Featuring DJ Mëw From Chicago

DJ Mëw is a name we've been hearing a lot of in the industry lately. We've seen it in major web and print magazines, all over flyers for major events (including the official Exxxotica After Party in Chicago and an upcoming Canadian tour), and there's even been some sexy photos tagging along with the name. So who exactly is this "DJ Mëw"? Well with all the hustle and bustle about her we just had to find out, so we did some digging and snagged a few photos to bring you this exclusive feature!

DJ Mëw (Also known as Heather Mëw Moore) is an international DJ and model based in Chicago, IL, but she wasn't always a double threat! Mëw started her career as a model and quickly found success. Her beauty landed her appearances in magazines, clothing campaigns and she could always be seen hosting at major clubs throughout the U.S. It was at one of these hosting events where Mëw noticed a female DJ and was completely captivated by the art of mixing beats and mashing two songs together to create your own sound. When asked about that moment Mëw says "It was like a flashing neon light saying 'this is what you should be doing!'" A week later she bought her first pair of decks and took on the name DJ Mëw. "I wanted a complete identity change" says Mëw, "I wanted to be known as more than just a pretty face."

So where can you find DJ Mëw now? She can be found touring the U.S. with luxury swimwear lines, shooting for national and international magazines, in clothing catalogs, and of course tearing up the turntables at major clubs! There has been talk of an upcoming Canadian tour for a while now and Mëw has finally released the confirming flyer saying she will indeed be touring Canada mid-late 2014. "I am more excited for this tour than I have ever been for any of my events!" She says. Mëw will be hitting major clubs in Niagra Falls, Toronto and more! Looks like she will be someone to keep an eye on! You can follow her on her social media to keep up with all the buzz!

A blonde woman with long, wavy hair is shown in profile, leaning against a rustic wooden structure made of vertical poles. She is wearing a white, sequined, strapless bikini top. Her arms are crossed in front of her. The background is a blurred beach scene with wooden benches and palm trees under a bright sky.
