Models come and go. SHOW Girlz leave an indelible image in your mind. You remember the SHOW issue where they first appeared, the pose that you loved the most and even the page numbers of her spread. More important, you are certain that the sexy look she had on her face was specifically meant for you. And you know what, you're correct. SHOW Girlz are in tune with the wants and desires of their fans, and when they look at that camera with their eyes smiling, it's because they know that's what you like. Of all our SHOW Girlz, I can't think of one that pleases our readers anymore than Diznee. Certainly one of the four will catch your eye and suit your particular taste more so than the others. CARLYN

JOANNA

SHOW,
I'm proud of you. I love to see people getting ahead in life, it's hard out here! Keep doing what you're doing. I'm happy about your success as if it was my very own. God gives us all gifts. What good are those gifts if we don't share them with others? People always say the sky is the limit, but it is beyond that there is no limit to what we can do. If anything we put limits on ourselves.

The first and most important step toward success is the feeling that we can succeed. You have succeeded because you are blessed and I wish you all the best success that has yet to come. :)

You are a star, because you will continue to shine. People always have something to say when a person is doing bad, but never an applaud or hug saying I'm proud of you so I just did right now. :)

Aight touch,
SHYIMA

Sean Cummings,
I want to first off state that I am a HUGE fan of your magazine and have annual subscriptions to both SHOW and SHOW Black Lingerie. I am also a professional white male, 36 years old, married (whose wife also happens to love SHOW).

With that out of the way.....what in the hell were you thinking with this White Issue? It arrived in the mailbox today and I wish to express my deepest disappointment. The reason I subscribe to SHOW is to see beautiful ethnic women tastefully photographed in the sexiest poses. This White Issue should NEVER happen again. How can you justify a "white" issue before you put out an "Asian" issue?

There are a myriad of publications/websites/videos available that cater to those seeking glamour photography featuring white females. Please do not dilute what is so special about SHOW by catering to the mainstream.

It is even more disappointing to see that the majority of the white females featured are of the cookie-cutter bleach blonde variety. Aside from Crystal (half white/Filipino) there is a total lack of quality here. If your plan was to feature hot white chicks you have failed to succeed as many of these ladies have busted faces and below average "skinny" physiques.

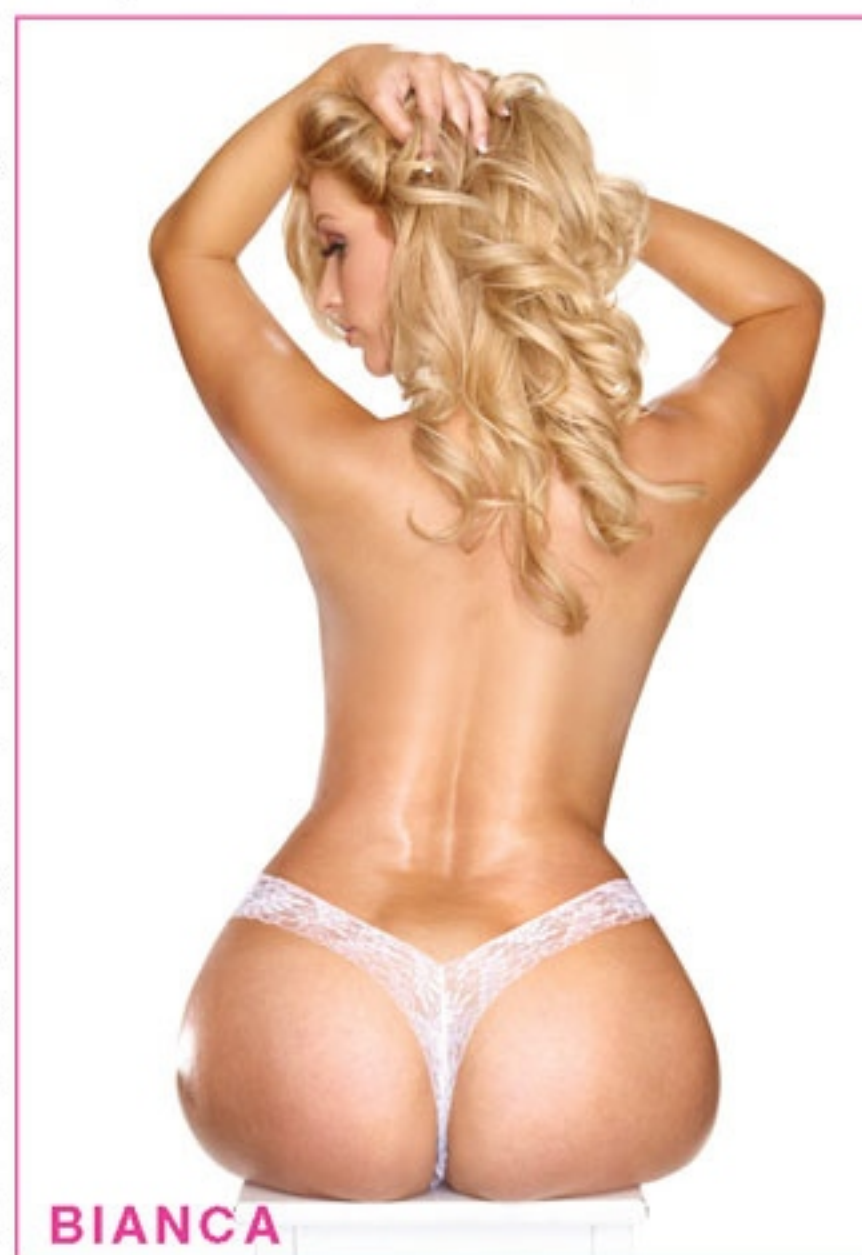

Please understand I only criticize in this letter because I am a PASSIONATE fan of your magazine. I have spread the good word about SHOW far and wide to my friends and plan on being a long time subscriber. Just stick to what you do best! Also please consider an Asian issue - there is Asian booty out there (I should know because I married a petite/curvy Korean) - go find it!

Also - Thank God Diznee is coming back!!!! She is hands down the cutest/hottest chick you have ever featured!

Sincerely,
Josh O'Donnell

Sean,
You love what you do and I love the way you do it! Show Magazine is the Art Of Sexy and that art has no color lines. I don't agree with the advertising hype that women should be skinny. The greatest artists and sculptors of history always portrayed the female figure in all its curvaceous beauty. I appreciate a woman who is not afraid of being herself, and has the self-confidence to be natural. The artificial beauty continually broadcast by television, slick magazines and in the stores may attract some, but a true man loves a natural woman. Why are voluptuous women so very alluring? It's like they let off a very erotic vibe, of sassiness and confidence.

The curvaceous white woman is not a new thing as a matter of fact the skinny white woman is actually the new thing that started in the late 60's early 70's with models like Twiggy. In the silent era you had Clara Bow, in the 30's you had Mae West and Jane Russell, in the 40's you had Betty Grable (As a matter of fact during World War II, these voluptuous white women were called "Bombshell Girl" painted on the sides of WWII planes! Ever seen a skinny woman painted on the nose of a plane?) The 50's gave us Marilyn Monroe and

BIANCA

Betty Page and the 60's gave us the works with Jane Mansfield, Rachel Welch and Sophia Loren! We went wrong in the 70's and it wasn't until Vickie Lynn Hogan better known as Anna Nicole Smith filled out a pair of Guess Jeans in 1992 and brought the curvaceous white woman back!

"To ask women to become unnaturally thin is to ask them to relinquish their sexuality."
-Naomi Wolf

DIZNEE

Who's The BL "BOSS"? (Black Lingerie Best Of Show Issue Three)

Best Of Show One - Joanna Why Is She The Boss? Joanna is undeniably sexy and the Show I Magazine staff really went a long way to bring out that sexiness. Some women just have the look and we all know it when we see it; it's that sexy as hell look. Maybe it's the lips or the eyes, but Joanna possesses an abundance of appeal.

Best Of Show Two- Bianca Why Is She The Boss? Bianca's body alone makes her just about as sexy as you can get, and with those full lips and bedroom eyes thrown into the equation, she's the type of woman whose sexiness quotient burns up the scale. With her velvety curves, exquisite smile and seemingly naughty attitude, Bianca must make guys pinch themselves.

Best Of Show Three- Carlyn. Why Is She The Boss? Carlyn: Carlyn is like a vanilla milkshake from McDonalds, Thick, Creamy, Sweet and a whole lot of kissing is required to get some. Carlyn's sex appeal is very simple; Carlyn is a very sexy girl with a physique worthy of worship. Carlyn definitely gives off the innocent girl-next-door vibe, which is part of her appeal; I love her innocent look, but I also love the bad girl that lurks inside.

Thank you for allowing me to be part of this experimental issue. Invent, Innovate, Grow and F^ck the Haters!
-Rob

Aniteh Sean, Taddesse yane fiquire dena-nek? lol. I said, "Hey Sean how are you my sweetheart, you good?"

Where should I start...? I am the one and only Ethiopian born American raised pure-bred "NuNu: the Ethiopian princess." ATL WHAT? No, I have been NuNu way before that...lol. They represented me well in that movie except I am not ghetto...lol and I am all Ethiopian (Not mixed) as some may think I am. I love being Ethiopian. I wouldn't be paid enough to be nothing else. I speak two Ethiopian languages fluently which makes men stop and just stare at my mouth when I am on the phone or speaking to someone...lol. And I get free parking wherever I go on that Ethiopian connects. Hey it helps to speak your native language no doubt and I proud myself of that and absolutely commend my parents for speaking nothing but our native language to us. I am on it like white on rice...lol! Plus, if you know anything about us Ethiopians, they don't play when it comes to instilling our heritage, morals and mannerism. There is no "I" when it comes to guest and anyone older than us. We must always respect our elders no matter the situation and elders doesn't mean people over fifty either...lol. The one thing that▶ completely irritates me is that people ask me where I am from or better yet they guess some random country and when I tell them I am Ethiopian, they say, "No, you don't look nothing like them people that I see on TV." How ignorant is that. I am a vegetarian and I look nothing like the so called vegetarians shown on TV either. Nothing on TV is what it is in reality. I just wish people expand their horizon, open their eyes and mind to different cultures and way of living. Knowledge and knowing is powerful and I want my young fans to know that. In Africa, the happiest people walking are the poorest people or people considered poor by American society which in this case make Ethiopia poor. My parent raised us humbly despite the opportunity we are given. We take nothing for granted and I do live like a poor person too. Material things shown or worn are not the true possession of that person.

Anyhow, besides modeling which I love, I am absolutely in love with designing and that is the reason I fell in love with modeling. I am in the process of launching a clothing line which already in existence but few things needs to be polished before that big step. I have done too many things too name and you will see more of me pretty soon... I like to believe (well I am) very well rounded and extremely professional. I know the value of time. My future entails a successful modeling career and I am an entrepreneur at heart so I have things lined up that will make my future a guaranteed success. I don't believe in rushing in life, everything happens with time so I am trying to take the industry by a storm one step at a time. I am currently taking acting classes so if God let be, I will be coming through your TV soon.►

In my free time when I am not too busy keeping my self busy; I spend as much time as possible with my nephew which I love so much word can't explain. When he is not around, I love reading, writing poetry, occasionally painting and be the goofy girl that I am hanging with my male dominated circle of friends that I absolutely adore. I am somewhat of a tomboy so I prefer hanging with the homies going to football games that I love and basketball games! I am a HUGE sports fan. I am also a very loving, giving, independent person who enjoys helping others and living life to the fullest. I am so spontaneous and such a risk taker, when I do have a free time, I do whatever comes to mind. I love living for the moment and in the moment. That's what life is about. I like to bust my behind trying to ice skate or roller skate...lol. I like the simple things in life.

Before I depart, I would like to take this time to thank Sean the man I have known for the past few years for this awesome opportunity. I have done shoots before (you know) but you not only made me comfortable enough to the point where you convinced me to take not only a topless shoot but (OMG, my parents are going to kill me lol) in my orange/pink G-Strings. That was something I VOWED will never happen until I got on your set and you and Nick started to convince me...lol. It was a risk worth taking. Nick, the man behind the camera, I am totally speechless as to how to describe your work. AMAZING!

As for my fans and supporters, Show Magazine did it for you. They are giving you what you have been waiting for and have been asking for all these years...lol. Thank you for continuously sticking by me on all my adventures and endeavors... Show Magazine and My Fans ROCK! Love Ya! ~NuNu~ ■

I was born on October 22, 1985 to a Creole/Mexican mother and Black father in San Antonio, TX though I currently reside in Houston, TX. I always desired to be in the entertainment industry whether it is in front of the camera or one of the people making a project come to life behind the scenes. They say when trying to make your way to stardom a plan B should always be in play so I attend University of Houston majoring in finance. The most major influences of my life include my parents they both worked so hard to provide for me who instilled a go-getter demeanor in me, Marilyn Monroe & Aaliyah 2 of the most gorgeous women to grace the earth, they taught me no matter how much people hate never let them see you hurt, keep smiling. And that's what I do, I'm an acquired taste kinda like Hollywood, I'm not for everybody;) If I could meet anyone person it would be Pharell of The Neptunes. He's amazingly diverse, handsome, plus extremely talented. "You can do it too" is the soundtrack to my life, which gives me self empowerment to keep climbing until I reach the top. My name is Naisha Muñoz also known as Isha M. From the North to the South...I was born in New York and basically raised in Miami. My parents are from Dominican Republic. I've been in Florida for the past 12 years and I'm 22 years young, so the definition of my character and who I am today was developed in Miami. I love both cities equally, yet my weakness to sandy beaches and sunny days seems to keep me in Miami. I would like to move to LA SOON! I have always had an interest in the entertainment industry. As a child I was very outgoing and loved to perform (even if I didn't do it that well, my brother still makes fun of me). My mother tried to break me into acting at the age of 10. We shot pictures, had a comp card, etc. I landed a Pepsi Commercial and that's as far as it went. When I became a little older I started doing music videos and hosting events, although that was put on hold for sometime...here I am!

I steered away from modeling for I had found a new love in broadcasting. I am currently in school acquiring a degree in Broadcast Journalism. While on my paper chase, working at a club on South Beach; Sean Cummings approached me with an offer I could not refuse. I wasn't doing any modeling, but the opportunity to be featured in SHOW was just to inviting! The shoot was incredible! It was a great experience. Since then, I've realized I like it more then I had thought. I have to thank 2Starz Studio for the work and dedication they have put into helping me further my career in modeling. I love the glamour/lingerie/swimsuit shoots, but I would love to do more over the edge, high fashion modeling. It has been set aside for the rail thin, 5'10 models, but I would be honored to break that mold with my 5'3, curvy frame!

I'll be coming to TV near you! I have lots of aspirations and goals in life, too many can be overwhelming! I'm working on them!

Having so many mixed ideas and emotions makes it very hard to make decisions at times, and whether to know if it's the right one. Either I am very passionate about things or completely laid back. I am working on finding a balance between the two.

I am taking the time to learn things about myself, accepting and understanding them. One thing for sure is that I'm here to stay!

Thanks again Sean Cummings, Patrick Adams, and Aisha Jones! ■

Maria

My name is Maria Del Pilar Cueva and I was born in Caracas, Venezuela. I came to America when I was 2 years old in which I reside in Ft. Lauderdale, FL. I'm a lovely Virgo that is reserved with an easy going attitude. On my free time I love to shop and spend time with family and friends. My weakness is eating. Remember ladies "curvy" is beautiful. I come from a loving family that supports me in everything I do. I can't thank them enough for teaching me values and good ethics. I am very ambitious and dedicated on what I want. One lesson that I have learned in life is never settle for less. Right now I am focused on my field of studies in Journalism. Being in close proximity of Miami I have the opportunity to enjoy the hot and sunny weather as well as pursuing my interest in the entertainment industry. Currently I am an aspired model and becoming a successful news reporter.

I was introduced to the Show Magazine by a photographer named Patrick Adams in my hometown. That's when my modeling career began. It seemed like it all happened over night. I am so pleased to participate in the magazine. To see so many amazingly beautiful women in here I never thought that I would be one of them. This was such a great experience and I can't thank Sean Cummings enough. ■

My name is Eleese Donavon, and I'm 20 years old. I am originally from Kingston, Jamaica. I now reside in beautiful Miami, Florida. I'm 5'5, 34-24-38, my zodiac sign is a Taurus, and most people say my eyes are my best features. I have been modeling for the last 3 months, which I decided to get involved with because, it was something that always interested me, I feel as if I can be someone else, and be carefree, especially because i'm usually a very shy person, and i'm overcoming my shyness more and more each day. I haven't did much yet in modeling, but hopefully that will change soon. I've always been a creative person, that's why I decided to I was born and raised in California, the Bay Area to be exact up until two years ago when I moved away for college. Since then Santa Barbara has been my home, where I attend the University of California Santa Barbara. I am currently a senior getting my B.A. in Sociology with a minor in Sports Management. After graduation the possibilities are endless, I hope to develop a career within a top fashion or sports organization although my ultimate dream job would be a broadcaster for the E! Channel. I have also had life long aspirations of developing a modeling career as well, and have slowly but surely been taking steps towards accomplishing this goal. I have many goals and aspirations I wish to fulfill within my life that I only hope God blesses me with enough time to conquer them all, although my determination and drive will not let me settle for anything less.▶

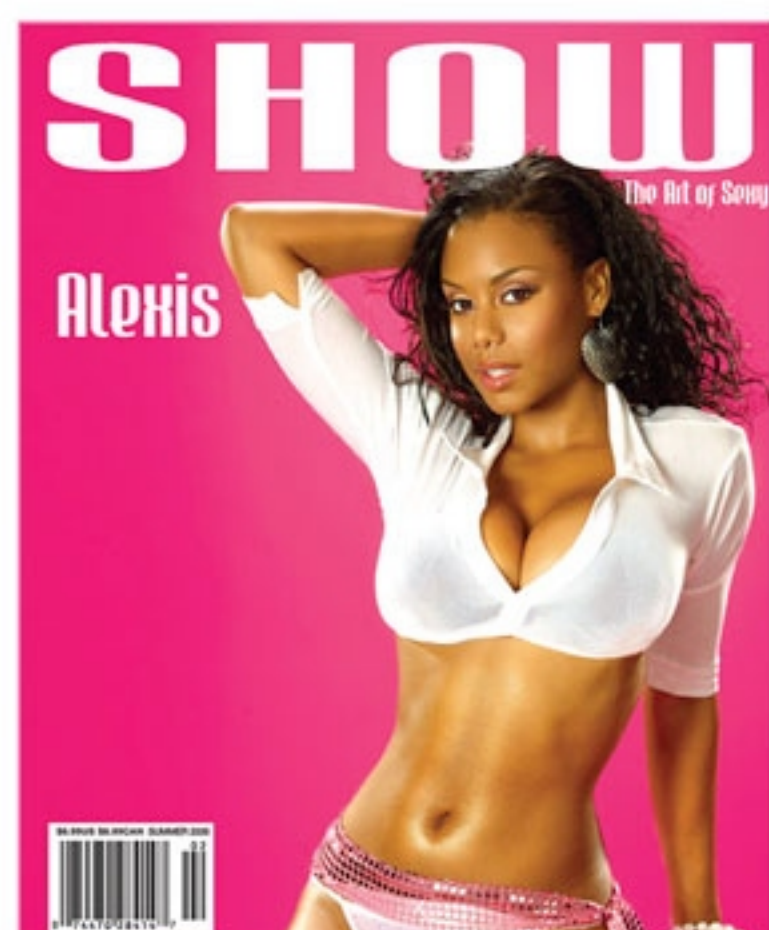

I live by various quotes that have stuck with me over the years but the one which stands out the most is “Dream as if you’ll live forever. Live as if you’ll die today”. I think people get so caught up in their daily lives that they sometimes forget to just enjoy the moments and live their lives. Often people regret the fact that they never had the chance to accomplish things that they wish they had, because they weren’t living for today and I always knew I would never be one of those people.

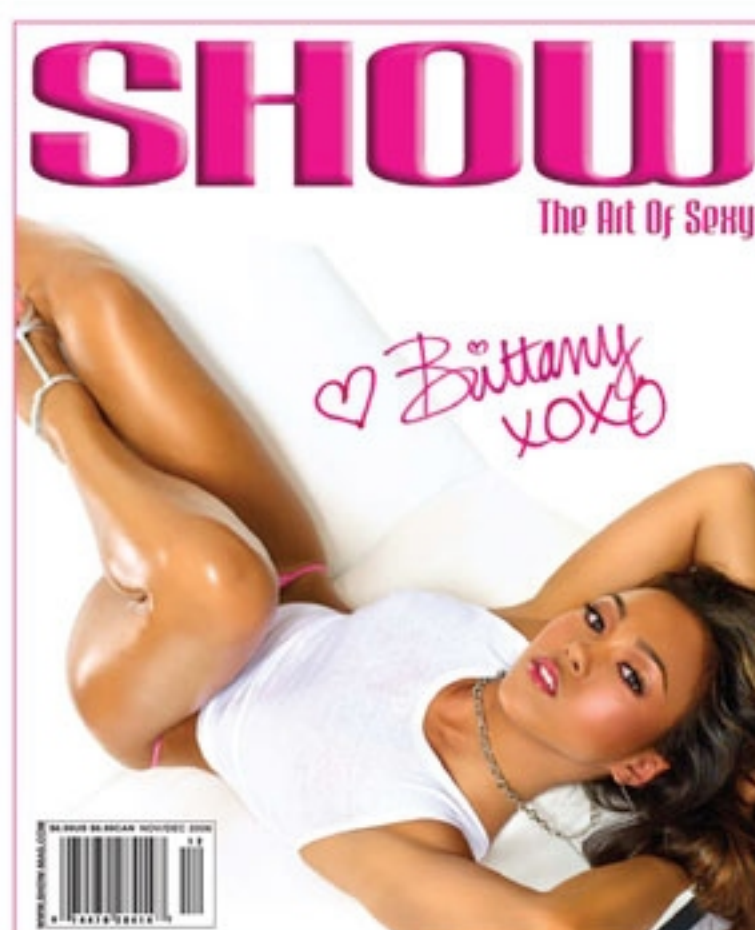

I come from a multi-racial background of Italian, African American and American Indian. I find it kind of intriguing that I come from such a mixed background because people have the hardest time figuring out what ethnicity I am. As a kid my peers always teased me about my eyes, they said “it always looked like I had my eyes closed”. I find it kind of ironic that it’s the one part of my body I get the most compliments on, its funny how things work.■

About me: being a graduating senior in may 2008 at Michigan state university is more of an accomplishment than just finishing school. It means a lot to me to change the perspective of growing up with tons of negativity and no support. Always doing what people do not expect of me (graduating college is just one), of course, is what keeps me in line and sane. Many people take me the wrong way and I'm fine with that, it allows me to bring whatever verbal arrangements there was to life. It is expected for people to have an opinion of what they see from a distance and never intimidating nor shocking what people like to voice. I have a huge sense of humor and am a very down to earth person so being around people who make me smile in the worst way is my weakness. I am an absolute kind hearted person with barriers of course so when my back is against the wall, others do not like the outcome.▶

Coming from a huge family is no surprise that I am very big on family and feisty when it comes to the personal life, keeping a lot of my personal experiences to myself. Still a good girl, despite what people may think, being honest and open is something I take very seriously and expect the same from others! Some may say that's a bit steep or too much nowadays but its what I need and anyone who can't handle that must head toward the exit sign immediately and may no longer reenter. It's hard for me to open up and trust me; I am not a sugar coater about it or anything else for the matter.

Having a naughty side is something that everyone has though the "naughty" side that the public may think they know is what I give to them or may be rumors and living through it is something taken so nonchalantly. No one knows the true personal side and some say that I'm too secretive. I am very outgoing, outspoken and ambitious so I'm always up to something. I do sometimes have the face of innocence or the girl next door look...lol, however, the physique challenges that statement completely. Sometimes i get compliments on everything and sometimes i hear of ridicule but I roll with the punches and take it smoothly. I think for myself and never allow anyone else to influence my decisions therefore I will only disappoint myself if needed be. ►

I am confident in everything that I do whether it's mentally or physically, and modest about some things but there is reason for it and there are no regrets for whatever my actions led me into, I mature and learn by them. My adventurous side led me to modeling and has taken me places I've never imagined in so little time without any negative portrayal amongst my character in which I have eye candy modeling to thank for that. I have met some wonderful people along this experience and of course my persona was something different that what was expected of me and I like it that way.

Modeling is fun, it's something different and the state of mind is the hardest part. Seeing the creativity of the photography teams, production companies, and other models is lessons learned and I am currently working on my line of fashion and planning to launch it within a year or so. I have so much planned for myself and am not selfish about branching off or sticking to one position. Open doors are what you make of it. ■

Hey some of you may remember me from the Black Lingerie Issue last year. Well I am back in action and a lot has changed since then. I recently left my college in New York because of the cold weather and long distance away from home. I am currently attending California State University Northridge. I am 19 years old and I will be 20 years old at the end of the summer. I am still majoring in broadcast journalism and hopefully I will be doing red carpet interviews soon. Besides that I am still the same sweet, innocent girl next door with green eyes and a big booty. Ever since my debut in the magazine a lot of people recognize me which is pretty cool.▶

My MySpace fan base has grown because of the magazine and I have a lot of people who tell me my picture is hanging on their wall in their bedroom. One guy even stopped me in the mall and told me I looked like the girl he had as his screen saver on his phone- sure enough it was me! I am still trying to get into the modeling industry but I am unsure which direction I want to go into next whether it's more print or commercials and television. Either way, I am driven to succeed even if it isn't in the modeling industry...even though I hope it is!!! I am very driven and extremely determined and I owe it all to my mother. My motto is "PLAY HARD, GET DIRTY!" If your are going to do something you might as well as go at it full force and not be afraid of what may happen along the way. No matter what obstacles I may face trying to achieve my goals nothing will stop me from getting what I want. In five years I hope to be working for a successful television network and I would love for everyone to know who Chelsea AKA Diznee is, because I believe I am the future. ■

A decorative pink floral pattern with swirling vines and leaves, some of which have small white dots, is located in the upper left and top center of the page.

My name is Emily Davis. I am a down to earth 19 yr old Libra born and raised in San Diego, CA. I'm mixed with black white and Cherokee. I'm tall and slender standing 5'8 with the sizes 36c-24-36. I consider myself to be a strong, business minded and ambitious young lady. I don't believe in limiting myself. I'm always looking for new ways to try to take over the world.

Growing up around creative people helped me spark an interest in the arts. I've been involved in everything from drama and improv programs to School talent shows and competitions. Originally I had planned to move to Los Angeles the minute I turned 18 to pursue a career in entertainment. Unfortunately that didn't go as planned. However, a couple months later I met Sean Cummings and things started to change. Sean gave me my first magazine shoot. My photo shoot went great. Nick Saglimbeni is one of those photographers that makes you feel very comfortable and confident in front of the camera. ►

As of now I am living in Los Angeles and working with Sean at SHOW as the executive assistant. Working with Sean has been a great learning experience for me. I've learned and am still learning about the ins and outs of the business. With Sean being the entrepreneur and business man he is...I feel lucky to be able to learn from the best. I have a couple projects in the works right now. I am also an executive for a hot new website called bossyworldwide.com. The site is going to be the premiere website for 2008 featuring culture, lifestyle, music, trends, celebrity news and gossip. Not only will it be a national site for Los Angeles, New York, and Miami, but by 2009 will be an international domain. Keep your eyes out for me and more of my up and coming projects. ■

Born and raised in the Suburbs of Southern California my names Marin, known best by Rinny or Rin. I'm standing at 5'3", weighing in at about 135 (my measurements are 34C-23-42). I'm a Pisces baby, just turned 21 and embody everything my sign claims me to be. I'm laid back, rather silly though, a little reserved, don't take myself too seriously (like most assume) nor do I feel the need to be the center of attention. I pride myself on being down to earth and very relatable. My ethnic background is a distinguishing mixture of Black, Creole, German, Indian Austrian, and Croatian. I was raised to be very tolerant and to appreciate the uniqueness of myself and others. I loooooove the night life, all the glitz and glam, and painting the town red, but I have to admit I'd rather be curled up with a good book enjoying quiet time or making it a Blockbuster night with some good company! So said simply, I'm your girl next door with exoticism that'll make your pastor stop and stare! I work and go to school full-time to support and feed my knowledge and retail addictions. Modeling is just something I stumbled upon but I'm more than eager to see where it will take me. Also, I'd like to thank my manager Chimene and Sean both for making the process so comfortable and such a great experience. Enjoy the pics! ■

I am a 19yr old laid back Leo who can also be extremely goofy at times. However I am VERY driven for success. With a family lineage that includes a virtual who's who of the entertainment business I Brandi Womack was born into greatness. Wasting no time to pursue the family's bread and butter, singing, my entrance into the entertainment world began with a guest appearance on my uncle Bobby Womack's Christmas album "Traditions". And shortly after performing at many legendary Hollywood hotspots from The Roxy to The Nitting Factory. Which lead to an extra role in Disney movie Max Keeble's Big Move and an appearance at The Demo Fast Break competition in Las Vegas. It was from there I learned I loved the camera and the spotlight and wanted to be an all around entertainer. Now hoping to take over the modeling scenes I have considered shooting with SHOW Mag to have been a great experience and huge accomplishment. It was a pleasure working with Sean and if I had to I would do it all over again.
