SIN CITY: A DAME TO KILL FOR

AUGUST 22ND

In Sin City: A Dame to Kill For, Dwight (Josh Brolin) is hunted down by the only woman he ever loved, Ava Lord, and then watches his life go straight to hell.

Chronologically, this story takes place prior to "The Big Fat Kill" (featured in the film Frank Miller's Sin City) and explains how Dwight came to have a dramatically different face.

IN THEATRES NOW

The Purge: Anarchy

A couple are quickly trying to get to their home before The Purge starts but their car runs out of gas, the radio announces the beginning of The Purge, the couple have no choice but to leave their car, a couple of meters away stand a group of Purgers on motorcycles. The couple try to survive and fight the purgers.

Sex Tape

A young, happily married couple gets a night off from their kids and decide to spice up their life by making a sex tape. When they wake up the following morning they discover the tape missing and must find out who took it and how to get it back.

Think Like a Man Too

The couples are back together for a wedding in Las Vegas, but plans for a romantic weekend go awry when their various misadventures get them into some various situations that threaten to derail the big event.

SPECIAL ISSUE

Bettie Page Reveals All

Through narrating her own life story, Bettie Page recounts how her unabashed sexual expression and sexually provocative fetish poses set the stage for the 1960s sexual revolution and ushered in a modern era in fashion and pop culture. As a woman in an era when women were second-class citizens, Bettie Page was continually knocked down throughout her life.

In this film you will learn nearly everything you would want to know about one of the greatest pinup models of all time.

What I had a hard time coming to terms with was the fact that somehow Bettie Page decided to walk away from modeling decades before the height of her popularity...no comeback! It's a great film.

Available on DVD and RedBox

Bad Words

How a ridiculously vulgar movie manages to be cute and damn near heartbreaking is truly beyond me. This is Jason Bateman at his absolute sarcastic best.

Wrong Cops

Marilyn Manson has a role without makeup, there are a bunch of goofy cops doing stupid things. The first thought would be an adult version of Reno 911, right? WRONG! This film was just plain 'ol dumb...SKIP IT!!!

Album of the Month

Trouble in Paradise is the second studio album by English recording artist Elly Jackson, professionally known as La Roux. It was released on 18 July 2014 by Polydor Records. Though she describes the record as “warmer and sexier” than her previous effort, what I love about it is the time travel. It’s like I stepped in a time machine and traveled back to the 80’s when there was a wave of electronic production. The album has actual lyrics, genuine music and an authentic singer. Great album...uh, CD.

Tracks to look out for - The feeling.

Fox News Memos

I'm sitting watching Fox News, why? It's a Sunday night and I want to watch news. MSNBC, CNN and the other networks are playing some bullshit. Of course, some of you would say that I'm exchanging bullshit for bullshit and you may be right. But I'm just not into watching Caught on Tape or Sex Slaves in America. This particular installment of the Lie, lies, lies channel has Megyn Kelly interviewing Obama's "pal" Bill Ayers.

The interview is pretty intense until Megyn moves to the GOP talking points where Bill Ayers is supposedly best friends with the current President.

Here's a snippet...

Megyn states that Bill Ayers has managed to reinvent himself and helped launch the political career of our current President.

Then...

Megyn: President Obama, how much ideology do you two share?

Bill: Zero

Megyn: Good friends, not good friends.

Bill: I knew him as well as he knew 10,000 other people and today I wish I knew him much better and that he would listen to me.

Megyn: Did he ever contact you once you became the story in his presidential race?

Bill: Absolutely not and I didn't contact him.

Megyn: And since he's been President you haven't been in contact with him?

Bill: No, never, though I wish I were because I have a lot of advice for him...I want him to stop droning people, I want him to close Guantanamo, universal health care. Don't you think we deserve universal health care, seriously?

Megyn changes the subject.

There are those on the left that believe Bill was lying, of course. My question would be, how would that benefit him? How many of us would love to say that we have ear of the President?

Yet, here is Bill Ayers saying that not only is he not close to President but he wishes he were because he actually doesn't agree with Obama's policies.

Another talking point debunked! If I heard it once, I've heard it a thousand times how Obama is a community organizer the "pals around" with terrorist Bill Ayers.

People believe it, go to the polls and vote without realizing that this is nothing more than propaganda used to place the republican party in power.

There are so many talking points coming from that party. Americans are buying into them wholesale, then suffering the consequences.

- Austerity - Republican leaders claim that austerity helps the economy. But a recent National Association for Business Economics poll of 49 economists found that 95 percent of those surveyed agreed that budget cuts are hurting economic growth.
- Stimulus - Congressional Republicans have blocked a second stimulus and claim that the first stimulus didn't work. But a survey of the 41 economists in the IGM Economic Experts Panel last year found that 80 percent agreed that the 2009 stimulus lowered the unemployment rate.
- Immigration - Some Republican leaders oppose substantially expanding immigration. But 89 percent of economists in the IGM Economic Experts Panel agreed that more high-skilled immigration would benefit the average American.
- Debt Ceiling - Republicans have used the debt ceiling as a bargaining chip and have opposed President Barack Obama's proposal to eliminate it altogether. But 84 percent of economists in the IGM Economic Experts Panel agreed with the statement that the debt ceiling "creates unneeded uncertainty and creates potentially worse fiscal outcomes."

- Small Businesses - Republican leaders favor giving special treatment to small businesses, but no economists in the IGM Economic Experts Panel said they believe that would help the average American more than focusing on economic growth.

Then there were the talking points about "Obamacare". The republican lead house has spent your tax dollars, voting to repeal this piece of legislation despite the fact that even if it passed the House & Senate...The President would veto it!

Just today I read in our local newspaper how the expansion of Medicaid, which hit our state January 1st of this year, has caused a substantial decline in the number of uninsured showing up in emergency rooms.

This reduces the amount of bad debt that hospitals and insurance companies pass onto those of us who have medical insurance in the form of higher prices and co-pays. It's estimated that the Affordable Care and Patient Protection Act aka Obamacare will cut the number of uninsured in our state by more than 60 percent by 2016.

The obvious question would be, why would anyone vote to repeal a law that has the potential to save so many American lives or at the very least put dollars back in our pockets?

The answer is...because what's good for us, is not necessarily good for business.

My challenge to you is to take a little time out of your busy schedules and watch some of the interviews from the GOP.

Start with the Sunday shows, Meet the Press etc;

Keep a tally sheet and at the end of the week, add up the number of times members of the republican party say the exact same thing aka talking point.

It's rhetoric without policy. Sure, it makes you feel good but it doesn't get anything done.

234 Problems

So we're going to sue the President of the United States of America...you're kidding right?

This is nothing new, I watched the film Lincoln. I know that it's nearly impossible to get a group of individuals together to agree on ANYTHING! That's anywhere and everywhere, but there's something strange and almost macabre about having that type of behavior occur within the government of the most powerful country in the world especially when you consider that we have the word UNITED as part of the idea that our country was founded on.

As a kid in grade school, I remember starting every morning reciting the Pledge of Allegiance...

I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America, and to the Republic for which it stands, one Nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

I was raised to believe that the President was the pinnacle of the daily oath that I took to my country.

There was nothing that could break that bond...nothing! I was under the impression that being an American meant that when it came to political rhetoric everyone was in play except for the President regardless of political party. This was the very concept, the very thing that made us exceptional and different from other countries.

Though I'm almost certain this wasn't the idea behind the Vandenberg Resolution proposed by Senator Arthur Vandenberg in 1948 that asserted "politics stops at the water's edge," it, without question, applies to our countries current circumstances.

The internet is a powerful tool.

Everything that we do as superpower is relayed all over the world in seconds.

As a country, we are no longer blanketed by the thousands of miles that could turn our missteps into rumors or propaganda.

The world is connected in real time...and the House is suing the President of the United States aka the Leader of the Free World aka The Commander in Chief of the Most Powerful military in the world.

Why?

Our United States House of Representatives passed a resolution to sue the President of the United States of ours for an overreach of power.

House resolution 676 states...

Providing for authority to initiate litigation for actions by the President or other executive branch officials inconsistent with their duties under the Constitution of the United States.

Resolved, That the Speaker is authorized to initiate or intervene in one or more civil actions on behalf of the House of Representatives in a Federal court of competent jurisdiction to seek any appropriate relief regarding the failure of the President, the head of any department or agency, or any other officer or employee of the executive branch, to act in a manner consistent with that official's duties under the Constitution and laws of the United States with respect to implementation of any provision of the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act, title I or subtitle B of title II of the Health Care and Education Reconciliation Act of 2010, including any amendment made by such provision, or any other related provision of law, including a failure to implement any such provision. The Speaker shall notify the House of Representatives of a decision to initiate or intervene in any civil action pursuant to this resolution. The Office of the General Counsel of the House of Representatives, at the direction of the Speaker, shall represent the House in any civil action initiated, or in which the House intervenes, pursuant to this resolution, and may employ the services of outside counsel and other experts for this purpose. The chair of the Committee on House Administration shall cause to be printed in the Congressional Record a statement setting forth the aggregate amounts expended by the Office of General Counsel.

It's being reported in the mainstream media as the House simply suing the President - which is a problem - but what they are really after is trying to stop the complete implementation of the Affordable Care and Patient Protection Act.

As mentioned in an earlier article in this issue, they have voted more than 40 times to repeal this piece of legislation with no success.

When you consider that the completely fucked up Supreme Court ruled 5-4 that the provisions, that the other party have claimed are unconstitutional, were in fact constitutional...what is the real basis of this resolution?

Well...

Boehner is standing in front of the camera and pretending that this is about something much bigger than what the actual resolution states. The media has taken the liberty of reporting it as an OMG moment (which it is because it unprecedented) due to the fact that it is the first time in American history that one branch of government is actually proposing taking another branch of government to court for not playing fair...? Hell, I don't know I'm really at a loss as to why...wait, it's an election year!

So, we have a group of people that are trying to drum up their base by taking a completely bogus action against the President of the United States of America in hopes that they will get control of both the House and Senate.

Great!

It's bogus because if you read the resolution, which they KNOW must people WON'T DO, it's really easy to assess what this is all about...with respect to implementation of any provision of the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act, title I or subtitle B of title II of the Health Care and Education Reconciliation Act of 2010, including any amendment made by such provision, or any other related provision of law, including a failure to implement any such provision.

This is what I like to call a pivot.

There wasn't much ground gained using tax payers money, because their salaries come directly from our tax dollars aka our paychecks, to vote 40+ times to repeal the law.

As I mentioned before, the law has already made it's way to the Supreme Court with no luck. At this point, 50+ votes might look like the true definition of insanity. The next logical move would be to "sue" the President, right?

Or at least appear to!

The resolution that was passed isn't what's being represented by some of the tough talking republicans or sadly by our 30 second sound byte driven mainstream media.

There is a lot more bark here than there is bite!

All of this from a GOP that is hoping and praying that this last ditch effort will be enough to provoke a MONSTER turn out in the mid-term elections.

Early indications would suggest that they might get the monster turn out alright but from the other side.

Listening to the ditto heads, I have a gut feeling that they really don't support the move. I have to admit that, though I listen to a lot of conservative radio, I'm not logged in 24/7. However, from what I've heard they aren't that excited about it.

Maybe, they've read the actual resolution too...lol.

The American people aren't stupid. Albeit, there are a few die hards that are turned on by the thought of taking ANY action against our current President but the majority of Americans see this for what it is.

A ploy!

Republicans are ignoring more important issues like a comprehensive jobs bill, immigrant issues and DAMN NEAR EVERYTHING ELSE to use our hard earned dollars to sue the President.

In addition, folks are beginning to feel better!

I hate to use the standard liberal lines but we aren't losing more than 700,000 a month anymore, the stock market has reached record levels, unemployment is at 6.1% and the wars are beginning to wind down.

Bitch and complain all you want but we definitely aren't where we were in 2008.

So let's just say for shits and giggles that this new scheme by the GOP works and they gain control of the House and Senate.

Then what? Do they vote to impeach the President?

OK, let's just say that happens...

Let's keep in mind that Obama won the POPULAR vote in both elections and in the second it wasn't even close!

The first thing that happens is the country is thrown into complete chaos!

I wouldn't be surprised if 30 minutes after the news report that Obama had been impeached there would be riots all over the country...because Americans aren't stupid. Again, there are some of you that are reading this right now that think he should be impeached and my suggestion to you would be to take a couple of vacation days and research his record in comparison with our last President's. If we didn't impeach Bush then we're not even the neighborhood of having anything of actual substance that would suggest that we should actually impeach Obama.

After we're thrown into chaos, every pissed off country with an ax to grind will come calling for a little payback. This is all speculation but I really see it happening. It wouldn't be the first time a foreign country has decided to try to knock us off our pedestal.

All I'm saying is that there has always been political disagreement, no worries there, but when we have people from within trying to take down the TOP GUY because they don't agree with his policies...that's when we're all at risk.

Honey West Presents The Astro Maniacs

For our Top Floor readers this month, I'm presenting an excerpt from my latest ebook, "The Astro Maniacs". If you're a fan of astrology, kinky sex, and a bit of fun "tongue in cheek" edgy writing, go to www.Aladultebooks.com and download a copy! And if you see a little of yourself (or someone else) in the astro signs....don't blame me! The truth is in the stars! lol!

Chapter One

The Pisces female and the Capricorn male carefully set up the crude podium in the center of the room in readiness for the arrival of Bob X, leader of a new club known as ARC. This would be the first official meeting where they would learn the full parameters - the goals and the ultimate mission of the club. Bob had given them a map to the abandoned cabin in the woods and told them to wait patiently. Under no circumstances were they to tell anyone about the location of the secret cabin. He knew very well that the activities and ideals of ARC would be banned by the authorities - they'd immediately seize and destroy the cabin if outsiders knew of its existence, and that would be the end of all their special plans and concepts. Any behavior outside the norm is always destroyed and therefore must be kept hidden from prying eyes.

The cabin was dank and dusty, having been abandoned to rot in an area of heavy underbrush for many years, but it was the safest place to meet. They trusted Bob X's leadership skills and decisions and looked forward to the cabin being their cozy "home away from home."

"Timothy, I'm so excited! Tonight will be our first orientation session! "

Misty the lusciously beautiful Pisces had been recruited by Bob at a strip club where she danced for horny men during the week. He had been at the club in search of a hot chick to be his personal slave at the cabin during the weekends. He immediately hired her when he found out she was a Pisces. This was his first choice because Pisces women are naturally submissive and extremely sexy. Being a weak, confused woman, she quickly fell into line.

Tim the Capricorn was recruited in a sleazy bar downtown at an orgy. During the week, he was a powerful executive at a bank, but on the weekends he was into make-up and women's lingerie. Being a repressed Capricorn, he was deeply ashamed of his cross dressing habit, but Bob gently reassured him it would be "okay" to dress as a female at the cabin and express his inner feminine self.

"Yes, Misty, I'm tremendously excited too. Bob is our leader. He's so strong, so masculine. We must pay close attention to everything he says tonight!"

Misty squealed and Tim groaned in pleasure as Bob walked up the path to the front door.

"Good evening, Miss Pisces and Mr. Capricorn."

Tim could barely contain his excitement - he'd applied his make-up extra carefully, just a hint of blush on his sallow cheeks and a pale, tasteful sheer pink gloss on his lips. It was a classy look.

"Timothy, you're lovely tonight. I know how much it means to a Capricorn to finally be able to throw off the shackles of a mundane, dull life."

Tim positively glowed.

"Gosh....thank you, Bob. I'm glad you appreciate my fashion sense. It means a lot to me."

He was secretly hoping that maybe - just maybe - Bob the alpha Aries would give him a little squeeze or a hug or <gasp>...gently fondle his balls. .

"Well, Tim, the cabin is a place you can really cut loose without shame. I know it's hard for a Capricorn to overcome the guilty feelings of being a naughty boy, but you needn't be afraid. Your little secret is safe with me."

Timothy nodded and smiled, smoothing his hair back shyly. He could never do anything fun and forbidden like this at the bank. He'd be immediately fired from his job and banished from the conservative financial community forever. The only clothing he was permitted to wear as a bank officer was a brown suit and tie, starched white shirt, dark brown dress slacks and tan jacket. No make-up, no jewelry, certainly no women's stockings or stilettos. It just wasn't fair! As an act of rebellion, he'd started wearing women's panties under his business attire. That one bit of defiance made him feel free. . He'd heard that the bank might start a tough new security procedure where all employees would have to pass through an x-ray machine, similar to those used at airports. Oh no! His ladies undies and garter belt would be clearly visible. But he wasn't going to worry about that now. He'd keep a stiff upper lip and soldier on. Capricorns were so pathetic. But they were good, dependable, robotic workers.

Bob walked confidently up to the podium to deliver his speech. .

"Welcome to the first meeting of ARC, aka the Astro Revenge Club. For security reasons, you will always refer to the organization as ARC. Safety first. We must be aware that outsiders are not on our high metaphysical wavelength. To tell you a bit about myself: I was born under the astrological sign of Aries. I'm an alpha male, a natural born leader, quite typical of my sign, and I won't tolerate any challenge whatsoever to my position as top dog. I'm also an expert in all things astrological, so don't try to outguess me or out-manuever me. . It's been my hobby since I was a very young boy. I embody most of my sun sign's dominating attributes - it's my way or the highway. I have a military background and my mind works in a tactical, military style. But you needn't fear me. I'm strict, but fair. As long as you accept the fact that you're my inferiors and underlings beneath the heel of my jack boot, we'll get along fine."

Misty and Tim smiled and nodded enthusiastically. Bob was precisely the type of man they needed in their wayward lives - a man with a strong, take no prisoners approach. Being a reliable, dull Capricorn, Tim was busily taking notes for future reference. He'd always been an excellent student.

"Now, listen up! You two were handpicked by me to be members of ARC. Last year, I conducted an in-depth study of birth data gleaned from the world's criminal records, and I discovered that a high percentage of Capricorn men are maniacs. Some of them are sex maniacs, others are deviants of various sorts. They live a staid, conservative existence to stay neatly within society's rules, but wallow in strange activities behind closed doors. This makes them among the most dangerous of all the star signs because they can easily pass themselves off as 100% normal and well-adjusted to fool their unsuspecting victims. Tim, you fit the Capricorn profile perfectly. I need a maniac on my team here at ARC."

This news came as quite a shock to Tim, but if Bob needed a maniac, then maybe he could be of some use. It was nice to feel needed. That's all that mattered. Bob was the astrology expert, not him. It felt good to be part of a special, select group.

"If you don't believe me, Tim, I can give you a real life example of a Capricorn maniac, although it may be upsetting. Are you able to absorb the unvarnished truth?"

"Uh....well....yes. I'm a big boy Bob, I practically run the bank. I have 50 employees who report only to me. I'm quite a powerful man at the bank. Do you think a bit of astrological information will scare me? You of all people should know that Capricorns are not sissies!"

Bob smiled a wry smile.

"Yes, dear. I know. You Cappies are big, tough strong men. Here's an example of what I discovered in my research. Sir Dwight Hemsworth, born January 4, 1745. He murdered 25 girls in ten days, all in the most heinous ways. Sir Dwight was a typical Capricorn maniac, very sneaky. He looked perfectly normal on the outside, but inside he was utterly wack. . He was in the same line of work as you, Tim - a banker. And he wore women's clothes on the weekends like you, too. See Timmy? No one can escape their astrological destiny."

Tim had never heard of Sir Dwight Hemsworth, but there were a lot of maniacs who had been forgotten in the mists of time. Dwight was probably a boring guy like most Capricorns and that's why his name had completely disappeared from the history books.

"I can handle the truth, Bob. I want to be a member of ARC so badly! . I accept the fact that I'm part of a special underground movement, a Capricorn maniac tradition spanning generations - maybe eons.

Actually, learning this exciting fact about my sign has suddenly made my dull life a lot more interesting!"

"Good boy, Tim. I knew I could count on you. Misty, now it's your turn to learn the truth about your inner self. . I chose you as my personal sex slave because it's a well known astrological fact that an extremely high percentage of Pisces women are wanton sluts. A man who marries a Pisces woman will have a whore for a wife."

Misty smiled proudly, although a bit stupidly. Pisces women aren't the sharpest tools in the shed.

"Well, yeah, I guess that fits me pretty well. I've been a stripper since I was 18. I ran away from home because I was screwing all the guys at school so my dad threw me out of the house. I always had big titties. The only thing I ever wanted to do was strip and screw. I'm basically lazy."

Bob chuckled.

"Yes, Misty, your behavior is quite typical of Pisces women. Lazy and slutty. I've never met a female born under your sign who wasn't naturally....hmmmmmm, shall we say, whorish? Submissiveness and masochism are also a big part of your fishy personality. One of the most notorious prostitutes in history, Madame Su Lee of the 4th Manchurian Dynasty was a Pisces, born March 3, 1201, B.C."

She nodded as if she understood what he was saying but she really didn't have a clue.

"Well, um, that's great! I never heard of this Su Lee chick, but it's true, I am a big slut. I love to be tied up and have a guy whip my butt til it turns beet red. But you already know that from our playtime last night. . You whipped me so good! I also love getting drunk. After my shift is finished at the club, I always get drunk and then I pass out."

Ah, yes. Misty was textbook Pisces. She also possessed the most beautiful eyes he'd ever seen in his life - really killer Pisces eyes. Limpid, dreamy, multi-colored. Her eyes looked green one day and blue the next. She didn't even realize what a knockout she was, oblivious to the devastating effect she had on a man's cock. Her stunning, otherworldly beauty would serve the requirements of ARC very well.

Bob went on to discuss the club in more detail as his willing and eager disciples listened.

"You two are part of a historic undertaking, an amazing new concept based on the karmic law of "what goes around comes around". During my astrology studies, it became crystal clear to me that nearly everyone has a personal grudge against particular horoscope signs. Most of us have been sexually ripped-off, betrayed or screwed over by certain signs, again and again. A husband. A wife. A boyfriend, A girlfriend. That realization is what gave me the idea to form the Astro Revenge Club."

Tim's eyes were twinkling with sexual excitement and barely suppressed lust. ..

"Bob, that's a brilliant concept. . It's quite true. I've definitely been hurt by certain signs. . Damn! One was a Leo. I can't even begin to tell you how badly I was wounded by that little manwhore! The Leo and I were in college, we were both studying business. He was the life of the party, always laughing and flashing his big phony Leo grin. He was blond and he had big puffy cocksucking lips like Mick Jagger!"

Bob just had to interject an astrological fact at this point.

"Tim, are you aware that Mick Jagger is a Leo?"

This revelation took Tim by surprise.

"No! I must say, your depth of astro knowledge is astounding! This beautiful Leo knew damn well I was in love with him. One night, I got on my hands and knees, lowered myself and groveled and begged him to fuck me and hold me and love me, but he utterly refused. He mocked me and said I was dull. He said he only had sex with young, beautiful guys he picked up at the beach. What did they have that I didn't? Me!

A fantastic Capricorn! I had education, intelligence, financial stability. I liked fine wines. I was a connoisseur of the best things in life and all that money can buy. I would have loved that Leo til the end of time! But he only wanted pretty boy beach twinks!. I hate all Leos!"

Tim stamped his foot firmly on the cabin floor like a small boy having a tantrum as he raved on about his astrological grudge, which . Bob certainly loved hearing. .

"Good , Tim.let all your pent-up sissy boy emotions out. Are there other signs that bug you?. Remember, it's okay to be yourself here at ARC. "

"Well, um.....yes, there are. After the Leo, there was this adorable Libra man. He actually had dimples! He had a girlfriend, but I knew he was a queer like me. He was so pretty! And he always dressed so stylishly. I really admired his fashion choices. I went to his house one night when his girlfriend was out of town. I was wearing my cutest outfit - pencil skirt, pink sweater, heels. I really thought he'd like my look. But he laughed in my face and called me a freak. I went home and cried myself to sleep. Every time I meet a Libra, I can tell he's a closet queer! God, it makes me want to.....to....."

"Yes, Tim? What do you want to do to the bad phony Libra guys?"

"I want to torture them! Tie them up. Force them to eat my dick and feel my salty tears and my wrath!"

Poor Timothy. He was really getting worked up thinking about these bad astrological experiences.

"Well, Tim, if it's any comfort to you, I can assure you that all Libra men are indeed closet homos. I've never met one who isn't gay gay gay. . Their girlfriends and wives are beards, no matter how loudly they deny the truth. . Libra men are the queens of the zodiac. Geminis run a close second in the astro race for queendom, but Libra men take the prize."

Misty felt sad when she saw Tim's hot, bitter tears and put her arms around him, pulling him close to her soft, voluptuous 36D breasts, comforting the weeping cross dressing man. His make-up and blush was all smeared and running down his face, making him look like a sad clown..

"It's okay, Timmy! I know how you feel! I've been hurt, too....a lot. I've got a few astro axes to grind. There's some guys in the zodiac I'd really love to stick it to."

As she comforted Tim in her motherly yet sexy way, Misty was showing the sweetest side of her weak Piscean nature - compassion for anyone and anything, even if they didn't deserve it. She was the type who rescued stray cats and random bums off the street.

"So, Misty, tell us what signs have screwed you over.. I need to know the specifics so that the Astro Club can make a customized plan to avenge this injustice and abuse."

She pouted and bit her lip, thinking as hard as she could with her rather small and limited Pisces mind.

"Well, there's two signs that I really hate. One guy who fucked me up was a Sagittarius. Isn't that the sign that's half man, half jackass? We met at the strip club, I was his favorite chick because of my big boobies and hot ass. . Sag men love big tits and a round butt. One night on impulse we eloped and got married in Vegas. He loved to gamble, like most Sagittarius guys do. Those idiots will gamble away their kid's college money or lie about anything, just for the fun of it. . Then guess what? One day his wife showed up out of the clear blue and sued him for bigamy. He also stole a bunch of my money and jewelry."

Bob had heard many Sagittarius con man horror stories over the years. Gambling, alcoholism, cheating, lying scumbags. The sign was tainted and big trouble for anyone stupid enough to get mixed up with them. Poor little Misty was too dumb to know better.

"Misty, if you were given the opportunity, what would you do to a Sagittarius man? How would you even the score?"

"Oh wow! I'm a peaceful chick by nature, it takes a lot to get me violent, but when I do, I go off like a rocket! I'd kick that Sag in the nuts and then empty out his bank account. I'd tie him up and dance in front of him. He'd be inches away from my beautiful pussy and stripper body while I whipped his butt crimson. Then I'd grind my stilettos into his chest as he screamed in agony. I'd make the Sag hurt til he cried like a little girl! "

Well, there was obviously a great deal of pent-up rage in this submissive Pisces which needed an outlet very badly. She had the potential to be not only the perfect sex slave, but a natural dominatrix. He had chosen well Now it was time to tell his own story.

"As the founder of the Astro Revenge Club, it's necessary that I reveal my own astrological grudges. The signs that really piss me off!"

Misty and Tim became quiet and listened intently. It was as if they were already his mindless disciples, ready to do anything and everything for him, to make the dreams of ARC a reality....."

Award-winning photographer Jack Watson has crafted a unique book dedicated to female glamour images created in black and white to honor the famous Hollywood stills photographers of the 1920's and 30's. With the help of a large collection of stunning glamour models who have been featured globally in many print, web, and video media including Playboy Enterprises™, Watson shows you how he creates sensuous, seductive glamour black and white images out of virtually any color glamour photograph. Dispelling the myth that not all color images make good black and white images, this book illustrates how virtually any glamour photo to create the look of the Hollywood masters.

Jack Watson's Complete Guide to Creating Black and White Female Glamour Images includes a CD with every photo in the book. All of the black and white photos started out as color digital files. They have been provided in their original color form for your unrestricted non-commercial use. This book is for those who have some basic Photoshop skills and want to broaden their horizons and experiment with additional plug-ins and software such as Nik Color Efex Pro Complete, Nik Silver Efex Pro, Topaz Adjust, and Topaz BW Effects. It's also for anyone who just loves looking at beautiful black and white female glamour images.

While most of the images in the book are "sexy" in nature, a number of examples show how sexy is not always the naked truth, but quite the contrary. Clothed or nude, the female form is a thing of beauty. At the very least, this book will make you rethink what is truly glamorous. Creating black and white glamour photos will help you see with your brain and feel with your heart. Remember it's not what you see in a photograph that moves you; it's what you don't see. So, boot up your computer, open your favorite photo software, and put the CD in the drive, and create some magic.

Top Gossip

Chris Brown is trying to show the world that he can hook up with a woman with a body just as tight as Rihanna's.

He decided to post photos of his latest girlfriend Karrueche Tran's ass, love the zipper tattoo by the way.

She looks happy that the photo was taken but how happy will she be when she finds out that said photo has made it into circulation on the world wide web.

It's one thing to take a selfie and post it but when celebs begin posting photos of their love interest, especially an on again/off again GF...that's when you might have some problems.

Lil' Mo (heard of her?) had some VIP passes at the Es-sence festival in New Orleans and felt that they entitled her to unlimited access. That was until NO Police blocked access to the restroom until Prince walked through. She went on an Instagram rant and felt the wrath of Prince fans from everywhere! One GREAT response to her outburst was "I would like to say a few words about Lil' Mo...except I don't know who she is...but I know who Prince is."

DITTO!

STORY OF THE MONTH

The first clip from season 5 of The Walking Dead!

They threw us a bone though that bone had very little meat. There was nothing about Rick or anyone in the train car, just Carol and Tyreese and the baby. It looks like there may be MORE walkers in this installment.

Can't wait!!!
