PRESENTS

CELEBRITY DIARIES

kip this part and advance to the next few pages, quick! Our cover star, Survivor Celebrity Showdown finalist and FHM icon Aubrey Miles, is dying to tell you in full detail how she physically prepared for her recent reality show stint. Her training, incidentally, involves a shower heater and lots of booze.

She is joined by her real-life bosom buddy Jacq Yu; supermodel Ornusa Cadness; GMA-7 hot properties Janna Dominguez; Jen Rosendahl and Alyssa Alano; singer-host-model Khai Lim; indie film stars Mercedes Cabral and Xaviera; Brazilian import Gabriela Milagre; and FHM favorite Jem Milton. As in last year's Celebrity Diaries, they confess their most unladylike of deeds in the spirit of good fun. But this time around, we let them act out their fantasies via the sizzling-hot photos. So don't be surprised if you see in these pages a helicopter taking off, or multiple identities of the same woman making out with each other. It may sound arrogant to say this is the best-looking set of photos to appear in an FHM special, but we seriously think it is.

As an added bonus, we also bring you the Premiere Vixens—victors Paulene So, Karen Bordador, and Christine Marquez as well as finalists Sofie Garrucho, Abby Poblador and Jahziel Manabat-doing what they do best, which is to make you squirm like a shy high school boy.

Women rule the world and that's the truth.

One time, I got smashed and made out with a girl at a private resort. I was drunk, she approached me, kissed me, undressed me, grabbed my breasts and even went down on me. It was too late when I realized there were more than just the two of us.

SCORCHING TALES OF GIRL TO GIRL ENCOUNTERS.

THE GOOD, THE BAD AND THE KINKY!

My best friend Alisson and I are both bisexuals. The two of us are working in the same office. We are very close and comfortable with each other-so comfortable that we have intimate sex every now and then. Our most unforgettable sexual experience was when one of our girl friends invited us to a Halloween costume party at her house. I suggested we go as Darna-Valentina tandem. The day of the party came, and everyone said our costumes were the best. Alisson was so sexy in her Darna outfit; guys couldn't take their eyes off her. The party went on and we helped ourselves to a couple of drinks. When the party was over, Alisson and I were both drunk. Our friend offered us their guest room for us to stay in for the evening. We went upstairs to get some rest. The alcohol was kicking in. As we lay in bed, I turned to her and told her how beautiful she was in her dress. I went closer to her and gave her a kiss. She faced me and kissed me back. We were both feeling quite hot now, as we began exchanging kisses with each other. We embraced, and our hands began to fondle and caress each other's body. I began to lower myself kissing every inch of her until I found myself between her thighs. I smiled as I noticed her pretty red bikini matched with a golden belt. It seemed to be the exact replica of her character's costume. I reached over them and pulled them down. Now I could see her pussy, wet and ready to be licked and sucked. I brought my face close to her cunt and darted my tongue in and out. I began licking her sweet-tasting pussy, every part of it. I even used my fingers to part the soft lips of her vagina and started to finger her. All this time she was grinding her hips and moaning.

PLEASURE ROOM

It had been a year since I've had my first girl-to-girl experience when my bisexual nature was reawakened. I thought my previous experience would be the last until I started bed-spacing in an exclusive dormitory for girls in Makati. One of my roommates instantly caught my eye. She's not drop-dead gorgeous but she's attractive, with more than average-sized boobs, topped with a sexy body and sex appeal that refueled my lust for the same sex. In addition to that, I noticed that when she sleeps, she's always clad in panties and a tank top without a bra. I couldn't help but imagine how her protruding nipples would look like and I ached to feel, lick and taste her pussy. One night, she invited me to drink in our room. In between drinks, she revealed that she had a threeyear relationship with a lesbian. I also told her that I've already had a same-sex experience and enjoyed it. After downing a bottle of brandy, I was feeling light-headed so I asked if I could just rest my head on her pillow. I was half-asleep when I felt hands removing my pants. I stirred and saw her on top of me. After seeing my reaction, she whispered in my ear, "Gusto mo ba?" but instead of answering, I kissed her lips ravenously and began to undress her. It was pure delight when I felt her firm boobs and thumbed her taut nipples that I blurted out, "Antagal ko na gustong gawin ito." She seemed to be turned on because she was so wet when I fingered her. She kept on calling my name while I licked and sucked her pussy, until she came. It was near dawn when we decided to get some sleep. It was not our last session but a complex twist of events made her decide to move out of our dorm. We still communicate though, and I'm just waiting for the right chance to invite her for a drink and maybe get a chance to make her say my name again. YM GIRL, BY EMAIL

CLASSMATES ACCOMPLISH 'REPORT'

I am a bisexual and presently in a relationship with a girl. We make love a lot. One day, I brought her to my parents' house, introducing her to my mom as a friend who needed to spend the night with me in order to finish a report. Right after dinner, we rushed into my room and kissed each other. After some torrid tongue action, she pushed me down on my bed and kissed me even more passionately. We took off our clothes, then she licked my body-from my nipples all the way down to my vulva. She put her three fingers in my genitals and played with my clit until I came. We slept and did it again the next morning. If only making "reports" were this fun!

'STRAIGHT' GIRLS DO IT FOR KICKS

I have this friend from school and she's a chick. We're both straight and we both have boyfriends. One time, we were at my condo. We got bored so we drank vodka while watching a movie. There was a girl-on-girl action scene. We were drunk and, out of nowhere, she said, "What if gayahin natin yun, for experience lang?" I just laughed because I didn't know she was serious! But I got a bit aroused when she said that. She left for a while, saying she'd just get something from the kitchen, and when she came back, she was completely naked! So there she was, naked with perfect huge tits. We have the same cup size: D. I was sitting and she went toward me. She got my hand and used it to caress her boobs. I got horny, so I licked her nipples. It started from there and our finale was this: she got a hair brush from her bag, got it clean, and she put the handle in me. She stuck it in really deep. It was great because the brush was long and big. "Malapit na ako," I told her. She said, "Sige, hihigupin ko na lang." She was great! It was my first, but later on I found out that she had done it before with a roommate. We're still friends. When our boyfriends aren't available, we do it ourselves. No one knows but us!

It was one hell of a scene—imagine Valentina was eating Darna's wet pussy and bringing her to an orgasm.

After a couple of minutes she finally reached her climax. Too bad Alisson couldn't fly. We could've done it mid-air. MITCH, BY EMAIL

"Our finale for Survivor is November 26. We're not allowed to do TV guestings until then. Maraming indie film offers pero hindi ko pa alam kung anong mangyayari until after Survivor. What is sure is I'm going to be under GMA for a while."

Even before going into Survivor, I've always been into physical activities-I run, I swim, I wallclimb—so I know na malakas yung endurance ko. But the Survivor challenges reminded me that I could do certain things well. May challenges, for example, where you had to stand on your feet in a certain position for hours and you're not allowed to get tired. Na-discover kong puwede akong lumaban sa ganun. Out in the real world, maraming instances that called for that sort of thing. Like when people make out nang nakatayo, usually sumasakit ang legs nila—ako, hindi; malakas yung legs ko. Kahit five hours nakatayo l could do it. The last time that I was able to put this talent to practice was after a dinner date with a guy I knew.

We were having dinner and drinks. Wine and champagne for me, beer for the guy I was having dinner with. I've noticed hindi masyado ma-wine mga guys, they get drunk easier than when they're having a beer. It was a nice dinner and the conversations kept coming, so I may have finished a few glasses too many. Nababawasan yung details when you're intoxicated: One minute we were in the restaurant, the next, we were in his bedroom, and I was trying to get inside his bathroom to use the shower. I didn't know what I was thinking, siguro kasi when you're drunk and it's been a long day, you don't like the smell of your hair and mga ganung bagay, gusto mo lang talagang mag-shower. And when you're drunk hindi mo na usually pinag-iisipan nang matagal how you're going to do things. You just do them. So ako, on my way to the shower, parang, one, two, three...every step closer to the bathroom may clothing na natatanggal: shoes...dress... bra... panties... may naiiwang path ng clothes. By the time I reached the shower I was completely undressed, bubuksan ko na lang yung tubig.

He was probably waiting for me in the bedroom, but I think I was taking too long. Nainip siya sa akin so sumunod siya. But when he stepped in, nalaman kong gusto niya talaga akong sabayan. It's one thing when you're on the bed, it's another when you're in the shower. Yung ambience, yung feel ng water on your back. When you're wet, you feel like you can do anything kasi ang linis-linis ninyo, you're not sweating, kahit magkalat ka okay lang.

We played around for a long time, because when you're intoxicated they say it takes long for both of you to get there. So we kept at it for about an hour and a half-maharot, makulit. We changed positions around five times. There was lifting involved—and then I like it when he's behind me and I'm sort of bent over. May nalulunok din akong tubig kasi we kept the shower on the whole time, so pag nauuhaw ako, titingala lang ako. It would be playful, pero mostly mahirap din talaga for girls to find their spot in the shower. Thank goodness I knew mine.

Di ko na ma-remember in the morning if we soaped and shampooed before getting off and getting out, but I remember malinis naman kami pag-gising, so I guess that's okay.

Of course, if you're asking how I'd like to do it, mas gusto ko pa ring sober, kasi when I'm drunk I tend to forget, and I tend not to enjoy every bit of the moment. I'd like to go through the elements of normal sober sex, siyempre maganda yung may foreplay, I want those parts where he goes down... and I go down. Playing with each other's assets and kissing. Making out drunk is fun, pero l'm better performing sober. Pag sober kasi I can wow, and you can feel the love; pag drunk, for fun. Pero once in a while for fun, okay din.

It's a fantasy of mine to watch celebrities making out. I'm thinking Angel Locsin, Anne Curtis and Nikki Gil. For me, three actresses na wholesome and sweet who are making out and acting wild would be really cute and kinky. They would be inside a performance bar like this one, super naked, but having a bubble party, so parang the bubbles would once in a while cover their parts, but you'd still be able to see. Silang tatlo lang, walang kasamang boys. They would be pouring drinks on their body, sharing each other's cocktail cherries and putting it in their mouths, and giving each other body shots. My friends and me would be their audience, but mostly they'd be performing for me.

HE LAID ME ON HIS SURFBOARD, KISSED ME AND WENT DOWN MY NECK AND CHEST

This happened when I was still with an ex-boyfriend. The relationship was short but sweet. Super saglit lang pero memorable. It was the type na na-develop from friendship. We were friends before we became lovers. He was tall, chinito and matangos yung ilong. And he loved to surf.

He took me to La Union for a three-day vacation. It was my first time to go surfing. On our first night, we decided to take a walk along the shore. It was a private place, ang alam namin walang ibang tao roon. He brought along his surfboard and we held hands while making our way down the shoreline. He was wearing nothing but his board shorts while I was in a bikini with just a pair of shorts to cover me up. Something about the moonlight and the beach put us in a romantic mood. After walking a short distance he said, "Upo tayo sandali," and I agreed. We sat on his surfboard and nagkuwentuhan, whispering sweet nothings in the secluded beach. He started kissing me. I was a little drunk at the time. Mahina pa naman ako sa alak; kalahating boteng beer lang iba na ako. While kissing me passionately, he laid me on his surfboard. He kept kissing me, going down my neck and chest. I was also kissing him back. I could feel him start to remove my bikini top when all of a sudden, may dumaang tao. The man who caught us said, "Bawal po mag-surf dito pag gabi." Yun lang ang sinabi niya, pero gets na namin ang ibig niyang sabihin. We knew we had to stop. So we went back to our room.

While naudlot yung moment on the surfboard, we had two more days to make up for it. It was memorable because since it was my first time to surf, it also would've been my first time to do it on a surfboard in the beach. Looking back, I only wish natuloy yung moment but only because nakainom ako. But while I may have been drunk then, I didn't need to drink to get in the mood for the rest of the trip.

Janna's Fantasy HELICOPTER LOVE

I want to try doing it in a helicopter. Well, of course my guy can't be the pilot, baka magka-turbulence! My guy and I could be in the backseat of the chopper, holding hands, with my head resting on his shoulder. I can make the first move. It's a fantasy because of the challenge. Iba ang helicopter, wala pa kasing ibang gumagawa nun. Puwede rin sa airplane. Helicopters have space compared to airplane bathrooms. That would be a real challenge. Will I be successful? Kung Fear Factor nga nagawa ko, yun pa kaya?

GOODBYES ARE NOT FOREVER

For a long time I was having a mutual attraction with a cute guy friend. But we tried our best to ignore it because we were both attached to someone else. We were in a big circle of friends and we'd all party every weekend. That week, the party was held at his pad. After some chitchat and several drinks of Jack and Coke, I told my friends that I was done for the night. My guy friend, being the host, told his girlfriend that he'd just send me downstairs in front of the building where my car was parked. We bid each other goodbye while I started the engine. As we did our customary beso-beso, he purposely brushed his lips over mine. His breath was warm and I closed my eyes because I instinctively knew what would happen next. We kissed intensely as our suppressed desire for each other was unleashed. He opened the car door, told me to sit on the passenger side, and said he would drive. I obeyed and he drove around the block and stopped at another building's dark parking lot. As soon as we parked, we kissed hungrily. He touched and squeezed my boobs. His right hand made its way under my denim skirt as he slid his fingers inside my panties. I couldn't contain myself as I rubbed my hand against his hard-on. He instructed me to remove my panties as he unzipped his jeans and took out his angry tool. I lost my senses as he humped me hard. It really excited me knowing that anytime, anyone might catch us! His thrusts got faster and deeper while he reached his peak. My body started to shake as I came when suddenly the car beeped loudly-my right leg was pressing on the horn! The building's security guard came out to check what was going on. Good thing we kept our clothes on the entire time. He jumped back in the driver's seat, gave the guard a salute and sped off with his fly still open and me, pantyless, until I got home. The following day my boyfriend asked about the nasty stain on my passenger seat. And I said I spilt some fruit juice on it. Yes-a very yummy fruit juice indeed. DONNA, BY EMAIL

FOR BUNNIES IN HEAT.

My boyfriend picked me up from work one afternoon. We hadn't seen each other for some time so I told him how much I'd missed him. As the car moved, his hands wandered all over my body, making me feel hot. As we approached my place, we looked for a spot along the way. We found one in an underdeveloped subdivision, where we stopped for a quickie. We parked, reclined the passenger seat, and had him on top of me. I pulled his pants down and we did it. As we were about to come, we noticed a glare on the windshield. Someone was flashing a light on us! I had him pull his wet diddy out and put our clothes back on, trying to look innocent. My guy rolled the window down and saw a police mobile car in front of us, its headlamps like a spotlight. We didn't notice the curve was too shallow for us to hide. The police said they'd take us to the station and call our parents. But my boyfriend "negotiated" with the police to spare us from the scandal. We ended up bribing them. Until now we can't help but grin when we think about it. TOO HOTTIE, BY EMAIL

COUPLE DOES SOME GARAGE CLEANING

My boyfriend and I got home one night from dinner with my family. Since my parents were not staying with us for the night (though some relatives were) we felt free to do anything we wanted. As soon as we'd parked in the garage, I sat on his lap, kissed him sweetly until he started touching me "down there." He felt so hot that he asked me to "do the thing." My relatives were in the living room-just one window away from us. But because we were running out of time, he started kissing me torridly, down to my neck and my nips. It felt so good that I took off my clothes without-care. I unzipped my pants, pulled down my undies, and gave him a caressing blowjob. Then he had me working on top. He helped me as I pumped up and down. All the time we were controlling ourselves from moaning. But it felt so good that we wouldn't have noticed if my relatives peeked through the curtains. Before he came, he pulled his thing out and I gave him head. Every time we think about it, we just laugh at ourselves.

I CAME UP WITH A PLAN TO MESS WITH THE OTHER MODELS, ESPECIALLY THE GUYS

A lot of preparation goes into a fashion show. There are a number of fittings and practices that have to be attended so that everything runs smoothly. During these fittings, the models are usually herded together in a big room where everyone waits, usually half-naked, for their turn to be outfitted by the designer. These things can get a bit boring sometimes, especially if no one is around to make you laugh or spice up the scene.

During one particular fashion show fitting, the designer I was assigned to wanted me in an outfit that consisted of a dress with a bodysuit underneath it. The funny bit was the body suit was nude in color. It was very sexy, because you actually looked naked wearing it. I might as well have been naked as it wasn't very comfortable because the material hugged your body like a glove. It was this weird turtleneck suit that ran all the way down and covered my torso, legs and feet. Even the hand area was gloved.

I came up with a plan to mess with the other models, especially the guys. The mood was getting kind of dull since everyone was tired from waiting for their turn.

I ran out of the dressing room across a bunch of male models, yelling out: "We're going streaking!" Just like Will Ferrell's character in the movie Old School.

The other girls had a good laugh but the boys looked shocked. I think I might have mortified a few of them. When I think back, I wonder, was the joke on them or on me?

Ornusa's Fantasy: ROCKING THE BOAT

My fantasy would be on a cruise ship that's on its way to the Bahamas or Jamaica. The ship would cater all-youcan-eat buffets for breakfast, lunch and dinner. I'd be sunbathing and drinking cocktails all day, with my boyfriend, of course. We'd have a nice luxurious room and a hot tub to keep us warm on cold, boring nights. There we could enjoy each other's company in the privacy of our own room.

I was on vacation abroad with a guy I was dating. Siyempre, at the time, my guy and I had just gotten together and were still sweet with each other. The resort we were staying at, we found out, had a curfew. Sections of the place would close down one by one. That didn't stop us from exploring the secluded resort one night. As we walked around we were caught up in the heat of the moment. Our room was not enough; we just had to find a nice secret place to start making out. Andun na kami, eh, naabutan na kami. I always thought that intimacy should be behind closed doors, and this would be my first time to get naughty in public.

We found this pathway where there was no one in sight. The jungle-like atmosphere of the place was sexy and inviting. We started to make out right there in the middle of the pathway. The place was quiet and secluded and our kisses became more and more passionate; his hands were everywhere, touching and stroking me as we kissed. The action was really heating up when suddenly a guard caught us. "What the hell are you guys doing?!" he barked. We ran for it but of course, we didn't go back to our room. I'm usually a private person; the thrill of getting naughty in public was something new to me and hard to resist. We found another place I thought was open. There were few lights and it was deserted, right beside the pool. It was the perfect spot to continue getting busy.

Passionate people that we were, we just picked up where we left off. We jumped into the pool. Kissing and kissing, I could feel how excited he was getting as my hand brushed his crotch. I was getting very excited myself; his mouth was driving me crazy. Once again, things were spiraling out of control when...boom! Spotlights shone on us from all sides! Caught again! It was like we were in a stage play, with all the lights focused on us, all wet in the pool.

LOST AT SEA

It was a rainy evening in Boracay when my boyfriend and I decided to go bar-hopping. While walking along the beach, my boyfriend started fondling me. That turned me on discreetly but I stopped and told him to do it later. Instead, I asked him if we could just ride a tricycle to get to Station I easily. When we got inside the bar, I didn't feel like dancing and drinking anymore, and instead found the beach very inviting for a swim. I asked him if we could take a dip, but he refused and said he'd just watch and wait for me at the shore. I ran to the beach with just my bra and capri pants. But before I got myself wet my boyfriend was shouting from behind with just his pair of briefs on. I laughed at him because I knew he really didn't want to swim since it was very stormy and he didn't have appropriate swimming attire. We were not quite far from the shore when I pulled my boyfriend toward me and told him: "You're turning me on kanina pa. At mas lalo na ngayon dahil diyan sa suot mo." He smiled back at me and started undressing me. At first we were hesitant to do it because someone might see us. Still, in a minute we had the most exciting lovemaking in the middle of the sea with big heavy waves under the drizzling rain. Although the waves were very disturbing, they didn't stop us and instead made us crave for each other more-until one big wave brought us to the shoreline. After the quickie he asked me about his underwear. I said I didn't know where they were because I was holding my clothes too. To my surprise, he stood up naked facing the shoreline looking for his lost underwear. By that time I came back to my senses and I noticed the bar's spotlight was facing the sea, making us visible in the shore area. To my horror, there were already people on the shore! We were stuck in the sea and the only idea to get our clothes on was to let him borrow my underwear to get out off the sea. At first, he didn't like the idea, but having no options my boyfriend wore my pink underwear and ran to the shore very quickly to get our clothes. Good thing my bikini underwear looked good on him—even sexier than his lost pair of briefs. GREEN APPLE, BY EMAIL

ON TARGET!

My boyfriend and I were already in college when we first explored each other's body. Being both naïve at that time I didn't consent to us having actual sex, so we instead made full use of our hands to please each other. He would ask me to work on his stick until he came. But the first time wasn't smooth sailing. As he was about to come, he told me he wanted me to finish his little deed. So being nene that time, I literally didn't know what to do or where to aim it once the inevitable happens. All I thought I needed to do was to keep on stroking his dick. When he told me that he was really ready to go, I panicked, and as he came I accidentally aimed his exploding penis at his eyes. I didn't know what to do next-well, except to laugh hard. Now, after five years of being together-four of them being sexfilled-every time I bring up that incident it never fails to make me laugh. IROGNIHUSBY, BY EMAIL every touch of his hands on my breasts. Every suck, bite, and kiss sent shivers in between my thighs. Then I suddenly felt the urge to pee. I went to the bathroom near his bedroom but didn't lock the door thinking no one would come in. To my surprise, my boyfriend got in and asked me to sit on the sink. I was hesitant, but then he said he just wanted to try it. Out of excitement. I sat on the bathroom sink. and we kissed so intensely that I didn't mind my weight. The sink cracked down and spoiled our act as we began to worry that somebody must have heard it break. We smiled at each other and said, "Ang harus-haros kasi!" I wonder how he told his brother about that broken sink, but I must admit that it was one of my sexiest funny experiences with him. I'm looking forward to doing the same thing when we get the chance—of course in a safer place! WITCHYLAURA, BY EMAIL

FAILURE TO LAUNCH

In college, my boyfriend lived in an apartment with two of his cousins. One time, his cousins didn't come home for lunch so he invited me in. When we got there, we sat on his bed and started kissing. When I lay down, he started kissing my neck and touching my boobies. I pulled up his shirt, unlocked my bra and let him suck my nipples. (We were still virgins at that time.) We switched places and I went on top of him. I noticed that he had a hardon, so I asked him if he had a condom. He took one from his pocket. He said he had been keeping it to be ready when the day comes. We undressed while caressing each other. I lay on his bed and he started putting his thingy in me. It didn't feel great, it felt painful! While we were trying to get it in, someone knocked on the door! We panicked like hell and got dressed in a minute. When he opened the door, no one was there. We were, like, "Who the heck was that?" We still had upcoming classes that day so we decided to do it some other time. When we got out, we saw a repairman who told us, "I thought no one was inside, I was supposed to place hangers." We left without a word. He picked me up after class, and as we were laughing while walking home, he told me the rubber was still on his thing when we went to school! Now we're still together and we make sure nobody will get in the way every time we're doing it.

MONALIZA INTIMATE APPAREL, AVAILABLE AT ROBINSONS DEPARTMEN STORE, ACCESSORIES FROM KOKET FASHION ACCESSORIES

While doing modeling work in China, I lived in an apartment with two girls and two guys, all Brazilian models. There's this one particular guy I lived with that I really hated. He was too much of a model for me. Personally, I found him too fresh, too vain. He was quite a metrosexual. He's so into himself and more conscious about his looks than women usually are. It's like he's dulled my senses or something. While we were in lip-lock, I was thinking to myself, "What the hell am I doing with this guy?"

I know it's stupid but he seemed to look incredibly hot that evening so I went along with it. Then after a while of teasing, when we couldn't take it any longer, he took me to the club's toilet and we had sex there. When I woke up the next morning, I told myself, "Shit! My God, what did I just do?" It was so awkward in the house; both of us felt weird. The first few days after the incident were the worst since he acted shyly when he talked to me and I couldn't even look him in the face. We kept avoiding each other. But eventually, when we got over the initial awkward stages, we somehow became very great friends. After our little incident, he let his guard down when I'm with him. I saw his softer side and not the egotistical front he kept flaunting before. Now, we're good friends and still keep in touch once in a while.

too much of a girl. We hated each other's guts and we'd always fight when we were at home.

One night, we all went to this social event in a club. The drinks were overflowing; we couldn't help but chug everything in sight. We got so drunk and crazy.

I don't know what happened next. All I remembered was that my narcissistic housemate approached me and tried something with me. Then he reached for my lips and kissed me. Unbelievably, I kissed back. I didn't know why I did that since I really hated him; maybe the alcohol

WE WERE INSIDE A SEDAN. IT WAS A BIT CRAMPED. BUT IN THE HEAT OF THE MOMENT, YOU WOULDN'T REALLY CARE

I'm quite a thrill-seeker. My confessions—I actually have two—prove this.

As a member of the Viva Hot Babes, we were regularly invited to out-of-town shows. One time, I had an early flight to a faraway province so I decided, along with a friend, to sleep over at my boyfriend's house. I was still living in Bulacan at the time.

We were all sleeping in one bed. I was in the middle. Later that night, when my guy was sure that my friend was sound asleep, he started caressing my neck. I was facing my friend while my hubby—and his "friend"—was facing me.

Siyempre ano pa ba mangyayari noon? He caressed me from my neck down to my more sensitive parts. It started with simple touches that led to sensual grabbing. But I didn't move an inch. Although I knew that my friend was a deep sleeper, I wasn't about to risk getting caught. I even pretended to cough whenever my boyfriend and I made any noise. We started kissing. But we didn't totally take our clothes off, we just pulled down the ones we needed to. My top was still on. And then we spooned. It was really fast. It had to be. I neither screamed nor moaned. But the thrill was there.

The second "incident" happened while my boyfriend and I were cruising along Herrera Street in Makati. It was around 3 a.m. and we were on our way home from a party. I have to admit I was tipsy and when I'm in that state I tend to be a bit wild.

He was driving. I started kissing him. From his lips I moved to his neck and then I opened his pants and I grabbed his thing and gave him a blowjob.

But, of course, I didn't stop there. I went on top of him. I was facing him but he was still driving. Well, at least, he tried his best to keep us on the road. We were inside a sedan so it was a bit cramped. But in the heat of the moment, you wouldn't really care.

I've actually thought a lot about this, I just haven't had the opportunity to do it. I want to have sex on a rooftop. I just find it romantic. We'll have the stars and the moon-I hope you don't find that corny. We'll start with a midnight picnic, maybe some wine and cheese and some music, I find that very sexy. I'd prefer to do it atop a low-rise building that's surrounded by high-rise towers. Like I said, I like to get caught. I wouldn't even mind if someone did get to watch us, once lang naman so no problem. The sex definitely won't be in just one position. It would start slow and end up wild. And then we'll just sleep over there. I would even videotape it.

EX IS FOR EXTRACURRICULAR

My ex-boyfriend and I broke up three months ago, and now, I have a monthold relationship with a long-time friend. However, my ex-boyfriend and I still keep in touch. One night, I sent him a text message to check out how he was doing, and asked him about his sex life. With a naughty reply, I sent him back a message telling him to come over after midnight since all my folks were already asleep and he could sneak into my room. We waited patiently until midnight, while sending naughty SMSes every now and then, which made us really horny. Midnight came and everyone was asleep. He was eager to come since his house was just five minutes away from mine. But darn, I forgot to tell him about our dog! He came inside tiptoeing as our dog kept on barking at him. He couldn't even move or lay another foot on the ground. My mom was awakened by this and checked what was going on outside. Luckily, my ex managed to hide behind a giant tree just beside our house. We waited for my mom to go back to sleep. He kept on sending me text messages to keep me awake. I checked my mom in her room at I:30 a.m., and finally caught her snoring. I fetched him outside, and placed our dog inside our car. We then got ourselves inside my room. My ex boyfriend gave me a torrid kiss. He undressed me and we lip-locked. It was so damn good that I could honestly say I missed him so much, so I gave him a hard blow job that was as if I hungered for him for so long and didn't want to stop. It was all so perfect that I felt my hormones rushing down between my legs. He tied me up and did the classic positions we loved doing before. We were so high, sweaty and wet that we didn't even mind the time. The act was done and we both looked at the time: It was 4 a.m. He decided to go home before anyone woke up. Before he left, I gave him a torrid kiss and a one-minute blowjob. I couldn't believe myself that we did it. I was guilty, and broke up with my boyfriend. Now, I'm single, and my ex-boyfriend already has a girlfriend. But we're still doing it like the good old times. ALESS, BY EMAIL

LADIES' MAN GETS PHYSICAL

The third guy I slept with behind my boyfriend's back is actually his kabarkada. He's had a ladies' man reputation ever since. We started chatting on YM. The chickboy in him couldn't resist and he asked me out. Needless to say we met up and headed to a motel. Once there, we kissed torridly, then he pushed me to my knees. I unzipped his pants and took out his cock. It was only about six inches long. I started sucking him off and licking his balls. I got up and we both undressed and it was his turn to eat me. He ate me while we were standing and made me cum with his tongue and his finger. Then he lay me on the bed; I gave him a hard time because I wouldn't spread my legs, but he got really physical. He put on a rubber, grabbed my legs and pinned them against my chest with his right arm as he guided his cock to my pussy with his left. Once it was at the opening he just rammed his way in. I screamed from the pain! He started fucking me with long hard strokes. I came twice. We did it in the 69 position after. He then got me on my hands and knees and entered me from behind. I was squealing like a pig. I told him to fuck me like an animal, which he did, and he started to say he was about to cum. We had to leave after that because he had to meet up with his GF. SINISTER SISTER SEDUCES BAYAW

IT'S ALL IN THE FAMILY

I have a huge confession. Well, I know having sex with a relative is bad but I did it anyway. In fact, I did it with two of my cousins, who are brothers. Let's just call them X and Y. It was a cold December afternoon, and my aunt and uncle left around 2 p.m. to attend a friend's funeral. I was in their house visiting, and they told me to stay the night (ever since I was a kid, I always visited them regularly and I always stayed the night). For some reason, X and I started to tease each other. Then he purposely touched my chest, and then things started to get steamy. Suddenly, we were kissing, with him on top of me. Then Y walked in on us and asked if he could join. We were all virgins, so it was pretty long. X fucked me hard while Y filmed us with his video cam. Then I gave Y a blowjob, with X filming. It was really exciting because we pretended we were in Text FHM LC ON to 2640 to get more Confessions It happened twice last January when I visited my Ate. I noticed that my horny bayaw couldn't contain himself, perhaps from imagining that two delectable holes were in front of him. Sorry for him, I didn't have the guts, but I thought of really seducing him that day. We were on the verge of taking each other's bodies, anyway, since we have been exchanging very vulgar terms of engagement.

One time when Ate went to pee, I immediately went to him and kissed him, took out his dick and jacked it off for about a minute. Then I went straight back to the couch so that Ate wouldn't notice. Ate came out, and we acted as if nothing had happened.

After about two hours, Ate went down to get something from their van. When I was certain that she was on her way down, I ran to their room, took out the yummy dick of my bayaw, and jacked it off again for about two minutes, said goodbye and kissed his shiny head.

A COUPLE OF DAYS AFTER HER REVELATION, SHE SHOWED ME WHAT SHE MEANT BY 'LIKING GIRLS'

I've been friends with this fellow model for some time. I always thought she had a great body. Banging, even. She had a perfect rack and rear—hot talaga.

One night we had dinner in Makati. I thought it was just going to be another innocent girls-nightout type of thing. But then, in the middle of dinner, she held my hand and said, "There's something you need to know. I like boys and I like girls, too." That's exactly what she said. I was pleasantly shocked. Girls don't freak out that easily when they find out stuff like that about their friends. We think of it as something empowering. I mean, kudos to her, she's pretty and open about who she really is.

A couple of days after her revelation, we bumped into each other at a club. She showed me what she meant by "liking girls." But that's not all: Let's just say I kissed two girls that night and, well, I liked it.

Before I crossed paths with my friend, I was on the dance floor doing my thing when this Russian girl approached me. I was wearing all red that night; really short and plunging. We were dancing. She was grinding in front of me when she suddenly traced her hands down my chest. But she didn't grab anything, so I thought it was just innocent. "Maybe that's how she But then she put her mouth near my ear and whispered: "I want to kiss you right now. I hope you let me." I didn't answer. I looked away from her but when I turned back to her, she kissed me. There was a little tongue. It was long enough to leave a memory. But I wasn't actively participating. You know, I was just experiencing it.

After saying goodbye to my new Russian friend, I moved to the other side of the club where I bumped into my recently outed friend. We danced. It was almost the same thing with the Russian girl but my friend was a little bit more physical—she pinned me to a wall and she kissed me. There was tongue and it was longer. She was pretty forceful. Then she kissed me on the side of my neck, which is my favorite part to be kissed. I think it was purely girl-instinct on her part.

She did all of the grabbing. I didn't try to stop her. I tried pushing her but ended up holding her. But she was far gentler than any man I've been with. Women really do know how to please other women. After that, every time we saw each other, she tried to kiss me and it's just not a simple "hello" kiss. It had more passion. There was a couple of times I got used to it and, you know, I was accommodating it. But then it just passed. I think the excitement faded for her when she saw that I was getting used to it. I guess she was after the chase more than the act.

'DEEP-THROAT ME, GIRL!'

I got home one midnight and found my man waiting in the dimly lit living room. He got up and gave me a kiss before heading to bed. I went to the bathroom and while I was there. I took loads of pictures of myself. I felt horny just looking at myself that I started sucking on my fingers. I hurried upstairs, where my man was sleeping. I seduced him just to check if he was really asleep. I undressed in front of the mirror, which was right beside the bed. I slowly took off my bra and panties and even made moaning sounds. He didn't move at all. I took a fast shower and jumped in to bed beside him. I gave him a hot kiss on his nape and put my arms and legs around him. Then my hands found their way to his disco stick. I knew he was waiting for me to join him in bed. So I whispered in his ear, "Baby, I want to suck you so bad. Can I?" Without a word, I took his pajamas and underwear off in a flash! I spat on his stick and took it in my mouth as deep as I could. And then he told me, "Deep-throat me, girl!" I went as deep as I could, I almost gagged. He sat up and told me to tie up my hair so he could see my face while I sucked the life out of him. I licked and sucked, and I was moaning the whole time. I was so damn horny! He told me to get on top of him—my kitty was soaking wet by the time I rode him like a pro cowgirl. I rocked hard and swayed my hips until I felt my juices coming out. I just moaned so loud, my whole body trembled and I couldn't even feel my legs! Then I got off him. I was on all fours while facing the mirror in our headboard. After the act, I went to the bathroom to clean up and I went to join him again. I lay on my back and he went down on me. With my kitty cleanly shaven, he gently licked the skin and the crease. Then like a wolf, he dove in, played with my clit and sucked and licked and tongue-fucked me. I just had to hold on to something. He ate me like a pumpkin pie. I was coming any minute. He went on sucking my clit until I exploded in his mouth. I had to tell him to stop or else I would be paralyzed. He did. He came up to me and kissed me full on my mouth, sharing some of my hot come. I slept like a baby the whole night. PHOENIX_BABY

BLAST FROM THE PAST

A few months ago, my former secret lover called me up and asked me out. He said he really missed me and wanted to hug me. The feeling was mutual, although I was trying hard na iwasan siya. He wanted us to meet at a motel. He told me not to worry because he wouldn't do anything except for some hugs and kisses. I refused and suggested a different place-a videoke bar (take it or leave it, I said). We rented a videoke room, which was PIOO per hour. There was a brief silence in the room until I started playing the music. After a few minutes, he asked me if we could hug each other ... and so we did. However, at the back of my mind, I felt sorry because I no longer wanted to bring back the old feelings I had for him. It had brought me into a lot of trouble. Well, things didn't end there. We kissed each other and curled each other's tongues. But we were careful not to let the people outside see us. He then put his hands inside my pants while we were curling tongues. I was so wet when he stuck his fingers in my daisies-one, two, three fingers! To return the favor, I went down on him. I was really careful so that no one would notice what we were doing. However, we felt the urge to do it right then and there. I lay down on the couch sideward and he pumped from behind. The rest is history.

and fingered my kitty while kissing me. He ate my kitty and finger-fucked me till I felt my juices coming out. They were gushing out of me straight into his mouth! He ate every single drop! It was amazing, my legs were shaking, I thought I got paralyzed. After riding him cowboy-style, I took his cock in my mouth, gave it a kiss and spit on it even though it was already wet by itself. The smell was damn sexy. I sucked him hard till I gagged and he told me to get up and ride him. I rocked him back and forth. You know what happened next. BABY

He took off all his clothes and stuck his dick right in front of my face. I immediately put his cock in my mouth. Before the roles that launched my career as an actress in Serbis and Kinatav, before there was Cannes, I was in Diliman studying Fine Arts. Every Fine Arts student in the campus got the chance to draw males and females in the nude. In my case, our class's first experience was with a female model. I love sketching and painting a female body. I like drawing her parts, especially her curves. It's just so beautifully shaped that it's almost like walang pangit na part or walang hindi magandang i-drawing sa babae. We had a number of sessions where mostly babae yung model namin, and I was happy to sit, look and sketch through them.

One time, a guy, who I didn't recognize as any of my classmates, came into the class. He's not a teacher din, and he mostly just kept to himself. After a while, we all found out na siya pala yung magiging model namin that day. We'd been drawing female nudes for a while so alam ko namang darating din kami roon. Hindi naman puwede puro babae na lang i-drawing namin.

We huddled around our male nude model for the day and took each of our positions as usual. Nasa gitna yung male model, on top of a table, and we were free to take positions depending on which angle and body part we were drawing. Some of us went behind him, others of course, sa harap. Me, iniiwasan ko talagang i-draw that part of his manhood. I know it's Mas sanay ako doing indies, kasi sila yung nagbigay sa akin ng break, pero as an actress, l have to be flexible, so what I'm doing now is trying to crossover sa mainstream film industry. I already have two mainstream projects currently in the works, pero at the same time I'm still doing indies. After Serbis, and aming offers ng sexy roles, pero pinipili ko, depende sa story and sa director."

> The next session, I was on my spot distractedly sketching when dumating na ulit yung model namin from the other day. He undressed in the middle, tapos umupo siya in front of me. Hindi na ako makahanap ng ibang pwesto kasi puno na yung back area and everywhere else was cramped. Everyone in the room had already started sketching and it would be distracting and makaka-istorbo for my other classmates if I were to move around to try and find a spot. I don't remember if my face got flushed, or if I turned red, but I had a good grip on my pencil. I looked at our well-chiseled model's average-sized package, and I drew. That was the day I had no choice but to draw him, and to draw "it."

Mercedes's Fantasy DAMSEL IN DISTRES

I've seen a lot of films, so it's possible na naapektuhan nila yung fantasy ko. One of them is being tied between two columns. My arms would be tied sa magkabilang side and I would be wearing a white dress that's been ripped to shreds. And then may taong darating riding a white horse, but I wouldn't know who he is or what he looks like, mata lang makikita ko sa kanya, he would swoop right in and save me. I've always wondered kasi what damsels in distress feel when they're being saved in those movies. Kaya in my fantasies, ako naman yung damsel in distress.

LINGERIE FROM MOSSIMO, HOTPINKLINGERIE.COM, VICTORIA'S SECRET, FABSIS.MULTIPLY.COM; SHOES FROM FABSIS.MULTIPLY.COM; ACCESSORIES FROM WHAT A GIRL WANTS

A long time ago, when I was still doing a lot of ramp modeling, maraming hot male models ang nakakasama namin for shows. I was still single back then so I never hesitated to look around and spot kung sino yung guwapo at sino ng hindi. During a run-through for a show, one particular male model caught my attention. He didn't look like he was Filipino. He was physically very big, had a muscular body, blue eyes and dark brown hair. I later learned from my fellow models na half-British siya at nakatira sa probinsya. They told me he would just come to Manila to do modeling gigs. Napansin kong lagi rin siyang tumitingin sa akin, lalo na when it was my turn to work the runway. It turned me on every time nahuhuli ko siyang tumitingin sa akin. Shy pa akong lumapit sa kanya nun but we got to know each other well because kami-kami lang din ang nagso-show palagi at naging partners kami para sa isang gig. So no choice, we had to talk, pero di pa nagkaroon ng pagkakataon na magkasama kaming dalawa lang.

Finally one rainy day, all the models were packing up to go home. Di namin plinano pero sabay kaming dalawa umuwi. We were dripping wet at see-through na yung suot naming dalawa. My bra was showing under my wet, white shirt and he looked really good dripping wet as well. Hindi namin napigilan ang isa't-isa. He started kissing me and I kissed him back. His tongue felt so good in my mouth that I felt goose bumps all over. Sinabi namin sa taxi driver na dalhin kami sa isang motel.

When we arrived at the motel, we took a shower together. While in the shower, the hot water washed away all the sweat and dirt na namuo from our run-through. He played with me and finally entered me from behind. The slippery feel of the water on my pussy as well as his long shaft felt amazing that I started to moan. After our shower he carried me to the bed where we continued. We also did it while standing up. Gusto ko kasi yung binubuhat ako at wild. After, it was my turn. Inupo ko siya and I sucked his big dick. Yun na ata yung pinakamalaking nakita ko in my whole life. I sucked him hard, using my tongue to tease his shaft and make circles around his huge head. When he finally came, I swallowed his cum, a first for me.

We continued to be modeling fubus for a couple of months. After shows we would go to our favorite love nest to do the deed but the relationship ended when we felt that things were becoming too sweet, and we might fall for each other. Mahirap na.

Jem's Fantasy DOING IT WITH TWO STRANGERS

My fantasy is to have a threesome. I want to go to a bar where I don't know anyone, sit down and hopefully meet two good-looking men. Pag medyo nakainom na kami, sasabihin ko sa kanila that I have a proposition. Then from there, if they say yes, we can make our way to an expensive hotel room where there's a Jacuzzi or hot tub. While one guy and I play with each other, I want the other to watch. Pwede niyang pasayahin ang sarili niya habang magkasama kami nung isa. After, the other can do what he pleases with me para lahat masaya.

I love touching girls' breasts. One time in Boracay, a French guy approached me and told me his girlfriend liked me. They asked me if I wanted to do it with them, and since I was a bit drunk and found the girl pretty, I said yes. We ended up in their room, where the French girl and I did it while her boyfriend watched.

acting like an entirely different person a dominatrix character perhaps. I'd like to inflict a little pain on my guy.

THE THRILL OF GETTING CAUGHT VANISHES ONCE YOU, WELL, GET CAUGHT!

THE LADY WANTS TO KNOW!

It was All Saints' Day when my boyfriend and I decided to go partying with friends. Needless to say we got drunk. On our way home we stopped by a restaurant because I was really hungry. After ordering I asked him to come with me to the comfort room. There we started kissing torridly. I unbuttoned his pants and played with his tool. He pumped me, which made me go so crazy that I didn't notice that my voice was getting louder and louder. After the act, we came out of the CR. I turned red when I saw this old lady waiting for her turn to pee. I covered my face and started to laugh. Even worse, as we were eating, the old lady was seated on the table in front of me-and she was staring at me the whole time!

THAT'S WHAT FRIENDS AREN'T FOR

My boyfriend and I had our summer outing and stayed at a beach house with the rest of our barkada. We had loads of fun swimming and had a "few" drinks that night. Naptime came and we found out that my boyfriend and I had the rest of the attic to ourselves. Thinking that everyone was asleep, we got really horny and decided to do the deed since it's been a while since we had "fun." To our surprise, one of our

DAD DISRUPTS DIRTY DEED

One afternoon, while my parents were inside their room taking a nap, my boyfriend and I were sitting on the couch watching TV when he started kissing me at the back of my neck. Feeling hot, I kissed him on the mouth as he started fondling my boobs, and eventually sucking them like a hungry baby. I acted as the "watcher" to make sure that no one would catch us, although I couldn't help but close my eyes and feel the awesome sensation of what he was doing. Alas! The worst scenario happened. Imagine this: I was sitting comfortably on the couch with my eyes closed letting out deep breaths, while he was lying on my lap drowning himself in my tits, when suddenly, we heard the "Ehem!" sound.

I opened my eyes and saw my Dad staring at us while my boyfriend's hand was holding and sucking my tits. Sa sobrang pagkapahiya, nakalimutan ko nang ibaba yung damit ko kaya my boobs were exposed all along. Talk about catching my man and I redhanded—I mean, boob-handed! BREASTFEED, BY EMAIL kabarkada and his girlfriend barged in and told my boyfriend that he was just going to get a pillow. We got caught red-handed, me on top of him savoring each moment. We stopped for a moment, thinking if they had really seen us doing it, but we were so bitin we decided to resume the session. MELA, BY EMAIL

CELEBRATORS GET DORMANT

My guy and I like to hang out at my dorm every Thursday since my dormmates routinely do not go home on that day. It happened one time that our month-sary landed on that day. We ran to my place, shut the doors and threw all our clothes all over the place. We were in the shower and getting hot with foreplay when all of a sudden, a dormmate of mine came home! I was so nervous since she was the "conservative" type that would squeal on me quickly to my landlady if she caught us. I quickly instructed my guy to dry himself up and gather all his clothes. I opened the door and smiled at the unwelcome intruder. Thank goodness my boyfriend was a good actor because he was acting all sick in my bed with headaches he got from travel. Thankfully, my dormmate bought the story. What a relief! ALEXA, BY EMAIL

LOVERS GET PRAYED OVER

My college boyfriend and I were standing in a public place when he slowly pulled my skirt up and tried to reach for my panties, covering his hand with his backpack, so no one would notice. It got me started, so we ran to the nearest comfort room and locked ourselves in. Inside, he hurriedly unbuttoned my blouse, took off my panties, and lunged into me from behind. He pounded me so good that I had to cover my mouth to prevent myself from making any audible noise. We got off quickly, dressed up and, as we opened the door, were shocked to see an old woman peeing in a squatting position on the floor. She stared at us while making the sign of the cross and whispering, "Jesus, Maria, Jose ... " Now, as a married couple, we just exchange funny glances whenever we go to that place near our school. STYLING REY SANTOS MAKEUP GRACE DEANG FOR SHU I don't easily get impressed. I'm not a snob, but there's something that I truly crave in a man. Sure, it's fun when the guy has lean muscles and six-pack abs I could literally sink my teeth into, but they're still not enough. I want more than the physical pleasure that the male species has to offer.

I was working in an office before and got intrigued with one of my co-workers. He was the only one who wouldn't greet me when we bumped into each other. During breaks, he never initiated a conversation while all the others did. One time, I greeted him in the corridor and he completely ignored me—not even a smile or a nod. I even waved a hand at him but he just walked past me.

Needless to say, that got me pissed. So the next day, I tried to get his attention by wearing a super-short pink cheerleader skirt and heels. I don't usually do that but I really enjoyed it as much as most of the guys at my office probably did. I bent over to get my time card, staying there for as long I could, and—voila!—I caught him looking at my behind.

For a week I tried to make him notice me more. I did things like lick melting ice cream off the cone whenever he looked my way, pretend to use his desk to write something on paper that had no connection to work, and smile at him almost every time. Still he wouldn't say scene. My best friend and I ordered a bouquet of roses to be sent to me at the office during breaktime. We wrote her boyfriend's name on the card, with a cheesy line that said, "I love to see your smile."

I got the flowers the next day. I acted surprised, pretending not to know who could've given it to me. Everybody was gushing over it—well, except for him.

When I got home, I received a text message from the guy asking if he could call me at my house. I was laughing because I finally got him. Though we never talked about the flowers or the "guy" who could have sent it, it was cool talking to him. To my surprise, he told me he could take me to "great heights." I thought I knew what he meant. We went out the next day, keeping his promise in mind. I needed to try that out physically. I was freaking amazed by how his kiss gave me goosebumps. And that was just a kiss. I'd never had such a mind-blowing experience on a firsttry basis. My whole body was literally electrified. Indeed, I was taken to such great heights that I'd never expected. It was so great that I forgot that I was the temptress. Since that day, we were inseparable. One day I confided to him that my reason for hooking up was the "great heights" he'd promised. He laughed and said he was referring to his emotionsand not how he could make me reach the climax again and again. That made me believe such great moments do exist.

Let's start with sex counseling. What can you offer?

I'd urge your fans to read more. Research. Sometimes guys think they know what they're doing when in reality they don't have a clue. Ha ha! And think of other ways to make a girl happy. Don't let her be contented like some girls who are like, "Okay, my boyfriend's happy, that's enough." I promise you'll learn a whole lot more from researching. Wendy Valdez, October 2010

You bothered to ask the guys [in the island if they're feeling anything], which means you could be getting horny.

[pauses] Oh my. I can't believe I paused. Ha ha! Siyempre mayroon akong thoughts of getting intimate with a guy. But having sex with a guy, I can't because may cameras and, you know, kadiri. But yes, I did have thoughts. Jef Gaitan, October 2010

Is there anything very, very personal about the diaries you keep? Ha ha! Wala naman. (pauses) Nag-iisip ako kasi baka meron pero wala, eh. Uy, walang mapiga sa akin! LJ Reyes, December 2009

Cabin fever is also taken to mean sexual drought. Which brings us to a hypothetical question: Would you have done it with a fellow PBB housemate if you had the hots for each other? It's possible for you to fall in love with a housemate, but to do it inside? Hindi ko yun kaya!
