heard you were learning mixed martial arts...

I'm a massive MMA fan and I've written a film I'm going to star in with (Brit UFC star)

Mike Bisping. But then Warrior came out and didn't do brilliantly. So I'm rewriting and working on the budget so we can start shooting next year.

You're a Liverpool fan. How does a London boy end up supporting the Reds?

My mum was a Liverpool fan because of John Barnes. It pains me watching one of the best players this country has produced in Steven Gerrard not winning the title his talent deserves.

What helps you dream up your stories?

I've got a crazy imagination. I was recently on a boat to Alcatraz in San Francisco and I'm wondering who might try to hijack the boat!

Sounds like you've been playing a few too many video games...

Yeah, I'm a big gamer. I'm still enjoying Call Of Duty, Red Dead Redemption and really like the deeper cinematic games like Batman: Arkham City and Heavy Rain. Right now, my sport games are Fifa, UFC and I went to some LA Dodgers games, so I'm into Major League baseball on the Xbox.

Do you play online?

Can't be doing with that, man! I'll get some ten-year-old in Alaska whipping me 12-0 at Fifa. And I'm like, "I'm gonna buy a fking plane ticket and come over there and smash your little head in!"

Nice! So, who's the most famous person in your phone?

I met Benedict Cumberbatch working on Trek, he's pretty big now, and (ex-porn-star turned actress) Sasha Grey.

You're pretty famous, but when was the last time you used a "money off" voucher?

There's a supermarket chain in LA called Ralphs that's a bit like Tesco. I got myself a Ralphs points card because the savings are amazing. See – I've not gone all Hollywood yet!

Capt David Blakeley's job is to go deep behind enemy lines to recce targets

'I fought thousands of Iraqi troops...
in one night!'

Pathfinder Captain David
Blakeley talks to Nuts about the secretive elite unit of the British Army he served with

Hello David. The 16 Air Assault Brigade Pathfinder Platoon is shrouded in mystery. What can you tell us about it?

The motto of the unit is "First in" because often we go into hostile environments before anyone else. Our origins go back to the Second World War, when military commanders realised you need to have someone on the ground to recon enemy targets before you send in thousands of soldiers. In the '80s, some SAS guys decided they needed a special reconnaissance unit to go in before them, like during the Second World War. Some SAS guys and the best guys in the Parachute Regiment basically got together, pulled the top people in and formed the selection process.

What's it like parachuting into enemy territory from high altitude?

It's fking awesome! We use the Halo technique. You stand at the back of an aircraft, a ramp comes down, there's a big screeching noise and then it's like an amphitheatre and you can see out into the desert. You have your oxygen mask on and your rifle strapped to your side, along with your pistol.

Tell us about the mission you were on that went wrong in 2003.

In the first few days of the Iraq War, the US Marines were pushing through into Baghdad, as were the British. The mission was to send me and my team of eight Pathfinders to recon Qalat Sikar Airfield and mark a dropzone for the paras. I wanted to do the Halo drop in but senior military didn't want us parachuting, so we had to drive in through the Nazaria area. I guess the advantages were speed and firepower.

Pathfinders drop in behind enemy lines using the Halo technique

Were you expecting trouble?

The intelligence was that there shouldn't be any enemy forces in the area, but it was wrong. There were Iraqi forces there in their thousands, and only nine of us. There were Republican Guard, the Fedayeen – the fanatical paramilitary-type fighters – and they had secret police there, too.

How did you avoid detection?

We looked a bit like Iraqi forces because we don't wear uniform and we drive similar vehicles. We were just trying to look inconspicuous, but a secret police guy spotted us. He called in for fire on his radio. Mortars started coming in, which were getting closer and closer to our convoy. We hid in the undergrowth and waited with our machine guns. We couldn't go west because the undergrowth was too thick for the vehicles. We couldn't go north because we'd spotted about 200

Fedayeen fighters who were looking for us. We couldn't go south because there were thousands of enemy fighters. The only other way out was blocked by a canal. We're totally fked. We looked to abandon the vehicles and carry on to the airfield on foot. But we decided that if we were to continue on foot, we'd get captured. And if you get captured, you get tortured and executed. So we decided to keep the vehicles and fight our way back to the front line. It was an insane plan, but we hoped the Iraqis weren't expecting it.

What about air support?

I radioed to higher command. Straight away, I'm told there's no air support available. I was fking gutted.

Weren't you worried about ambushes?

Well, after about three miles driving, we spotted an abandoned taxi and all of a sudden, its hazard lights came on. We knew this meant the first ambush was coming – it's a signal. Next thing, a barrage of enemy fire opens up. It's at night so all you can see are bullets with tracers flying everywhere, and you can feel the vehicle getting hit. We had to carry on, all guns blazing. One bullet came right through the car and ripped through my trousers! Jason in the lead vehicle was throwing smoke bombs to mask us. So we got through the first ambush, only to then drive through a further three. We got ambushed by three minibuses full of Fedayeen soldiers, which we just had to open fire on and move past. There were bodies hanging out of them everywhere. At one point, a rocket-propelled grenade went right over the vehicle in front. And then one skimmed over our bonnet! A few centimetres difference and our Land Rovers would have been blown up.

Pathfinders in full desert gear in Iraq

Miraculously, your unit all made it back alive. What did your mission achieve?

When we got back to the front line, we knew where all these Iraqi positions were. We passed this incredible intelligence to the Americans, who were able to launch a massive air strike. I believe that because of our mission, we saved many American lives and helped change the course of the war.

T HERE'S A saying we've heard that goes: "You don't know what you've got till it's gone."

Well, with Miss Hayes here, that's certainly the case. She's been away for a little while, but now the former Big Brother babe is back and bustier than ever. To prove it, she's abandoned her clothes once more to show you just what you've been missing. We can only pray you're sitting down with a stiff drink. Welcome home, Chanelle!

Hi Chanelle! How did the shoot go today?

Hello! It went really well, thanks. It's great to be back. We've been very naked today. Well, I say "we" – there's only me! The photographer and everyone else have kept their kit on. But, yes lots of nakedness. It's my first proper cover shoot for Nuts and it's naked as well, so you get a double whammy!

What else have you been up to recently?

I've just been keeping busy. I did a half-marathon in the summer and I'm training to do the Great North Run again, so that'll be fun. I'm really good at them – last time, I was eating pizzas and stuff the day before!

Amazing! What was the last really great night out you had?

I went out a few weeks ago with my friend Natalie, and it was supposed to be a quiet one, but it ended up in a bit of a bender. We stayed out till, like, 6am or something. I'm quite a lightweight and you'd probably drink me under the table!

Is it true that you run a cake shop in your spare time?

I do. I enjoy cake, I'm not going to lie. I just started making cakes, and thought "Ah, I'm quite good at this," so I got all my qualifications in it and took it from there. My favourite would have to be coffee and walnut cake. ►

“I’ve got a girl crush on Eva Longoria – she’s gorgeous! I want an older woman!”

What's your signature cake?

My favourite cake to make is Baileys cake – it's pretty incredible. I'm partial to a nice slice of lemon drizzle, too.

Do you think it's important for a woman that a bloke knows his way around the kitchen?

Well, I'm quite a home-maker, so I reckon girls should cook and boys should eat, basically. Last time a bloke cooked for me, he tried to cook me jerk chicken. He put the whole thing of jerk seasoning on and my mouth was on fire for, like, seven weeks! It was far too horrible to ever let a man cook for me again.

So what do you tend to look for in a chap?

They've got to be tall, dark and handsome, and then they've got to be cheeky, funny, and just really fit. But it doesn't take a lot of effort to impress me, to be honest.

How can we woo a lady?

Play it cool, be nice and cheeky, and just be yourself, but none of your cheesy chat-up lines or anything like that – it just makes me embarrassed. It's probably safer just to avoid them.

What really makes you laugh?

Sarcastic people are hilarious. I really like a dry sense of humour. I like South Park, Family Guy, American Dad, and I love The Cleveland Show.

What else do you like to watch on the telly?

Most of the shows I watch are a bit morbid – I'm quite a CSI girl. I also love Cougar Town, though – that's one of my favourites at the moment. Courtney Cox is an absolute milf in it. I totally would. No way would I kick Monica from Friends out of bed!

Is she your girl crush?

Hmm, I've also got a bit of a girl crush on Eva Longoria from Desperate Housewives – she's just gorgeous. I just want an older woman. Ha-ha! ►

“I’m actually quite clever. I speak Spanish and I can play the violin!”

If you could swap lives with one person for a day, who would you choose to be?

That's a really tough one. Maybe Beyoncé just because she's such a good singer, and also really fit, so it's a win-win situation. Although maybe Cheryl Cole, because she's an absolutely gorgeous sexy beast. She's well fit and she's also got the potential to get with Simon Cowell, which is like an epic "must" on the list of things to do before you die!

Not for us it isn't! What's the biggest misconception people have about you?

People think I'm really stupid, but I'm actually really quite clever. I speak Spanish and I can play the violin!

So you can serenade us! Girls tell us a good sense of humour is important – can we really laugh you into bed?

Ha-ha! I'm not sure it works exactly like that, but you can give it a try. You won't automatically pull just for cracking a joke, but I just think that blokes who take themselves too seriously are a real turn-off for a girl. I'm sure there's probably some science somewhere that says that laughing is linked to sex. Go investigate, Nuts!

Can you teach us to say, "I love Nuts" in Spanish?

Ha-ha! OK, now you've put me on the spot. I should admit I'm not totally fluent. But I think I can help. Next time you go on holiday, say, "Me encanta Nueces!" Just be careful where you say it, though, or it might come across wrong.

Thanks, Chanelle! Finally, if you like Newcastle people so much, do you reckon you'd survive a Geordie Shore night out?

Ha! Oh man, that would be a seriously intense night out, wouldn't it? I already told you that I'm a lightweight so I'm pretty sure it would ruin me. Never say never, though. I do love a good old northern night out!

BBC THREE • 10pm

In Family Guy world, it's Thanksgiving and there's a surprise visitor at the Griffin feast. As Lois prepares a meal for their family and friends, wheelchair-bound Joe is shocked when his supposedly dead war-veteran son shows up with an incredibly tall tale about how he wasn't actually killed by, er, a bomb-stuffed turkey.

Alpha Dog

BBC ONE/HD • 11.45pm

We always thought that Justin Timberlake playing a drug dealer in a gritty crime drama would be as convincing as someone from Geordie Shore cropping up on Downton Abbey! However, this flick is surprisingly good – partly due to it being based on real-life events, but also for it being laced with decent drama and black humour.

Punk'd

MTV • 9pm

The classic MTV show is back, with even more celebrities playing pranks on other unwitting famous folk. Tonight's trickster is Jackass veteran Bam Margera. He punks rapper Tyler The Creator in truly spectacular fashion – which involves a raging fireball! He also punks two other unfamiliar blokes, but it's still funny.

England vs Ukraine

ITV1/HD • 7pm

France will have been ruddy tricky, likewise Sweden, but this one should be easy. Ageing Andriy Shevchenko aside, there's little real quality in the Ukraine team, and they were easily beaten by Turkey in their last friendly – the Turks didn't even make the finals.

CONFESSION OF THE WEEK!

'My tutor watched us at it'

I WAS at my college ball in Oxford recently, dressed up in a full-length gown, with my huge boobs constantly trying to escape. On the way back to my room, I bumped into a male friend, who admired my dress and leaned in for a cheeky kiss. Before I knew it, we were doing it against an ancient oak tree. I'd never fancied this guy, but oh my god, did he know how to screw! As I was squealing with delight, I caught a glimpse of my tutor watching us. That made me even hornier, though god knows how I'll feel in class on Monday!

'Saucy day at the spa'

MY FIANCÉ and I went to a spa day at a really posh hotel. We'd been in the hot tub and got a bit cheeky, but there were cameras around the pool and a few people walking about, so we went looking for somewhere more private. The steam room was at the end of a corridor and you could just see when people were coming, so we decided to risk it. We knew we wouldn't have long, so I gave him a quick blow job to get him rock hard, then bent over, pulled my bikini bottoms down and demanded him to be inside me. It was over in a matter of minutes, due to the risk of being caught getting us so turned on. Good job – we'd barely finished when another couple walked in with the same cheeky look on their faces!

Sarah Leeds

'My naughty tour of duty'

I'M ON tour in Afghanistan and as it gets dark, we have to "double up", which means two soldiers on the tower at once. I'd been feeling horny for days and it so happened that the lad who joined me for my final hour was a good looking chap from Manchester. We began chatting about places we'd had sex and all I could think about was getting on my knees to suck him off. I steered the conversation onto dares and how far would one go to get laid, we both knew where this was heading. I pretended to look for my torch and got down on my knees, rubbing my hands up his legs, grabbing his tight bum. I could soon see his massive erection and quickly found out he was going commando. I took him straight in my mouth and it wasn't long before he exploded. Then I stood up and continued my duty. I have four months left of this tour and I've decided to see what else I can get up to!

Heather Wigan

'He gave me a proper lift'

I GOT stuck on the tube during the hot weather and thought my boyfriend was picking me up from the station. I was surprised to see his mate instead, who said my man was busy. I was angry and the car was really hot, but laying eyes on his big chest made me horny. I pulled my tight vest top down a little, tied up my hair, took an ice cube out of my drink and rubbed it on my neck, letting it dribble down my cleavage. He got the hint and pulled over, then started hungrily kissing my neck and boobs. He pulled my thong to one side and pushed his fingers inside me. Afterwards, he dropped me home and my grumpy boyfriend couldn't believe how happy I was considering I'd been stuck underground for ages!

10 RUDE QUESTIONS!

And a real girl to answer them!

Jodie

22 Kent

1 Where's the strangest place you've had sex?

"On a roof! We were stargazing at my friend's house. One thing led to another and we were butt-naked doing it!"

2 What's your trademark move in the bedroom?

"Morning shower sex before breakfast is the best – all future boyfriends will get that treat before work!"

3 What turns you on?

"I like being teased by a guy's mouth – it gets me going every time."

4 What's your favourite position?

"The reverse cowgirl – it's so much deeper than the normal cowgirl position."

5 Is it better to give or receive?

"I'm a receiver. I love it!"

6 What would you like to try but haven't yet?

"Sex in front of the mirror – I read about it in Nuts, and it's a huge turn-on."

7 Have you ever got it on with a girl?

"I've kissed a few girls but nothing too naughty."

8 What's your favourite role-playing costume?

"I love dressing up like a secretary. The guy gets to play my boss and I have to be submissive and do exactly as he says. I've got some really sexy specs to go with that outfit, too!"

9 Have you ever made a sex tape?

"Yes I have. I still have a copy of the very first one I made. Watching it now makes me giggle, but it was very naughty at the time."

10 What's the rudest thing you've done?

"I gave a guy a hand job under a blanket on a flight once. He had to stop me, though, because he was worried about the mess!"

"I'd love to try sex in front of the mirror!"

EXCLUSIVE!

Becks' tips for Player of the Tournament

Goldenballs on the stars most likely to win the coveted Euro 2012 gong!

He liked to clap along to the national anthems

"Hey, where's my watch gone?"

WAYNE ROONEY

"England will have to cope without Wayne for the first two games – but what a player to come in! Hopefully his ban will prove a blessing in disguise, as he'll be fresh, fit and desperate to make an impact. On his day, there are few better in world football."

Odds to win – 50/1

"Owww! Drawing pin in my boot!"

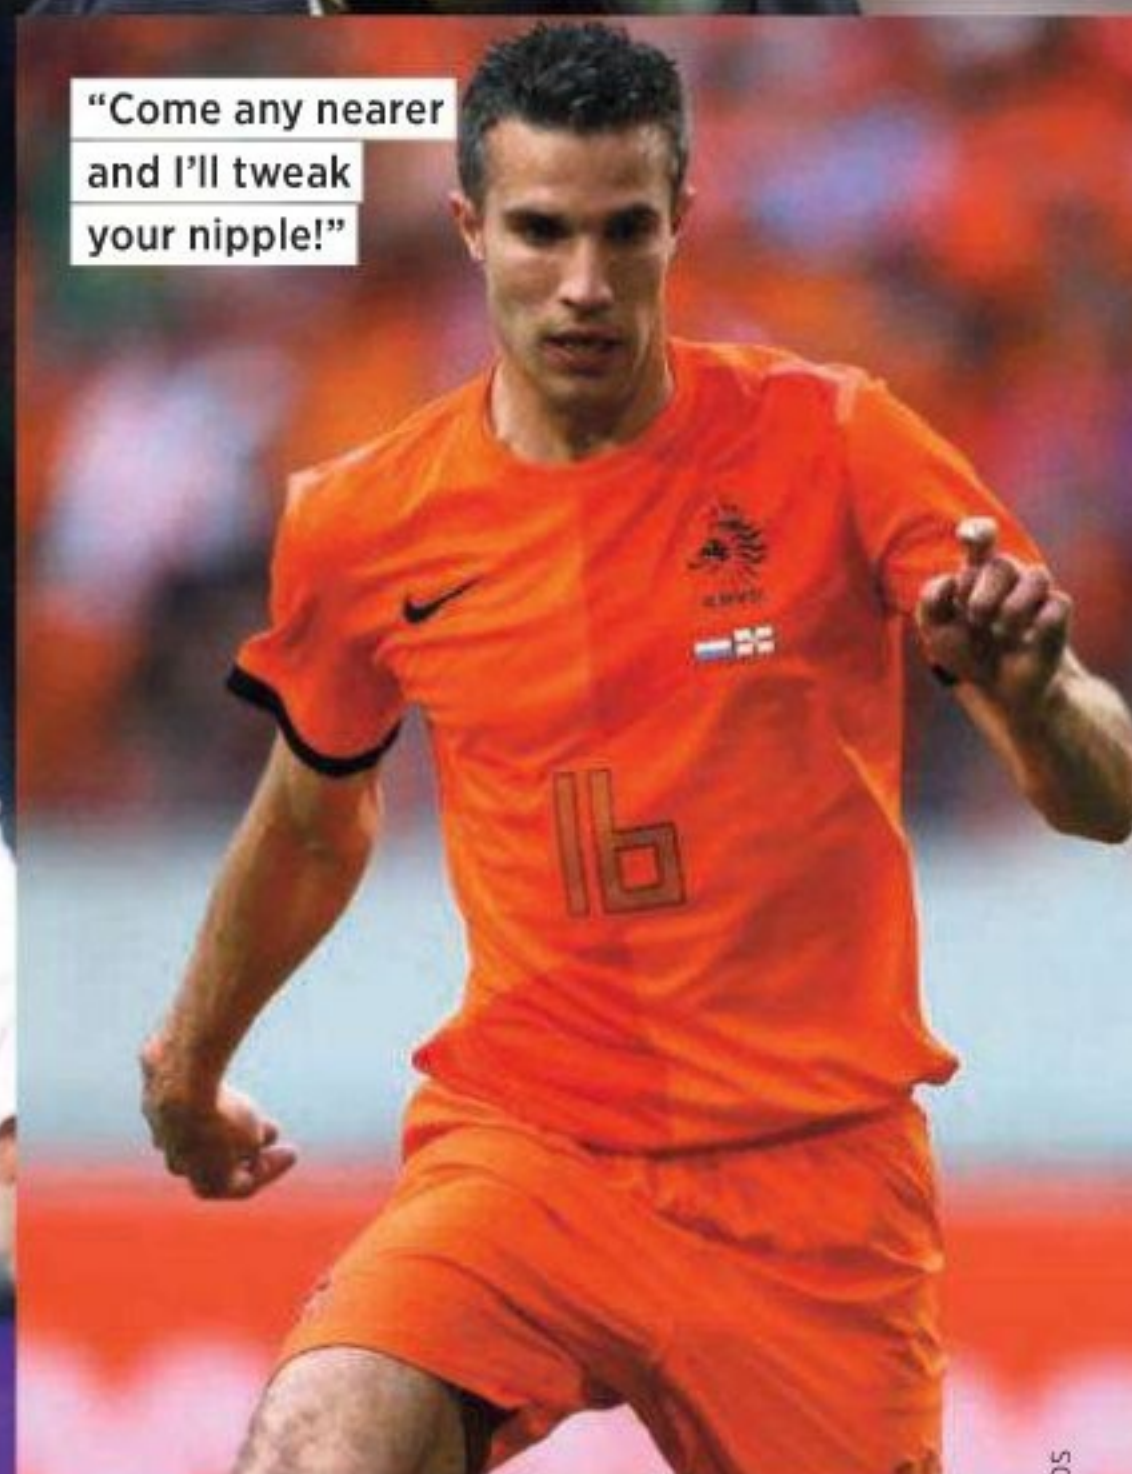

CRISTIANO RONALDO

"Ronaldo's a great of the modern game. He's got it all – he's quick, hugely skilful and scores goals – and he's the sort of personality who'll relish the attention. That's not a bad thing – it's not arrogance, just a desire to be the man of the tournament."

Odds to win – 16/1

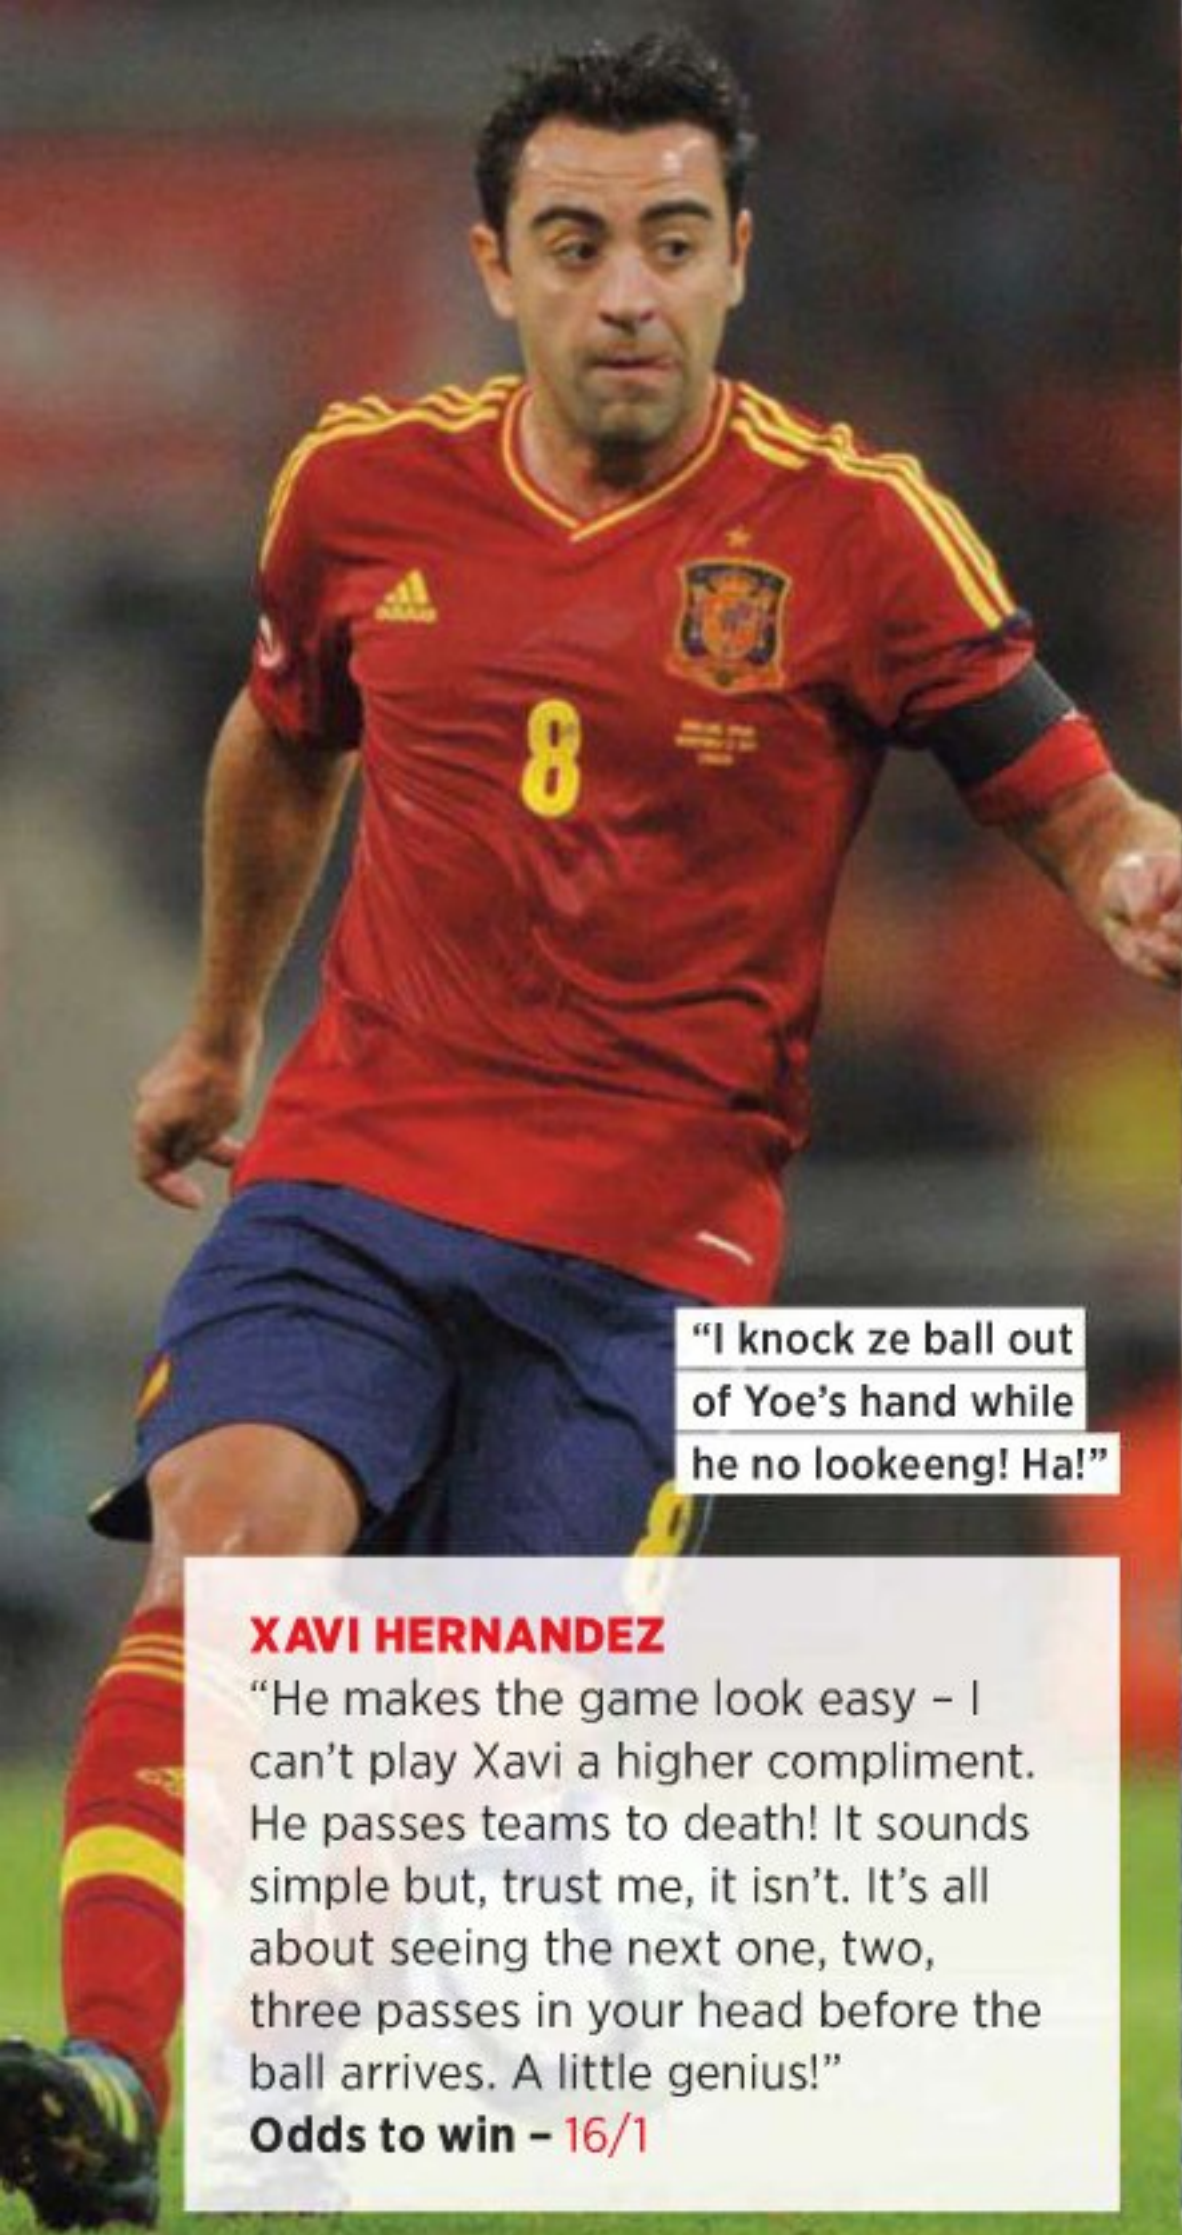

"Come any nearer and I'll tweak your nipple!"

ROBIN VAN PERSIE

"The main man at The Emirates. Last season saw the best of Van Persie in an Arsenal shirt, helped by finally staying clear of injuries. He scores all sorts of goals – headers, tap-ins and screamers from outside the box. And that left foot of his – it's a wand!"

Odds to win – 16/1

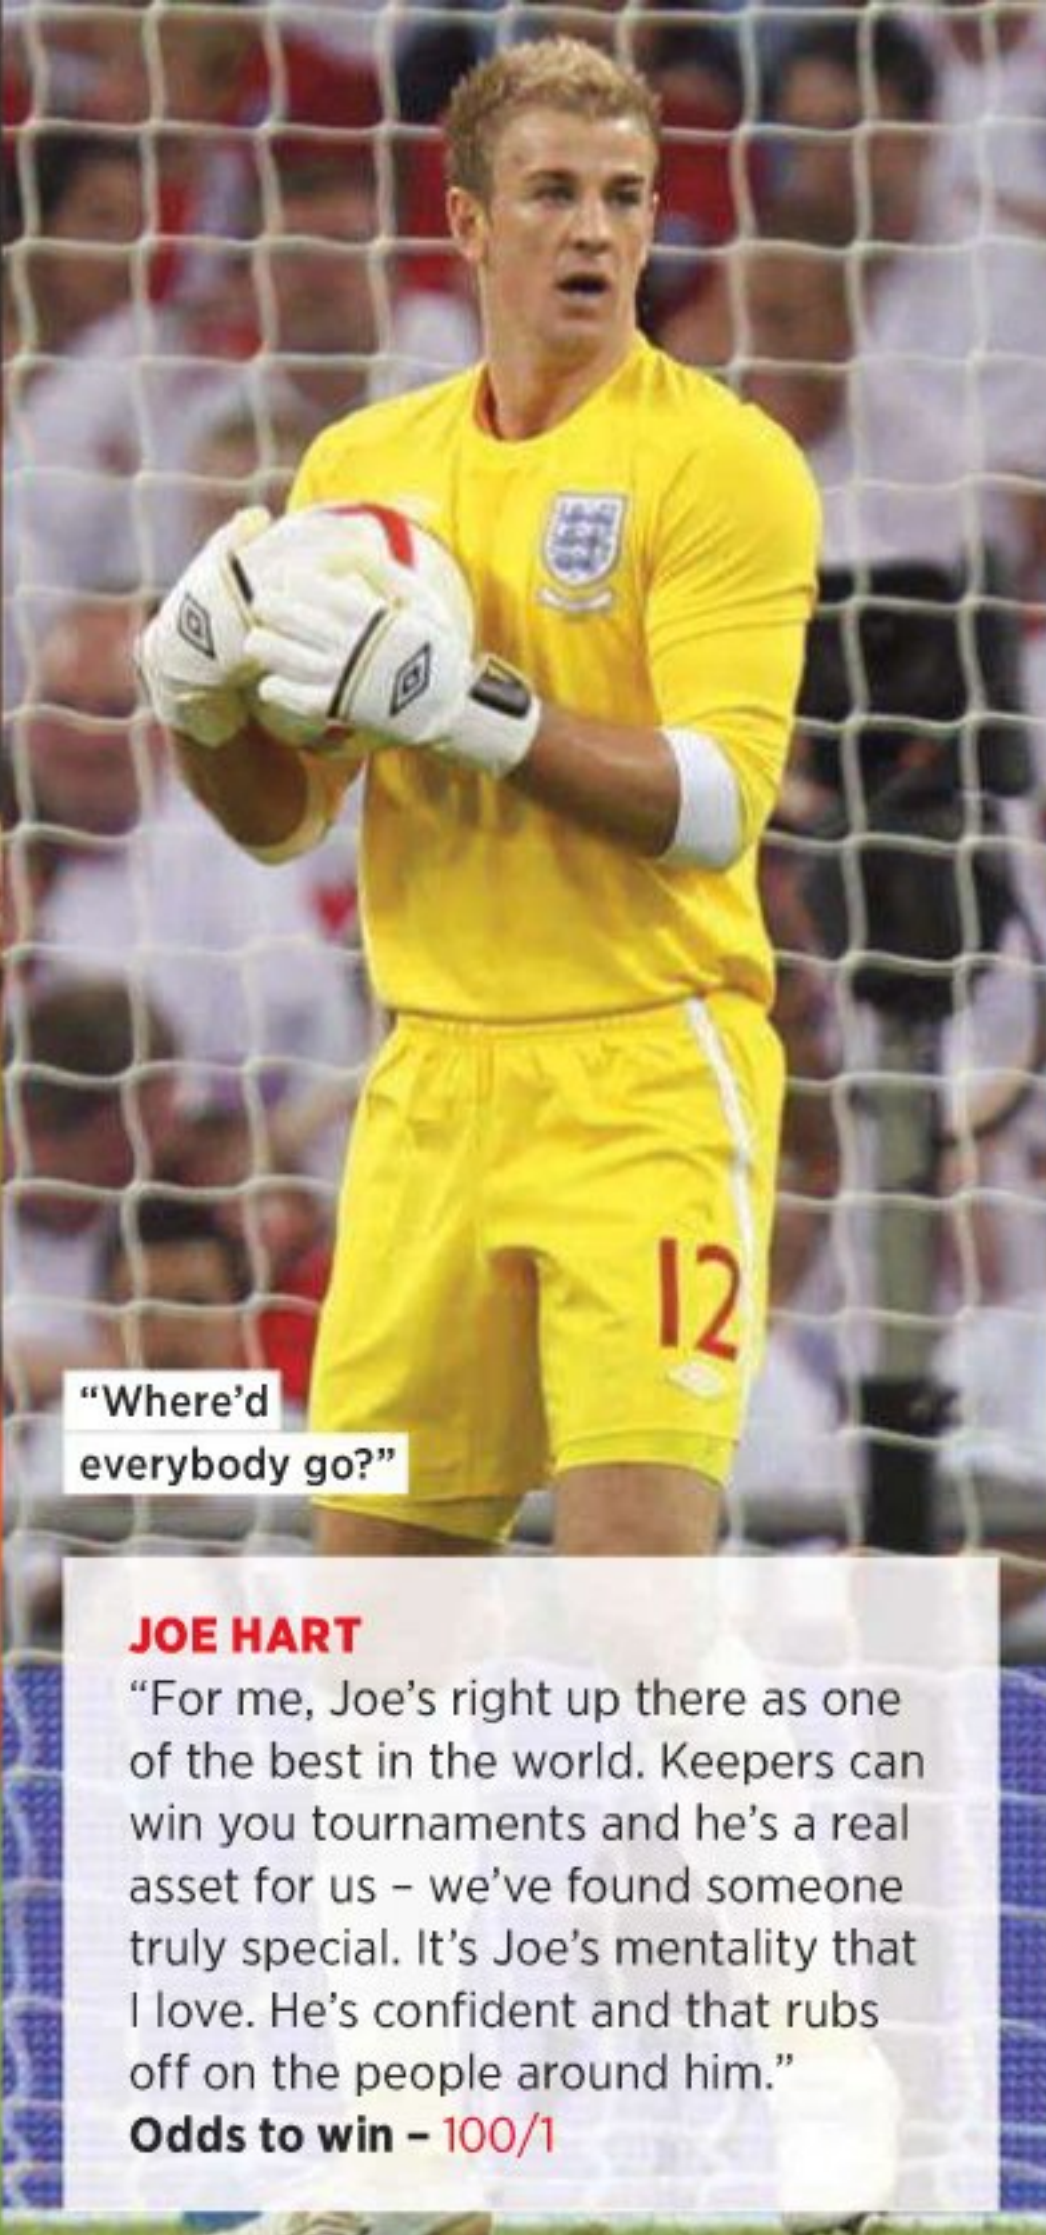

"I knock ze ball out of Yoe's hand while he no lookeeng! Ha!"

XAVI HERNANDEZ

"He makes the game look easy - I can't play Xavi a higher compliment. He passes teams to death! It sounds simple but, trust me, it isn't. It's all about seeing the next one, two, three passes in your head before the ball arrives. A little genius!"

Odds to win - 16/1

"Where'd everybody go?"

JOE HART

"For me, Joe's right up there as one of the best in the world. Keepers can win you tournaments and he's a real asset for us - we've found someone truly special. It's Joe's mentality that I love. He's confident and that rubs off on the people around him."

Odds to win - 100/1

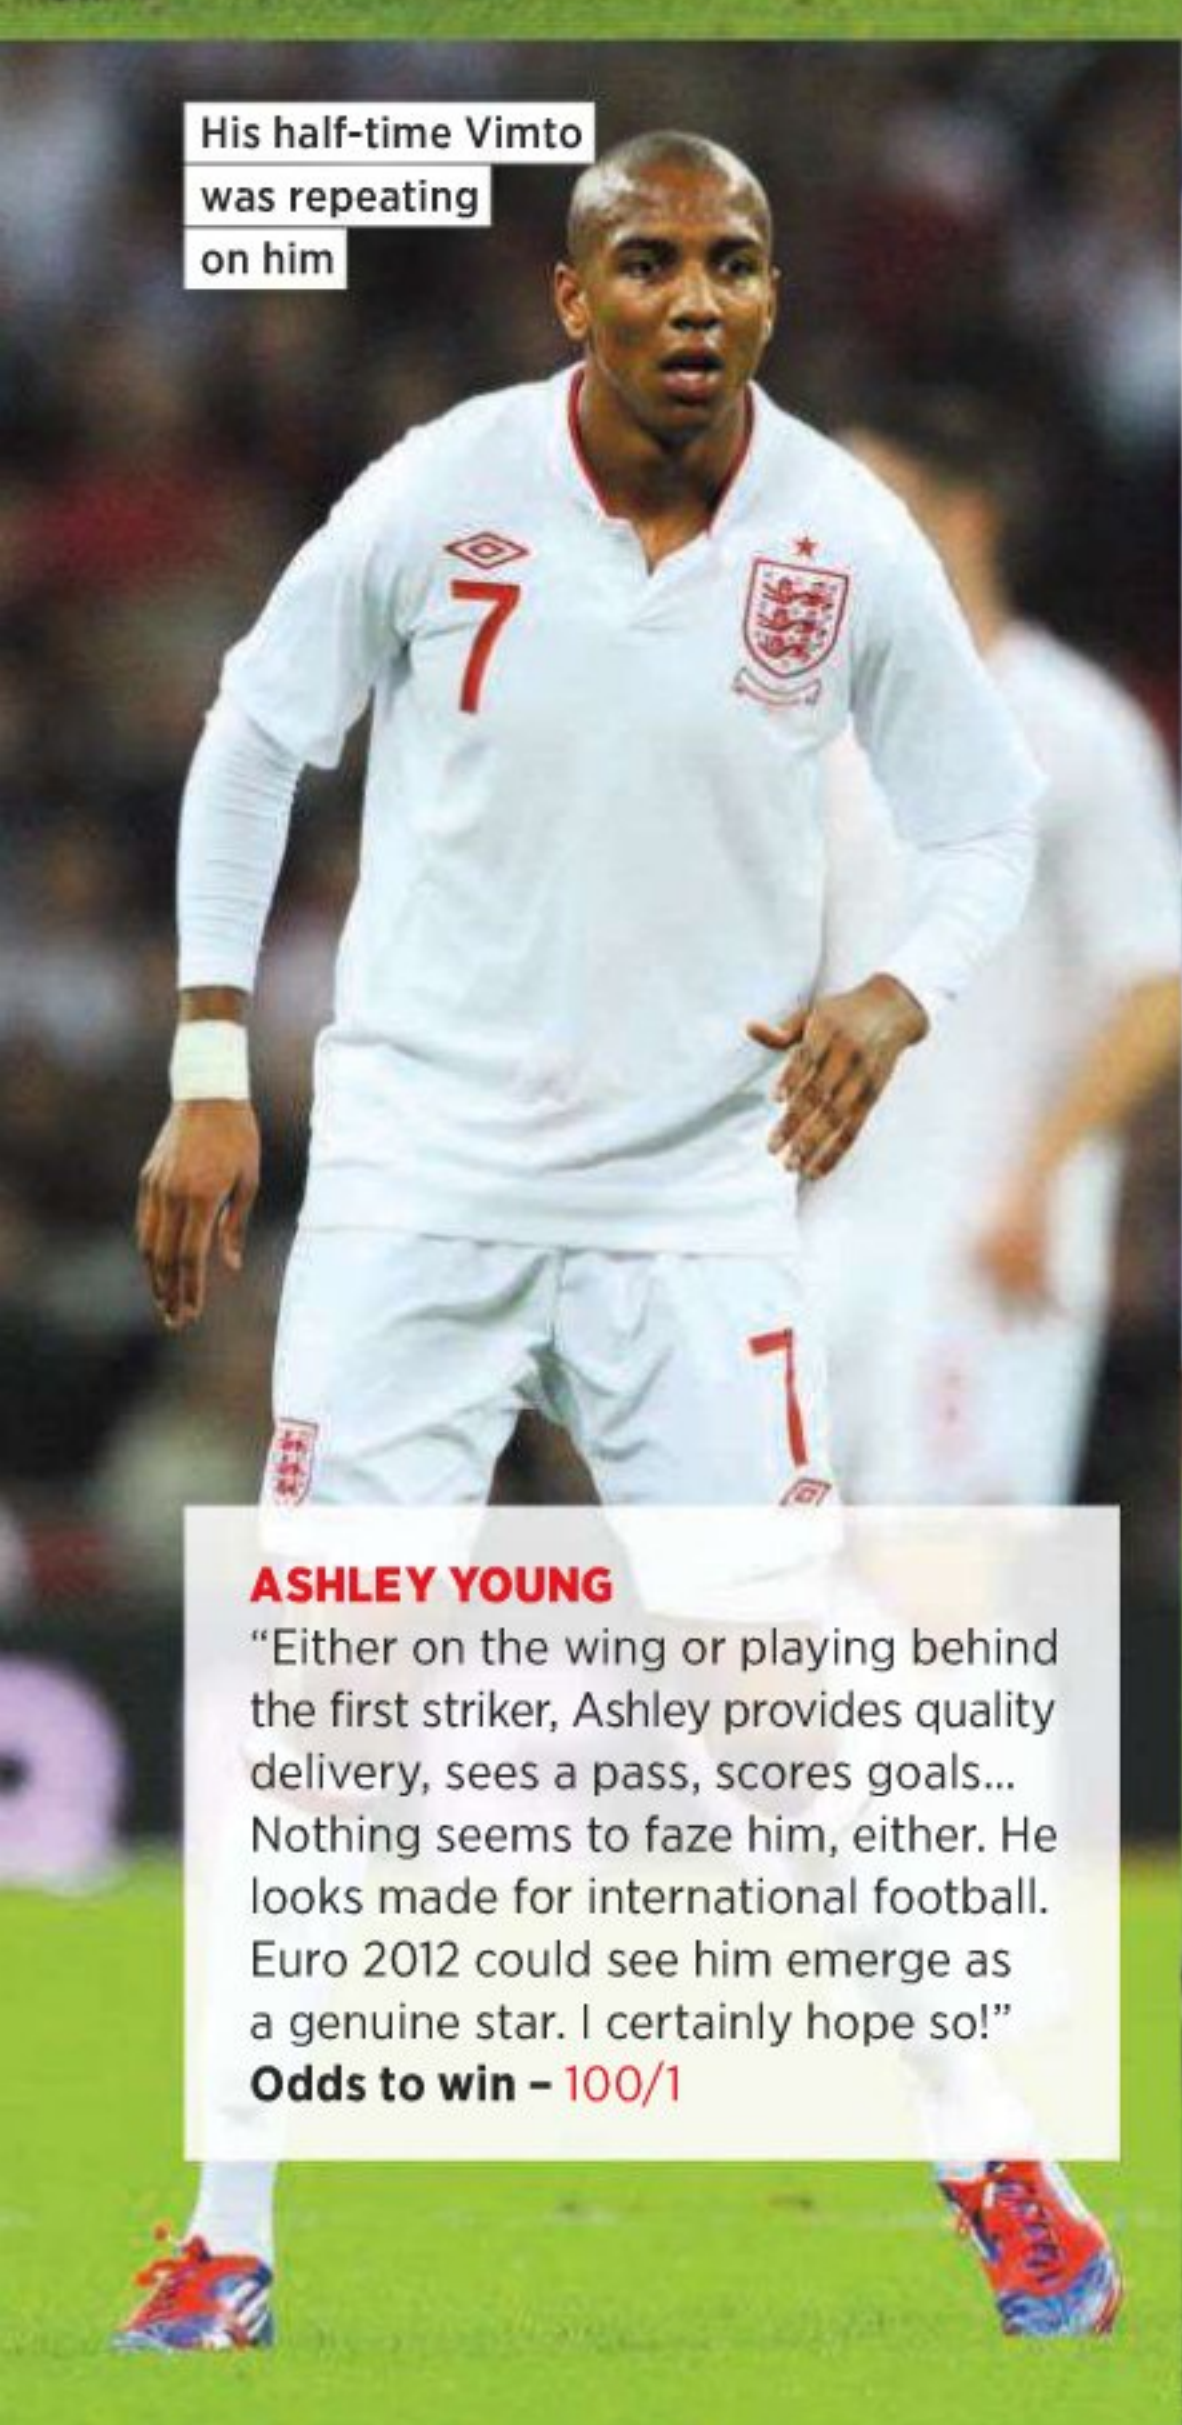

It was the most subdued goal celebration ever

MARIO GOMEZ

"Germany are many people's tip to win the Euros and Gomez is probably one of the reasons why. Brilliant in the air but decent on the deck, and genuinely two-footed. If he finishes as the tournament's top scorer I wouldn't be surprised at all."

Odds to win - 20/1

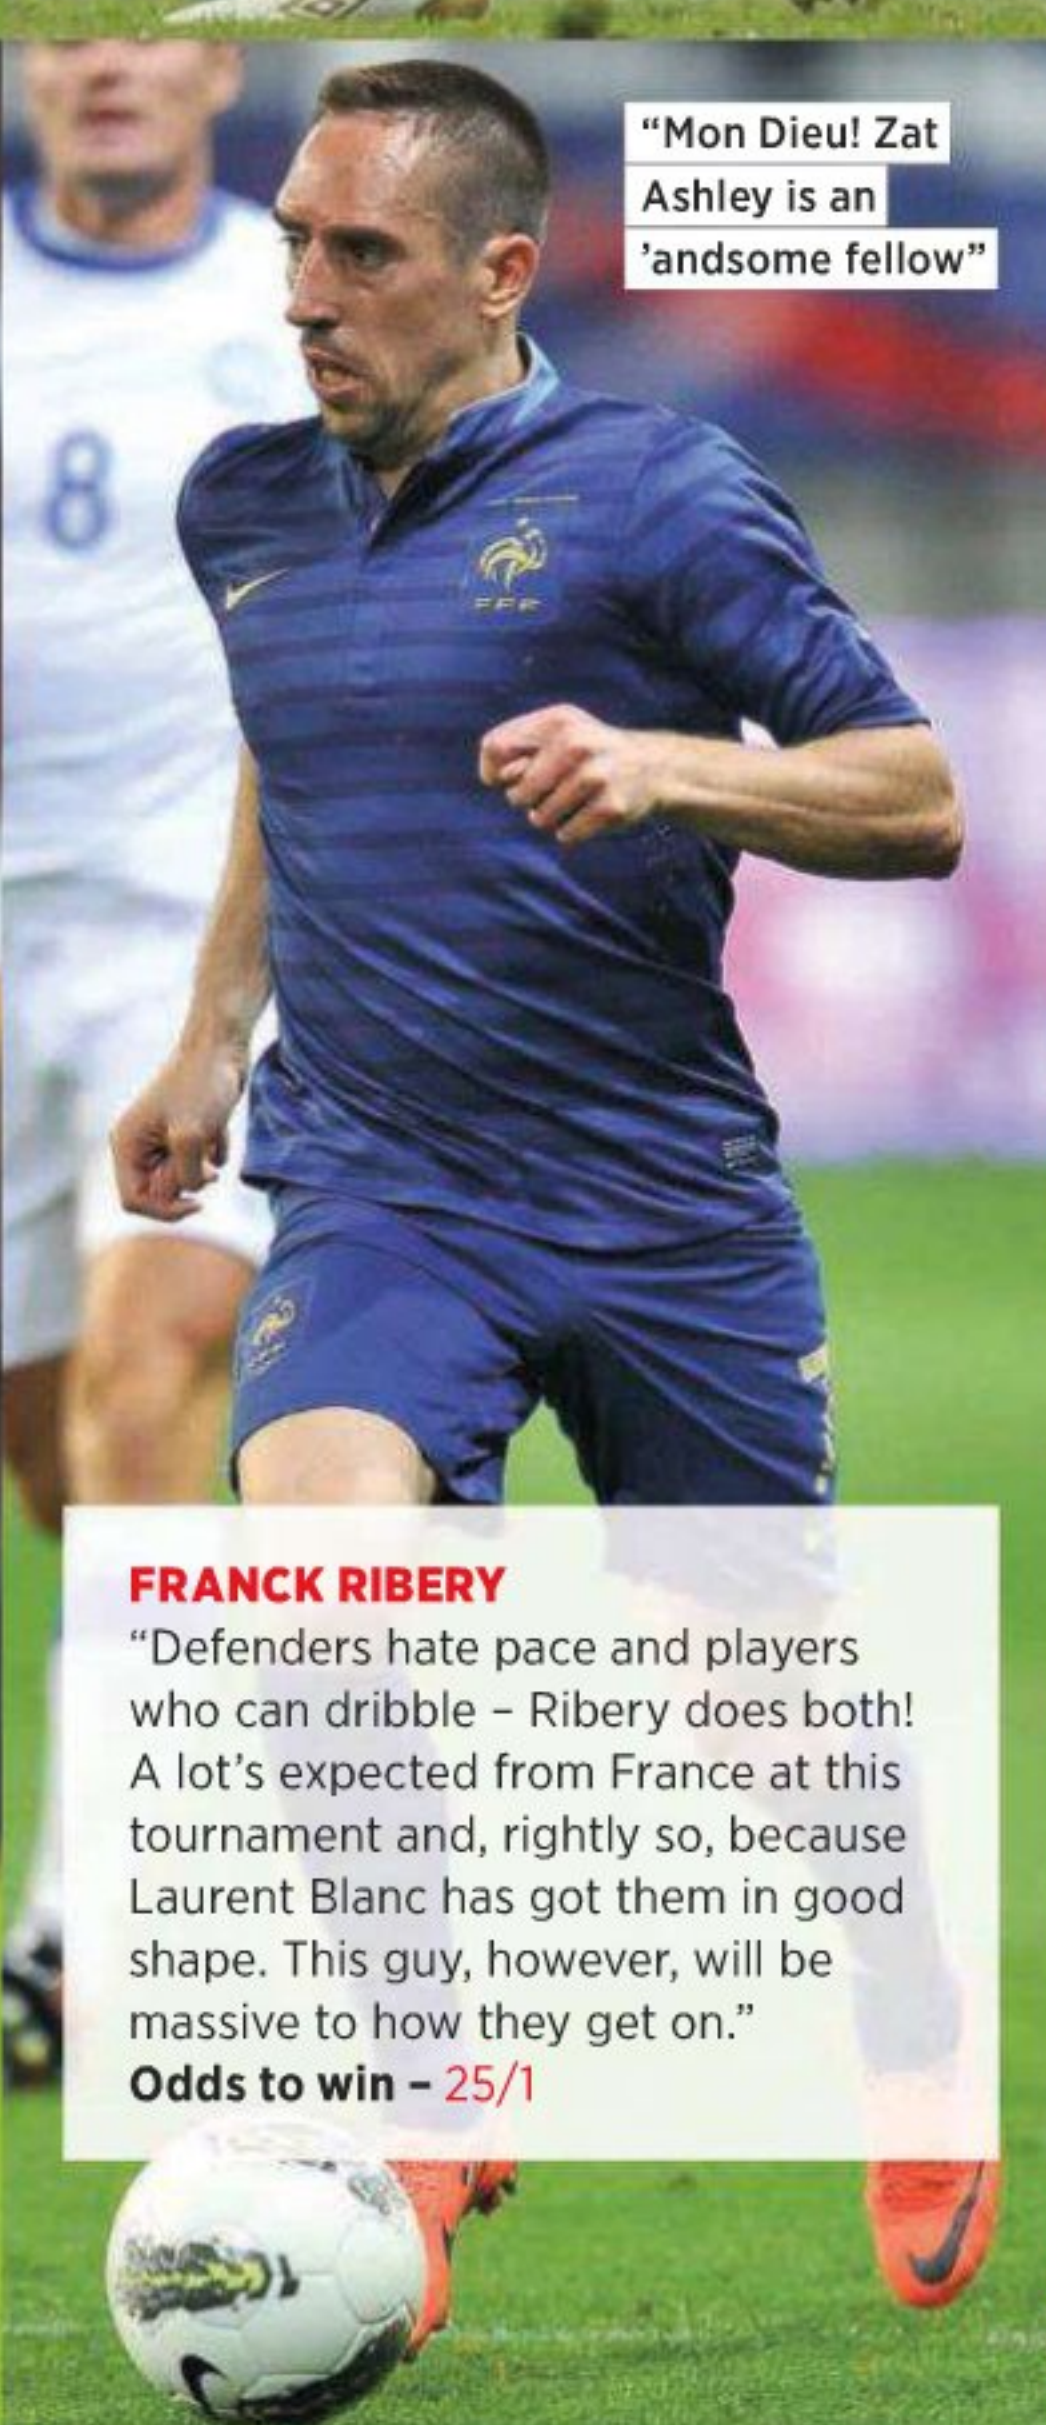

His half-time Vimto was repeating on him

ASHLEY YOUNG

"Either on the wing or playing behind the first striker, Ashley provides quality delivery, sees a pass, scores goals... Nothing seems to faze him, either. He looks made for international football. Euro 2012 could see him emerge as a genuine star. I certainly hope so!"

Odds to win - 100/1

"Mon Dieu! Zat Ashley is an 'andsome fellow"

FRANCK RIBERY

"Defenders hate pace and players who can dribble - Ribery does both! A lot's expected from France at this tournament and, rightly so, because Laurent Blanc has got them in good shape. This guy, however, will be massive to how they get on."

Odds to win - 25/1

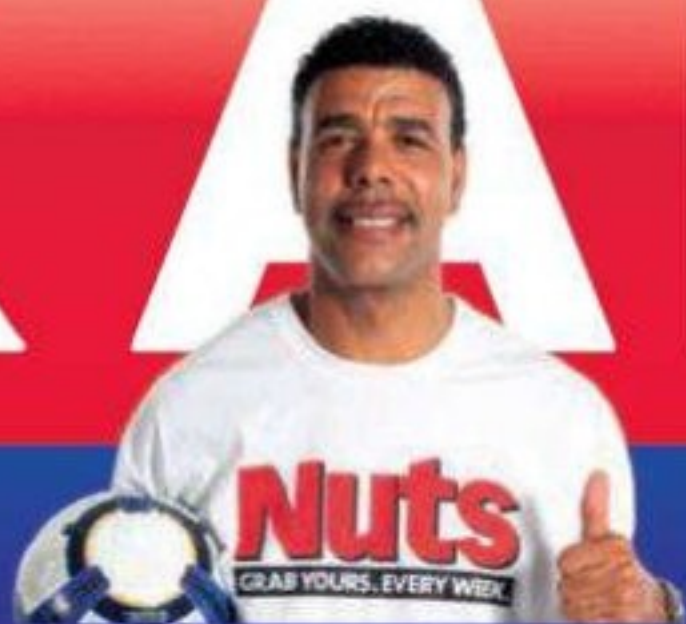

"Argh! I've caught my nipple piercing on your earring!"

BECKS ON ENGLAND'S CHANCES

"Don't write us off. Expectations are low but I believe we can have a great tournament. It's part of the English mindset that we thrive on adversity, and we shouldn't underestimate the quality of the players we have. We might surprise a few people!"

England to win - 14/1

KAMMY!

He's the voice of the fans – and he's only in Nuts!

"And now, the end is near, and so I face the final curtain..."

The Germans' Beatles tribute act hit a new Low

Laid back Germans have it easy!

I SEE that German coach Joachim Low has said his players can drink, smoke, tweet and see their WAGs throughout Euro 2012. It's a far cry from the behaviour you'd expect from a national team at a major tournament, but good luck to them. I can only imagine the press we would get if Roy Hodgson tried the same approach!

Mind you, having seen England's camp, right in the heart of Krakow, it's like stag-night city. I hope we don't see Andy Carroll and the boys rolling out of nightclubs at 3am, although look at what happened in Euro '96, with the dentist's chair and Gazza – it could end up being our secret weapon!

Platini hasn't got a clue!

The Frenchman and Blatter really are two of a kind!

➔ IT SEEMS like football's governing bodies can't go two weeks without making fools of themselves. If it's not that joker Sepp Blatter, then it's his partner-in-crime Michel Platini. The Uefa boss' latest comments on racism are really quite stupid. To book a player who leaves the pitch because of racist abuse is a disgrace!

The Frenchman must know that racism is a very sensitive issue, so why make ridiculous comments that only inflame the situation even further?

It shows a total lack of understanding and utter foolishness. There seems to be a hope that the racism issue will just go away, so the powers that be don't have to deal with it. We've all heard the stories about what might happen in Poland and Ukraine, and there should be processes put in place to deal with abuse of any kind. We should make an example of the racists, not the victims!

KAMMY'S UNBELIEVABLE-OMETER™

UNBELIEVABLY GOOD!

HUGHTON'S HURRAH!
It's great to see Chris Hughton back in the Premier League with Norwich. The ex-Brum boss was harshly treated at Newcastle and deserves another crack at the top flight.

UNBELIEVABLY BAD!

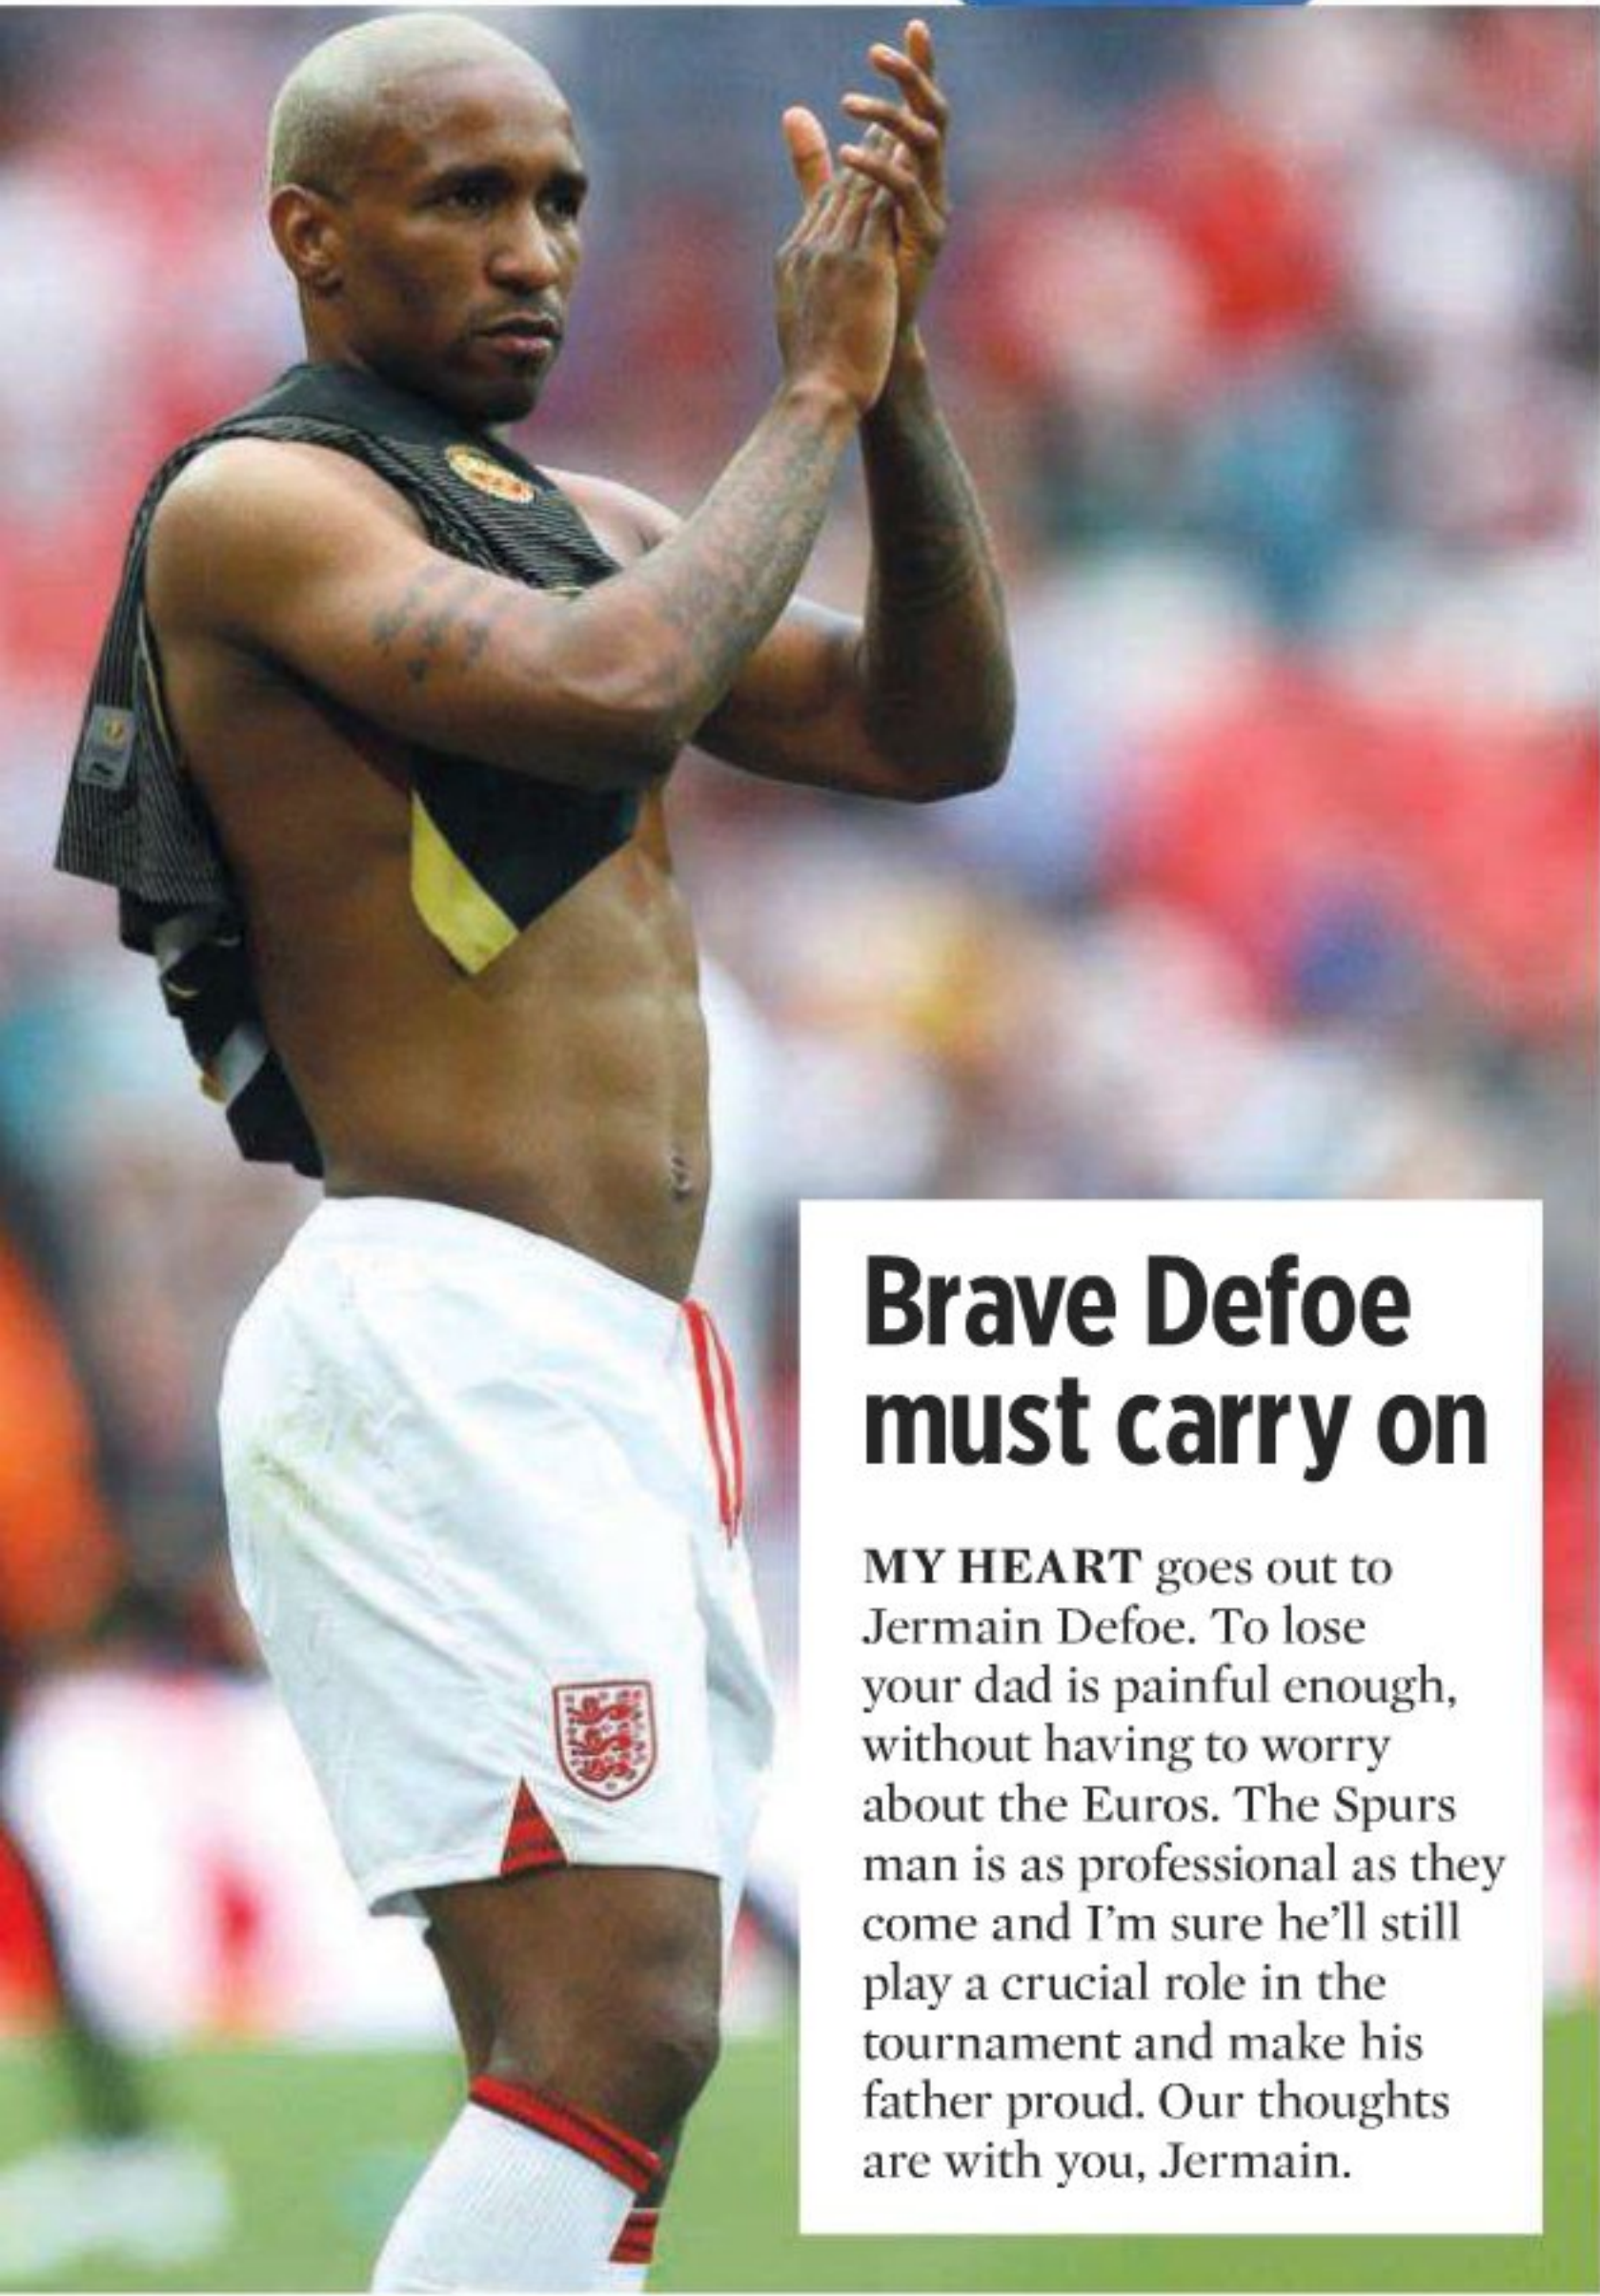

CRAZY CARDIFF!
I can't believe Cardiff City have changed their colours! It's commercialism gone crazy! What next? Liverpool playing in pink? Man United in green? Madness!

THE BIG MATCH!

"I didn't know you were playing, JT!"

Brave Defoe must carry on

MY HEART goes out to Jermain Defoe. To lose your dad is painful enough, without having to worry about the Euros. The Spurs man is as professional as they come and I'm sure he'll still play a crucial role in the tournament and make his father proud. Our thoughts are with you, Jermain.

Sweden vs England

15 JUNE • BBC ONE/HD, 7pm

From what I've read in the papers, the Swedes seem a tad overconfident – they're used to getting decent results against good England sides, so they think this might be a bit of a walkover. Underestimate Roy's men at your peril! I'm going for an England win.
KAMMY'S PREDICTION: 1-2

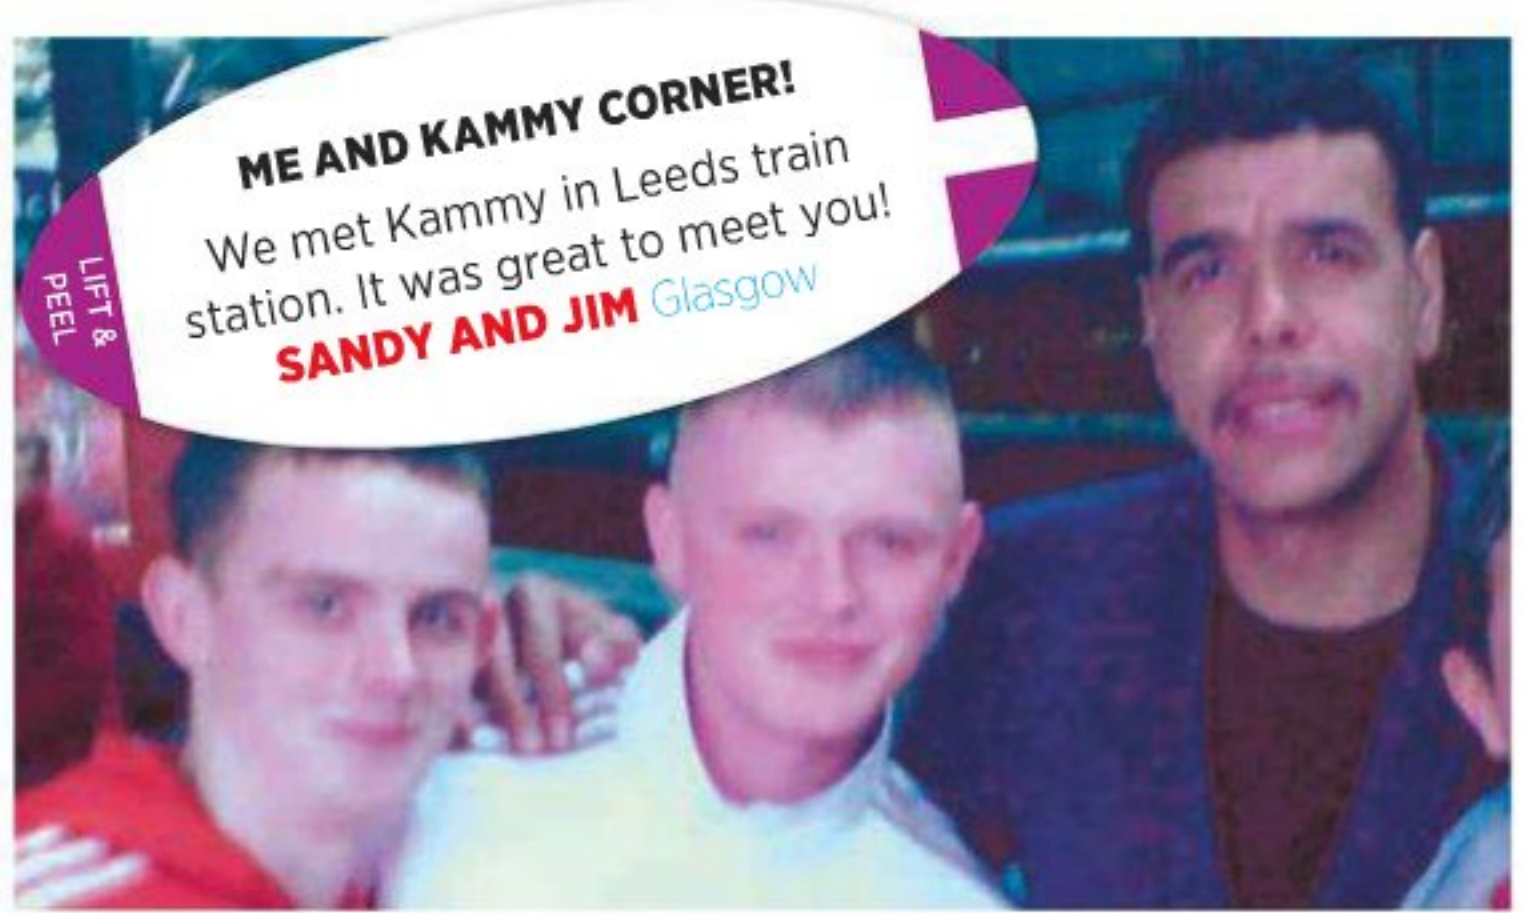

Key man

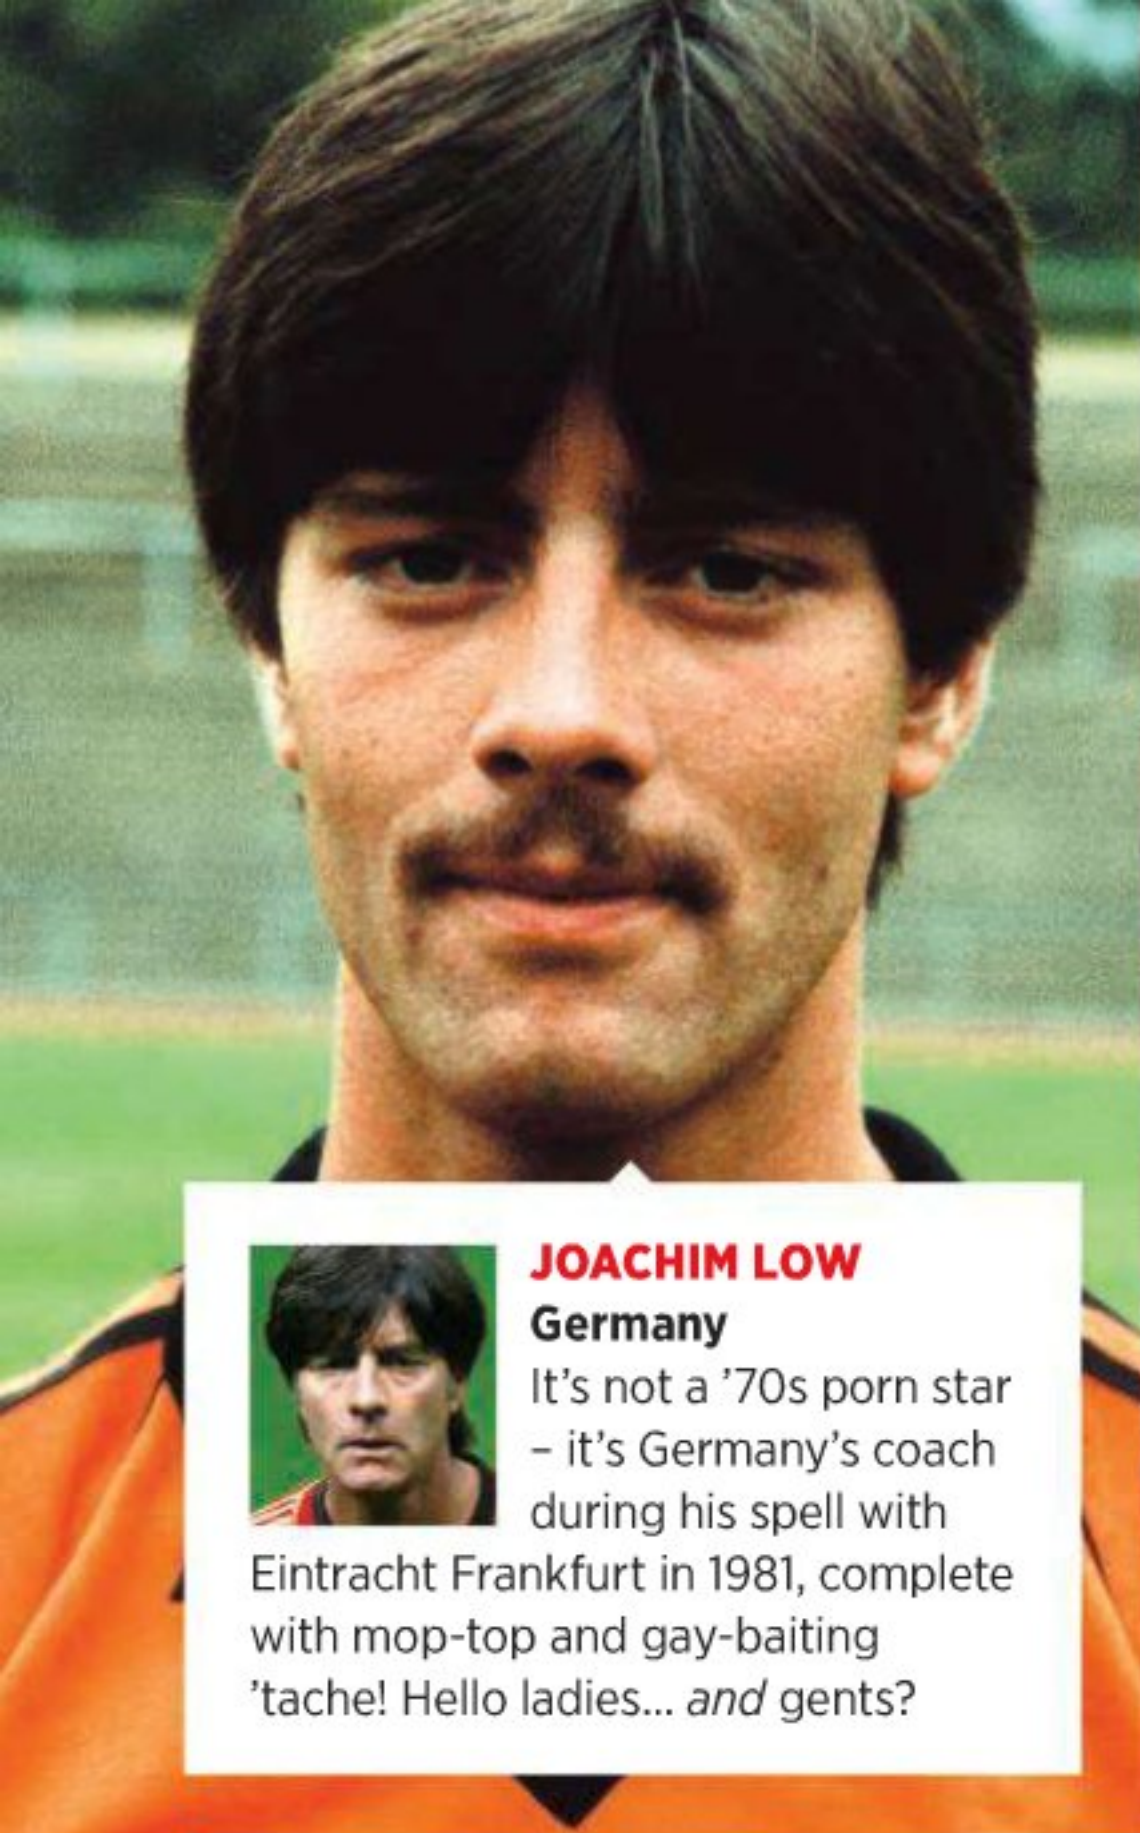

Ashley Young has really grown into this England side. I can see him grabbing a goal and playing a key part in the match.

JOACHIM LOW*Germany

It's not a '70s porn star – it's Germany's coach during his spell with Eintracht Frankfurt in 1981, complete with mop-top and gay-baiting 'tache! Hello ladies... and gents?

MORTEN OLSEN*Denmark

What a transformation! The Denmark boss has managed to go from '80s rock god to OAP Harry Potter! This is the young Morten turning out for the national side in Euro '84.

ROY HODGSON*England

What a dashing young man Uncle Woy was, although we're not sure about the perm. This is the England coach during his time with football giants Gravesend & Northfleet in 1970.

Euro 2012 managers in their heyday!

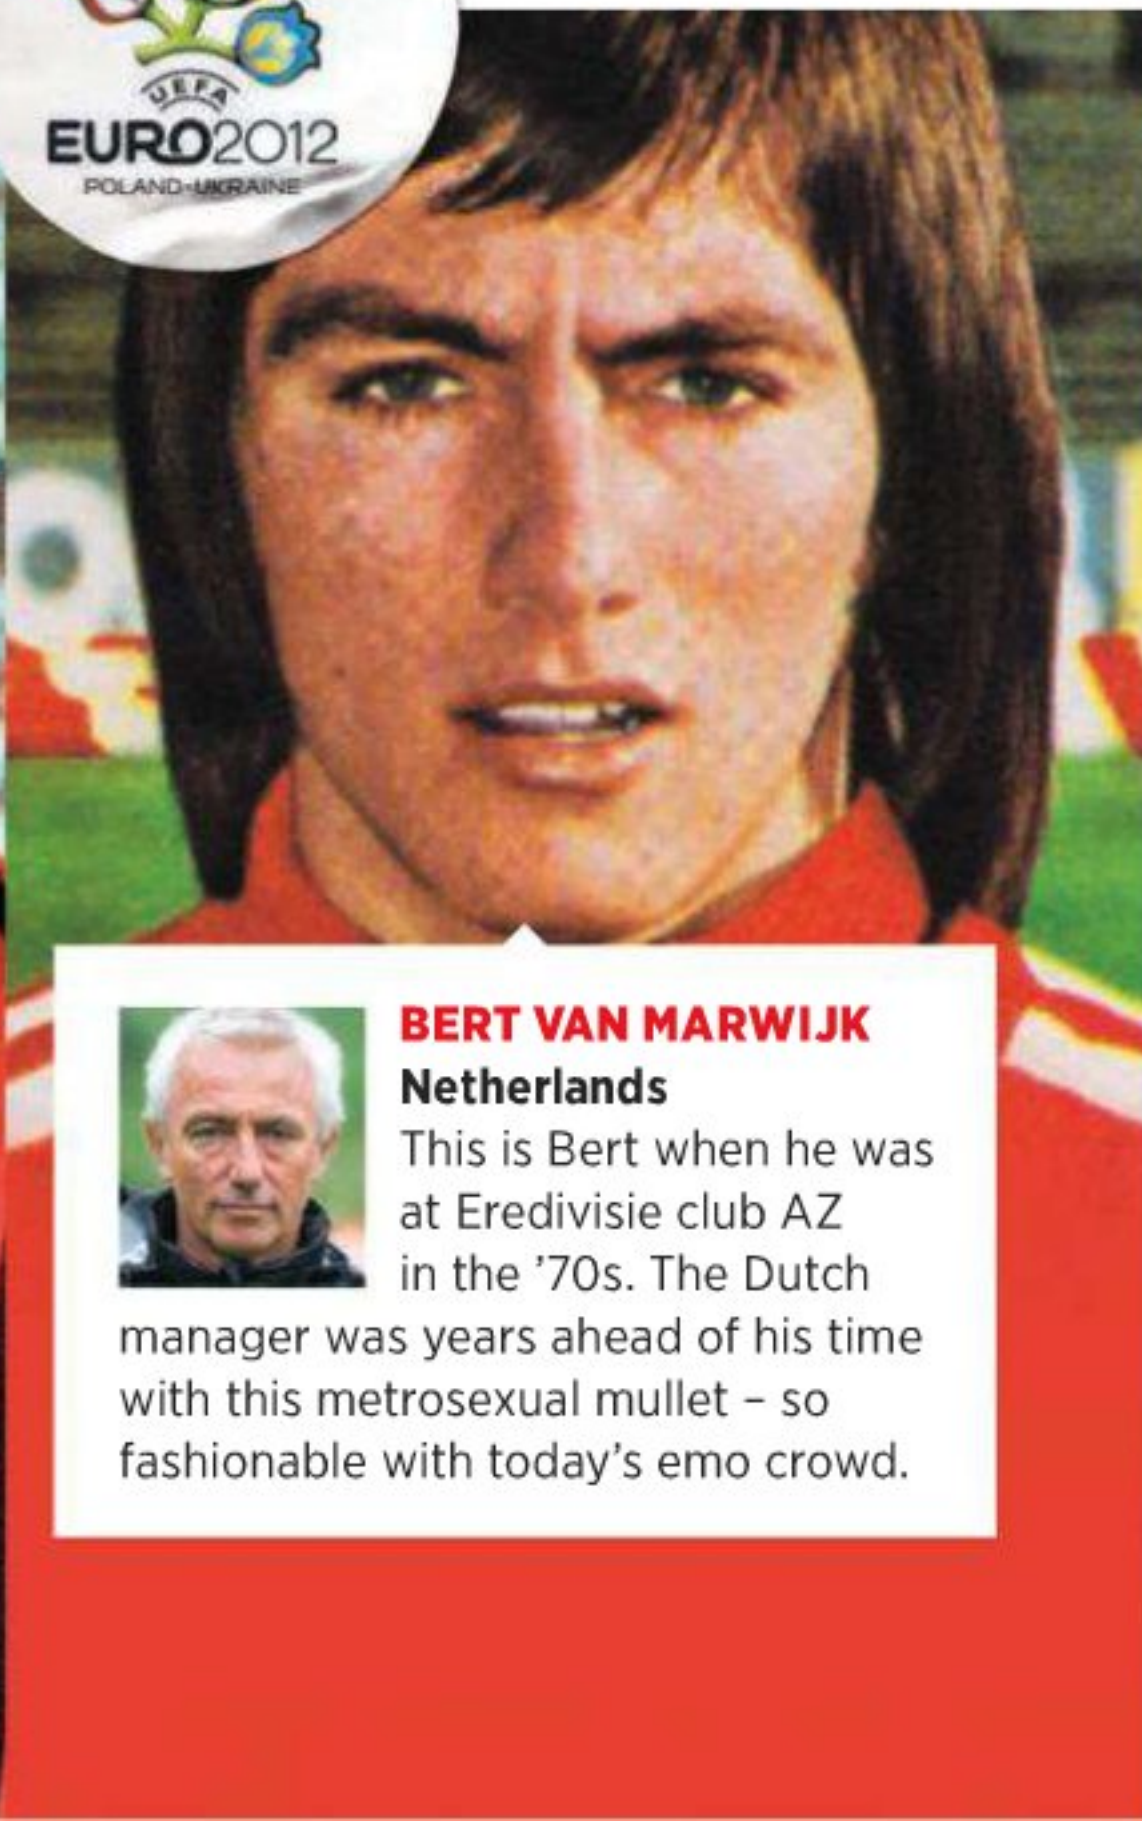

Time to get those mullets and 'taches off the bench!

WE'VE ALL got embarrassing photos from our youth we'd rather not share, but when you're an international football coach, it isn't so easy to keep any shameful snaps hidden from the public. So, Nuts decided to trawl through the archives to see what some of the biggest names in management looked like back in their salad days!

GIOVANNI TRAPATTONI*Italy

We wouldn't like to meet the young Trap down a dark alley. The sparky Italian played for AC Milan between 1959 and 1971 and looks like he'd kick your teeth in!

BERT VAN MARWIJK*Netherlands

This is Bert when he was at Eredivisie club AZ in the '70s. The Dutch manager was years ahead of his time with this metrosexual mullet – so fashionable with today's emo crowd.

SLAVEN BILIC*Croatia

This is the coach during his rock-and-grunge phase at Everton in 1998. We especially like the highlights and rubbish earring – the ex-Toffee looks like a permed pirate!

"Quote me on that!"

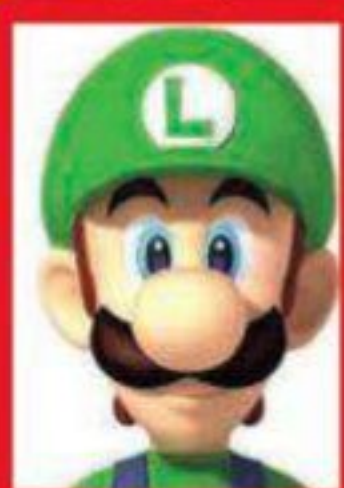

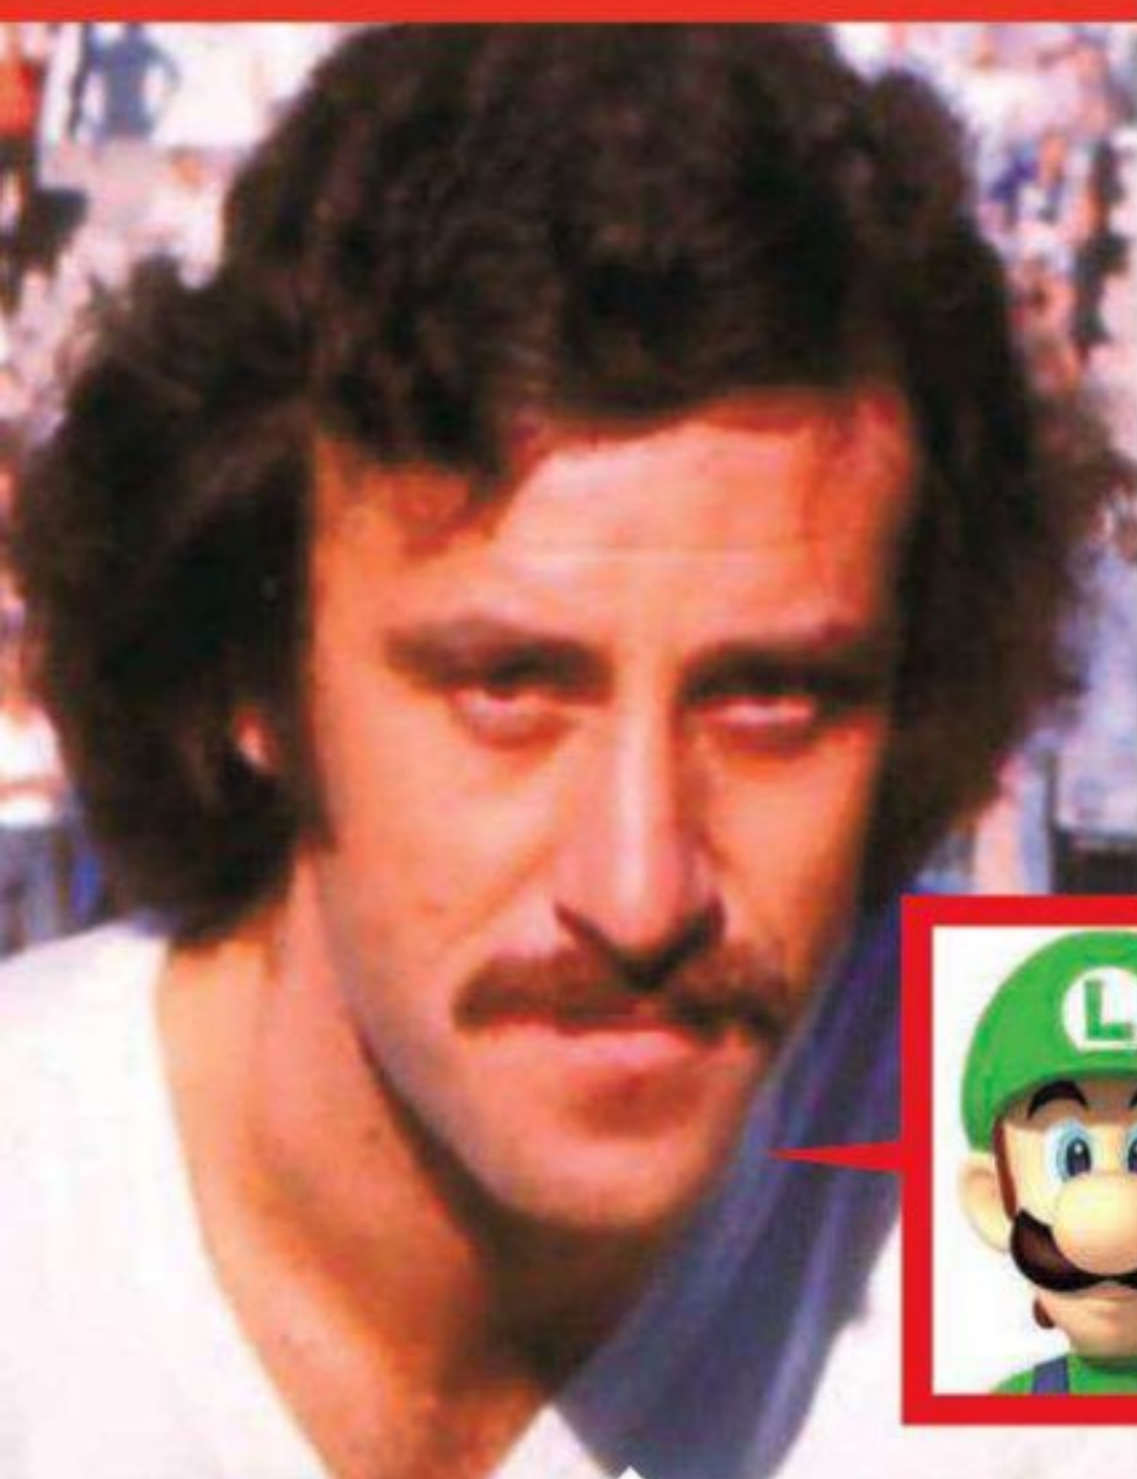

This week's biggest match debaters!

PAULO BENTO Portugal

Poor Paulo – this pic from his Benfica days does the Portuguese coach no favours.

In fact, it reminds us a little bit of Simple Jack from Tropic Thunder – just look at that pudding-bowl haircut!

VICENTE DEL BOSQUE Spain

Is it just us, or does the Spanish manager resemble the brother of a very famous Italian plumber?

This is Vicente doing his best Luigi impression with Real Madrid in 1979.

"Anfield is the same as Old Trafford – there's a uniqueness about it"

Jamie Redknapp doesn't quite get the meaning of "unique".

"I am a genius"

And modest, too, Mario Balotelli.

"I once injured my ballbag playing snooker"

Ronnie O'Sullivan should be more careful with that cue.

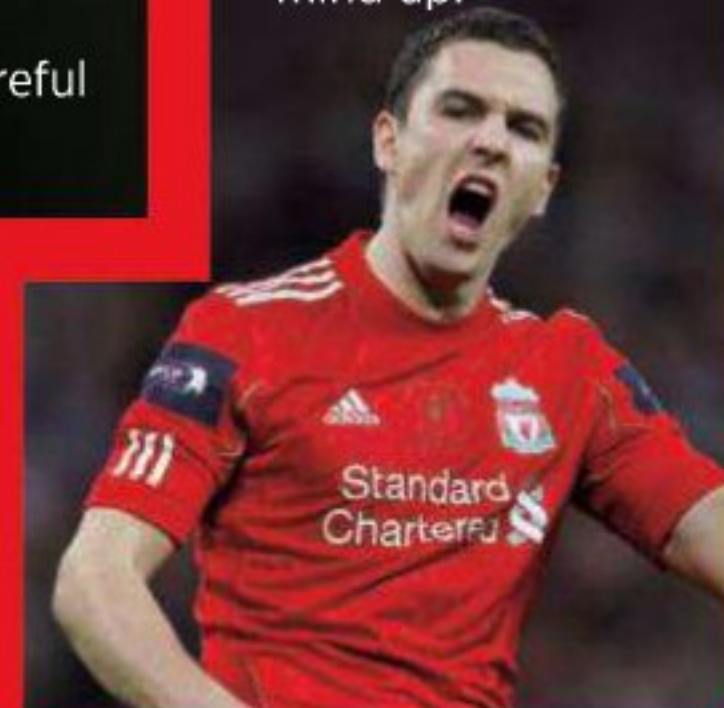

"In most of the celebration photos, I look like my dad after he's had a few"

Frank Lampard starts to feel his age.

"Football is a squad game. It's a team game"

Stewart Downing can't make his mind up.

"The best player I've ever played with was Gervinho"

Eden Hazard needs to get out more.

OO-ER SOUNDS
A BIT RUDE
CORNER!

"Patrice Evra doesn't fill me"

Charlie Nicholas finds the Frenchman lacking in size.

"We have it off when the season starts"

Phil Thompson is looking forward to August.

"The Birmingham players like it in behind"

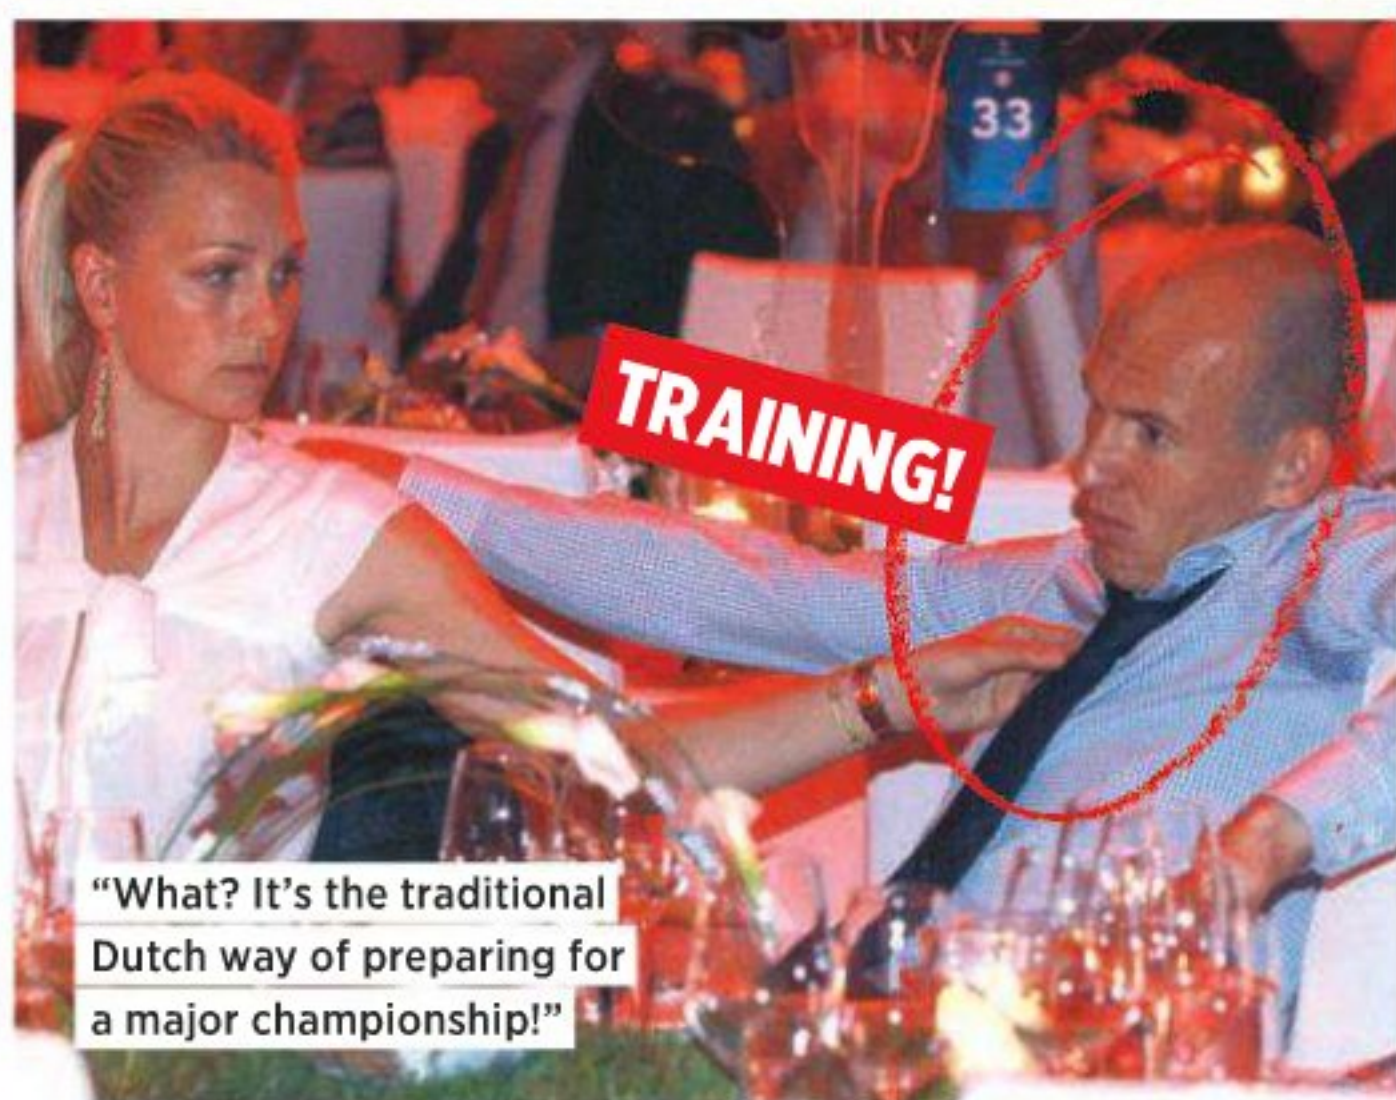

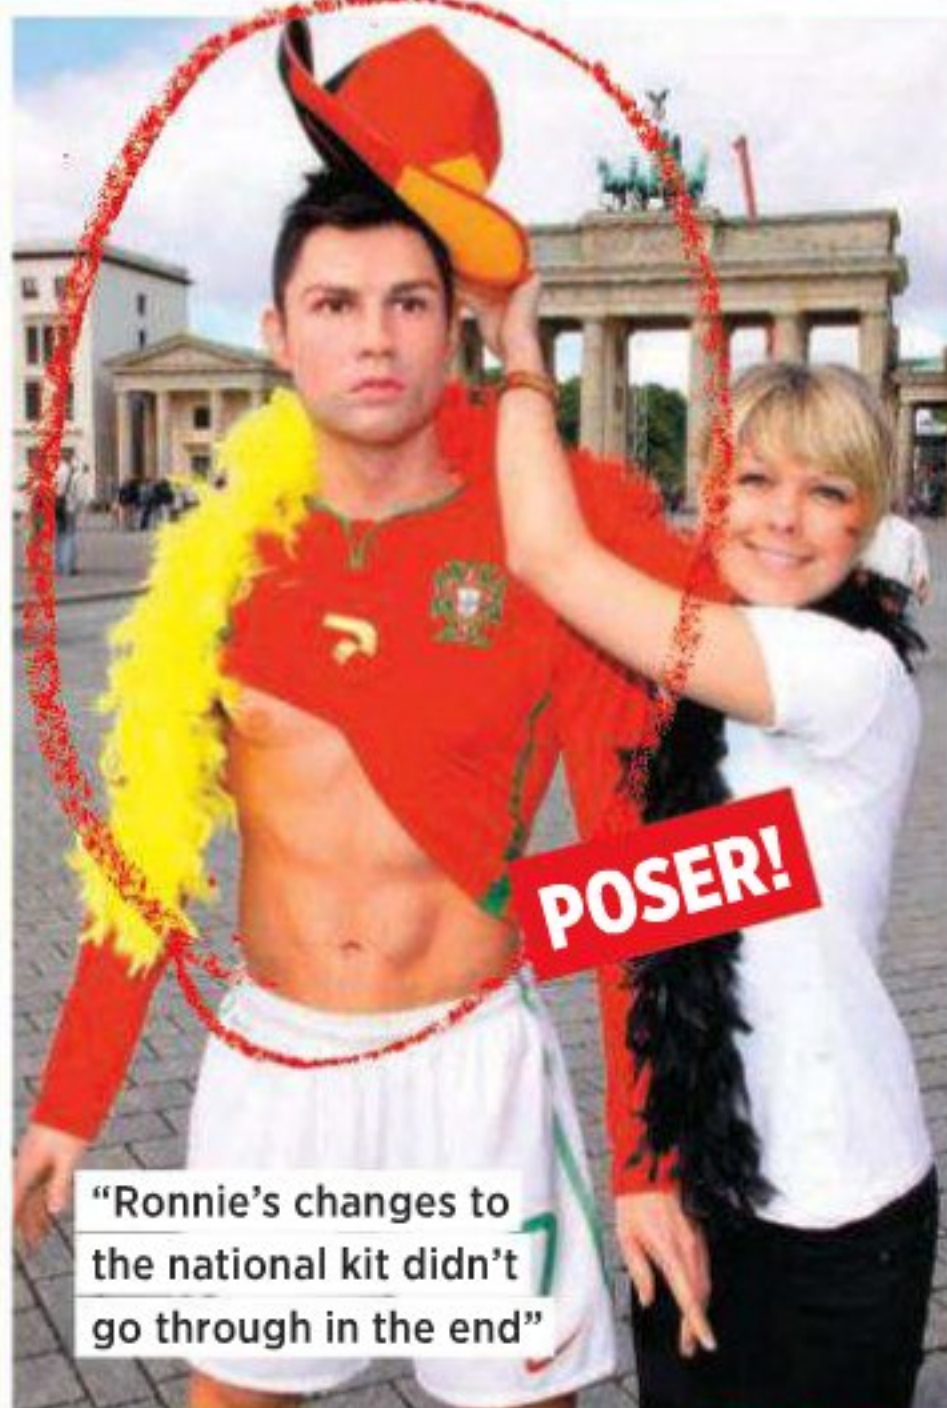

Ex-England player Sue Smith goes X-rated.
