September 2014

Rockshot Live | Tim Baker

Wow, our First Anniversary Issue... it's been a great ride, I can't believe we actually made it! I'd like to thank all of our contributors from all the issues, without you this magazine would not have been possible. We have had submissions from all over the US, along with Europe, South America and Australia. As we continue to move forward we will be looking for even more submissions from every corner of the globe.

In this issue we feature 3 native Arizonians shot by our staff photographer Scottsdale Images.. Cover model Courtney Coco, Center feature Maryanne Williamson and Jassi Bee. Along with Sher Lynn from Indiana and Jasmin, originally from the Philippines. Plus we feature two great photographers, Tim "Midas" Baker and Chris Zambello.

We are still accepting submissions for our November issue, and any future issue. We'd especially like to have some designers or boutiques submit so we can feature them.

Our reach through the first 6 issues has crossed 700,000 online views worldwide... so please take a moment and like our Facebook page.. it's lagging way behind that number... <https://www.facebook.com/bikiniimagazineus>

Thank you again for all of your wonderful support and we'll see you in November!

Jassi Bee

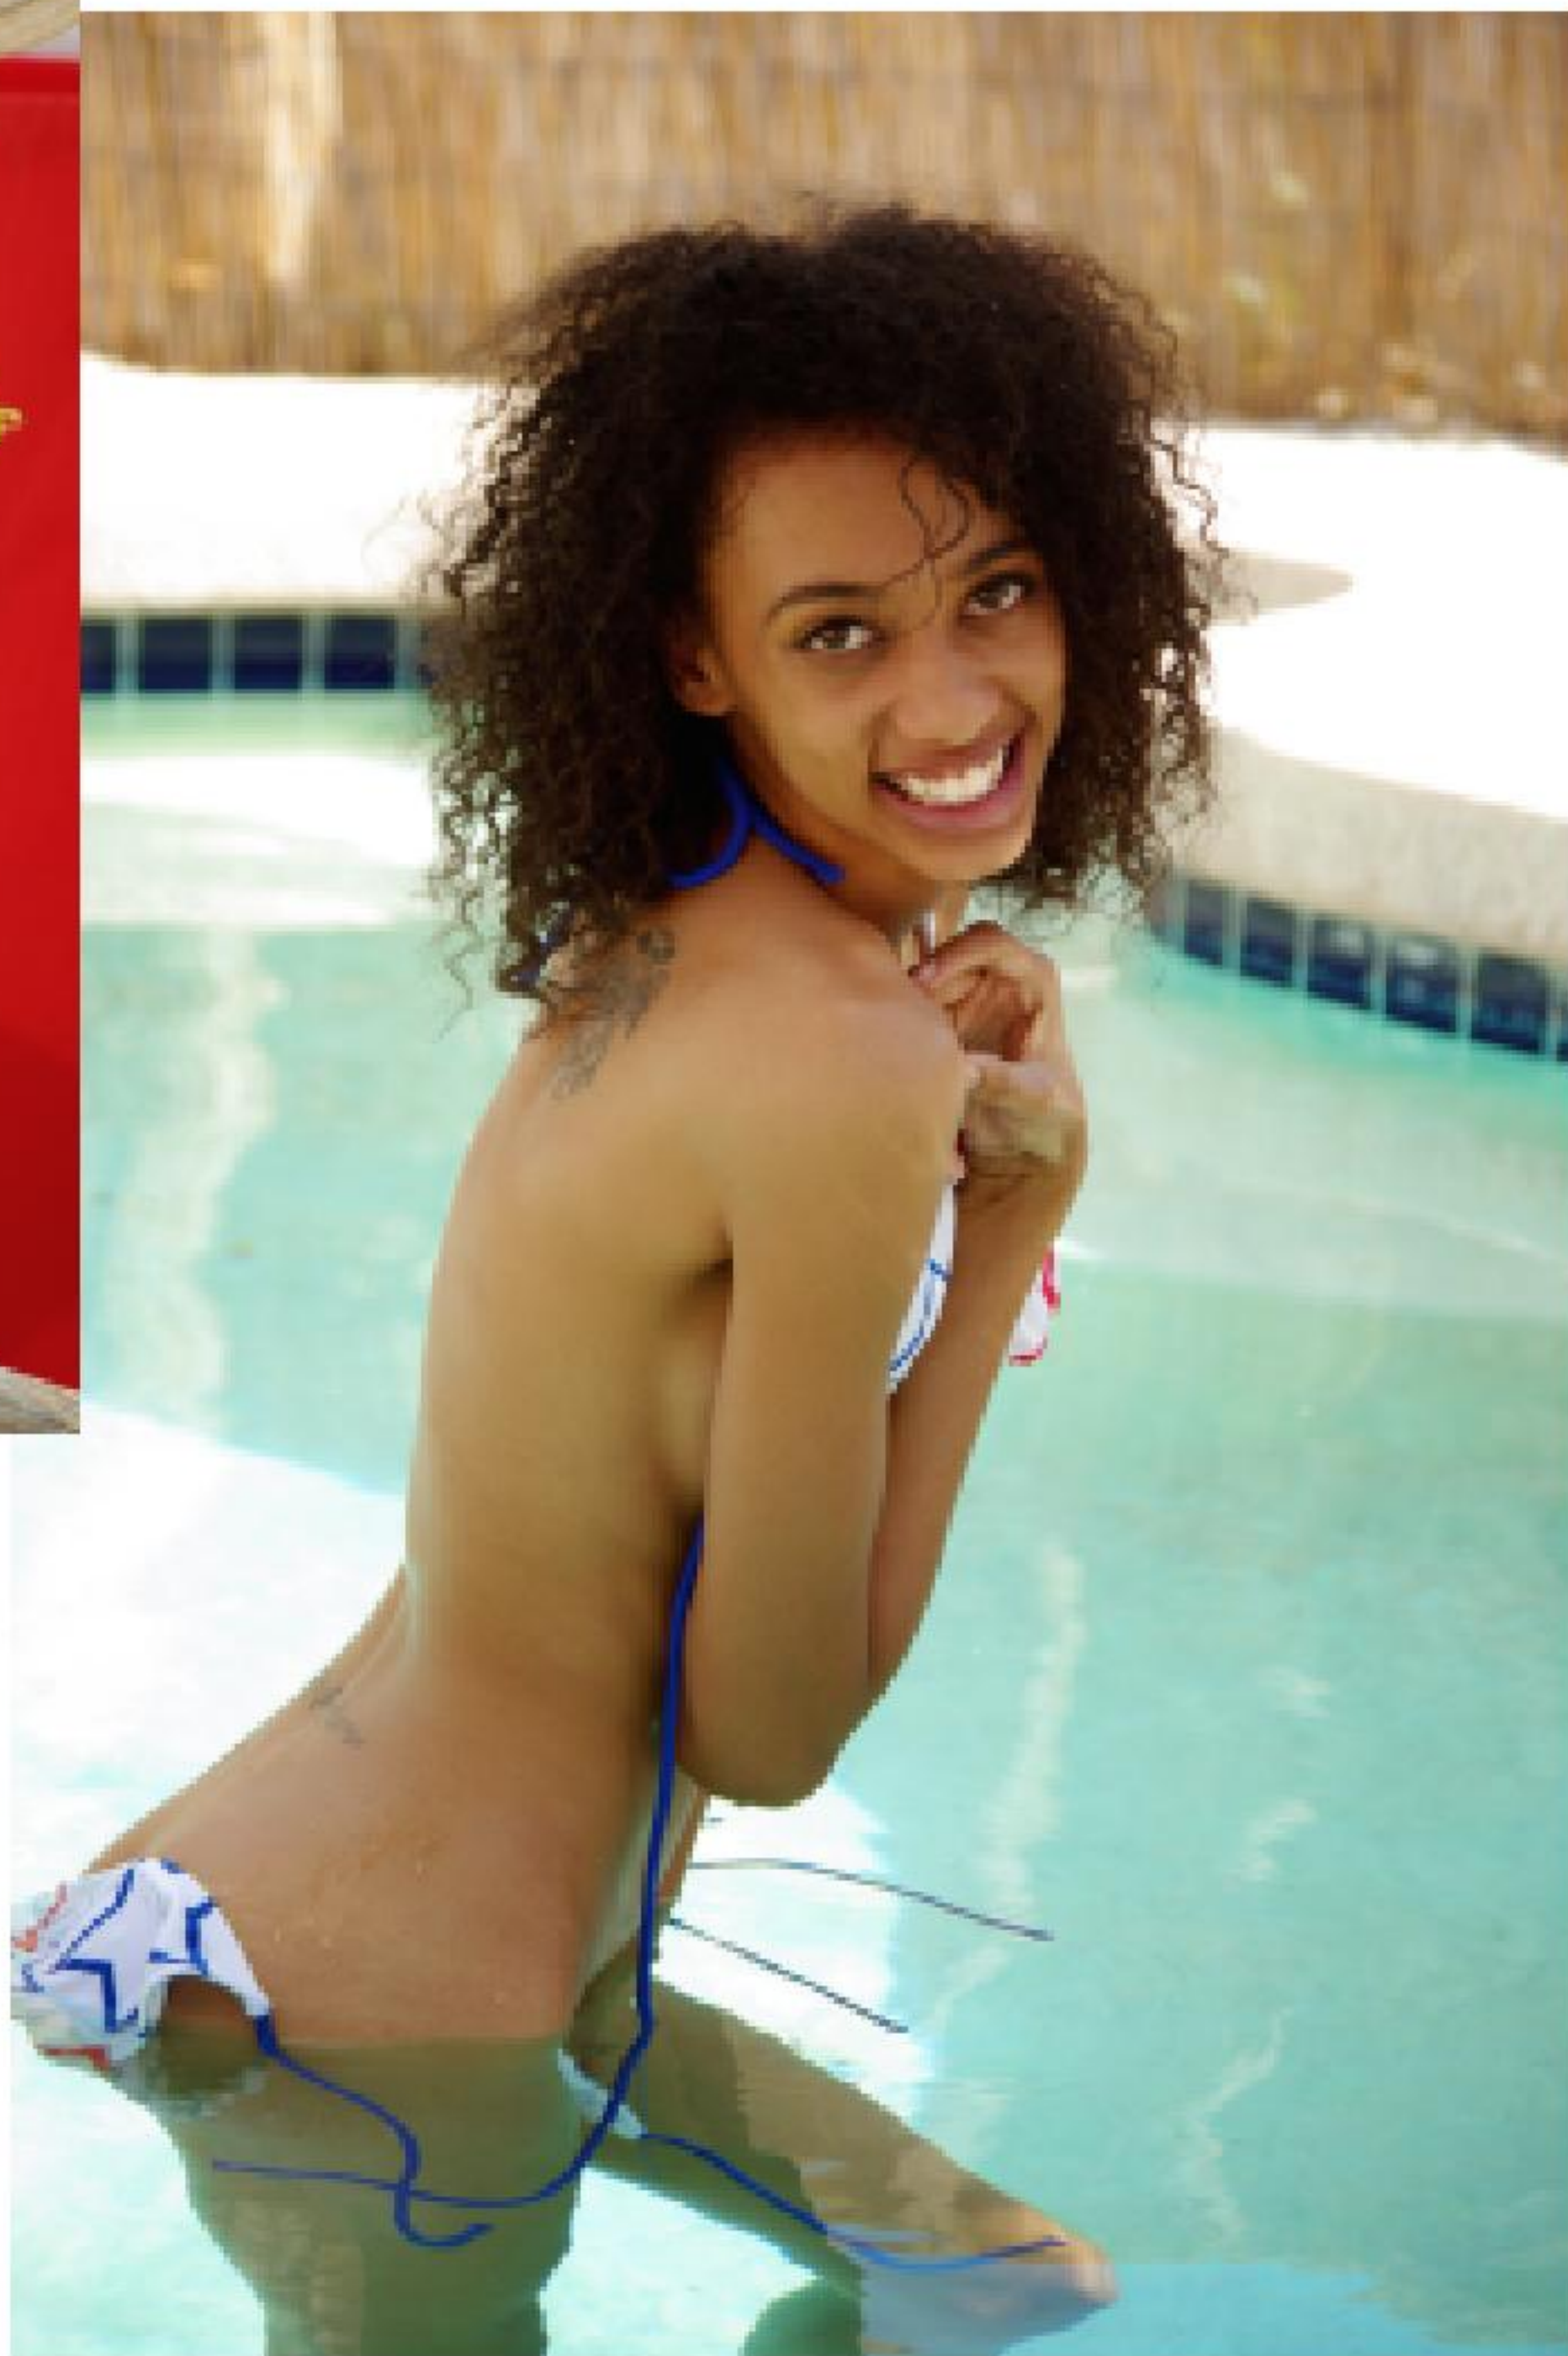

Jassi Bee was born and raised in Phoenix, Az. Her career as a fashion model and swimsuit star began almost by accident when many strangers in the community approached her about being a model. She continuously said “no” until she began modeling in 2012 at age 19. Jassi has participated in many hair shows with Arizona Hair Stylist Peair Scott. She has also walked in many fashion shows for local designers like Kay’s Lamar Boutique in Phoenix Fashion 4 a Cause. Her gorgeous, lengthy legs make her stand at a statuesque 5’10”. She will continue to model lingerie, swimsuit, and high fashion clothing. Jassi Bee is currently working on networking and booking more print work and fashion shows. She has a knack for dance performance and continues to deliver on stage and in front of the camera.

Rock Shot Live Photography

Chris Zambello is a photographer residing in South Florida, He is a recent graduate of The New York Institute of Photography. He is a 20-year career firefighter who also owns Rockshot Live Photography. Focusing mainly on live rock show reviews, he also has shown a passion for fashion and glamour, hoping to achieve success in both worlds.

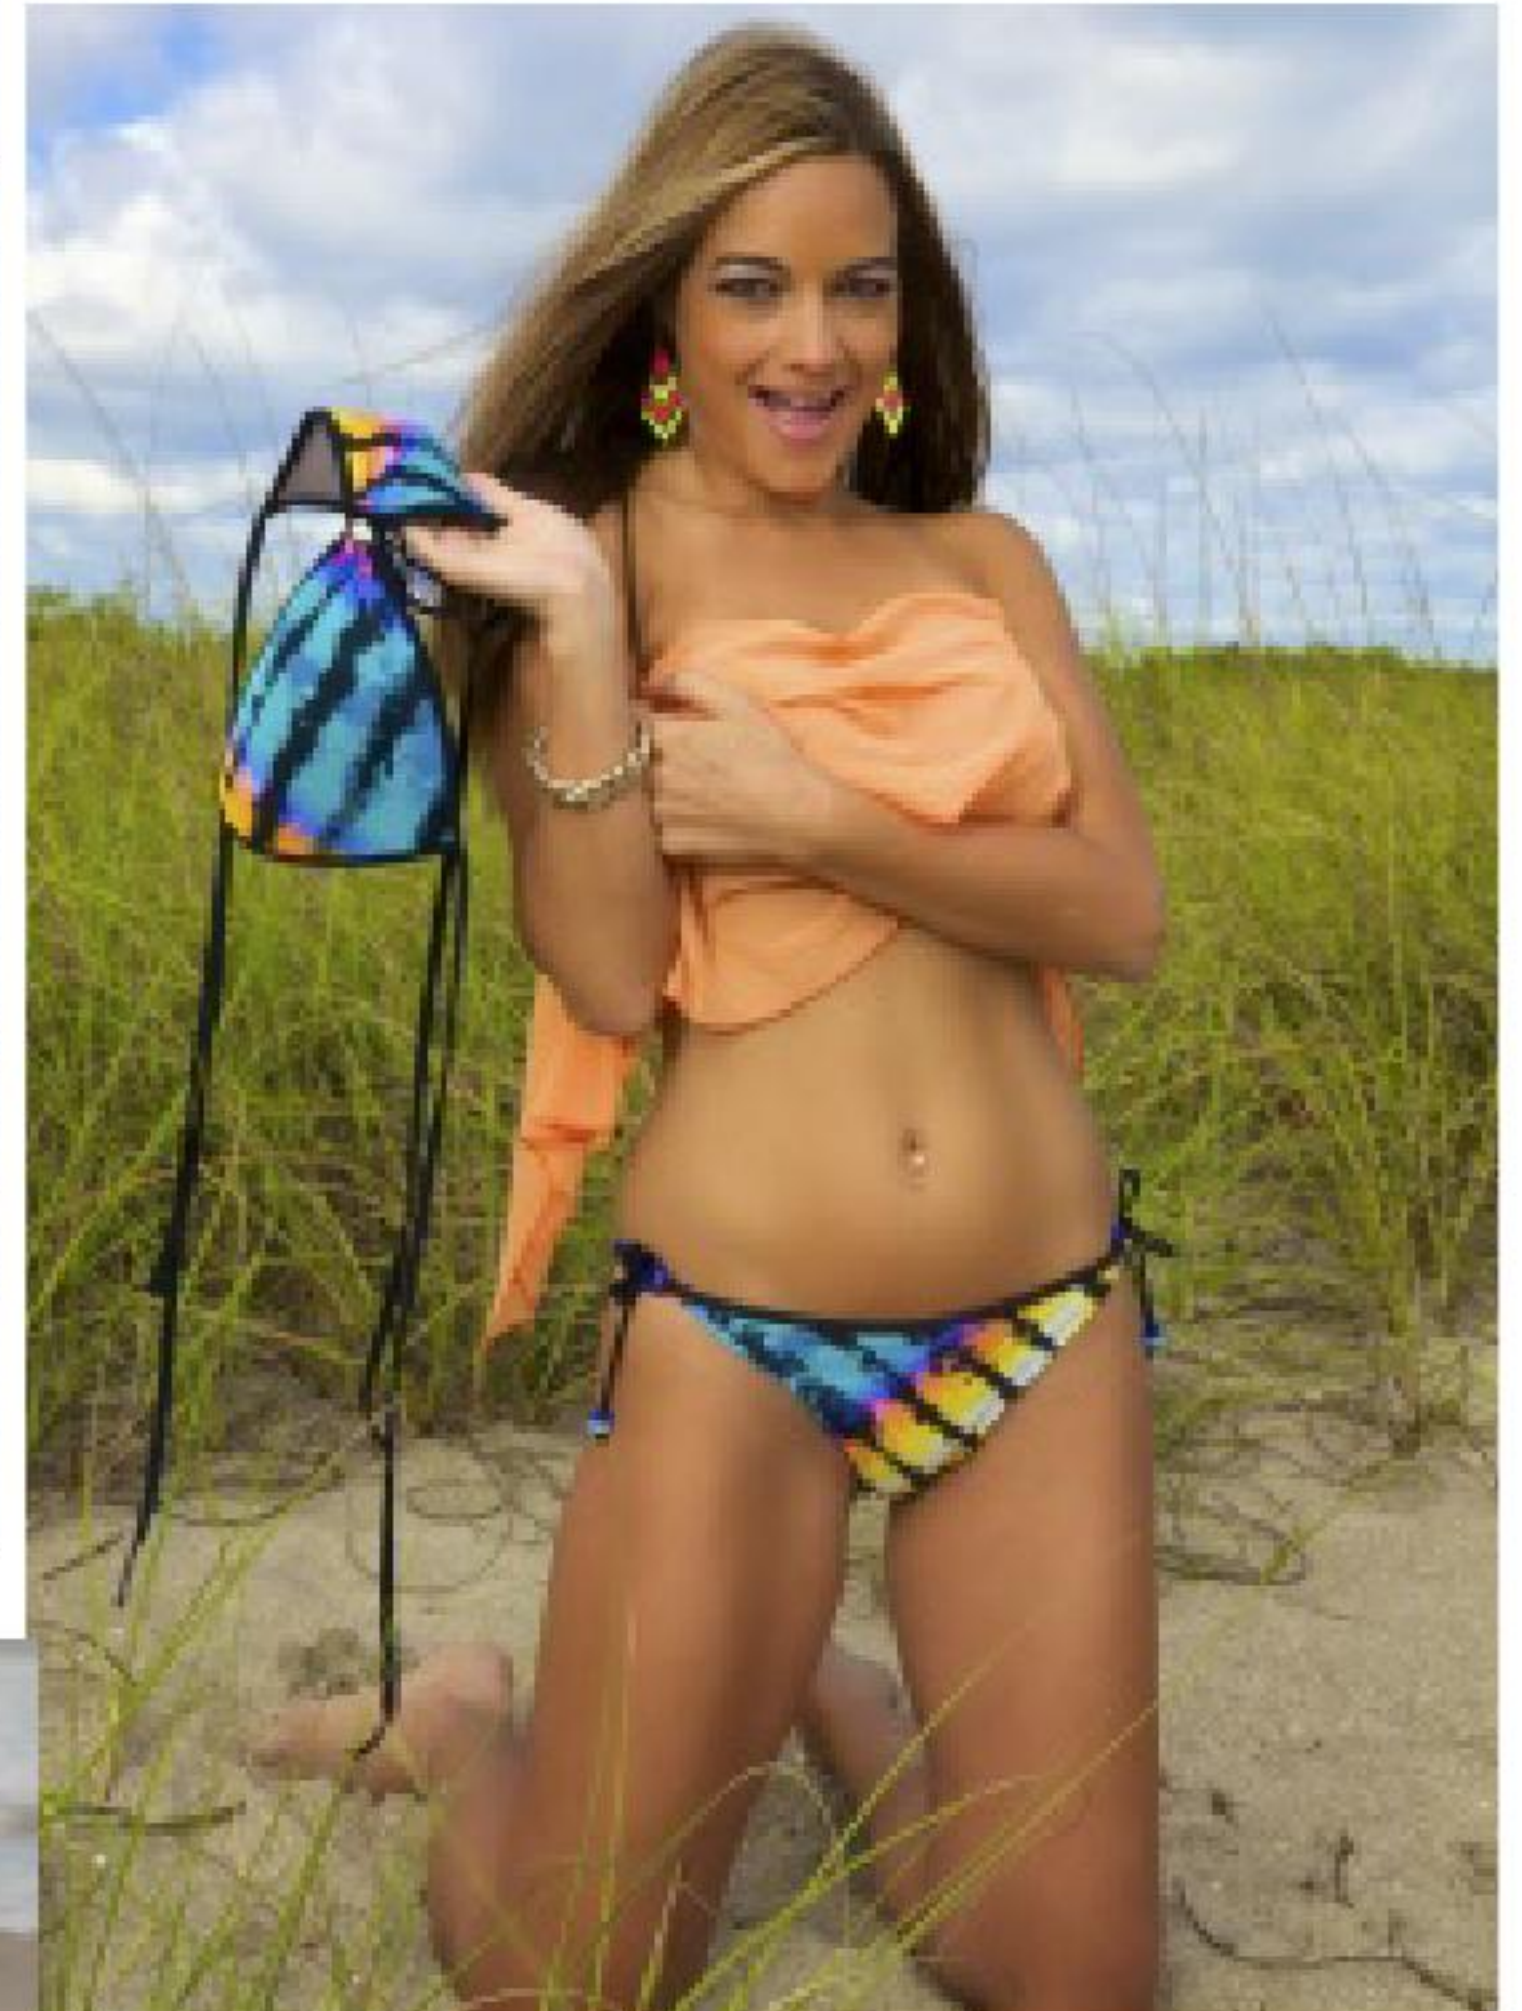

His main focus during a photo shoot is to just have fun and enjoy the moment. He says “ We usually have a blast out there” But he is also very meticulous with his lighting, backgrounds, and makeup... Finding that balance between fun and being professional is important to Chris, but isn’t a big challenge for him.

Chris mostly photographs women who are very new to the industry, helping them build their portfolios. He feels everyone sees the supermodels and dreams that they could look so good themselves. So he feels it's a challenge to get his models into their comfort level at first, but when they start seeing the results of his work, they relax and the fun begins.

Maryanne

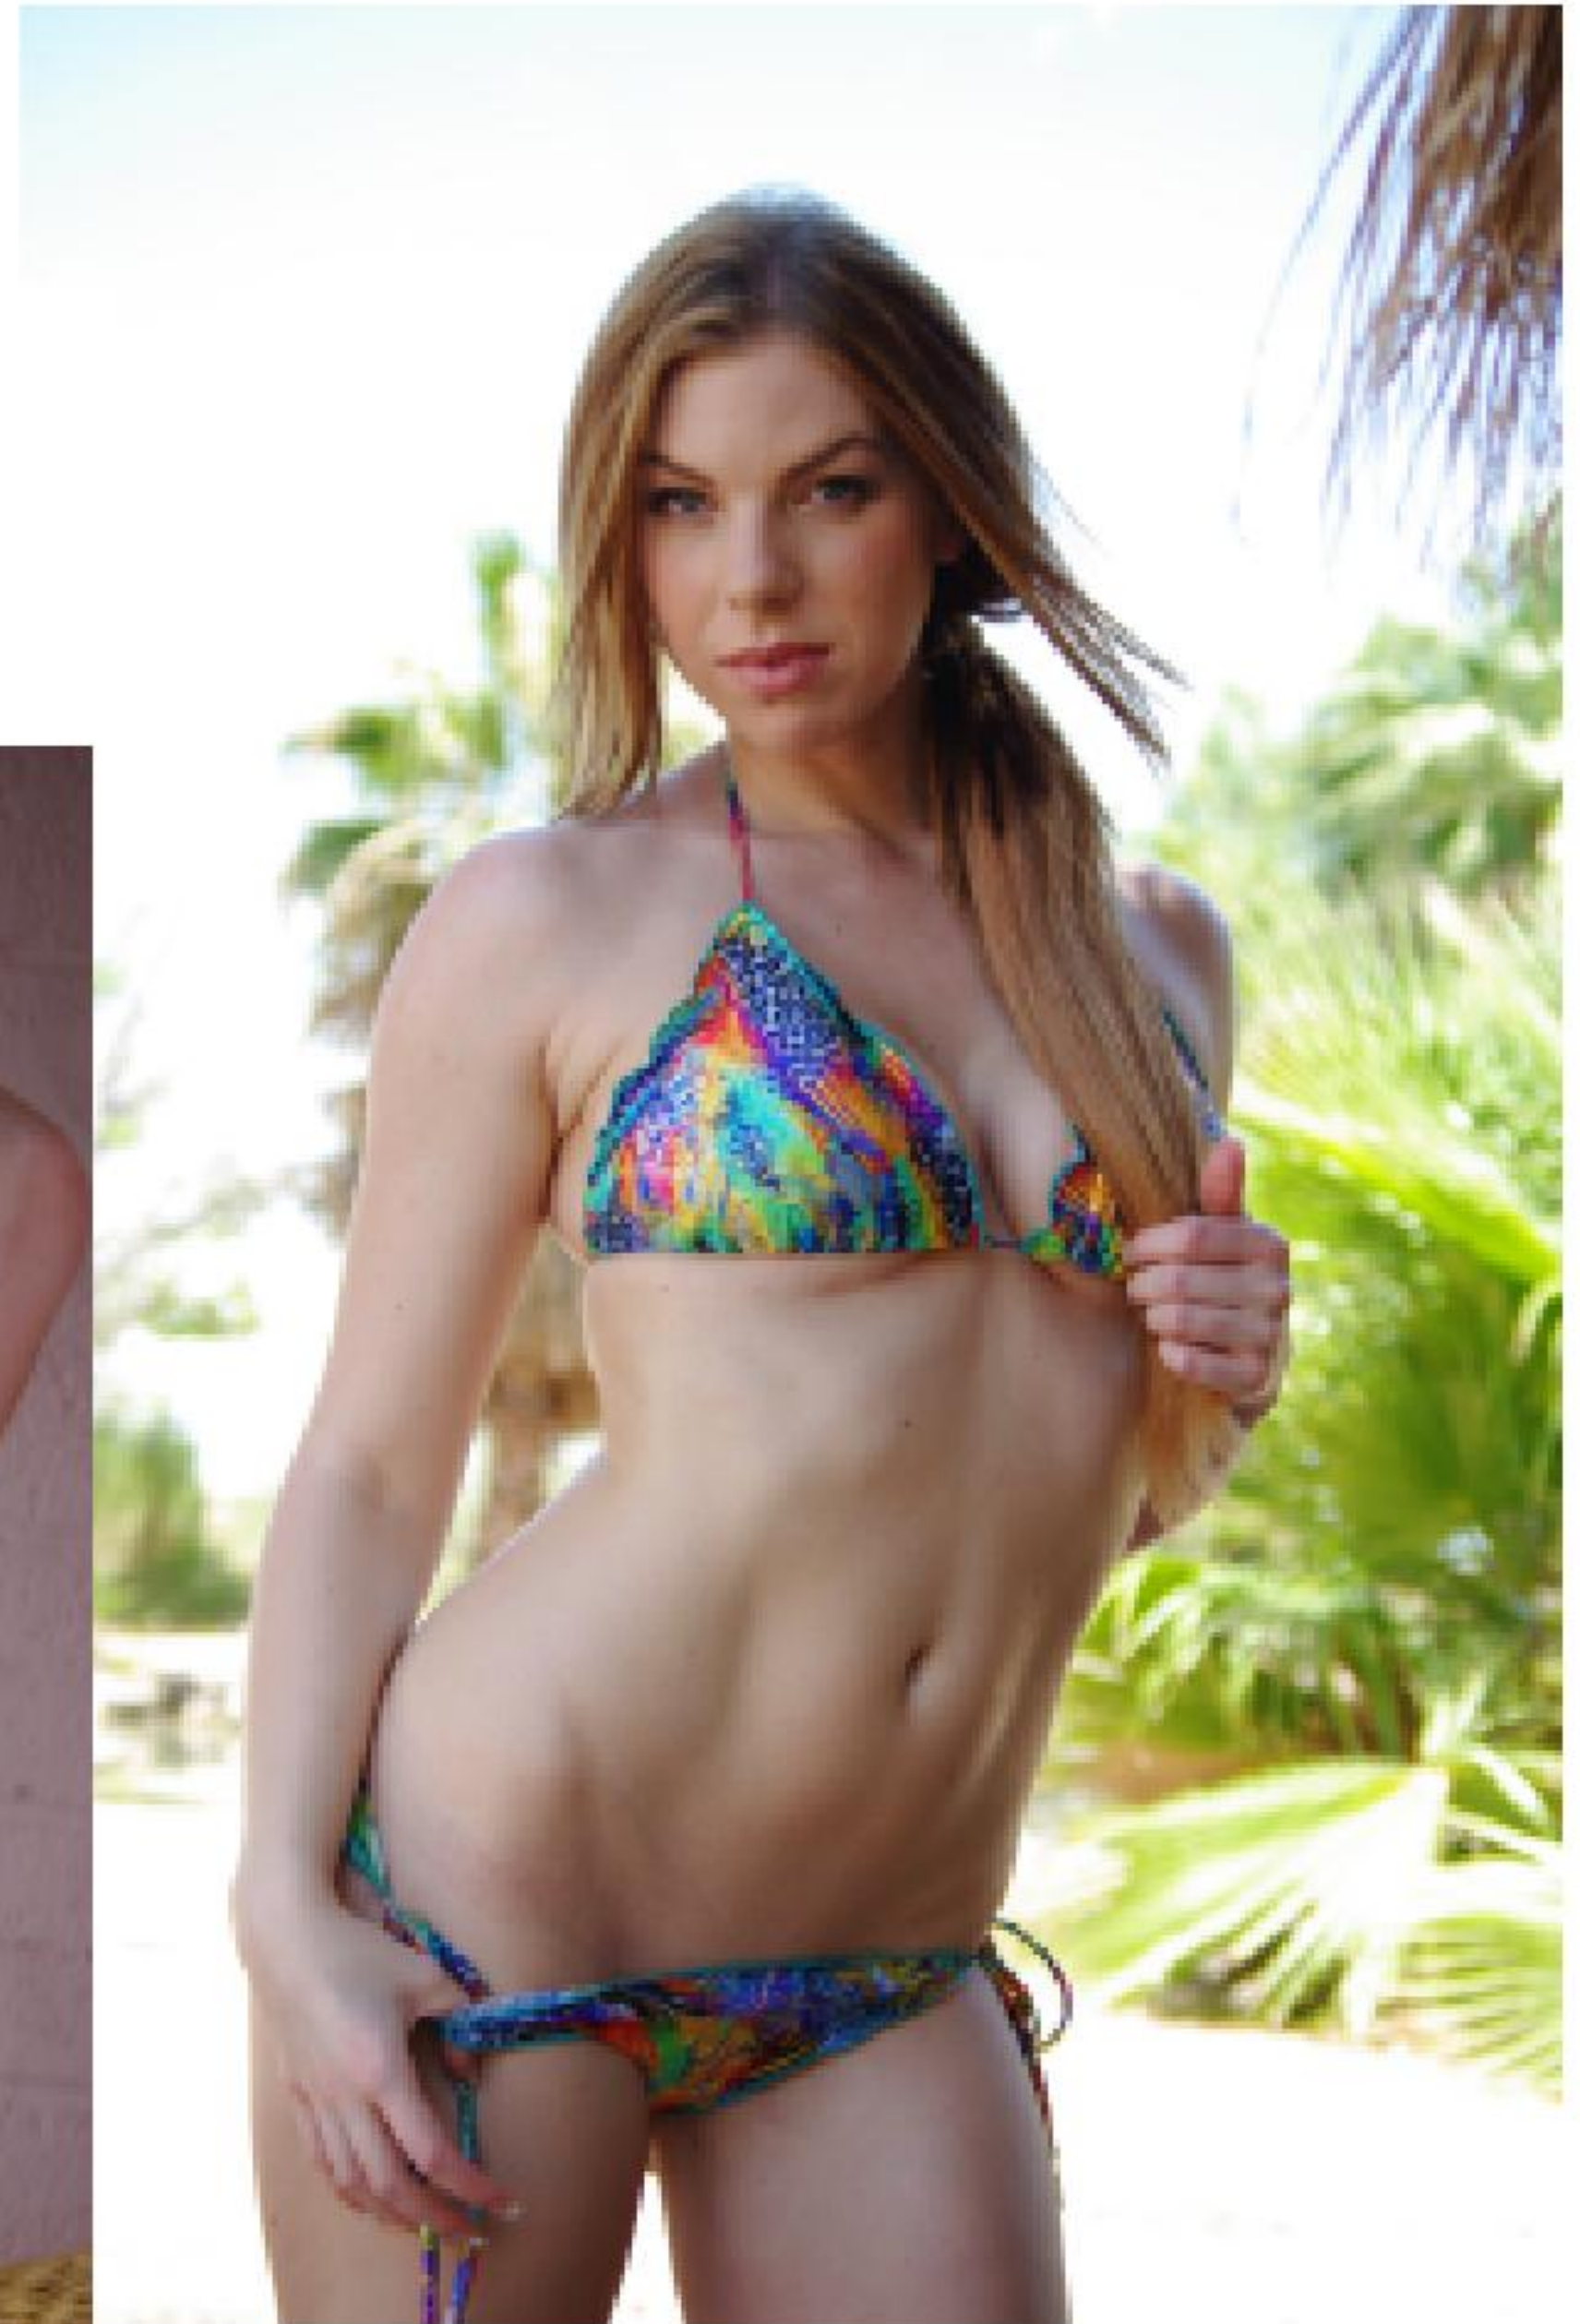

Born in Phoenix, Arizona in 1989. This young lady began her journey into the entertainment business at the age of seven. When she reached eighteen years old she then decided to take her modeling ambitions more seriously after being told by those around her including her own family that she not only had the looks but also the diversity and the personality to be a successful model in the industry.

Photography by Scottsdale Images

. "Every time she is in front of the camera there is something about her that stands out from everyone else..thats model quality right there." her parents would always say and still say to this day. Yes, we all know that even breaking into this type of business let alone making it big is a challenge in itself. Maryanne with no hesitation started out as a promotional model and has been doing promotions, trade shows and all kinds of charity events since.

She has promoted for various companies such as Harley Davidson, O'Neil, Bacardi, Coca-Cola and Make A Wish Foundation...you name it this girl has most likely done it. "I love being able to help promote different businesses, getting the word out and learning more about the products as I promote them, engaging with all types of people and just having fun, not to mention the pay isn't bad either." Maryanne is not only a successful promotional model but has also participated in a lot of local gigs from runway shows to editorial work. She has walked for 7th Heaven Boutique, Triangles, LA designer Melanie Nicole, Fascinations and Collections by Collins Swimwear.

"I love walking the runway..I realize I'm not 5'9 but I sure do feel it and even taller once I am on that runway, the audience's eyes on me, the adrenaline, it's such an exciting experience." Maryanne has also been featured in MainStream Magazine's November Issue for "What To Wear Fall Fashion" When it comes to fashion and what's in.. Maryanne is on top of it. Her love for fashion and trend setting has always been a passion of hers, so she definitely was thrilled to be in this article for MainStream. She has also modeled for many clothing lines local and non local. Vexations, a company branched off from the popular well known clothing line Afflictions in Los Angeles, California and Tuff Gear Ladies Fitness Apparel a fitness line created by Sid Westcott from New York City.

There is no question, this girl has accomplished a lot in just a few years and is not stopping there. She recently has had the pleasure of being a spokes model for the one and only Sugar Shane Mosley at one of his recent MMA fight events in Victorville, California. "Its something being around famous MMA fighters, I have to say I don't think I have ever had that many cameras on me at one time, and just being able to walk the red carpet and be interviewed, that's a moment i will never forget and am so honored to be apart of giving back to the community with such a great MMA event." Maryanne's exposure has reached a new level that is for sure. When it comes to her personally her hobbies include shopping, writing poetry, vacationing, going to the movies, nice dinners, working out and hitting the hottest new night clubs with her girlfriends from time to time. She enjoys Italian, and sea food not to mention Thai food now. "As far as dislikes go.. I would have to say rude people for sure, long lines and any type of bug around me at the moment especially spiders, roaches and bees.. yeah no thank you. Maryanne currently works at Urban Wax Studio a waxing and tanning salon in the Biltmore area of Phoenix. She believes in working hard for what you have, having faith in life, and loving everyday no matter what kind of day it ends up being, "life is just so short I feel like a lot of us tend to take things for granted and that's no way to live." Inspirational quotes and Will Smith's Inspirational videos help keep her drive alive and her fears out of the way. With a talented background in dance, singing, acting, writing, and modeling, as well as a balanced amount of educational background in College for Communications and Business

One huge goal of her's is eventually moving to either Los Angeles, New York..or Florida and being signed with a well known reputable agency in Commercial, Editorial and Print modeling as well as Film, TV, Voice Over and Commercial Acting. Maryanne is currently taking acting classes and has gotten a lot of her training at Dearing Acting Studio. There is no doubt about it this girl is on the road to success in any avenue she chooses; sky is the limit for this young lady.

Creative Visions by Michael*

Jasmin Lunar Leonzon, a 22 year old single mom was born and raised in the beautiful city of Manila, Philippines. She moved to United State in 2010 and began her modeling career. Her photography includes high fashion, lingerie, bikini swimsuits, and many more. Some of her passions, during her free time aside from modeling are; composing R&B and Rap songs, singing, dancing, playing billiards and swimming.

During her earlier years in high school she was a cheerleader, an aspiring actress and vocalist as well. After high school she studied at University City of Manila Intramuros in the field of BS Tourism and Hotel Travel Industry Management. Traveling was something Jasmin has always wanted to do and her travels inevitably brought her to fabulous Las Vegas Nevada where she currently resides.

Now studying in the medical field, her ambition and desire is to succeed and achieve her goals not only for modeling, but also in a nursing career. "I need to keep a strong mind as well as a strong foundation for my family." Jasmin says. "Hopefully there's a counterpart out there who can share the same values with me."

One of the pinnacle moments in her early modeling career was being a part of the Redken 5th Avenue Fashion Show held in Mandalay Bay a few years back. "The show was overwhelmingly beautiful and My hairstylist, Lyndsey Feurer made the event magical and very memorable to me."

Suddenly, all her dreams came true and offers poured after the successful event. "I have met many wonderful people and talented photographers in this industry and would especially like to thank one photographer in particular, Michael Bishop." "His wonderful mentorship and professionalism sets the bar for great photographs and unique ideas for me."

Jasmin says "These are just a couple of people who have given me inspiration to create some of the looks that I've compiled that even my other photographers compliment me on." And it's no wonder; she has worked in retail fashion store and sponsored some of their clothes to use it in several of her photo shoots. "My hair and make up I usually like to do on my own to ensure it's not over the top or out of my creativity," says Jasmin confidentially which make her very practical. This is a very beautiful and talented young Filipina woman, with strong beliefs, and feels that attitude, knowledge and skills, are the best foundation of real beauty.

*Courtney
Coco*

Courtney was born in Phoenix AZ and has lived there all her life so she is one of the few true AZ natives still in the state. Her nickname is Coco, which was given to her by her mother when she was still a little girl. She is currently attending college while also exploring her modeling career. Courtney has been a dancer and cheerleader since childhood, but finds modeling to be her passion

Photography by Scottsdale Images

She is a very spontaneous person and enjoys living for the moment, and this gives her the drive to entertain others. Yoga is one of her favorite hobbies because it brings peace to the mind and soul, fills her with positive energy, and dispels the stress and negativity from the world. Courtney is also very ambitious and has set herself many goals, such as a level of fame through her modeling career plus any other opportunities in the artistic/acting industry that her modeling affords her. Her main purpose in life is to make a positive difference in everyone around her, either directly or indirectly, and it is her hope that through her successes she can inspire others to believe in themselves and follow their dreams against all odds. To quote Courtney herself; "Our life is a dream, heaven is reality".

Tim (Midas) Baker

*Models: Kendra Singleton
Kerrington Grabill
Ashtyn Rheann Brooks*

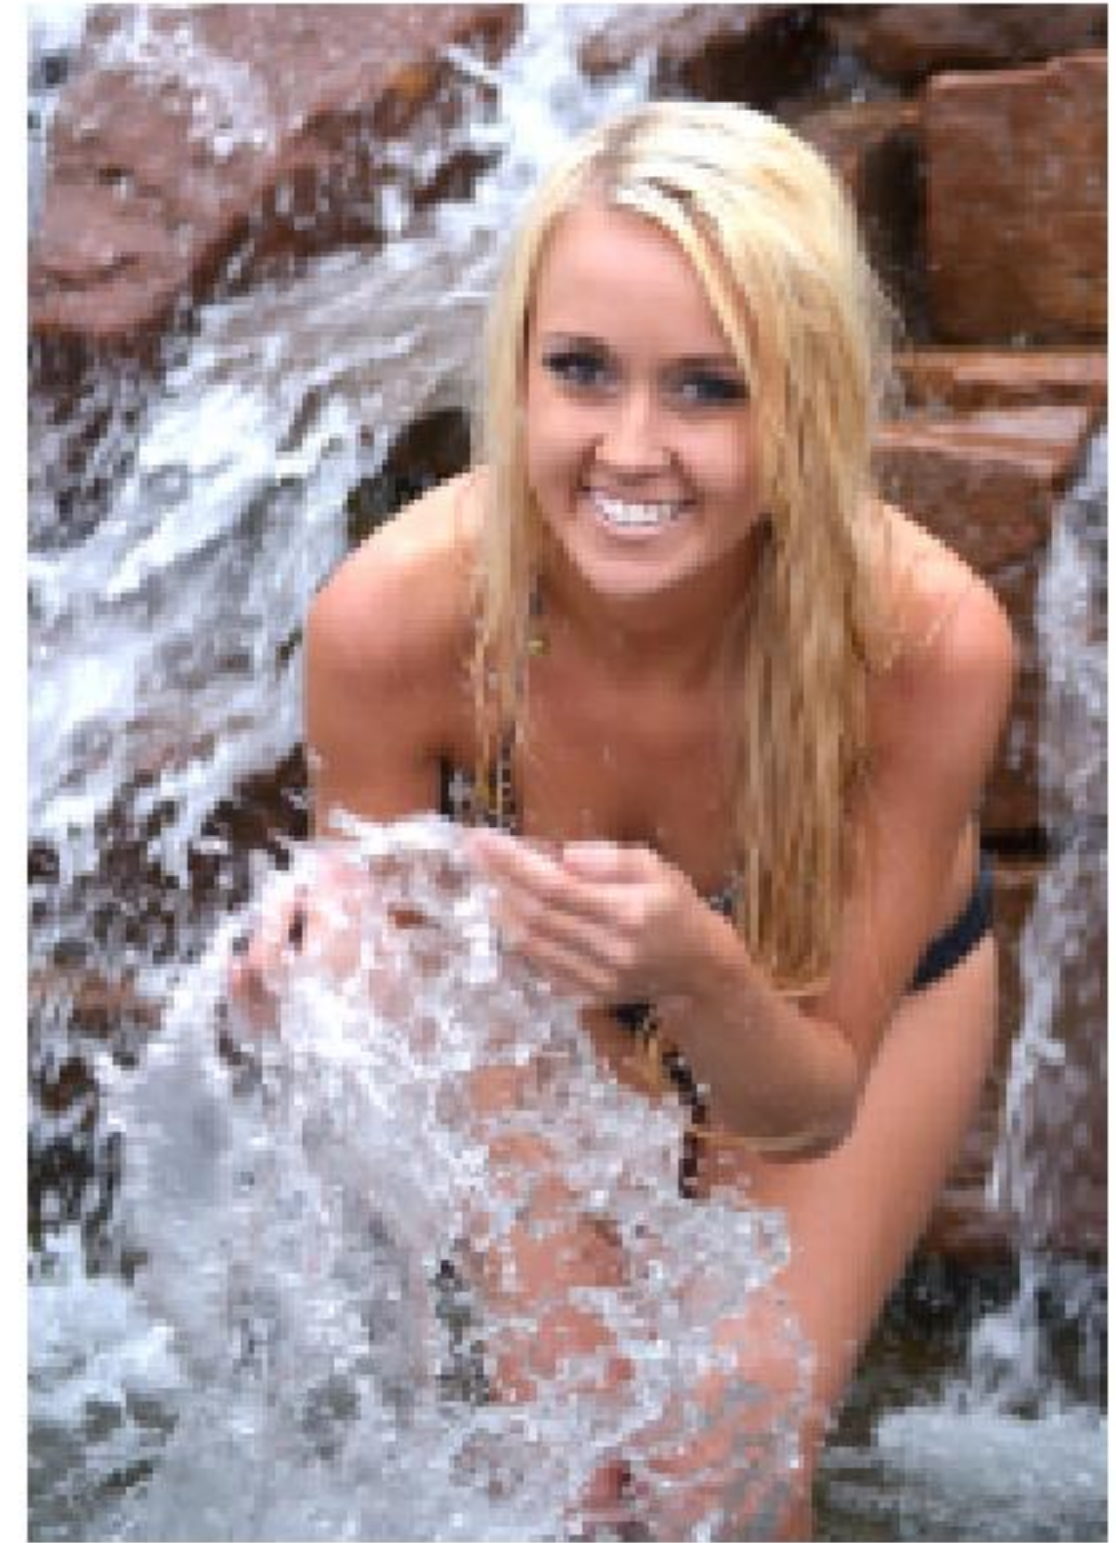

Tim (Midas) Baker began his journey in photography while a junior in college after seeing the work of noted sports and figure photographer David Allio. After purchasing his first camera, Midas gained recognition by placing in his first photo contest within months of picking up the camera. While finishing his career in college, Midas took on the role of both editor and photographer of his college yearbook, which gained recognition for the vast improvement of the photo content.

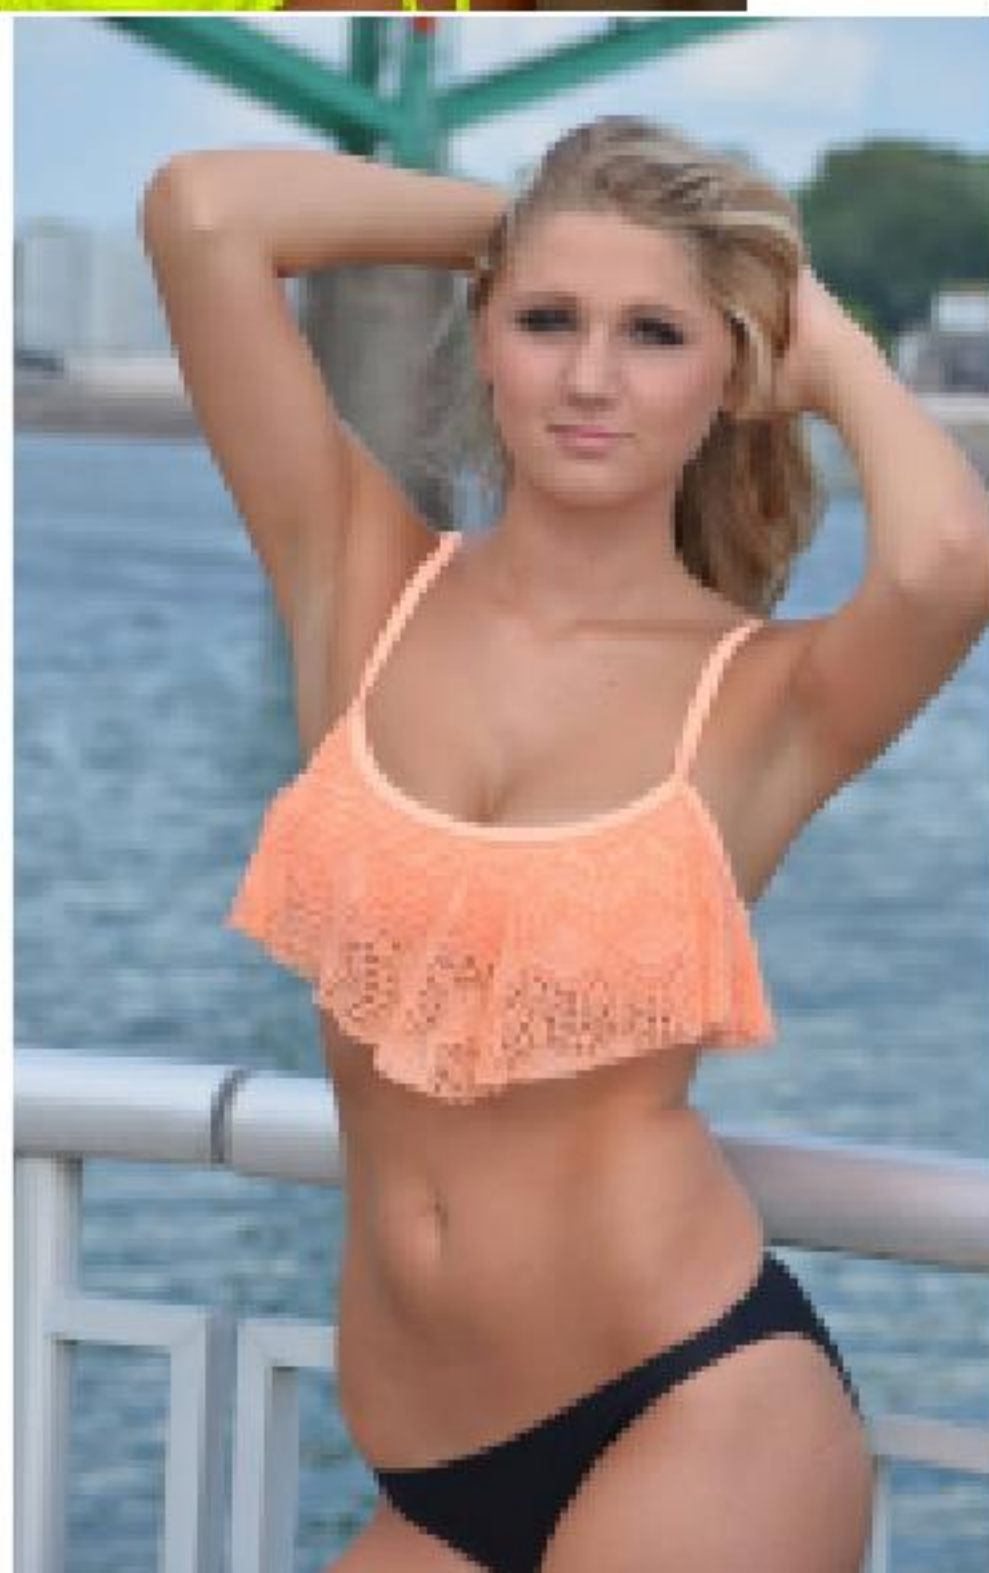

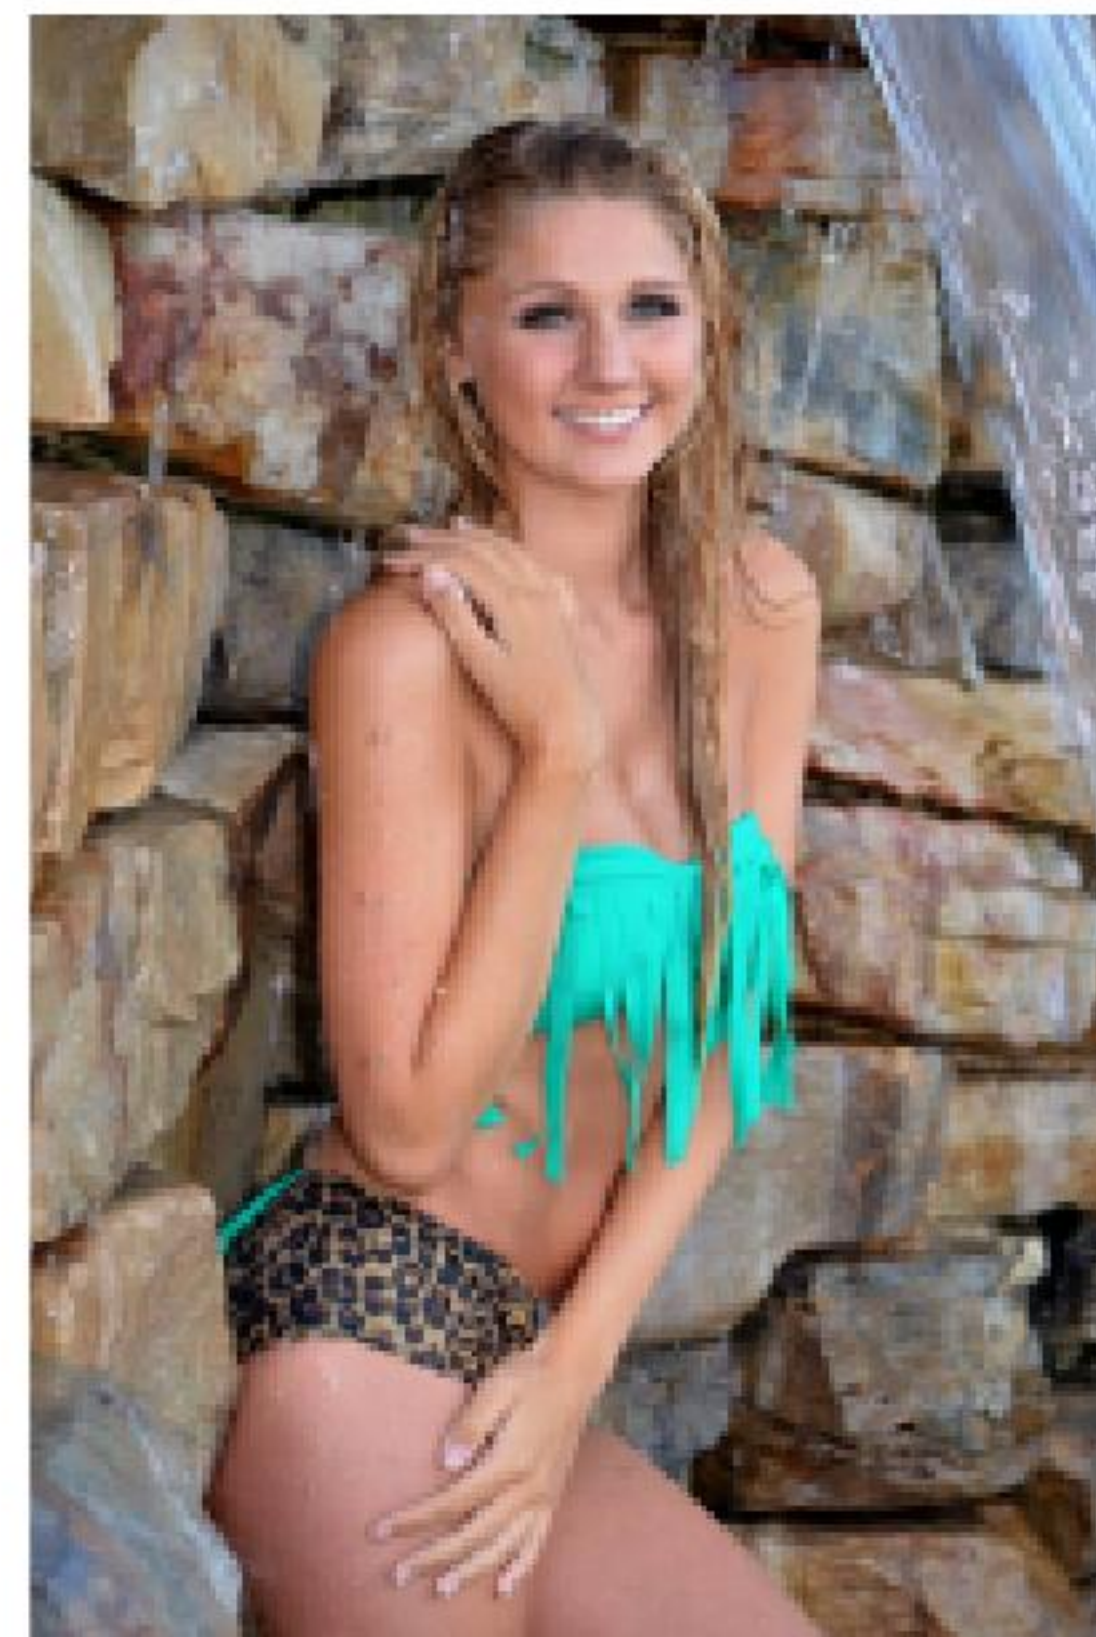

After graduation, Midas located to Myrtle Beach, SC. He took steps of becoming a professional by accepting a position with an advertising agency. However the type of assignments did not satisfy the need to work with people and left the company after a short period. While living in South Carolina, Midas produced his most awarded work "Galleon at Night". Years later, Midas returned to his native Virginia and opened Golden Image Photography. The specialty was portraiture and wedding photography with some portfolio work with local models. Another award winning photo was created during this period "Cory Loves Allie". From 1998-2011, was a period of retirement from the world of photography and he decided to make a go of it again in 2012 in a much larger city than a small Virginia town. After a slow start, Midas has established himself as a sought after photographer with clients who have graced many runways and ads to clients who are nationally & internationally known centerfolds and cover girls. The suggestion from model Kendra Singleton to consider publications was a big pay-off for both as she was featured in July 2014 edition of Bikini Magazine and a top candidate for 2015 Calendar Model

But one question remains,
how did Tim become Midas?
Was it everything he touched become a muffler or gold?
He'll never answer publicly but maybe if you shoot with him he may reveal the secret.
