Djennipher

Photography by Scottsdale Images

Djennifer (or DJ) is a fun outgoing spirit, she has dreams, plans, and goals to become an oral surgeon. Currently, she's working as an Endodontic dental assistant, while also going to school full time, and finding time to model. Having recently discovered her newfound love for modeling, being introduced into the industry by another model and friend in February of 2013.

Born and raised in Phoenix Arizona, DJ loves the outdoors. The hotter days are spent at the nearest lakes and rivers, with an occasional trip to the beach. As the seasons change and the weather gets cooler, she can be found building a campfire under the stars or hitting the slopes on her snowboard. Despite her love for rugged past time activities, she also has a more gentle, girly side. Since a young age, she's attended a variety of different dance academies. All though ballet is her favorite, she also enjoys tap dancing, jazz, lyrical, and hip-hop. She shares her life with her loving husband of three years, and with her plans of becomming an oral sugeon, they have yet to have any children. DJ is also very close to her mother, and younger sister. Because her mother lost her hearing due to Meningitis at the young age of three years old, DJ is fluent in American Sign Language (ASL). In fact at eight months old DJ was signing her first words, making American Sign Language her first language. Later at the age of four she was finally vocal, and she's been a chatterbox ever since.

Lilian Vigil

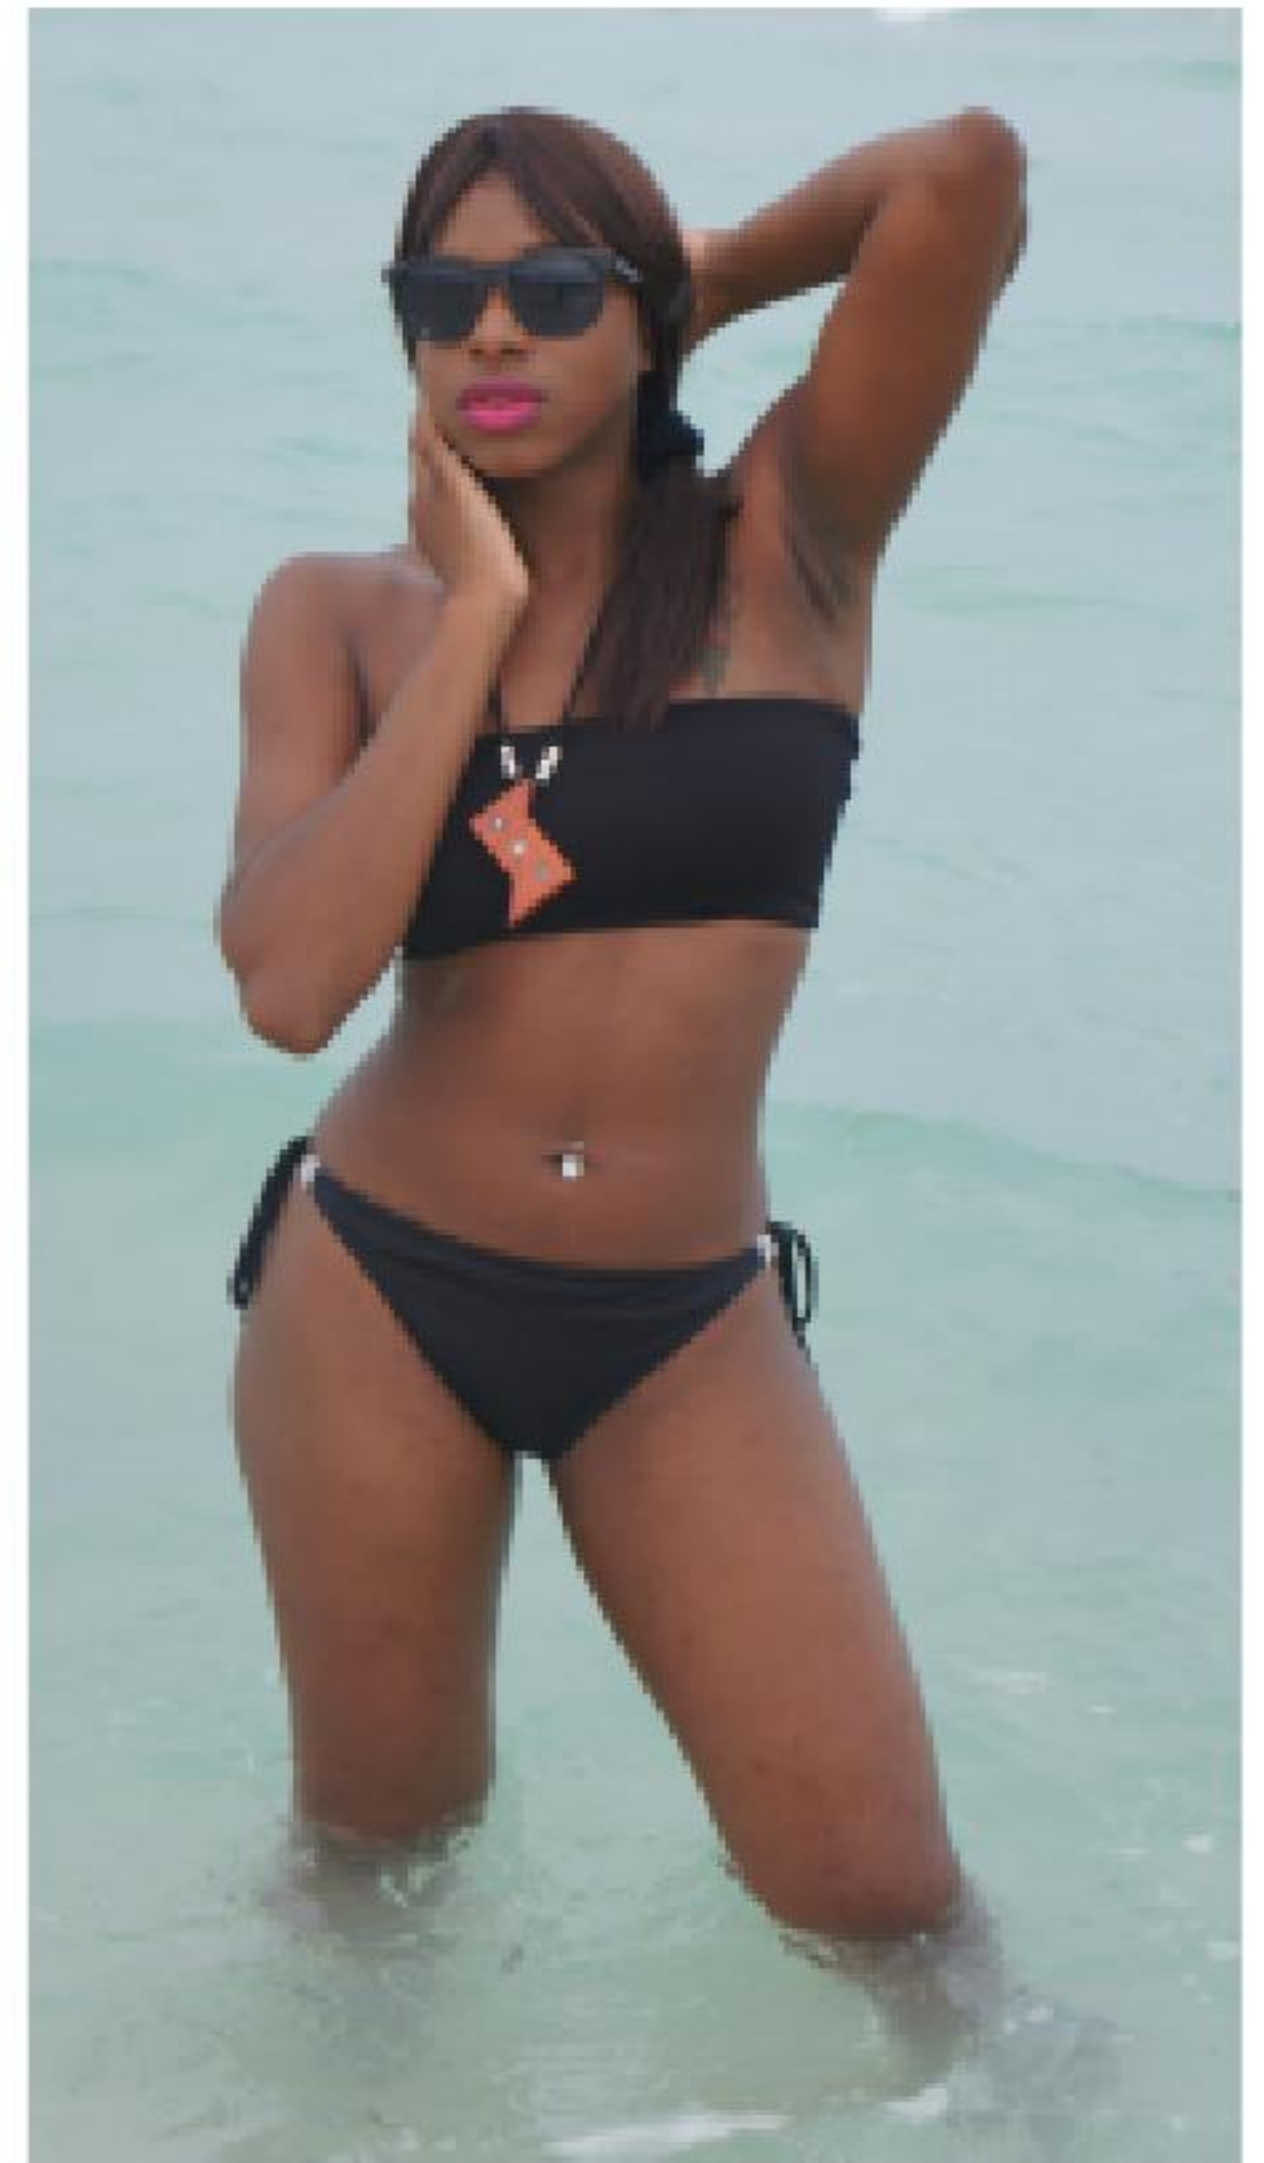

Model: Liyah Morgan
Photography by Vanesa Vigil

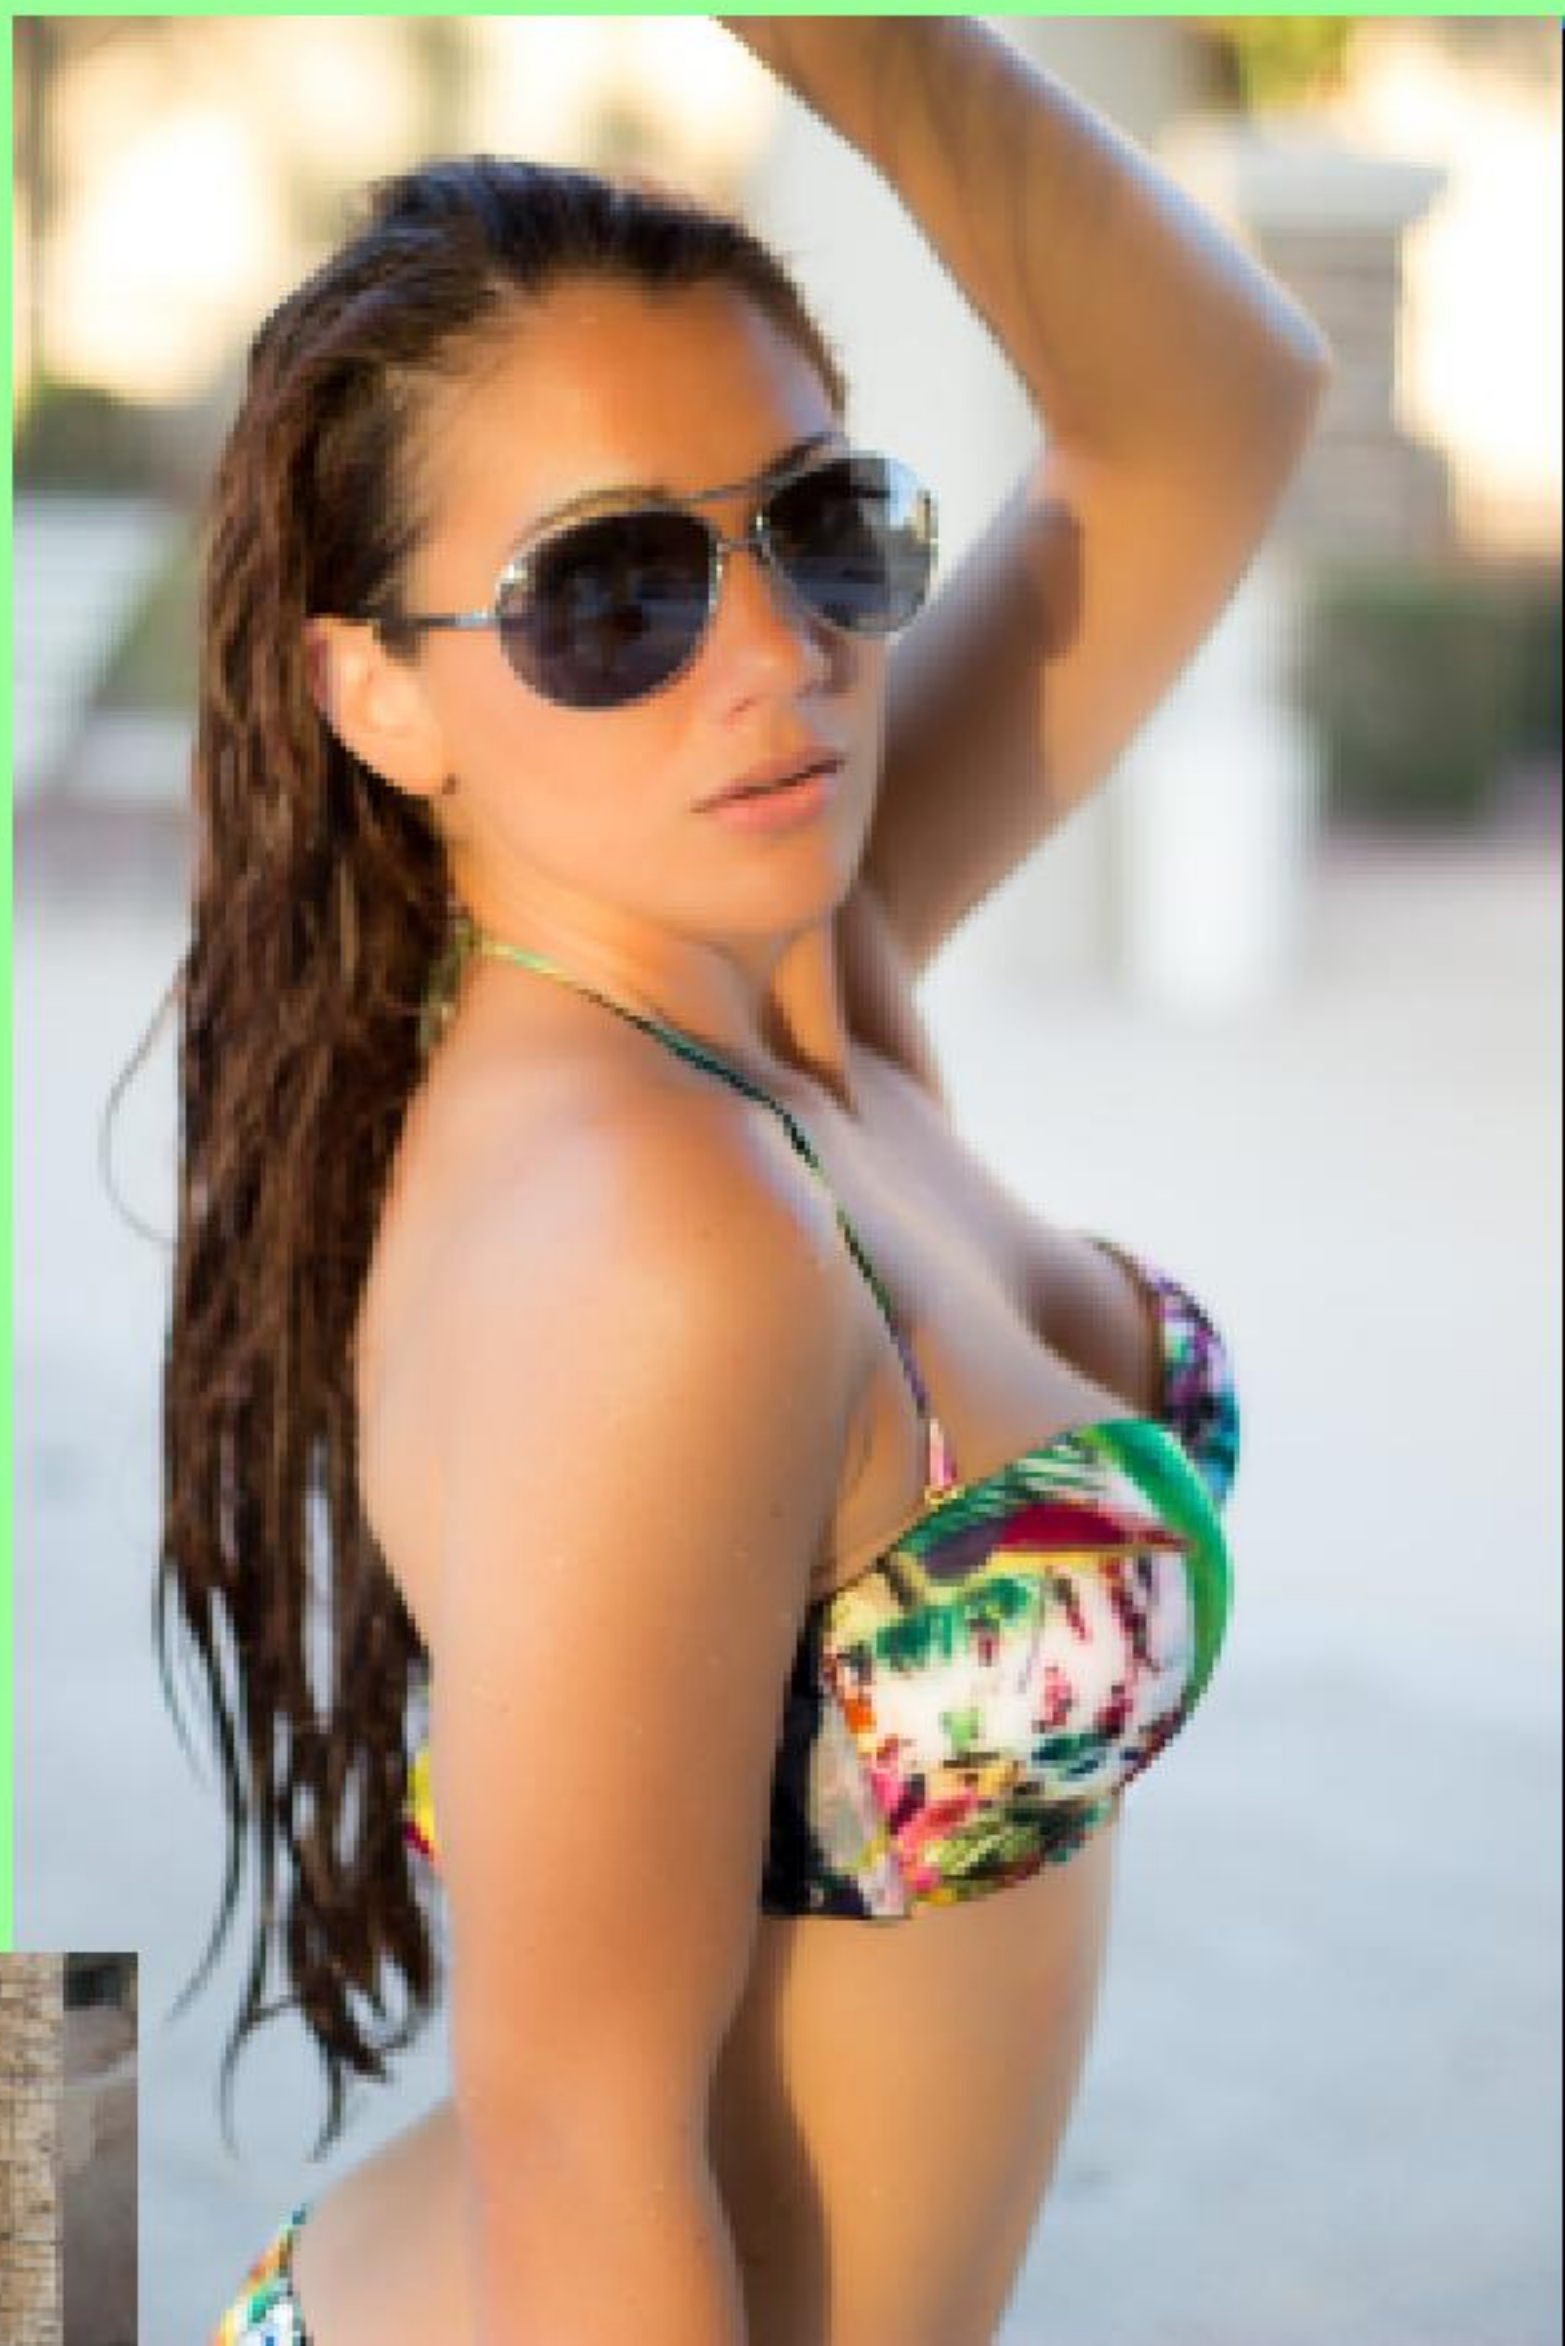

Lilian Vigil is a fashion designer with a mission. She wants to enhance and to provoke fashion in every piece she designs. She was born in El Salvador but grew up in Queens, NY.... Growing up in NY always make her dream of fashion and glamour; but her real moment came, when she realized that she was so bored of her regular 9 to 5 office job and decided to get into fashion. Seeing people walking on the street also made her realized that there were 2 groups of people, the ones that dress trendy, chic and fashionable and the ones that dress just to dress. She wanted to change that, in her own way. She decided to go back to school and attended the Miami International University of Arts and Design with the only purpose of crystalize her dream.

She also got her experience through school, playing with fabrics and some jobs related to the fashion industry. Now she believes is time to experience on her own the real fashion world by launching her own clothing, swimwear and jewelry lines. Her only purpose is to reach the world through fashion. She now owns an online store along with her sister Zulma. She works constantly to bring pieces that will fit and enhance the woman body. She has already designed a 'ready to wear' collection of leggings and blouses, a line of swimming wear and it's looking forward to extend her collection to dresses, handbags and fragrances. Lilian enjoys working and collaborating with industry insiders to create unique and custom pieces needed to showcase her colleagues own work. Lilian finds inspiration in her travels. A trip to India and the beauty and vibrant textiles that she encountered in this beautiful culture, inspired her to play with colors and different patterns and motivated her creativity to a new level.

Katrina

Katrina Ramos is a 22 year old model, currently following a path to becoming a great pharmacist. She's been modeling on and off for 2 years and acting for 3. She loves both of the arts, even though most people would say they are different she feels they are a lot alike .Each in its own way has a selling point that the actor or model is responsible for playing out, as well as a character they are to portray. That in itself is exhilarating and exciting. Her ethnic background is very busy one, with Irish, Scottish, German, Native American, Filipino, Mexican, and Portuguese which gives her the "exotic" look that makes her a sought after model and actor. She says her favorite designer out right now is Dolce and Gabbana. She admits that that's a first pick for most but she actually fell in love with the designers. They go from the glitz and glamour to the everyday look, their clothes, accessories, shoes, fragrances, and even their ads draw you in with its unique taste. She loves the originality the designers bring to the table every year and look forward to it.
