

SOUTHERN VIXENS

MAGAZINE

NOVEMBER 2014

WAIL OF THE
DEGENERATES

COURTNEY KAYE
IS SIMPLY IRRESISTIBLE

BOB SEGER
RIDE OUT

14

Ravishing
Vixens

www.southernvixens.com Bringing fantasies to reality!

On the Cover
 Model: Courtney Kaye
 Photographer: David Sutton

Contact Us:
www.southernvixens.com
southernvixensmagazine@gmail.com
 Twitter: @svmagazine
 Instagram: @southernvixensmagazine
 FB: www.facebook.com/pages/Southern-Vixens-Magazine/268908266509247

Copyright © 2014 Southern Vixens Magazine and Southernvixens.com
 All rights reserved.

November 2014 Edition Table of Contents

Kimberley Jade 04
 Photos by: Gary Miller

Stormi Michelle 08
 Photos by: BeansFotos

Rayven Love 12
 Photos by: Paul Ellison

Salute to the Military 15

Hot Set 18
 By: Marcus Jackson

Kristy Jessica 20
 Photos by: Francis Gamboa

Ashley Nichole 24
 Photos by: Chris DeLira

Eva Bukorova 28
 Photos by: Tony Piazza

Karme’s Kitchen..... 32
 By: Karmen Moon

The Singer 33
 Photos by: M.L. Vee

Courtney Kaye 34
 Photos by: David Sutton

Rebecca Glam 40
 Photos by: Nick Means

Sabrina Rose Lau 44
 Photos. by: Mark Toung

Love, Sex & Magic 48
 By: By Amy Elizabeth

Tune Talk 49
 By: DJ Mikey

Gina Marie 50
 Photos by: Jennifer Birney

Rashae Batchelor 54
 Photos by: Dan Richards

Scarlet Ryan 58
 Photos by: Felipe Rodriguez

The Never Blinking Eye 62
 By: William C. Pittman

Katherine 64
 Photos by: Epphects Media

Kendall Lynn 68
 Photos by: Johnny Ngo

Advertising 72

Contributors 74

Coming in December..... 75

Kimberley Jade

Photographer: Gary Miller

A Chat with Kimberley Jade

How did you get your start in modeling?

I tried out for my first calendar and never stopped from there! I loved it! Growing up I was always in some type of Performing Arts Group. This became another way I could express myself!

What do you like best about being a model?

I love to challenge myself and see how much I can improve with each shoot our task that I have been given. I love to meet new people and Modeling has given me the opportunity to do that!

What advice would you give to new models?

Never give up just because you don't get it the First Time. Keep Trying! Continue to stay true to yourself and your morals. Just like any other profession out there you can be bought, don't let it happen, don't get caught up in what everyone else is doing! You are your own person, Work hard for yourself and your future, Have a backup plan, you never know what can happen! Believe in yourself, believe you are beautiful, but also stay humble!

What would you say is your best modeling experience?

All of them! Every time that I get the chance to do something it's a blessing, I meet new people and end up with some lifelong friendships!

Favorite sports team?

I love my home teams Rays Baseball Team, Bucs, and The Lightning!

What do you consider the perfect man?

Looks are a thing for me, well certain things, well groomed, I love light eyes, you have to have nice teeth, and yes fit, along with looks you have to be smart, I don't just want the looks, Caring, energetic, outgoing, likes to try new things, thoughtful, hardworking, driven, family oriented is a must! You don't have to be wealthy; Money doesn't buy my happiness I can make it on my own!

What do guys compliment you on most?

My eyes and my Back end!

What is the most adventurous thing you have ever done?

I jumped off the high cliff in Jamaica! I would Love to get into a Shark cage and go down and see them!

What is your favorite food?

I could live on sushi!

What do you normally sleep in?

I go from sleeping in nothing to all bundled up in pajama pants and a t-shirt, just depends on how I feel.

What is your favorite song?

Automatic by Miranda Lambert has been on my Favorites List Lately.

What do you think is the sexiest thing about a man?

Not scared to show affection! Being confident with the women that he's with.

What's your biggest turn on?

Being gently loved on out of know where, little kisses, and hugging me from behind unexpectedly.

What's your biggest turn off?

When a man acts like he the best thing around.

What is your naughtiest fantasy?

You wish you could know that!

What is your favorite social network?

Instagram way less drama! Follow me @KimberleyJad3

How does someone contact you for a modeling project?

Email me at KimberleyJade89@gmail.com

STATISTICS

Height: 5'4

Weight: 120

Measurements: 32DD-24-34

Zodiac Sign: Aquarius

Occupation: Model, Student, Bartender

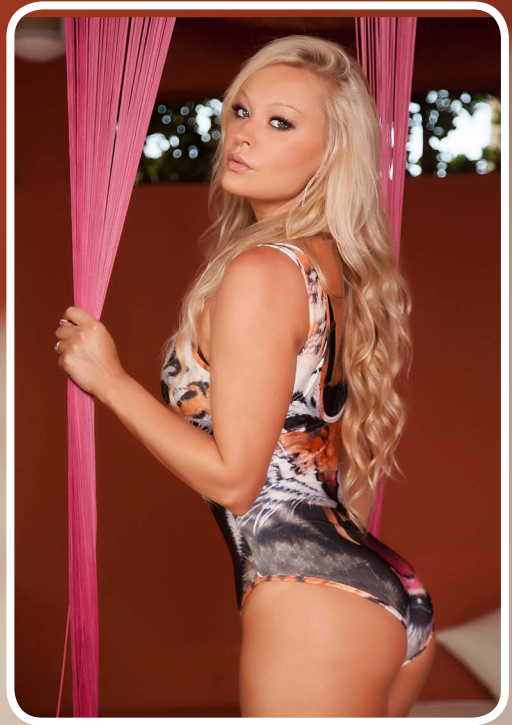

Home State: Florida

IG: @KimberleyJad3

Twitter: twitter.com/KimberleyJad3

Facebook: www.facebook.com/KimberleyJad3

Worldmags.net

Stormi Michelle

Photographer: Beansfotos

MUA: Ashley Sea

A Chat with Stormi Michelle

How did you get your start in modeling?

I started doing bikini competitions then just met different people and started to do different gigs.

What do you like best about being a model?

My favorite thing about modeling defiantly has to be the people I meet along the way. I love meeting new people and having a good time.

What advice would you give to new models?

I would say be cautious about who you work with and who you do business with, there are so many creepy guys with cameras lurking in the shadows preying on new models who want free shoots.

What would you say is your best modeling experience?

Shooting with Beans. Everything is so organized and he has everything you could possibly need right there in studio. Hair and Makeup is done professionally and you feel amazing and its just a very comfortable environment, fun and laid back. And in the end you get AMAZING pictures!!!

What do you do differently to set yourself apart from other models?

I try to keep as much of my personality in my pictures as possible and I interact with my fans locally a lot.

What is the coolest thing a fan has ever done for you?

I really enjoy when my fans make me stuff, one fan sent me a pair of socks with my picture on it I really love them!!!

Favorite sports team?

The New Orleans Saints!! Who Dat!!!

Which celebrity would you like to meet and why?

JENSEN ACKLES!! And for the obvious reasons, he's super fine and I'm a huge fan of the show Supernatural.

What is the most adventurous thing you have ever done?

Probably camping in the Rocky Mountains with no cell phone, no water, and no rest room. Camping tent style in the wilderness gets pretty hectic but also very peaceful.

What is your favorite food?

Pepperoni Pizza

What do you normally sleep in?

Usually undies and a tank top.

What is your favorite song?

November Rain. Guns N Roses

What is your favorite movie?

Blow. I love Johnny Depp and that's a movie my daddy and I used to enjoy watching together.

What do guys compliment you on most?

My smile and my ability to charm anyone I meet.

What do you consider the perfect man?

One who is a steady provider, faithful, and honest. Honesty is my biggest thing when looking for a guy. Usually if I find out you have told me even one little lie I rule you out of someone I could possibly date.

What do you think is the sexiest thing about a man?

His Smile.

What's your biggest turn on?

A man who knows how to treat a lady with respect.

What's your biggest turn off?

Nasty breath and Attitude.

What is your naughtiest fantasy?

For me to know, you to find out. :)

What's the worst place to meet a guy?

Hands Down, A Strip Club.

What is your favorite social network?

Probably Facebook just because everyone uses it.

How does someone contact you for a modeling project?

By Email- stormimichelle.model@gmail.com

STATISTICS

Height: 5'7
Weight: 135
Measurements: 38DD-24-26
Zodiac Sign: Capricorn
Occupation: Bartender
Home State: Texas
IG: @stormiimichelle
Twitter: @stormiimichelle
Facebook: www.facebook.com/stormicheeks
Website: www.stormimichelle.com

Rayven Love

Photographer: Paul Ellison

STATISTICS

Height: 5'4
Weight: 115
Measurements: 32C-26-34
Zodiac Sign: Libra
Occupation: Waitress/Hair stylist
Home State: Tennessee
IG: @_rayvenlove
Twitter: www.twitter.com/love_rayven
Facebook: www.facebook.com/rayven.love.37

A Chat with Rayven Love

How did you get your start in modeling?

I was a local radio station chick of the month.

What do you like best about being a model?

Expressing myself.

What advice would you give to new models?

Be yourself.

What would you say is your best modeling experience?

Getting to meet new, amazing people.

When you are not modeling what's your favorite way to relax?

Spending time with my blue pit bull puppy and watching movies eating ice cream.

What do you do to maintain your body to keep it in shape?

I love nature so walking and hiking new trails.

Favorite sports team?

Rocky top!

What do you consider the perfect man?

A bad boy with a sweet side.

Do you have any secret weaknesses or guilty pleasures?

Sweets and ear kisses!

Do you have any unusual talents?

I can fit my fist in my mouth lol.

What do guys compliment you on most?

My lips and eyes.

What is the most adventurous thing you have ever done?

Riding a helicopter over the ocean.

What is your favorite food?

Cheeseburgers and pizza.

What do you normally sleep in?

Oversized T-shirt.

Do you have any piercings or tattoos? If so where?

I have 4 holes in one ear and 6 in the other. I have 10 tattoos. Nothing too big, but they have a lot of meaning.

What do you think is the sexiest thing about a man?

Hard working man that takes care of their woman.

What's your biggest turn on?

Someone who genuinely cares about me no matter what I look or feel like on any day.

What's your biggest turn off?

Liar.

What is your favorite social network?

Instagram I just love looking at all the pictures.

How does someone contact you for a modeling project?

Facebook me!

Salute to the Military

Model: Leila Lewis Photographer: Dan Richards

Model: Nikki Nichole
Photographer: Sunny Boudoir

Model: Rebecca Bell
Photographer: Coastal Expressions
MUA: Laura Renee Causey

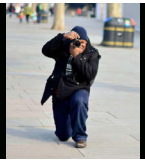

Model: Loni Gail
Photographer: Barry Dolton
MUA: Jayme Hannaford

Model: Rebecca Bell
Photographer: Coastal Expressions
MUA: Laura Renee Causey

Hot Set by MARCUS JACKSON

www.instagram.com/marcus493

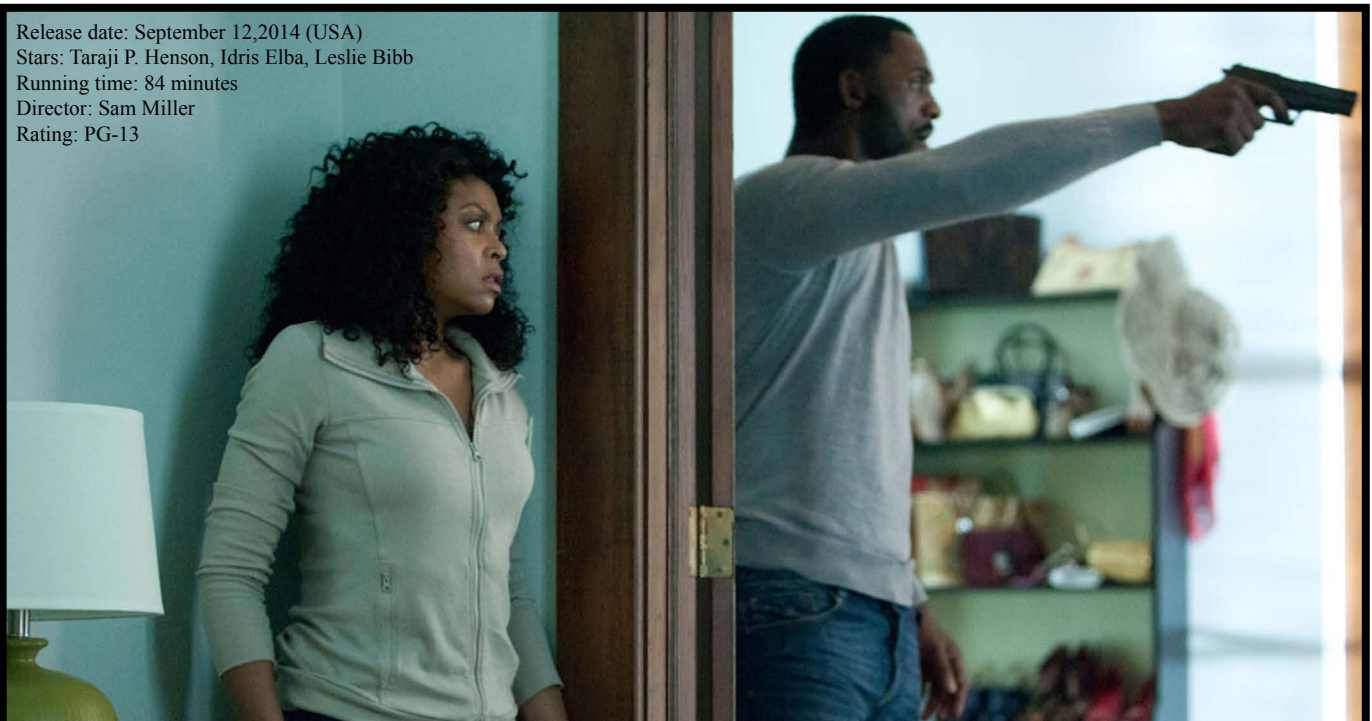

Strangers Knocking

“No Good Deed” directed by Sam Miller, brings us this doorstep thriller where Colin Evans (played by Idris Elba) is up for parole after five years following a manslaughter charge and previously believed responsible for the disappearance and assumed death of five young women. A second time escapee as well as proven malignant narcissistic convict and murderer returns to his fiancée after nearly five years in prison filled with the rage that she has moved on, he is on mission to take what was taken from him.

“No Good Deed” much exposes the cliché divider between a horror movie and a thriller when tall, dark and mysterious strangers come-a-knocking in the midst of a storm. While her husband is away, Teri (Taraji P. Henson) alone with her two children invites a stranger in after he claims to be involved in a car wreck and lives in the neighborhood. In an attempt to do a neighborly good deed, she invites him in from the storm. Things go awry from there. Terri soon finds herself trapped in her home fighting for her life with Evans in his own game. The film has a slight grip on audiences looking for a little suspense, yet the plot line has many loose holes and the plot is never defined. Only revealing blurred traces and clues toward the end of the film through flashbacks. Even with the predictable yet slight of the hand on plot lines leading to the climax of the film.

“Teri, I would have thought with all those brains you got, D.A., you would have figured out the game were playing by now...” ~Colin Evans

The film originally cost $13.2 million rolling off as a PG-13 thriller to produce and delivered in the dead zone of September with an opening box office weekend of $24.2 million. This film would have had a better delivery in the spring or summer, but due to multiple setback release dates, it was opted for fall 2014. Though it dealt with domestic violence and infidelity, there were no heroes in the film, only burst of heroic moments toward the captor while fighting for survival. Watch if you need a bit of suspense.

Release date: September 12, 2014 (USA)
Stars: Taraji P. Henson, Idris Elba, Leslie Bibb
Running time: 84 minutes
Director: Sam Miller
Rating: PG-13

In Remembrance of Me

“This Is Where I Leave You”, directed by Shawn Levy circulates around the Altmans, a family that has just lost the head of their family and father. Their mother (played by Jane Fonda) has found new ways to cope, and everyone else has life problems, along with the emotionally stalled feelings of loss surrounding their father. Though their father was an atheist, their mother encourages them that his last request for his family was to participate in the seven days of Shiva, a mourning practice of Judaism faith involving first degrees relatives. Which in turn leaves them all exposing the cracks in their relationships among family, spouses, and ultimately dealing in life’s complications and uncertainty trying to function in dysfunction?

“This was your fathers dying wish and you are negotiating. He was not a perfect man or a perfect father but he sure as hell was better than most...” ~ Hillary Altman

Where I leave you was a bit heartwarming and reminiscent as the loss of a father leaves a family in almost unfitting circumstances as they return home under the same roof. Beginning with the never-complicated Judd Altman (Jason Bateman) a radio producer, who catches his wife in bed with his boss on her birthday and losing his job, before receiving the call from his sister Wendy (Tina Fey) that his father had passed. Paul (Corey Stoll) his eldest son and wife Alice (Kathryn Hahn) are having issues conceiving. Phillip (Adam Driver) their younger brother introduces his older fiancé and therapist during Shiva. While their sister, Wendy is losing touch with her husband whom she once was in love with. Though life became complicated, the Altman’s learn to compromise with life’s hardships. The underlying story may be you can choose your friends, but you can’t choose your family. If you’ve ever watched “Arrested Development” you may consider the fact that Jason Bateman was perfect for the dysfunctionally functioning dramedy role to be carried on his back.

This somber view film dropped in the calm of September with a budget of $19.8 million producing nearly $12 million on its first weekend out. To date weighing in over $30 million domestically, appealing to the female demographic and possible older fans of Fonda. Still worth watching in the spare.

Release date:
September 19, 2014 (USA)
Stars: Jason Bateman, Tina Fey, Jane Fonda
Running time: 103 minutes
Director: Shawn Levy
Rating: R

The views expressed in this article are those of the authors and do not necessarily reflect the views or opinions of Southern Vixens Magazine. Southern Vixens Magazine shall have neither liability nor responsibility to any person or entity with respect to any loss or damage caused, or alleged to have been caused, directly or indirectly, by the information contained in this article.

Kristy Jessica

Photographer: Francis Gamboa

A Chat with Kristy Jessica

How did you get your start in modeling?

When I was 18, a photographer on MySpace asked me if I wanted to model for him. I had always fantasized of becoming a model, and was confident in my appearance, so I did it! I continued modeling for fun, inventing my own themes that depicted aspects of my personality. Modeling has developed into my creative passion!

What do you like best about being a model?

Every person needs to “get their fix” in some way. It is in my nature to be creative, and modeling has been my artistic medium lately! I thoroughly enjoy all the different elements of creating sexy images: the sweaty workouts, the soothing manicures, the networking events, collaborating with talented photographers, and of course sharing the awesome photos with my friends and fans!

What would you say is your best modeling experience?

I travelled to Rome a few summers ago! While in town I shot with a talented photographer named Roberto Manetta. My makeup and hair was professionally done, and the clothing came from an Italian Boutique. Roberto picked me up on his moped. He barely spoke English, but enough to tell me that I was a diamond in the rough and he had strong feelings for my success in modeling. After our shoot, we stopped to enjoy paninis and espresso at a café. He left to grab something in convenience store next door. Upon returning he presented a copy of Maxim Italia and flipped through the pages to a multi-page spread of a lovely brunette. He pointed at the credits in the corner- it was his photography! It was so uplifting to have been validated as a model by this gentleman of a photographer!

What is the most adventurous thing you have ever done?

It was a perfect sunny day and I was floating the river with some friends a couple years ago. A few carefree hours passed when suddenly a guy fell out of the sky into the river downstream, we were stunned! He surfaced triumphantly and challenged us to jump out of this skinny tree. Just a few of us jumped up to try it. The drop was about 40 feet or so from the launch point to the river, involving a treacherous climb up some two by fours onto a narrow, swaying tree branch. Our comic relief friend climbed it, then chickened out at the top and climbed back down! I was the first in our friend circle to actually make the leap. I hit the water on my butt and the impact broke the skin and caused intense bruising in the muscle tissue. I SCREAMED like bloody murder when I surfaced, but put my game face on and survived the rest of the float! My legs were all black for two months, I couldn't model for a while! I am proud that I didn't wimp out though!

What do you normally sleep in?

I always sleep nude.

What is your favorite song?

Don't Forget Me by the Red Hot Chili Peppers.

What is your favorite movie?

Armageddon.

What do you think is the sexiest thing about a man?

Confidence is sexy, but not as sexy as a man who can also show his vulnerability.

What's your biggest turn on?

Tight white boxer briefs!

What's your biggest turn off?

Getting interrupted, or rudeness in general!

What is your naughtiest fantasy?

When the cameras are off, I really let loose and unleash my inhibitions! But what if I was unaware of being filmed while having sex, then made to watch the video after? That would entice me to out-freak myself in the next round! My man better have the stamina to handle all this sex-kitten fury!

Do you have a website?

www.PureRebelModel.tumblr.com

www.modelmayhem.com/779356

www.facebook.com/rebelseattle

What is your favorite social network?

Instagram.

How does someone contact you for a modeling project?

Email me kristy8787@gmail.com

STATISTICS

Height: 5'2
Weight: 101
Measurements: 33-24-34
Zodiac Sign: Cancer
Occupation: Professional Model/ Producer
Home State: Washington
IG: @pure_rebel
Twitter: @thepurerebel
Facebook: www.facebook.com/rebelseattle
Website: WWW.PureRebelModel.tumblr.com

www.shmags.net

Ashley Nichole

Photographer: Chris DeLira

A Chat with Ashley Nichole

How did you get your start in modeling?

I took some photos with a student photographer and posted them on facebook. I joined some modeling groups and everything went from there.

What do you like best about being a model?

Makes me feel great about myself and also shows people that real/average girls can become models.

What advice would you give to new models?

Research, research, research!!! Know who you are working with inside and out!

What would you say is your best modeling experience?

This is my first magazine feature so by far this is the best experience.

When you are not modeling what's your favorite way to relax?

Recently a friend introduced me to meditation and I am in love with it. It is my time away from the world and to be with my inner self.

What do you do to maintain your body to keep it in shape?

I just try to maintain a active lifestyle and eat as healthy as I can.

Favorite sports team?

Texas Rangers! I am a big baseball fan.

What do you consider the perfect man?

My best friend. I want someone who can joke with me and just have a blast with. However, I want someone who likes to cuddle and be the romantic as well.

Do you have any secret weaknesses or guilty pleasures?

I am a woman so shopping will always be my weakness.

Do you have any unusual talents?

I am actually really good at crafting. Like 80 year old woman good hahaha :)

What do guys compliment you on most?

It is probably a tie between my eyes and my smile.

What is the most adventurous thing you have ever done?

I live my life like a gypsy. Always a new town, new friends, and new experiences. You only live once so go explore the world.

What is your favorite food?

Chips and Salsa! I am obsessed.

What do you normally sleep in?

I am either in some comfy boy shorts and tank top or my birthday suit.

What is your favorite song?

This changes constantly. I listen to all kinds of music. What never changes though is I love 80's rock.

What is your favorite movie?

21 and 22 Jump Street. I am HUGE about laughter and humor and that movie is packed with it. Do you have any piercings or tattoos? If so where?

My nose and my ears are pierced. I also have two tattoos. One on my left wrist and one on my left foot.

What do you think is the sexiest thing about a man?

By far a man's smile and laugh.

What's your biggest turn on?

This kind of connects to my answer above. A good humor and personality is a huge turn on. I also have a thing for facial hair.

What's your biggest turn off?

An ego!!! I can't stand a guy that thinks he can have anyone at anytime.

What is your naughtiest fantasy?

Re-living 50 Shades of Grey.

What is your favorite social network?

That is a tie between Instagram and Facebook.

How does someone contact you for a modeling project?

Through my email at ashleynichole.model@gmail.com.

STATISTICS

Height: 5'11
Weight: 130
Measurements: 36-25-36
Zodiac Sign: Cancer
Occupation: Model
Home State: Texas
IG: @ashnicholemodel
Twitter: @ashnicholemodel
Facebook: www.facebook.com/ashleynichole.model

Eva Bukerova

Photographer: Tony Piazza

STATISTICS

Height: 5'9
Measurements: 32E-25-35
Zodiac Sign: Aries
Occupation: Family bussines & freelance model
Home State: Slovak Republic
Twitter: @evabukorovastar
Facebook: Eva Bukorova Official model page
Website: evabukorova.com

A Chat with Eva Bukorova

How did you get your start in modeling?

By myself applying for contest and agency back in my country.

What do you like best about being a model?

To express myself as for me its kind of art, I also intend to start acting.

What advice would you give to new models?

Stay as natural and genuine as you can manage to be and follow your dreams. Its one of the hardest industry so should be stay focused and never give up. Also, one of the most important things is to take a good care of yourself and take this occupation seriously if you wish to achieve a memorable stage in it.

What would you say is your best modeling experience?

Music video shooting in Dubai on yacht for an Indian rapper.

What was your worst modeling experience?

In Nunberg having a photoshoot for a starter photographer having a misleading attitude.

When you are not modeling what's your favorite way to relax?

Spa, gym, being in nature to take a long walk, shopping, visiting museums and art galleries.

What do you consider the perfect man?

At least for me, the one is who mature enough to follow a parallel path with me in life who is a package of friend, love, father, brother, just the way as I try to be for him the opposite but in the same way. Charismatic with a positive and high energy level.

Do you have any secret weaknesses or guilty pleasures?

I am quite spiritual person, so I try don't really think about things from this angle as having weakness or guilty pleasures. However, I am sure I have loads.

What do guys compliment you on most?

My angelic look face and eyes being told by others and my bump.

What is the most adventurous thing you have ever done?

Keep extending holiday with no plan to stay at and no ensured situation. I think we need to take risk in life in order to grow.

What do you normally sleep in?

No clothes on, but perfume oil Chanel n5 as MM did its quite addictive.

What do you think is the sexiest thing about a man?

Charismatic attitude, eyes.

What's your biggest turn on?

Generosity.

What's your biggest turn off?

Being fake, giving lies and acting in stingy way, also arrogance.

What is your naughtiest fantasy?

I am to shy to share it, so that naughty it is.

Do you have a website?

Yes, evabukorova.com

What is your favorite social network

Twitter.

How does someone contact you for a modeling project?

Email through my website.

USELESS FLAVORING

As you could probably tell from last month's column, I'm not really fond of stuff that's horribly flavored as other stuff. This month I think I'll rant about useless flavoring...

What's with the "birthday cake" obsession in the dessert department? Ice cream, cookies, I've even seen a flavored soda. If you want cake eat cake, not an Oreo! On to candy. Blue raspberry? Has anyone ever seen a blue raspberry? I haven't, but apparently someone has to be able to come up with that flavor which tastes nothing like real raspberries. I'm sure they grow where unicorns play. Everyone loves watermelon flavored candy, gum, slush, but come on it doesn't taste like watermelon! The same with cinnamon candies. Again the flavor is off and the cinnamon I bake with is brown not red like those spicy lil pebbles we are tricked into eating. My biggest pet peeve is America's newfound obsession with bacon. Yes bacon is a gift from God, but it was not just magically dropped from the sky on this planet yesterday. It's like people just discovered it. Bacon is the cool kid at school. Bacon flavored everything however, sits at the geek's table. If you want bold great flavor, just stick to the real thing. If you want to substitute stuff, do it with things that don't matter. Like swapping zucchini in for noodles.

www.facebook.com/KarmenMoon69
Twitter: @KarmenMoon69
Instagram: Karmen.Moon

"Italian Style Chicken Zoodle Soup"

I'm gonna start this recipe by saying I'm italian and anything I make something in a big pot, there's no measuring haha. So just use you're best judgement and you're own likening. potatoes

- INGREDIENTS
- Chicken
- Zucchini
- Carrots
- Celery
- Onion
- Garlic (I like to use jarred minced garlic)
- 1 can of diced tomatoes (I like to use Hunt's fireroasted)
- 1 small can of tomato sauce
- 1 large can chicken broth
- Spices (basil, rosemary, oregano)

1. Fill pot halfway with water. Add chicken, carrots, celery & spices. Bring to boil. Lower heat & skim off grease water. Continue cooking on low heat.
2. Using a spiral slicer make your zucchini noodles.
3. Remove chicken from water. Remove bones & skin from chicken. Cut it into pieces and return to water.
4. In frying pan or sauté pan add some olive oil, diced onion & garlic. Cook a few minutes. Add zucchini. Add diced tomatoes. Cook about 5 minutes than add contents of pan to soup pot.
5. Add extra can of broth, alil more of spices & can of tomato sauce to soup pot. If you like bold flavor, you can also add 1-2 chicken bullion cubes. Simmer on low 30-40mins.

Worldmags.net

The Singer - Part One

By M.L. Vee

“Ladies and Gentlemen, the winner of this season’s, ‘The Singer’ is...” the music crescendos, there is a long, stressful pause in the action, two contestants stand close together, holding each other’s hands waiting for the announcement of who will be the winner. Lucy Adams, a country singer and Kelli Zooka, the hard hitting rock and roll singer are both fan favorites and both fared equally well with the judges. The judges claimed a draw and it was now in the hands of the online voting of the millions of television viewers.

The announcer continued, “Lucy Adams!!”

The crowd roared. Lucy screamed and began crying as Kelli hugged her with sincere congratulation on a great duel. She walked off the stage leaving Lucy standing there alone with the host. She won a recording contract and a large cash payday. This moment was one she dreamed about since she was a young teenager singing in her church choir. At the age of 22 years old, it hadn’t taken long to make that dream come true.

Her boyfriend and Kelli were waiting backstage for her in the green room when the show concluded. They were both very ecstatic at the end result for the season of grueling training and competition. He hugged her and spoke to her in his thick Dutch accent. “This is cause to celebrate,” he began. “Where would you like to go?”

“I want Kelli to come with us.” Lucy had grown fond of her rival. Even though the end result was not a positive one, for her opponent anyway, she still came out with a large cash prize. History revealed that the runner up most often got a contract from a competing record company impressed with their talents. “Let’s hit the club for a little bit. Then, we can party back at the hotel.” Lucy hoped Kelli would join them. As well as growing fond of her competitor, she also got a big crush on the girl.

Immediately inside the door, Lucy quickly stripped all of her clothing off, throwing them into various places across the room. Kelli and Adriaan could only stand and watch their friend, filled with excitement make her way through the huge suite and to the shower.

“I do believe I will be expected to join her,” Adriann admitted, smiling. “Make yourself at home and get a drink if you’d like”

Adriaan stripped and climbed into the shower with his girlfriend. She was expecting him and quickly threw her arms around his neck and pulled him close. “I won!” she yelled. “I freaking won!”

Smiling, he tightened their embrace and kissed her neck. He reached his hands behind her and dropped them down and gripped her wet ass cheeks, pulling her tightly to his crotch.

He was already very excited being naked with her in the shower and the feel of her body against his made the excitement begin to rage inside of him. Turning her around to face away from him, he continued kissing her neck then down her back and up again. She turned her head to join his kisses as he worked his way back up to her neck. His hands continued to rub up and down her bare skin.

As he kissed, her hands reached behind her and began to stroke his stiffness as the kisses continued and became more and more intense. Their hearts were racing rapidly and though in the shower, sweat began to form on their bodies. Bending her slightly at the hips, he entered her from behind. His body was in aggression mode and thrust into her as hard and deep as he could.

Kelli started to hear a serious of bizarre noises coming from the bathroom. It piqued her curiosity. She tried to decide to go see what was happening or leave them to their privacy. As the noises grew louder and more erotic, she could not resist any longer. Cautiously, she walked toward the noises coming from the bathroom. Every few steps she would pause and reevaluate her approach. After the pause, she would garner the courage to continue. Adriaan had not closed the bathroom door completely. Kelli halfheartedly felt this may have been invitation for the voyeuristic effort she was embarking on.

The noises continued and she realized they were grunts and moans coming from both Adriaan and Lucy collectively. She slowly pushed the opened door and peeked into see if she could see anything of interest to her. Because the door had been opened there was not a lot of steam. The two had gotten out of the shower and Adriaan had Lucy bent over the sink and was thrusting into her from behind. Kelli stopped in her tracks and tried to privately observe but made too much noise with the door and was caught watching.

“C’mon in,” Lucy mumbled amongst her rhythmic moans and grunts each time Adriaan’s skin slapped against hers. “Don’t be shy”

Kelli did not move. She wasn’t sure if it was fear, shock or uncertainty. Either way, she could only stand at the door and watch. Lucy turned away and faced the mirror, holding on to the edge of the sink for dear life. Her hands were near the wall and her forearm and elbows rested on the sink countertop. Adriaan held her by the hips and continued to pound from behind in perfect rhythm. Excitement was building in Kelli’s body. She could feel it down below. A quiver began between her legs and she wished she had the guts to join in but that was not happening at this particular moment.

Lucy never looked back at her friend and Adriaan never lost his rhythm until he was done and finished off pulling from his girlfriend and stepping back into the shower. Kelli turned, gave a disappointing glance at Kelli and joined her man in the hot, steaming water to clean up from their fun.

The views expressed in this article are those of the authors and do not necessarily reflect the views or opinions of Southern Vixens Magazine. Southern Vixens Magazine shall have neither liability nor responsibility to any person or entity with respect to any loss or damage caused, or alleged to have been caused, directly or indirectly, by the information contained in this article.

Photographer: David Sutton
MUA: Kristy Knollenberg

Vixen of the Month
Courtney
Kaye

A Chat with Courtney Kaye

How did you get your start in modeling?

Growing up, my biggest dream was to be in the spotlight and become a model. I obtained my start in modeling when the owner of a local gun business in Marion, Iowa asked me to star in a calendar to promote his business and to raise money for Wounded Warriors, an organization to help wounded veterans.

What do you like best about being a model?

What I like best about being a model is getting the opportunity to inspire others and proving that dreams can come true!

What advice would you give to new models?

For new models, my advice would be to never give up. Use the negativity from others as motivation.

What would you say is your best modeling experience?

My best modeling experience would be receiving the chance to work with professional photographer David Sutton. David and I have had a blast connecting our ideas for fantastic photo shoots.

What was your worst modeling experience?

I am happy to say that I have been fortunate so far to have not had a bad modeling experience. I sincerely want to thank you and Southern Vixens, because being featured as your Cover Girl truly is a dream come true for me.

When you are not modeling what's your favorite way to relax?

My favorite way to relax is grabbing a towel, baby oil, and headphones then heading out to my back porch to soak up the sun!

What do you do to maintain your body to keep it in shape?

I have always been a little bit of a health fanatic, kind of obsessed with working out, and eating healthy. I keep my body in shape by exercising four to five times a week. I also stay away from fast food restaurants.

Favorite sports team?

The Green Bay Packers.

What is the most adventurous thing you have ever done?

I just received my scuba certification in January. On vacation to Puerto Vallarta, Mexico in February, I got to experience the underwater world for myself. It really was an incredible adventure. I met many divers and experienced awesome sea life such as eels, sea horses, sea turtles, sting rays, and millions of puffer fish!

What is your favorite food?

My favorite food is definitely seafood!

What do you normally sleep in?

Shorts and a sports bra.

What do you consider the perfect man?

I consider the perfect man a man who considers me the perfect woman.

What do you think is the sexiest thing about a man?

I think the sexiest thing about a man is his chest and arms. I love guys with muscular chests and big strong arms to go around me.

What's your biggest turn on?

My biggest turn on would definitely be smell good. But when a man stares deeply into my eyes while touching me all over and playing with my hair is enough to make my heart melt!

What's your biggest turn off?

My biggest turn off is when a man is constantly on his cell phone. I want all his attention on me, not on facebook.

What is your naughtiest fantasy?

One name. Johnny Depp! Yummy!

What do guys compliment you on most?

Guys most compliment me on my eyes.

What is your favorite song?

My favorite song is Electric feel by MGMT.

What is your favorite movie?

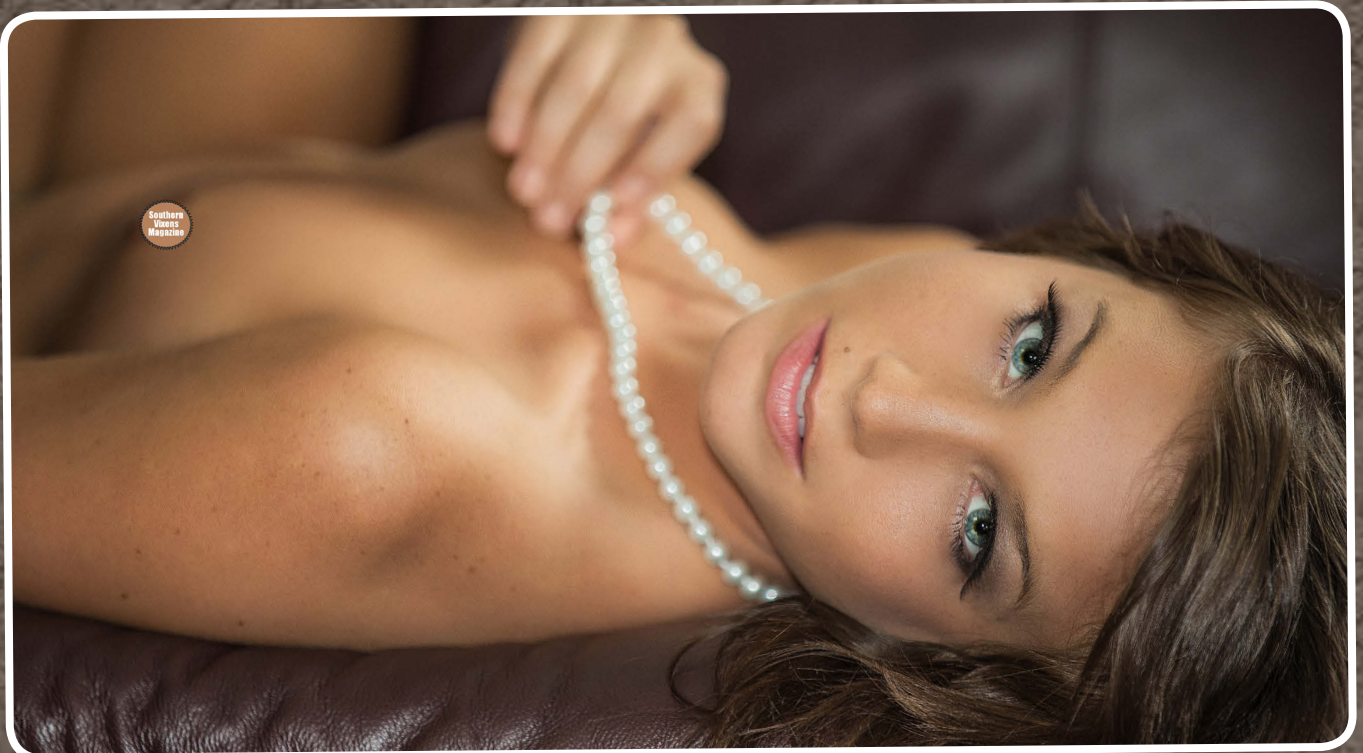

My favorite movie is Elf with Will Ferrel . Cracks me up every single time. I watch it all year round!

What is your favorite social network?

Facebook.

How does someone contact you for a modeling project?

Facebook.

STATISTICS

Height: 5'2

Weight: 112

Measurements: 33-24-28

Zodiac Sign: Sagittarius

Occupation: Bartender

Home State: Iowa

IG: @corkdep

Facebook: www.facebook.com/courtney.deputy

Rebecca Glam

Photographer: Nick Means

STATISTICS

Height: 5'8

Weight: 140

Measurements: 36D-25-38

Occupation: Cosmetologist

Home State: Ohio

Facebook: www.facebook.com/RebeccaGlam

A Chat with Rebecca Glam

How did you get your start in modeling?

2006 Barbizon of Akron, then CaliMiles and The Bombsquad opened the door for me.

What do you like best about being a model?

Networking with clients/photographers and helping everyone grow as a whole.

What advice would you give to new models?

Don't get discouraged if you don't succeed as quickly as you would like to. Never give up!

What would you say is your best modeling experience?

Each job/photoshoot is great in its own way. There isn't one that's better than the other one.

What do you do differently to set yourself apart from other models?

I like to say I have a very unique appearance and style of posing that is recognizable to me!

When you are not modeling what's your favorite way to relax?

Soaking in a detox bath.

What do you do to maintain your body to keep it in shape?

Gym at least 3 days a week for 2 hours!

Favorite sports team?

Cleveland Cavaliers!!!! <3 Go Cavs

Which celebrity would you like to meet and why?

Lady Gaga, because to me she is the true definition of REAL. Being true to herself and balancing her personal life with her career and fans!

What the worst prank you've ever played on anyone?

Bucket of ice dumped on someone while showering. (April fools)

What is the most adventurous thing you have ever done?

Spontaneously ran up on stage while Lil Jon was performing!

What is your favorite food?

Babagannus or anything mediterranean. Eggplant parm is awesome too!

What do you normally sleep in?

Pajama pants and an oversized shirt.

What is your favorite movie?

The Nightmare Before Christmas.

Do you have any piercings or tattoos? If so where?

Piercings: Ears, Nostrils (both sides) septum, monroe, navel.
Tattoos: Shoulder blades, lower back, hip, upper stomach, both legs.

What do guys compliment you on most?

Eyes / Smile.

What do you consider the perfect man?

Someone who is honest, affectionate, and reliable. Looks and money are just an added bonus.

What do you think is the sexiest thing about a man?

First thing I look at is hair. But I love a good smile and confidence.

What's your biggest turn on?

Getting kissed on the neck.

What's your biggest turn off?

Getting bit too hard // or a bad attitude.

What is your naughtiest fantasy?

Role play 3 some?????

What's the worst place to meet a guy?

A bar.....

What is your favorite social network?

Instagram or Facebook.

How does someone contact you for a modeling project?

All bookings at www.cali-miles.com

nags.net

Sabrina Rose Lau

Photographer: Mark Toung

STATISTICS

Height: 5'4 Weight: 120
Measurements: 34B-25-36
Zodiac Sign: Libra
Occupation: Traditional Chinese Medicine Graduate Student
Home State: California
Twitter: @sabrinaroselau
IG: @sabrinaroselau
Website: www.sabrinaroselau.com
Facebook: www.facebook.com/sabrinaroselau

A Chat with Sabrina Rose Lau

How did you get your start in modeling?

A photographer approached me in a LA club and asked if I ever considered modeling. I was 19 at the time. I said yes, had my first shoot, loved it, and never stopped.

What do you like best about being a model?

I love that it is a pure expression of my soul. Every single moment captured is a mixture of emotion, character, and hope.

What advice would you give to new models?

Being a model is more than looking good, develop your character and nourish your soul. Your mental, emotional, and spiritual well being is the foundation of your physical expression.

What would you say is your best modeling experience?

There have been a number of very memorable ones, but there was this one shoot in LA I did with Edward Duarte who really showed me the art of photography, modeling, and music. Those pictures were pivotal for me as I understood that the content is so much more interesting when its authentic and not contrived. I was 23 at the time.

When you are not modeling what's your favorite way to relax?

Walk, Meditate, Massage, Spa, Herbal Tea, Acupuncture, Cupping.

What do you do to maintain your body to keep it in shape?

Pop Physique, Limited Weight Training, Cardio, Mostly Vegetarian Diet, Juicing, and Yoga.

What do you consider the perfect man?

The perfect man is whole, truthful, aware, compassionate, articulate, and knows how to treat women well.

What is the most adventurous thing you have ever done?

Taking an intensive Acting course. Meisner 1 has been the most adventurous thing I have done to date. Talk about throwing yourself into the deep waters, you may just drown in your emotions.

What is your favorite food?

Clean Sushi.

What do you normally sleep in?

Nothing...glamorous. Unless I'm sleeping next to someone special, then I have my cute silky things, or really...nothing.

What is your favorite song?

Aaliyah Rock The Boat, Love the music video too!

What is your favorite movie?

Closer.

What do you think is the sexiest thing about a man?

His sophistication.

What's your biggest turn on?

Intelligent conversation.

What's your biggest turn off?

Inability to really see what's going on.

What is your naughtiest fantasy?

1,2,3 or 4 hehe.

What is your favorite social network?

Instagram cuz I love pictures!

How does someone contact you for a modeling project?

Social media via Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, or email sabrinaroselau@gmail.com

Love, Sex & Magic

By Amy Elizabeth www.missamycakes.com

Three's a Crowd

I realize what I'm about to say might not make me popular with you guys, but if I feel this way, then I'm sure other girls do too. I'll just come right out and say it: I'm not into threesomes. Sure, I've kissed a girlfriend or two when I was drunk, but that was more about me being a lovey-dovey drunk than it was sexual.

I'll admit, I totally get why most men have this fantasy, and I don't judge anyone who partakes in this kind of behavior. It simply is just not my thing. I'm not a prude by any means, but what I am is a romantic. I don't imagine my soulmate as someone who would say, "Hey baby, let's bring a girl home with us tonight." That's not to say I'm not open to sexual exploration--however, I'm only open to activities that would make me and my guy fall deeper in love. Why is it that none of these guys are ever well versed in tantric sex?

It's a deep soul connection that I crave, and call me crazy, but I don't think the way to achieve that level of intimacy is by inviting other women into your bed. Even if I were into girls, I still probably wouldn't be into threesomes. I like the intensity and passion of a one-on-one interaction. Therefore, if I liked a girl enough to sleep with her, I probably wouldn't want to share her either.

Sex is an energy exchange--when you are intimate with someone, it is said that you take on that person's energy for long after the interaction. I understand that men are less discriminating than women when it comes to whom they sleep with. I, however, want to be careful about whose energy I'm receiving. Sex in a loving committed relationship raises your energetic vibration; promiscuity, on the other hand, depletes and scatters your energy. Metaphysics aside, I have yet to meet a man who can keep up with me. So inviting another woman home would probably leave me a bit unsatisfied. Call me greedy, but I want all of my man's sexual energy.

I realize that many of you guys might not be looking for a relationship and are simply looking for sex. In that case, you can go ahead and try and see if you're lucky enough to find a girl who will play out your fantasies. However, if you happened to meet the love of your life, would you ask her to have a threesome? The man for me is the man who wants to be with only me.

I've seen first-hand what this type of relationship does to couples. Instead of gazing in each other's eyes, these swinger types are always on the prowl. I've never told anyone this story, but back in my wilder days, I was friends with a couple who liked to swing. One night we were all drinking in a hot tub and the husband was all over another girl. His wife looked visibly upset. Remember one of those girls I drunkenly kissed? Well, I ended up making out with this girl because I felt sorry she had a husband who was always hitting on other women. That couple is now divorced.

Not only is the concept of threesome totally unromantic to me, it's also sexist. Men are always trying to get women together for threesomes, but how many men would let a woman bring another man home? I'm sure there are many women out there who fantasize what it would be like to have sex with two men at the same time. Me, however, I just want to give all my love and attention to one man.

If a threesome is what you want, of course, you're allowed to ask; but if a woman tells you she's not into girls, don't bring it up again. A word to the wise, this may be a turn-off for the "girlfriend material" types, but you can probably redeem yourself later. I'm a girl who is not into threesomes, and the only time it would be a complete deal breaker for me is if a guy tried to push. In that case, I would politely tell the guy that if a threesome is what he wants, he's dating the wrong girl.... But if he's looking for that head-spinning, I'd die without you kind of love, he's found the right one!

XOXO,
Amy

The views expressed in this article are those of the authors and do not necessarily reflect the views or opinions of Southern Vixens Magazine. Southern Vixens Magazine shall have neither liability nor responsibility to any person or entity with respect to any loss or damage caused, or alleged to have been caused, directly or indirectly, by the information contained in this article.

Tune Talk

By DJ Mikey www.funhotstuff.com

Bob Seger - Ride Out

Before I go too far in this review, I have to add a very important factor. I grew up less than an hour north of Detroit. Bob Seger is an icon to anyone who lives in Michigan. His name is synonymous with the word Detroit. Years ago, he sold-out locally 13 straight shows and could have easily sold out 13 more. His music is a staple to every radio station in the Great Lakes State. Bob is like a god.

I was very excited when I heard he was releasing new material. I patiently waited and quickly grabbed the album up on the release day. The first track I listened to was Detroit Made. I was very excited. This was the OLD Bob Seger sound. This song rocked. It was fast, full of energy and talking about Detroit and a nice fast car built there. I finished, pumped up and go to track two, Hey Gypsy. The intro sounds like something right from a Stevie Ray Vaughn track. A nice bluesy riff, some soulful vocals, I also liked this very much. I am impressed. Track three, The Devil's Right Hand, wasn't too bad. Every song on the album can't be a great song. I moved to Track four, the title track from the album. I am now four songs into the record and two of them I don't like. I am still hopeful.

Along comes cut number five and I literally say, "what in the hell is this crap? Seriously, Bob?" The song is titled, Adam and Eve. I honestly do not know what to make of this song. It sounds like an old plantation song with a little banjo in it and sings about, yup you guessed it, Adam and Eve. It is ridiculous and horrible from a great icon. Then I caught myself walking around the house singing it. Then I said, "What the hell, Mike? Seriously?" It was catchy but ridiculous at the same time. I really hope he meant it to be that way.

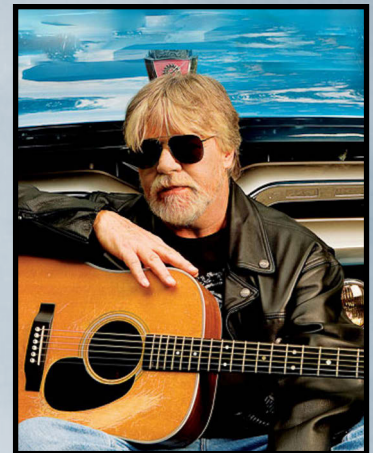

The more I listened, the more it started sounding less like a rock and roll album and more like a country album. Then I thought, this must be what the country people are all complaining about. Country has become the new rock and roll, well let's just say, rock has lost its edge. The rest of this album is slow, putsy, soul searching tunes. I just don't really understand it. It's Bob Seger.

I did stop and take a longer listen to a song called, Gates of Eden. Personally, I have always been a fan of songs with deeper meaning. It is a song that digs deep into your soul to make you think. One of the lines in the song says, "I remember thinking all of this must have a reason. I remember thinking maybe I should look beyond." He later ponders, "I question everything I believe in, Standing at the Gates of Eden." If you are in the midst of some soul searching, this may be a good track to throw the headphones on and listen to a few times over and over.

All in all, I wouldn't say this is great. It definitely is not his best work. A guy just shy of 70 years old who has been in the rock and roll business for over five decades has a right to do something that may not be commercially successful. He might be at a point in this life where he is doing some soul searching. That is fine but it isn't the old time Bob Seger rock and roll.

The views expressed in this article are those of the authors and do not necessarily reflect the views or opinions of Southern Vixens Magazine. Southern Vixens Magazine shall have neither liability nor responsibility to any person or entity with respect to any loss or damage caused, or alleged to have been caused, directly or indirectly, by the information contained in this article.

Worldmags.net

Gina Marie

Photographer: Jennifer Birney

A Chat with Gina Marie

How did you get into modeling?

A high school friend of mine had referred me to a photographer she had been working with. I did my first shoot when i was 18 and was recruited for a calendar by the time i was 19. The rest is history.

What do you like best about being a model?

I love being in front of the camera making ideas and concepts come to life.

What advice would you give to new models?

Be confident, don't do anything you are uncomfortable with and don't compare yourself to other models.

When you are not modeling what's your favorite way to relax?

I really enjoy snuggling up with my two dogs and watching re-runs of The King of Queens.

Favorite Sports Team?

Milwaukee Brewers and Green Bay Packers are a tie!

What do you consider the perfect man?

A man who is loyal, has a great sense of humor and someone who is open minded.

Do you have any unusual talents?

I can touch my tongue to my elbow. Impressive, right?

What do guys compliment you on most?

My eyes and my dimples when I smile :)

What is the most adventurous thing you have ever done?

I took a spin on "The Stratosphere" ride in Las Vegas, Nevada.

What do you normally sleep in?

I'd love to say naughty lingerie, but i actually sleep in boxers briefs and a mans beater.

What is your favorite song?

Katy Perry "Roar". My mom got me hooked on it! When you break down the lyrics of the song, the message is very empowering!

What is your favorite movie?

Dumb & Dumber, classicly hilarious.

Do you have any piercings or tattoos? If so where?

Yes, where do i start haha!?! I have my ears pierced pretty much all the way up the lobes, along with my bellybutton. As for tattoos, i have 6. One on my foot, on my left wrist, my hip, on my ribs and one on each cheek...butt cheek that is.

What do you think is the sexiest thing about a man?

A man who is motivated and can take charge.

What's your biggest turn on?

A great smile.

What's your biggest turn off?

Bad hygiene!!

What is your naughtiest fantasy?

If turning my apartment hallway into a gigantic slip and slide counts as a naughty fatacy then im all in! haha

What is your favorite social network?

Instagram #favoritesocialnetwork :-p

How does someone contact you for a modeling project?

ginagigimarie76@gmail.com

STATISTICS

Height: 5'7

Weight: 125

Measurements: 34D-24-36

Zodiac Sign: Libra

Occupation: Marketing Manager

Home State: Wisconsin

IG: <http://instagram.com/ginagigimarie>

Facebook: www.facebook.com/pages/Gina-Gigi-Marie/288849427942599

Worldmags.net

Rashae Batchelor

Photographer: Dan Richards

Southern
Vixens
Magazine

STATISTICS

Height: 5'4
Weight: 120
Measurements: 32-25-37
Zodiac Sign: Virgo
Occupation: Proud southern Mommy
Home State: Texas born and raised!!
Facebook: www.facebook.com/MMRashae
MM: <http://www.modelmayhem.com/3216695>

Southern Vixens Magazine

Southern Vixens Magazine

A Chat with Rasha Batchelor

What do you like best about being a model?

I love being able to have somewhere to let my creativity show and be able to see the fruition of it. The spark I get when the camera flashes and I know with that one look in my eye, my picture will stare straight into the soul of another and connect, is unlike any other feeling.

When you are not modeling what's your favorite way to relax?

I'm a big dork by nature!! There's nothing better than running a warm bubble bath, making some fresh hot tea in my cast-iron tea pot, and placing my computer in the bathroom with me and watching the newest episode of whatever anime series I'm on!

What is the most adventurous thing you have ever done?

I'm an adrenaline junkie and there's nothing I like better than to drive through fear and see how far I can go. When I was a kid, I had one younger sister, 2 step brothers and 2 four-wheelers. We also lived just off Red River. We used to take the four wheelers into the river bed when it was low, wait for them to release the flood gates, and see who could get down the river the furthest without having to go fish the ATV out of the river downstream.

What do you normally sleep in?

Socks, and only socks. That's how the guy I'm with knows I'm mad at him, I have the worst circulation in the world and all it takes is my ice-cold feet wrapping around another warm body to know I'm pissed.

What is your favorite song?

American Boys by Halestorm.

What is the sexist thing about a man?

The biggest turn on for me is confidence-not cockiness, but the air that you know what you want and aren't afraid to take the necessary steps to get it..

What's your biggest turn on?

Any man that has a nice ass to fill out a pair of Wrangler Jeans. Mmmmm. That and my inner thighs but shhhh it's a secret!! lol

What's your biggest turn off?

People who live like dirty slobs. Bad hygiene kills me!!

What is your naughtiest fantasy?

To be tied up with absolutely no control and have a man make me cum over and over until I don't think I can do it anymore....and then keep going.

What is your favorite social network?

Facebook. The audience is massive!!

How does someone contact you for a modeling project?

Easiest ways to contact me would be on my model mayhem account or through my modeling email: MMRashae@gmail.com

Worldmag's new

Scarlet Ryan

Photographer: Felipe Rodriguez

STATISTICS

Height: 5'6

Weight: 134

Measurements: 34DD-26-36

Zodiac Sign: Capricorn

Occupation: Hair Stylist

Home State: Texas

Website: www.ScarletRyanVIP.com

IG: @scarletryanvip

Facebook: www.facebook.com/scarletryanvip

A Chat With Scarlet Ryan

How did you get into modeling?

I started in modeling at a very young age, I was actually in high school when I took my very first professional photos. Along with that I also did a lot of runway work as well, so being in front of the camera now really seems like such a natural thing.

What do you like best about being a model?

I love the creativity of being able to start with nothing prior to a shoot and when its complete, to be able to look back and see what the collaboration with the photographer has created. Its always exciting, always something new and never gets old!

What advice would you give to new models?

Only listen to "positive" constructive criticism people give you, do not get sucked into the negative things people are inevitably going to say about you. It happens to us all, so stay positive and surround yourself with positive people and influences.

What would you say is your best modeling experience?

I'm just now starting to do more traveling for shoots and I am finding the experience of new locations to be very exhilarating. Meeting new people, seeing new things, its all so much fun.

When you are not modeling what's your favorite way to relax?

I love working out and reading. Both of these really seem to sooth my soul and take my mind away from all the stresses of life.

What do you do to maintain your body to keep it in shape?

Workout and eat well. I recently invested in one of the fitness bands that pairs with your phone and tracks your physical activity throughout the day. It has really been a lot of fun to track my activity and see the balance between proper nutrition and working out. I also find yoga to be such a great core workout, so I incorporate that into my routine as well.

Do you have any secret weaknesses or guilty pleasures?

Isn't every girl's secret weakness chocolate and heels? I would have to say both are my weaknesses and guilty pleasures.

Do you have any unusual talents?

I'm very flexible and can do a handstand! Not sure how special of a talent that is, but its a show stopper at parties!

What is the most adventurous thing you have ever done?

Well I do have a very adventurous side, or perhaps its better defined as mischievous! So lets just say that I'm always up for something different than normal, usually the wilder the better for me!

What do you normally sleep in?

Nude, Nude, Nude all the way. Is there anything else to sleep in?

What is your favorite movie?

Meet the Millers, OMG that movie is funnier every time I watch it!

Do you have any piercings or tattoos? If so where?

Yes I do. I have 4 tattoos (2 on my back, 1 on my neck and 1 in my wrist), and 5 piercings (3 on my ears, 1 on my beely button, and 1 on my naughty parts!)

What do you think is the sexiest thing about a man?

Personality has always been number one with me and still is. It is the one thing that will always stay with a man.

What's your biggest turn on?

I love for a man to be in control, someone who is a take charge kind of guy and knows what he wants and goes after it. Not in an aggressive type of way, but in an assertive manor.

What's your biggest turn off?

Anyone who is stuck on themselves is a huge turn off. You can take a very attractive man and if he is the slightest bit arrogant he can get ugly really quick.

What is your naughtiest fantasy?

Oh my, do you want just one or do you want all 452 of them? Opps did I just say that. I am very much an exhibitionist so the thought of being watched is always in my fantasies. The more people the better!

What is your favorite social network?

I started off with "FaceBook" being my favorite and it still is, but "Tumblr" I'm learning can be a lot of fun!

How does someone contact you for a modeling project?

They can contact my management company at VIP@ScaretRyanVIP.com That will put them in touch with my manager and he can set up anything needed or put me in contact if applicable.

Wail of the Degenerates

By: William C. Pittman

I'm always amazed looking back throughout history to see how often artists have been marginalized for not doing what the artistic or political establishment thought was appropriate. People that are now considered luminaries of their time often had to fight for years, if not their entire lives against people that wanted to call their work terrible and ugly, or – worse yet – “vulgar,” and “inappropriate.”

When I took a class in art history a few years ago I was assigned a report on Edvard Munch. For anyone that doesn't know, he's the man that painted “The Scream.” He didn't have a good or easy life. He was the son of a medical officer. The family stayed poor and he had four siblings. Their mother died of tuberculosis when he was five years old so his father tended to take his son with him to work for lack of child care. Edvard was in poor health through most of his life and was surrounded by death because of his father's work. This created an environment in which Munch saw death and sickness all around him and this occurred against the backdrop of his father's religious fervor. This ultimately inspired Munch to make some really morbid, haunting images, some of which had religious undertones that are less than flattering of Christianity.

He was 80 when he died – a long life for a man born in 1863. He spent most of his last two decades on a mostly self-sufficient estate, celebrating farm life in his artwork with a steady stream of young ladies who were the subjects for many a nude painting. I wish his story ended like that and his life had ended in happiness and peace; but that's not how it ended. He died in Norway in 1944 during the terror of the Nazi occupation.

In the 1930s and 1940s the Nazis deemed the work of Munch, Picasso, Matisse, Gauguin and many others “degenerate art” and 82 of Munch's works were removed from German museums. Norway fell in 1940 and he lived the last 4 years of his life with a nearly complete collection of his life's work sitting in the second floor of his house, living in fear of the day they would come, take everything he'd ever made, destroy it and kill him; but that still wasn't good enough. When he died, his Nazi-orchestrated funeral left the impression that he was a Nazi sympathizer. It wasn't enough to take his art out of the museums or to steal his peace of mind; they tried to corrupt his legacy.

.....
“It's a drawing that I was involved in creating in my own small way. ”
.....

Because his art did not fit in with what they wanted or a message they agreed with, it was cast out; it was removed from the public eye; it was under threat of destruction and had to be hidden to prevent that eventuality. Because his art did not fit in with what the ruling power thought was appropriate, a man who had suffered so much hardship in his life, a man who expressed those hardships in his work without ever harming anyone else, lived and died in fear in 1944.

In 2006 I met a man I've come to really respect as an artist and value as a mentor. He's about 17 years my senior and makes stunning artwork that happens to involve sexy women in various states of undress and distress with some heavy BDSM elements mixed in. This started when he was 16 years old and he made a picture of a sexy woman, had it professionally matted and hid it behind his bedroom door where he hoped it wouldn't be found... A month later he was forced to take it down and later destroy it. Roughly 26 years later he is nearly completely alienated from his family and they have never accepted that part of him or his artwork. This man has, in my estimation, gone through absolute hell for his art. I can't imagine going through what he has or the strength that it took to endure that. I don't think I would have been able to.

This man and his work were a great source of inspiration for me when I decided to start making a series of abstract images based on the female nude in 2010. He and his wife were a great source of perspective and support when I ventured into photography in 2011. They were great friends at a moment when I needed someone to talk to while my conservative mother was telling me she thought I was going to be arrested for taking pictures of nude women. Much of what I've accomplished with a camera might not have been possible without this couple.

Visitors to my home have at times noticed a drawing hanging on the wall in the living room. It stood out because for a long time it was one of the few things hanging on my mostly white and bare walls. It is one of his original drawings, not a print but the original work itself. He drew it based in part on a photo I took of a young woman for him to use as a reference for his artwork.

It's not a very "tame" image though. It's not the kind of thing you'd normally expect to see hanging in someone's living room and it has prompted a few people to wonder why I'd hang something like that so prominently in my home while living in a conservative state. Why would I hang something that explicit where models and conservative friends might see it and be freaked out by it? I'm going to have people thinking I'm a freak and a pervert, right?

There are two levels on which I can answer that question. One that is more particular to my friendship with this man and another that is more general and deals more with my views on art and human expression in general.

For the first, this is a drawing by a good friend. It's a drawing that I was involved in creating in my own small way. I've always been really proud of my collaboration with him and that I've had the opportunity to help him create some really stunning artwork. Hanging that image in my living room lets me brag about it and tell people about him. I really respect him.

.....

“...outrage, and rejection of their work because a subset of society decided it was wrong. . ”

.....

On the second level, I like the idea of hanging it prominently because of what happened to that first drawing of his and because of artists like Munch. My friend has the right to make his work and the right to be proud of it. I have the right to create my work and be proud of it. I have the right to display whatever I want, however I want no matter how much it might offend others. That image has a right to exist. Destroying a work of art is every bit as vile as burning a book. Preventing a work from being displayed is every bit as wrong as banning a book. It's a war against ideas. It's a crime against the human heart.

I hang that image in the living room because it deserves to be seen. It shouldn't have to be hidden from the world any more than my work should have to be hidden. I hang that image in the living room because the "degenerates" need to be defended. I hang that image in the living room because the day someone can tell me that I can't put it in the living room is the day I'll know something is desperately wrong in this place. Anyone who would judge or reject me for hanging it is someone who does not know or understand this history of art and does not understand the plight of those like Munch. Anyone that would reject me for having it is someone I probably don't need and don't want in my home anyway.

Generations of artists and photographers have faced public shame, outrage, and rejection of their work because a subset of society decided it was wrong. Because those that came before and their struggle to find acceptance for their work, the second half of the 19th century and the 20th century saw a vast expansion of what is accepted as art in the public realm. But it's not over and it's never going to be over. Every artist today owes a debt to every artist that came before, that had the courage to create what they wanted, even when everyone, including their own family, was telling them they were wrong, telling them that their work was vile, or calling them evil, foolish, or simply stubborn for making it. Don't be so quick to judge and condemn the work and self-expression of others. Chances are, there was a day, there was a time, in which your work would have been rejected and condemned as well.

The views expressed in this article are those of the authors and do not necessarily reflect the views or opinions of Southern Vixens Magazine. Southern Vixens Magazine shall have neither liability nor responsibility to any person or entity with respect to any loss or damage caused, or alleged to have been caused, directly or indirectly, by the information contained in this article.

STATISTICS

Height: 5'2

Weight: 120

Measurements: 30-24-36

Zodiac Sign: Libra

Occupation: Model, & Sales Associate

Home State: Massachusetts/Ohio

IG: @ KiHepp

Facebook: www.facebook.com/Katherine.Isabella

Worldmags.net

Katherine

Photographer: Epphects Media

A Chat with Katherine

How did you get into modeling?

I started modeling when I was about 4 years old and just never stopped.

What do you like best about being a model?

I get to be somebody I'm not when I'm in front of the camera. I get to be that sexy, badass woman and the next day I get to go into work as a business woman.

What advice would you give to new models?

Be yourself. Don't lose yourself trying to be what everyone wants you to be. If you have curves, embrace them. If you're naturally skinny, rock that out. Confidence is the sexiest thing in a woman.

When you are not modeling what's your favorite way to relax?

Reading a good book or doing yoga.

What do you do to maintain your body to keep it in shape?

I lift 5-6 days a week and go on lots of walks with my puppy.

Favorite sports team?

Everything Ohio State Buckeyes :)

What do you consider the perfect man?

A hardworking man that knows what he wants. I like a guy that I can have fun and do stupid things with, but is ready to roll up his sleeves and get shit done. The physical aspects of a man can always change, but you can't change who he is as a person..

What is the most adventurous thing you have ever done?

Zip-lining through a jungle in Mexico.

What is your favorite song?

Superman by Eminem.

What is your favorite movie?

The Rite. I love scary movies and Anthony Hopkins is my all-time favorite actor.

Do you have any piercings or tattoos? If so where?

Two ladybugs on my foot & "This Too Shall Pass" on my ribs.

What do you think is the sexiest thing about a man?

His smile. That genuine smile that you only see when he's doing something.

What's your biggest turn on?

A man that takes care of himself and that respects his mother. Family is my number one and I think it is so incredibly sexy when a man is close with his family.

What's your biggest turn off?

A man that doesn't know what he wants or one that chews with his mouth open... Yuck!

What is your naughtiest fantasy?

That's a secret! You know what they say... "Lady in the streets..."

What is your favorite social network?

Instagram. My username is KiHepp

How does someone contact you for a modeling project?

katherine.i.heppner@gmail.com

Worldmags.net

Kendall Lynn

Photographer: Johnny Ngo

A Chat with Kendall Lynn

How did you get into modeling?

I got my start in modeling when I tried out for a huge modeling contest in 2012. I placed 3rd out of over 50 girls. From there on I fell in love. Throughout my life everyone always stressed to me how much I needed to pursue modeling. So one day I went all in and never looked back. The modeling industry is a competitive world and can be discouraging at times but it's my escape from reality. Something about it just makes me feel complete..

What do you like best about being a model?

I enjoy being able to express myself in different concepts. Modeling is similar to acting in a way; you always have to portray some kind of message to an audience. I like the challenge. Seeing people's reactions to my work is always such a great feeling. They never know what to expect.

What would you say is your best modeling experience?

My best modeling experience was getting the news when I made my first magazine. Immediately after that I made two more and was so thrilled at the idea of being published in different states all around the US. Hard work and determination really does pay off. What is the most adventurous thing you have ever done?

Snorkeling and paragliding in Mexico. I'm afraid of sharks AND heights so both of these things were pretty risky for me to agree to do.

What is your favorite song?

I love music. Too many favorites to choose from but one song I have on repeat lately is All Down by Hi-Tone ft Tory Lanez.

What is your favorite movie?

I have so many but La Bamba is a classic I could watch over and over.

What do you think is the sexiest thing about a man?

Confidence! There's nothing more intriguing than a man who is self-assured and well-adjusted. It's quite appealing to see men who know what they want and are not afraid to go after it. However; being intelligent and well dressed with a nice smile and a sense of humor doesn't hurt on top of that.

What's your biggest turn on?

Men that can make me laugh constantly. A good personality is so important. I'm also a sucker for nice cologne.

What's your biggest turn off?

Negativity and cockiness, hands down.

What is your naughtiest fantasy?

Domination, in any circumstance I think woman prefer men who aren't afraid to embrace their sensuality and creativity.

How does someone contact you for a modeling project?

You can contact me on my facebook or by email at kendalld181@gmail.com

STATISTICS

Height: 5'11

Weight: 125

Measurements: 34DD-28-36

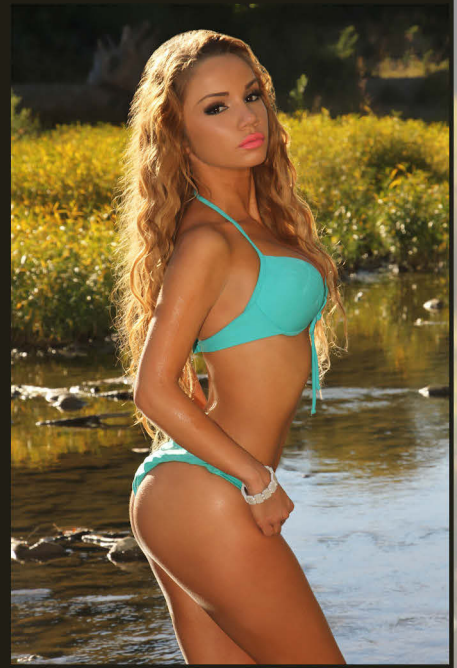

Zodiac Sign: Aries

Occupation: Fitness Competitor

Home State: New Mexico

Facebook: www.facebook.com/kendall.lynn.56

Worldmags

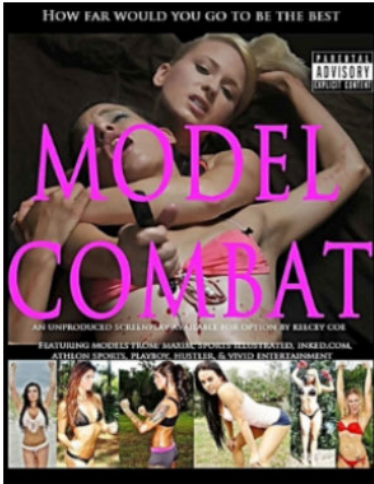

NICK MEANS PHOTOGRAPHY
WWW.FACEBOOK.COM/NICKMEANSPHOTOGRAPHY

72 November 2014 | Southern Vixens Magazine

Model: Jasmine tc Instagram: @jaasminetc

Worldmags.net
ADVERTISING

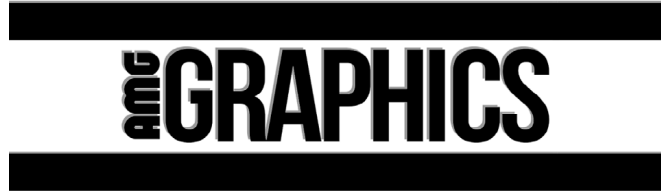

MODELS ARE FORCED TO FIGHT TO THE DEATH TO PROVE THEY ARE THE BEST.

VISIT WSKEL.COM

AVAILABLE ON:
AMAZON.COM
BARNES & NOBLE

MODELS HAVE BEEN IN:
MAXIM, FHM, SI, PLAYBOY,
HUSTLER

Follow us on Facebook

Facebook.com/pages/AMG-Graphics/1384461391811337

- Facebook Covers
- Twitter Covers
- Advertisements

And so much MORE!

Your AD
HERE
Email or Call
SouthernVixensMagazine@gmail.com
(772) 634-5158
www.southernvixens.com

Model: Mindi Lyn Photographer: Beans Fotos

www.dawngrayphotography.com facebook.com/dawngrayphotography

Dawn Gray Photography

Contact us today for advertising information!
Email: southernvixensmagazine@gmail.com
Phone: 772-634-5158

CONTRIBUTORS

Editor in Chief

Dawn Gray (Dawn@southernvixens.com)

Assistant Editor

Amber Gray (Amber@southernvixens.com)

Layout/Design

Dawn Gray (Dawn@southernvixens.com)

Photographers

Gary Miller Foto (www.garymillerfoto.com)

Beansfotos (Facebook.com/beansfotos)

Paul Ellison (www.facebook.com/PEllisonPhotography)

Francis Gamboa (www.facebook.com/francis_gamboa.photos)

Chris DeLira (www.facebook.com/chrisdeliraphotography)

Tony Piazza (www.facebook.com/tonypiazzaphotography)

David Sutton (www.facebook.com/david.sutton.737)

Nick Means (www.facebook.com/NickMeansPhotography)

Mark Toung (www.facebook.com/mtoung)

Jennifer Birney (www.facebook.com/Jennifer.Birney.Photography)

Dan Richards (www.modelmayhem.com/863667)

Felipe Rodriguez (www.facebook.com/Felrodphotography)

Epphects Media (www.facebook.com/pages/Epphects-Media/269095323157369)

Johnny Ngo (www.facebook.com/injinphotography)

Columnists/Writers

Amy Elizabeth

Marcus Jackson

M.L. Vee

DJ Mikey

Karmen Moon

William C. Pittman

Advertising

southernvixensmagazine@gmail.com

Want to be featured in Southern Vixens Magazine?

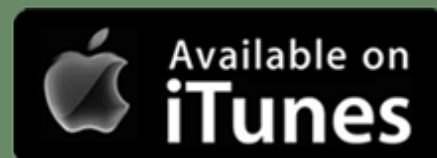

Stop by our website www.southernvixens.com or email us at southernvixensmagazine@gmail.com

Your favorite models at your fingertips

Available on

COMING IN DECEMBER

Nasia Jansen

Azzura Hayes

Howaa

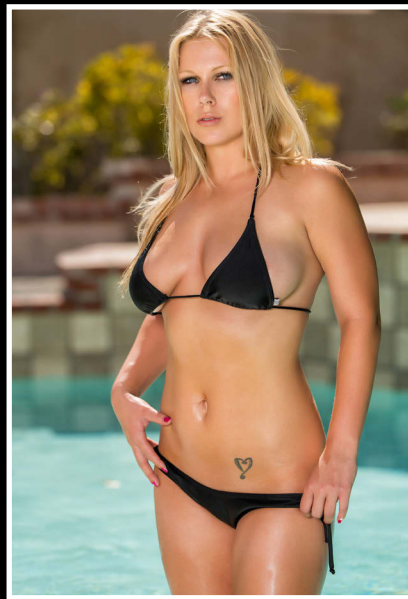

AND MANY MORE!

Rachel

Kayla Meigs

Sarah Frost

World

Model: Alli Jay
Photographer: Beansfotos

Follow us on Twitter
@SVMagazine

