ASHLEY HOT MESS

We caught up with Ashley from Tauranga for a sexy early morning shoot.

She seemed to be in a rather frisky mood, and we were quite impressed by her choice of attire.
With her hair messed up straight out of bed and ready to play.

FEATURED INTERVIEW: KASEY CHARISMA

We caught up with Kasey for a behind the scenes interview.
So Kasey...

Tell us a little about New Zealand's Hottest Girl...

I think the NZ sexiest girl show is a very cool idea. It is especially great as it shows support for new zealand models, and at the same time proves that we have some hot ones. All the girls in the show are very nice... each has their own personality and special charms, like me.

What's your favorite nightclub?

My favorite night club is Trench Bar because I believe it's quite unique. It is kind of VIP, no trouble makers and good music whole night featuring best dj's of Auckland. I also like Spy Bar, but it is sometimes a little crowded for me

What is your favorite food?

I don't really have a favourite food, because I like all kinds of food. european, indian, italian. One of the things I like about NZ is that you can have any kind of food as there are lots of different cuisines

You are fairly new to modelling, with such amazing success so far! What are your goals for the future, in 2 years... where do you think you'll be?

I am quite new to modelling. But I think my success comes from my huge passion for it. When I was young I did acting at school and singing, but later became more interested in modelling. I enjoy it a lot! In the next two years I plan to do lots of modelling and travelling and representing myself as a russian-kiwi girl haha. So yes I will still be doing what I like, and still have passion for it.

You seem like a really bubbly person, tell us a little about your personality?

I am a very bubbly person, energetic, easy-going, and always love to have fun and good people around me. I am a very serious person when needed but at the same time i have good sense of humour and can make everybody smile.

If you were stuck on an island with 3 things... What would they be?

If i stuck on the island. and i could only take 3 things...they would be my laptop so i can still keep in touch with my friends and family, my make up, so i can still look after myself and my ipod so can dance! :) love dancing!

You have some serious dance moves! where did you learn them?

I do dance a little bit! I took dance classes when i was young and went clubbing clubs later as a teenager. The best thing is practice and the music you like! I do practice every friday and saturday haha!

If you could go on a date with any celebrity, who would it be?

If i could go on a date with a celebrity, it would be Tyra Banks. So she can teach me modelling tips and all that! I love her! I believe she is very professional, and funny too.

And what was your favorite outfit in the Vanquish Photoshoot?

My favourite outfit in Vanquish photoshoot was angel black wings and silver bikini. But it is hard to say as all the outfits very super sexy and seductive.

We look forward to seeing Kasey on NZ's Hottest Girl, be sure to vote for her. Yes, she's the party girl!

We wish you all the best for your modelling career & hope to see you in more issues of Vanquish Magazine.

THE MAKING OF THE ICE QUEEN

FREELANCE PHOTOGRAPHER

WWW.COLINCHARISMA.COM

ICE QUEEN

THE COLD NEVER LOOKED SO HOT

MODEL TRAINING

PHOTO 1

IN THESE EXAMPLES

Photo # 1:

Notice how the hair, eyebrows, eye makeup & lingerie are colour co-ordinated. Most of the best commercial photos are done this way, even going so far as to add, bracelets, rings, necklace & jewellery of the same colour to further enhance the models look. Accessorize! You will notice the background fades to black as well, making the edge of the photo enhance the feel. Black & Brown. Brown just around the model, her skin and the jacket. Nicely done.

Glamour focuses on eyes & lips to make the photo stand out. A good makeup artist is very important in commercial shoots. The purple lips & eye makeup are a stunning example.

Photo 3 - amazing use of the hair to wrap the model and frame her face, looking straight ahead into a softbox and lower reflector, pretty much a perfect shot. both photos have naturally been photoshopped to further cleanup the photos and really make the colours pop!

Pose #1

Hand on Hips, notice how this accentuates the right side of the models body, one hand on the side and leaning to the right. This is a very comfortable pose and makes the model look quite relaxed.

Pose #2

Side on pose, notice how this gives a nice S shape figure to the models body.

This is much more interesting than a straight flat side on shot.

In lingerie shoots this can also be a great leg & ass shooting pose as it makes the legs look longer when kicked out. the arms are used to frame the head & body, this also works facing forward.

Note: This is a classic chin to shoulder side on shot, and works great with variation on the hand positions. Left hand on waist and turning upper body towards the camera - would turn this photo into a legs and chest shot.

Naturally Beauty : A Clean Face

Washing your face may appear to be the simplest and least talked about topic on earth, but if done properly, it can promote a healthy glow. A face speaks volumes about one's self image and a well looked after face can attract attention and foster confidence in a person. Therefore, cleansing your face properly is basic to a good body care routine. A good face cream (like an oil-free acne wash soap), can really help your face and clean out your pores

1 - Tie your hair back from your face. If you have bangs wear a headband or use a hair clip. Make sure you can see and access your entire face, including your ears and neck.

2 - Wash your hands with an antibacterial soap to clean them.

3 - Wet your face with warm water or steam to open your pores.

4 - Put a small amount of face cleanser on your hands, about the size of a nickel. Rub some on your wet hands. Use a product that is gentle enough for your skin. Something too strong will just dry the skin out and stimulate the oil glands to produce more oil. You are trying to remove oil and retain moisture at the same time. Please do not use soap. It is too strong, and can't be rinsed easily.

5 - Work up a good lather by rubbing both hands together and applying it on your face.

6 -Using your fingertips, massage the cleanser all over your face removing any dirt and oil. Take 30 seconds or so, concentrating on first the hairline, then paying special attention to the "T-zone"; forehead, nose, nostril area, then around the mouth and chin, then cheeks. Cleanse the neck using upward strokes. You have oil glands behind your ears, so don't neglect that area. It's messy, but do it anyway. When you're 50, you will be glad you went to the trouble to help your mature skin look its best.

7 - Rinse your face and neck with clear, tepid water. If it is too cold, it could break capillaries.

8 - Pat your face dry with a clean and soft, absorbent towel; linen is a good choice. Make sure you pat it dry gently. Always treat your face with respect.

9 - If you have large pores, a toner, or astringent, is a good idea to help tighten the pores. It will also clean away the last of the cleanser.

10 - Moisturizer is a very good thing. You have just washed off dirt and oil, and a moisturizer will help keep the water in the surface cells, which promotes a more youthful look. Plus it feels great!

11 - Don't forget eye cream. Use one that says it is for eyes only; otherwise it won't be rich enough. The area around your eyes has no sweat or oil glands, and must be treated differently than other skin.

Naturally Beauty : Water

The benefits of drinking water for skin - and body - are numerous. It's true! You've heard it many times before... drink lots of water. But will water really improve the appearance of your skin? While not everyone agrees, in my experience the answer is a resounding yes!

Benefits of Water

Many people spend their days in a state of mild dehydration. Consuming far fewer fluids than they should. Water comprises approximately 60% of your body. It's basic for survival. If you're stranded on a deserted isle, find drinking water first.

Skin is intricately tied to the overall health of your body. When your body is properly hydrated, you'll look better and feel better.

Adequate water rewards you with...

- Enhanced health
- Increased energy
- Bright, clear eyes
- A radiant complexion

In addition, bloating and puffiness often disappear. How does this liquid work its magic? Behind the scenes, water...

- Carries nutrients to every cell in your body
- Flushes out nasty toxins
- Improves circulation and blood flow
- Lubricates your joints.

Water...how much to drink?

Okay, you're in. You're convinced of the benefits of drinking water for your skin and your health. But drink 8 glasses of water per day? Yikes!

The Mayo clinic suggests using "8X8" as a guideline...8 glasses, 8 ounces each, of fluid daily. You may need even more.

Exercising, hot weather, and heated indoor air all cause your body to lose water. Increased water output requires increased water input.

AMAZING EXERCISES FOR A PERFECT ASS

Ok, well there are a lot of myths about how to get a perfect ass, you will find diet and exercise contribute to fat burning, and burning the fat off your ass is the best way to make it perfect! The top 2 exercises that effectively shape your bootie are:

1. SQUATS:

Stand with your legs wide apart – (wider than shoulder width apart). Have your toes pointed outwards. Keep your chest out, your midsection firm and head facing frontwards. Hold a dumbbell at arms length in front of you (dumbbell should be in front of your pelvis) the other end of the dumbbell should be facing the floor. Ensure your back is straight and don't lean too far forward. (Keep the weights light to start with) Now bending your knees squat leaning into your heels then push yourself back up again squeezing your butt and inner thighs. Make sure you don't lift your toes off the floor.

2. WALKING LUNGES:

Stand with your feet together. Keep your chest out and your midsection firm, do not arch your back. Place your hands on your hips or by your sides. Step forward with a large stride. Bend both your knees. Your front leg should be at a 90 degree angle (your knee and shin should be in a straight line with your ankle). Your back knee should be nearly touching the floor and extended behind you. As you are pushing up, and at the top of your lunge movement, lunge forward with the other leg repeating the same movement. Continue with this sequence, alternating from one leg to the other until you have finished the required amount of reps.

Step ups, Walking, Running, Jogging, Bkingi, Hiking, and Kickboxing also work well.

ALEX Q

CLICK TO VISIT ALEX Q
ON SOUNDCLOUD

Alex Q has always been a music enthusiast since an early age and due to his love for music has matured into a multi-talented DJ with a range of styles.

Depending on the Bar/Event , you'll find him at times playing funky big room house to some heavy dutch house with heavy basslines and drums.

The noticable fact is that all of his tunes will have great rythm. He has been djing in NZ since 2005 and is an established as a truely exciting and enthusiastic electronic DJ. He is not only a dj but an entertainer behind the decks.

Youll find Alex Q more at Gigs and Events and rarely as a resident Bar DJ.

Alex Q is best known for high energy and big room tunes that is a sure shot combo to get the dance floor busy. "You gotta enjoy the music you play, it reflects in your performance and the crowd draws energy off you". "Djing is about communicating with people through music, it gives you the best natural high you can imagine."

Djing is as simple as playing good music that he enjoys, and others will follow. Alex gets a kick out of playing on the same bill as DJ's he looks up to.

He used to watch the likes of Grant marshall, Lucas Oliver and Daniel Farley and now he plays before or after them and has even featured on their Georgefm Shows.

Some of the events Alex has played at include Paul Van Dyk, Our House, Deep Hard & Funky , Slinky, Gods Kitchen, Summer-Dayze, Oxygen, Torque, Essential, Chemistry, Big Club Night Out ,Vaccine , One Love and Contrast, Splurge, Neon Breaks Festival (Auckland's biggest U18 Dance parties).

He is a regular featured Dj at several events at various House Bars/Clubs around Auckland.

AK ICE CUBE MAKER

Nothing more chilling than a bullet

The AK-47 is an extremely reliable weapon. Also known as a Kalashnikov, it has been in service for over 60 years and produced in over 25 countries. It remains highly prized by those who desire a weapon that will shoot every time. Its name is feared throughout the world, and its signature bark chills the blood.

And a chill is not necessarily a bad thing. On a hot day, a chill is just what you want on your drink, for example. When the sun beats down, sometimes what you want is a little liquid refreshment with a little ice. Sure, ice cubes may be what you reach for first, but what if you wanted to make your drink a bit more "killer?"

This new ice cube tray has two halves. When filled and frozen, it looks just like the magazine of the venerable AK-47. Upon opening, out spills 10 beautiful ice bullets, crystalline, deadly, and delicious. Drop them into your beverage, and serve up a killer cocktail guaranteed to turn heads.

So next time you need some ice-cold refreshment, turn not to pedestrian cubes. Choose instead an icy bullet!

HALF FULL OPTIMIST'S GLASS

Glassware for the eternally positive!

You know the type - the downer. The drain on any party. The one that, right after an hilarious anecdote about the monk they met in an ashram in Dhaka, deflated everybody with discussions of abject poverty in urban India. What a downer. Definitely a glass-half-empty guy. You know that idiom, right? Some folks look at a glass of liquid and say that it's half-empty, while others would quip that it's half full. Whichever you say helps to indicate if you're an optimist, or a pessimist.

Pessimists, some say, are more likely to be depressed, sap energy out of the room, and generally make for bad times. Optimists, in contrast, tend to be livelier, solicit smiles from their friends and colleagues, and be secretly despised by the rest of his coworkers as he cheerfully strolls down the hall whistling a happy tune smiling at everybody he sees all bright-eyed and jolly that big stupid jerk.

Still, there's a lot to be said about being an optimist. For example, if you're drinking out of our half-full optimist's glass, your drink is at least partially filled. See, the bottom of the glass doesn't start until half-way up, so your drink always starts half full.

Buy one for that annoying coworker that can't see the fabled silver lining! Buy one for the other annoying coworker that sees nothing but the silver lining. Buy one for yourself, just to keep your outlook positive. So put on your rose colored glasses, keep your chin up, and remember - it could be worse.

HERMIONE'S TIME TURNER

What would you do with more time?

"I mark the hours every one nor have I yet outrun the sun. My use and value unto you are gauged by what you have to do."
- Inscription on Hermione's Time Turner

What would you do if you had the ability to turn back time and have a few extra hours in your day? In no particular order, we would: play more video games, eat second breakfast, read more books, hang out with all of our friends that can't hang out with each other, play more video games, re-watch HBO's Game of Thrones while comparing the dialogue to the source material. You know, important things.

This Time Turner won't actually turn time back. (Otherwise, we'd have to charge a lot more. And honestly, we probably wouldn't be selling it so much as using it ourselves.) It's an authentic recreation of Hermione's Time Turner pendant necklace from the movie Harry Potter and the Prisoner of Azkaban. Plated in 24 karat gold, the Time Turner features a working miniature hourglass and rotating inner rings.
