TATOO OVERLOAD AND HOW TO SEVERALY DESTROY YOUR GLAMOUR MODELING CAREER!

WHY DON'T PEOPLE UNDERSTAND THAT TOO MANY TATTOOS MAKE THEM LOOK TRASHY? THIS IS WHAT THE AVERAGE JOE IS THINKING THE MINUTE HE SEES YOU.

TAKING CARE OF YOUR BODY

Some of the modern day glamour models seem to unfortunately have a big problem with understanding the fact that you can't party every weekend, get drunk and expect to maintain a great body in the long term. In Glamour, your physical beauty is a very important part to your success. Watching your diet and sticking to a simple fitness plan is essential. You can't be a professional model of any genre if you are going to be drinking Vodka every weekend and abusing your body. They just don't go hand in hand.

Sure some random guys will tell you it's hot but what do these clowns know about this industry? Chances are they are simply telling you what you want to hear to seek your attention. The question I tend to ask myself is" What are you trying to hide behind all of that?"

BUT ITS ART

Art belongs on a Canvas, Paper, Printed Photo etc. Every time I hear this line I cringe. Certainly none of these people are thinking long term before they pull the ink trigger. It may be art to you but to most high end publications and clients it paints you in a very negative light. Call it judging, call it what you will, but that's the nature of this business and you better understand real fast what is accepted and what is not. When was the last time you saw a model looking like the one here, in Vogue, Playboy, FHM and any top tier magazine? Never!

TATTOOS ARE JUST ANOTHER FAD

To continue on the lines of taking care of your body comes the visual presentation of it. In this business and industry there is a reason women with more than 5 small tattoos are literally banned from national and international publications. Did Marilyn Monroe have a full sleeve back in her day? Did glamour icon, Anna Nicole Smith have a dragon all across her thigh? I think we can blame a few subcultures for influencing women to start doing the unthinkable (Hip Hop culture, MMA culture and so on...) At the end of the day if you over do it because you think it's cool, be prepared to be severely ignored when it comes to nailing modeling opportunities in top tier magazines. A true beautiful woman does not need any of that crap.

DO TATTOOS MAKE A WOMAN MORE OR LESS AP-PEALING?

In my professional opinion it doesn't make a woman more beautiful, more sexy or anything at all. What it does is the opposite.

THINKING BEFORE COMMITTING CAREER SUI-CIDE

Now if you are one of the lucky ladies who has only minor tattoos and was thinking of jumping ship to the dark side, then you better think twice because I can guarantee you, your aspiring modeling career will be hampered massively by a bad decision you may want to make. Forget fads and focus on building your modeling network and stay healthy and fit. In the long run you will have way more opportunities come your way and you wont have to go through laser tattoo removal at age 40.

Be smart, make the right decision.

My name is Alex and I am thrilled to be featured in Glam Jam magazine. I have visited, but I haven't made an impact on Canada quite like this. I am 25 years old and from Gainesville Florida. I have been told on numerous occasions that I'm so much fun to be around and a blast to work with. Find out why in the next pages!

ALEX, HOW DID YOU GET INVOLVED WITH GLAMOUR MODELING?

My photographer Mike Anthony Moffa approached me at a swim suit photo-shoot and with his beautiful work I became hooked on Glamour Modeling.

WHO INSPIRED YOU IN BECOMING A GLAMOUR MODEL?

I've always been inspired by Carmen Electra, her curves have made me want to flaunt mine too.

HOW DO YOU MANAGE TO MAINTAIN SUCH AN INCREDIBLY SEXY BODY?

I enjoy working out either indoors or outdoors. I try to eat fresh fruit and stay away from junk food.

WHAT PART OF THAT SEXY BODY ARE YOU THE MOST PROUD OF?

I'm most proud of my tiny waist.

TELL US ONE UNUSUAL OR UNIQUE THING ABOUT YOURSELF THAT OTHERS MAY NOT KNOW.

Something that others may not know about me is that in my spare time I love to cook and sew.

WHAT IS THE MOST ADVENTUROUS THING YOU HAVE DONE?

While I was vacationing in Sydney Australia, I got the courage to climb the Sydney Harbour Bridge, which is 450 feet about the water. I was so scared but the rush of being so high up was amazing.

WHAT IS YOUR NEXT GOAL AS A GLAMOUR MODEL?

I would love to be featured in Playboy or Maxim magazine!

DEALING WITH GOSSIP IN THE INDUSTRY

DEALING WITH GOSSIP IN THIS INDUSTRY CAN BE HARD TO MANAGE AND YOU COULD GO THROUGH A LOT.

Personally I have as well. You have to be able to manage through all of it. I suggest to keep yourself out of it and don't talk bad about others or it would and will backfire. From my own experiences personally, I've been screwed. But I keep my head up and as well you should too. Whether you are a photographer, a model, a business owner or anyone associated in this industry you have to stay grounded and not get involved. Personally, I was involved in a big ordeal. I don't' want to associate myself with it but I became friends with a model that I was close to and we both worked a lot together. She started dating an ex of mine and I knew then I had to end my relationship with her. As much as it sucked I saw where she stood.

DEALING WITH THE STRUGGLES

As much as you trust them you should just realize that they did you wrong and move forward. Also, you will deal with a lot of struggles with success. People will get jealous, people will hate and that only means you are doing a good job. And you have to trust and believe in yourself that you are doing well and there are and will be a ton of haters. Thats what they do is hate. Someone that talks about you behind your back and gossips and starts drama you just have to see it as that. drama and gossip. And I'm sorry but not sorry I want and need no part of it. People can be really crappy but the way you feel about some people and you give them your all sometimes may not matter. You just have to wake up and realize when you start to succeed, friends you had before that are just miserable with themselves may think different about you. They will get jealous and that's when the drama may start. I don't want to be a part of drama so I don't fight back and I stay out of it. I realize though who is really there. Everyone will talk and everyone will have something to say. As long as you just maintain your own happiness nothing else should or would matter. The generalization of people out there would do you wrong. Why? To take advantage of you and feed off of your happiness and well being. People in general will hurt you. I'm no physiologist but I've seen this first hand. All you need to do is put all those people aside and trust and believe in yourself. I'm not saying to trust anyone either. There are still good people out there. You just have to find them. They exist!

Gossip in this industry is definitely a hard thing to manage and sometimes your feelings will get out of control. But like anything in life you just need to learn how to handle things, manage them and not let them take control of yourself. Just like any business, people will get greedy, take advantage and also try to interfere with things just to get ahead. The best advice I can give on this situation, especially dealing with it is to just to stay out of the drama. Don't let your feelings get so bad that it messes up yourself. You are the only one that matters in the end and some people are just messed up. There will be a ton of gossip especially with success and don't let that interfere with you personally.

Just realize that when gossip comes about and crappy people come about they don't need the satisfaction to fight back and that you should just realize that they are just that. A person that did you wrong shouldn't even have the satisfaction to hurt you.

CHRISTA, HOW DID YOU GET INVOLVED WITH GLAMOUR MODELING?

I got started seven years ago, getting Valentine's Day pictures done for my boyfriend and I fell in love with it. It is something that is as much a part of me as any other interest I have. In the beginning, I shot with a variety of people, but I met an amazing photographer, Rick Trottier, who has helped mold me into the model I am today. We have worked together steadily over the past couple of years. Modeling has led me to meet a lot of great friends and people who share the same interests with me. Relationships got harder and caused a little bit of jealousy and trust issues. But that is part of this Industry. Like all things in life, there are ups and downs.

WHO INSPIRED YOU IN BECOMING A GLAMOUR MODEL?

My mom is the person that has made me who I am. She is always there for me when I need her and gives me the advice and strength I need to make it through obstacles of life. My family and friends are very supportive of my modeling and always push me to try and go further. I try to ignore the negative comments from people and take it as jealousy. Jealous people just make me want to push for my dreams even more. My photographer Rick Trottier has taught me all about posing and other elements of modeling. I feel so much more confident about my ability to model for anyone at any time. Our work together has helped me to feel beautiful in all forms of modeling.

HOW DO YOU MANAGE TO MAINTAIN

SUCH AN INCREDIBLY SEXY BODY?

I've gotten very serious about working out and keeping fit I use to kind of "leave it to chance" in the past, but looking my very best matters to me. I shoot a lot of different content with Rick for a variety of magazines and that content could be swimwear, light glam or, fashion or full implied nudes. Adopting a consistent exercise program and being more careful about my eating habits means I can look great no matter what the situation.

WHAT PART OF THAT SEXY BODY ARE YOU THE MOST PROUD OF?

I am very proud of my long legs. Being able to show off my legs in dresses, skirts, shorts and bikinis and never feeling insecure about them is a wonderful feeling. The other gift of inheritance I received are my eyes. My eyes have some wonderful colors in them that help them to stand out I feel very lucky to be born with such eyes. It's nice to have a pair of strengths that are so different but both can catch people's attention.

TELL US ONE UNUSUAL OR UNIQUE THING ABOUT YOURSELF THAT OTHERS MAY NOT KNOW.

I love to draw. Show me a picture or drawing and I can almost replicate it 100%. When I'm drawing I am so relaxed it takes me to another place and allows me to explore what's inside my soul.

WHAT IS THE MOST ADVENTUROUS THING YOU HAVE DONE?

I am not one to do a lot of thrill-seeking but when the mood strikes me, I like to take chances. I once went skydiving and it was as wildly wonderful as it gets. To do something that WILL kill you if anything goes wrong is the ultimate rush. It combines excitement, beauty and that once in a lifetime moment.

WHAT ARE YOUR FUTURE GOALS?

I've been so very thrilled to have been in several publications over the past couple of years and now Glam Jam! I want to continue to get my name out there and to get opportunities in modeling. I would love to make an even more recognizable name for myself and be published in magazines such as Maxim or Cosmopolitan.
