

WELCOME

Since we couldn't spend Christmas with every one of our loyal readers we decided to wrap up the hottest women and give them to you in this holiday season issue of The Romp Magazine.

We have plenty in this issue to entertain you including, sports round ups, latest music reviews, health tips and what you need to know about the latest cars.

We hope you enjoy this special issue of The Romp Magazine.

HOW TO USE

LOOK OUT FOR THESE ICONS

THE

LOOK OUT FOR THIS ICONS

B)

IN ALL OF THE MODEL SECTIONS TAP THE VIDEO ICON (A) TO VIEW A BEHIND THE SCENES VIDEO OF THE SHOOT OR TAP THE IMAGE ICON (B) TO VIEW A SLIDESHOW FROM THAT SECTION

SOME OF OUR STORIES & INTERVIEWS HAVE MORE THAN MEETS THE EYE! SIMPLY SWIPE YOUR FINGER UP TO REVEAL THE REST OF THE TEXT

TAP ANYWHERE IN THE LOWER PART OF THE PAGE TO REVEAL THE NAVIGATION BAR

SWIPE LEFT OR RIGHT & TAP ANY PAGE TO JUMP STRAIGHT TO THAT SECTION

CHRISTMAS MIGHT BE ALL SNOW AND TURKEY AND REINDEERS IN YOUR BOOK, BUT DON'T BE SO CLOSE-MINDED, GUY. THERE'S A WHOLE WORLD OF PEOPLE AND DIFFERENT CULTURES OUT THERE AND THEY ALL CELEBRATE CHRISTMAS DIFFERENTLY, IN THEIR OWN WEIRD WAY. WE'RE NOT MAKING THIS STUFF UP, TRUST US.

Australia

Because it's summer in the southern hemisphere, Aussies tend to spend their Christmas Days outdoors or down on the beach. It's too hot to stick a turkey in the oven, so try prawns and BBQ chicken. Don't be surprised if you see Santa surfing. The weird thing is that Aussie Christmases still have all the classic iconography and songs. Must be confusing to be singing about roasting chestnuts on an open fire while you sizzle a prawn over an open BBQ

NOT TURKEY AGAIN: 10 CHRISTMAS DINNER ALTERNATIVES

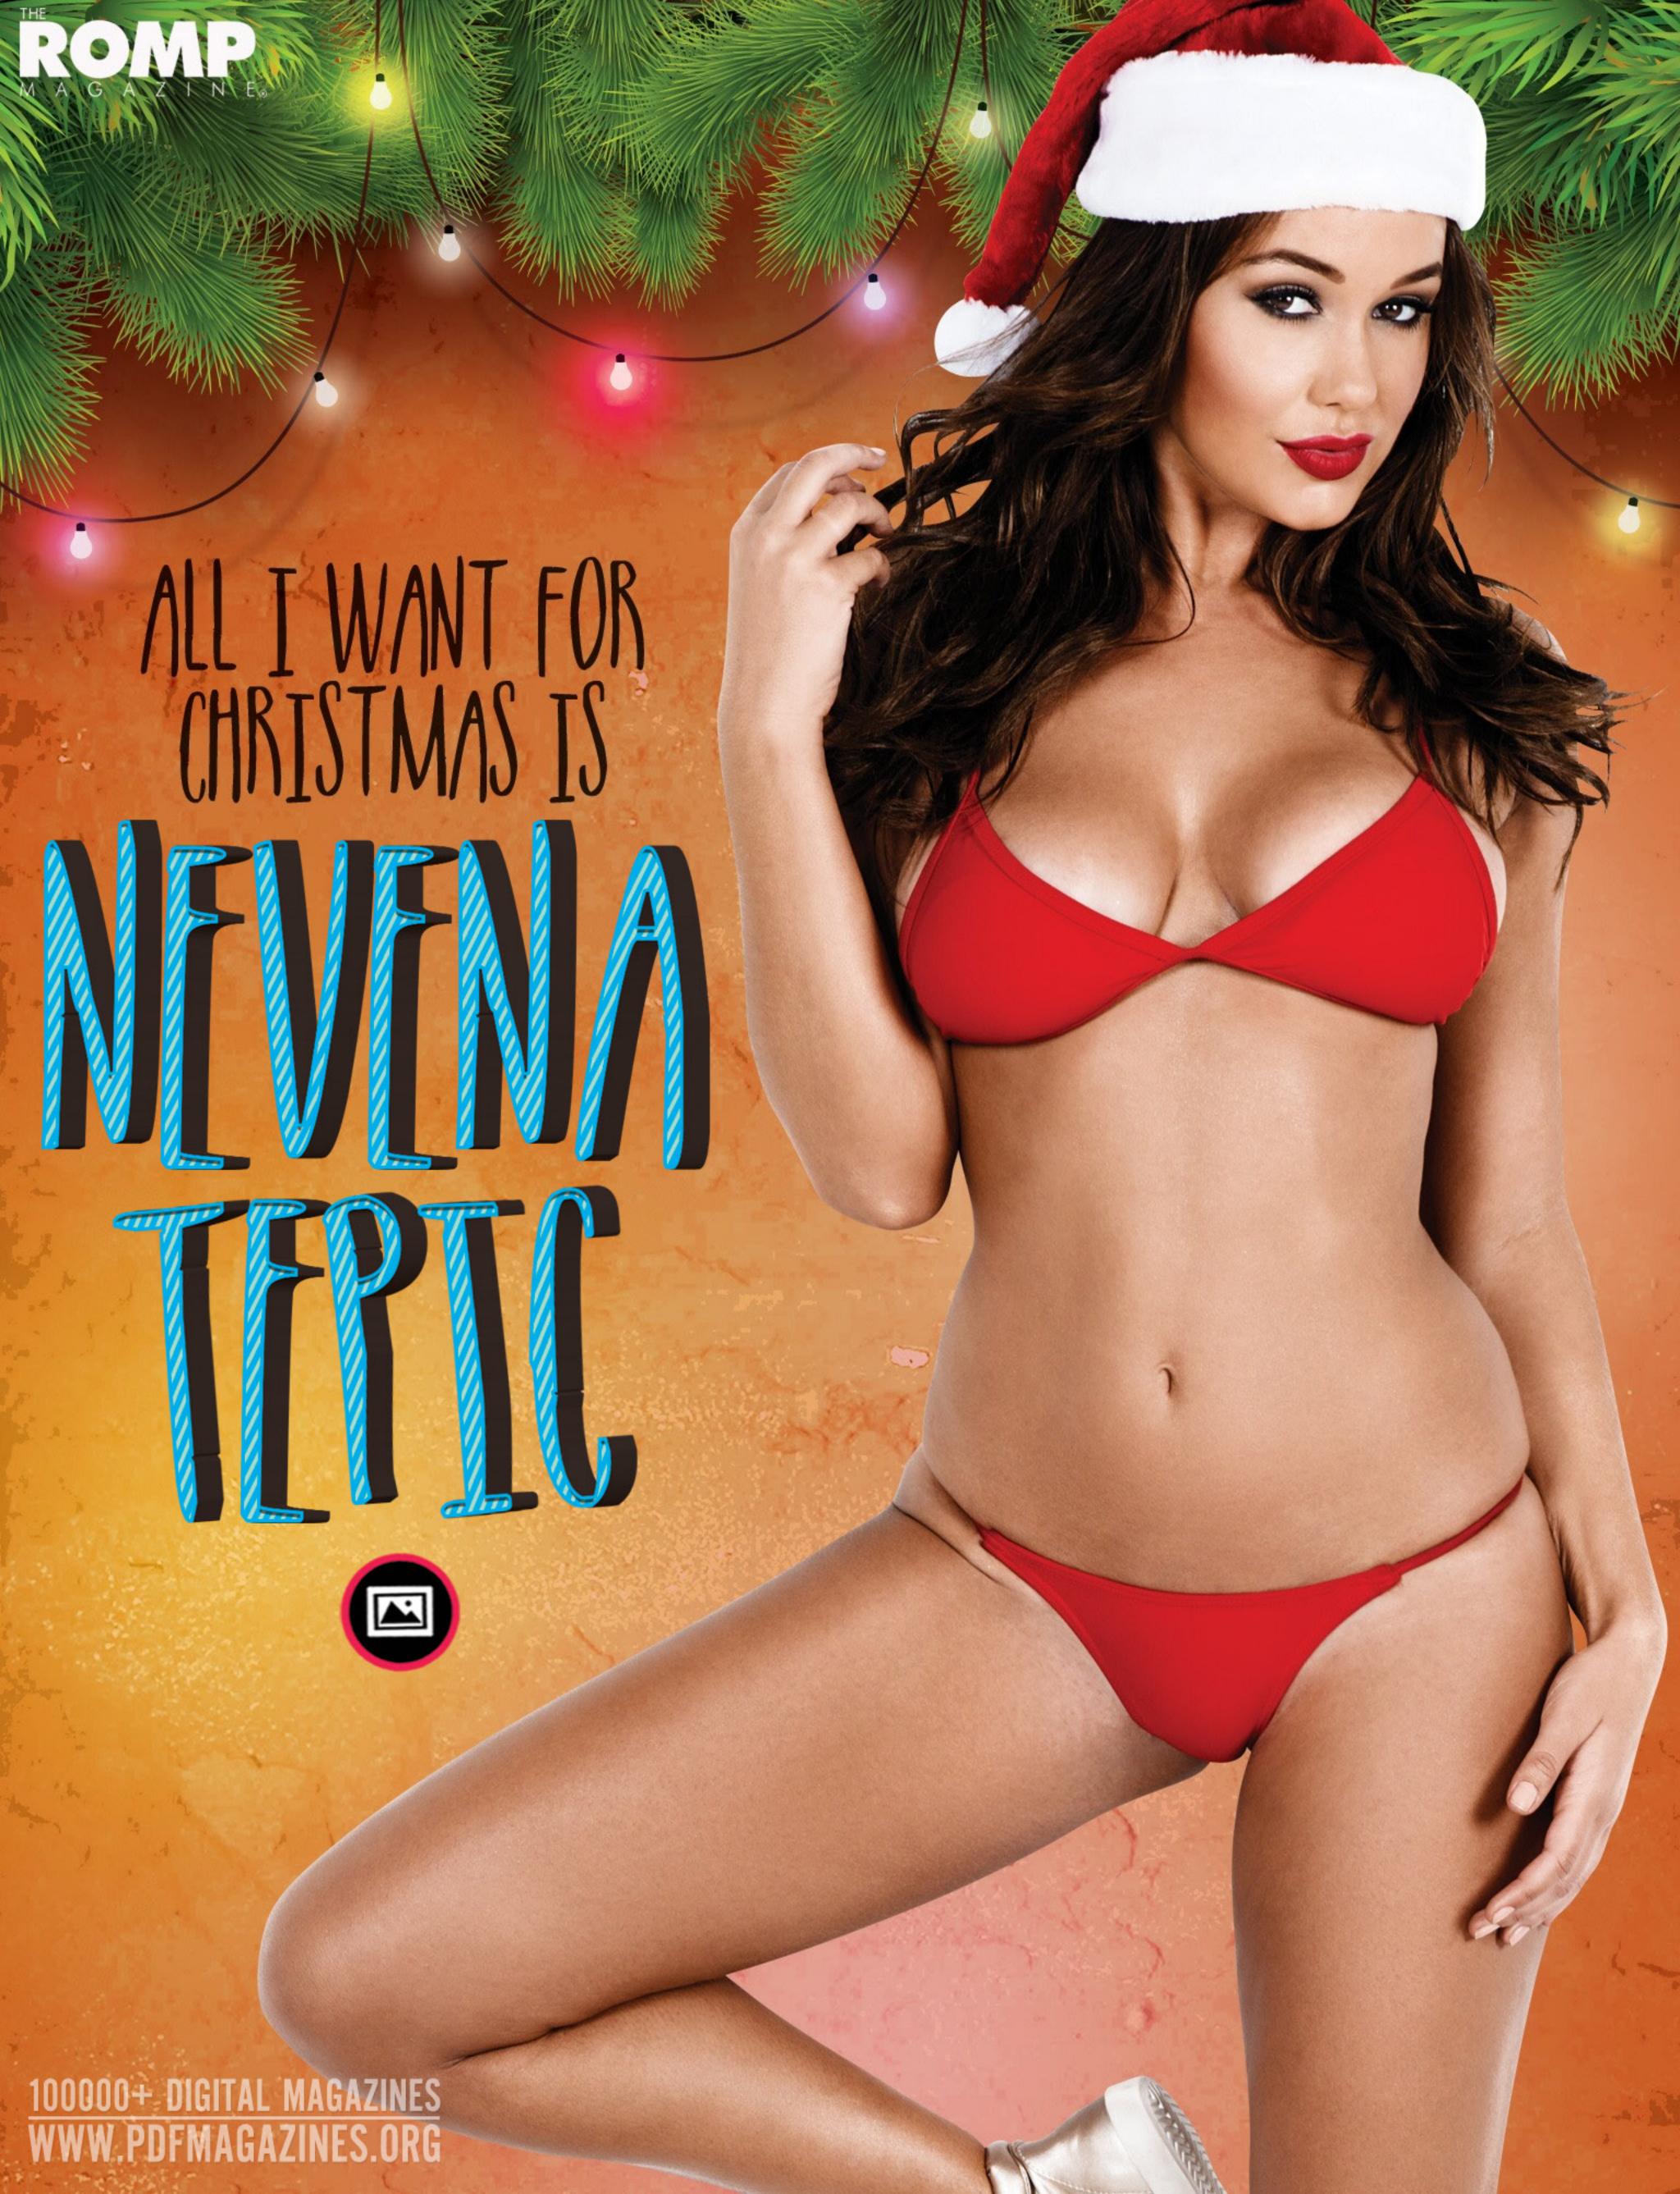

Oh, it's Christmas Day again, cool! What's on the menu this year, then? Turkey and stuffing, you say? Well, that is a surprise, can't wait to eat leftover turkey sandwiches for the next three weeks! Does this sound familiar? Are you stuck in a traditional roast turkey-rut? Well never fear, good reader, The Romp has you covered. Here's a list of alternative Christmas meals to spice up your Yule times.

1. Christmas Fish and Chips

Fish are often referred to as "the turkeys of the sea" (probably) and chips are made from potatoes, the main ingredient in... Roast Potatoes. Therefore, fish and chips is practically a Christmas dinner already!

2. Christmas Pizza

Ever tried a traditional Christmas pizza? No? Probably because there's no such thing. But why not? Throw a turkey and some cranberry sauce onto a pizza base and you're good to go!

Follow us on Instagram

instagram.com/therompmagazine

CHRISTMAS IS A TIMÉ OF GIVING, WE ALL KNOW THIS. BUT IT'S ALSO A TIME OF HAVING MASSIVE BLOWOUTS WITH THOSE CLOSEST TO YOU AND AIRING OLD GRUDGES AND GRIEVANCES TO THE POINT OF RUINING EVERYONE'S DAY AND YEAR. MERRY CHRISTMAS, ONE AND ALL! HERE ARE SOME STEP-BY-STEP INSTRUCTIONS ON HOW TO SURVIVE YOUR OWN FAMILY DURING THE HOLIDAYS.

Step 1: Wear headphones

This part is crucial. Wearing headphones indoors is the polite way of saying "don't fucking talk to me." It doesn't matter what you listen to: music, podcasts, white noise. You can even just sit there listening to nothing, it'd be preferable to hearing your Uncle Bob drone on about how superior your cousin is to you.

Step 2: Drink way more than anyone else

If you get way drunker than everyone else, then you won't have to get embarrassed at how drunk the rest of your family is. Instead, you'll be the embarrassing one! And you won't even notice, because you're

AGE: 24

STAR SIGN: Cancer

HOMETOWN: Brisbane

LIKES: Down to earth, interesting and passionate people

DISLIKES: Negative people

OCCUPATION: Beauty Therapist/ Business

Student

FAVOURITE MOVIE: Anything Action

FAVOURITE SONG: Anything RnB

You're Looking Fresh AND SEXY IN YOUR PHOTO SHOOT TODAY, HOW DO YOU THINK IT WENT? I'm really excited to see the photos. It's the most risqué shoot I've ever done! I've always wanted to try doing a 'wet look' shoot so this was the perfect opportunity. I think as I'm getting older I'm becoming more comfortable with my body and more open with the shoots I'm doing.

WHAT IS THE FIRST PIECE OF CLOTHING YOU TAKE OFF WHEN YOU'RE ABOUT TO GET IN THE SHOWER?

WOW!!
WHAT AMAGAZINE!
10 OUT OF 10

GREAT MAG! AMAZING DESIGN & A WESOME CONTENT! THSISTHE PERFECT MAGAZINE FOR MEN

denz84

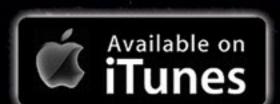

Jovensydney

Sadfall1

INF REPUSING THEN LET US KNOW!

TAP HERE TORATE

- Have you had enough champagne to think I'm hot yet?
  - Do you want to see two balls drop?
- Wanna make your first mistake of the New Year?
  - Wanna ring in the New Year with a bang?
    - Are you drunk yet?
    - Midnight's too far away, let's kiss now.
- I've made so many mistakes this year, what's one more?
- What are your plans for 2015? I've got an idea for the first one...
- (If she looks geeky) My New Year's resolution is

Joel Zimmerman can be accused of a whole bunch of things, but being a shrinking violet is not likely to ever be one of them. Five years on and never far from the headlines, the one and only deadmau5 continues to grow his prolific catalogue with a collection of highlights and remixes from his discography to date.

Opening with the inimitable but oft-imitated Ghosts N Stuff from 2008, the electro-prog ripper based around Chopin's Piano Sonata No. 2 still sounds as fresh as it did when it erupted on the scene, with Knife Party's Rob Swire providing the killer vocal to kick off the release with gusto.

It must have been some task whittling down his work to a dime pack, but the selections are astute - from the wistful piano melody and gorgeous soulful vocal of Raise Your Weapon, complete with Skrillex brostep riff to the wonderful I Remember, as headliner cameos balance supremely over gently acidic ambient soundscapes.

AZEALIA BANKS

BROKEWITH Available on EXPENSIVE TASTE Available on iTunes

Raised in Harlem by a single mom, much-hyped rapper Azaelia Banks has finally pushed out her debut album in the form of Broke with Expensive Taste. Although only 23, Miss Bank$ has been signed for five years, releasing her debut single the massive 212 all of two years ago. After a bunch of delays, the album dropped this month without any publicity.

The hotly anticipated offering opens with the sparse metallic tattoo of Idle Delilah as an organic bassline and street percussion complement the heavy rhyming flow before Banks goes ghetto with an electric bass riff and trumpet overture which breaks out into a swinging merengue track complete with Spanish vocal on Gimme a Chance.

After a bold start that draws upon her varied world influences, Desperado surprises with a classy backstreet garage lick courtesy of genre stalwart MJ Cole. Azaelia drawls over the track deliciously with her hood up and neck snapping hard.

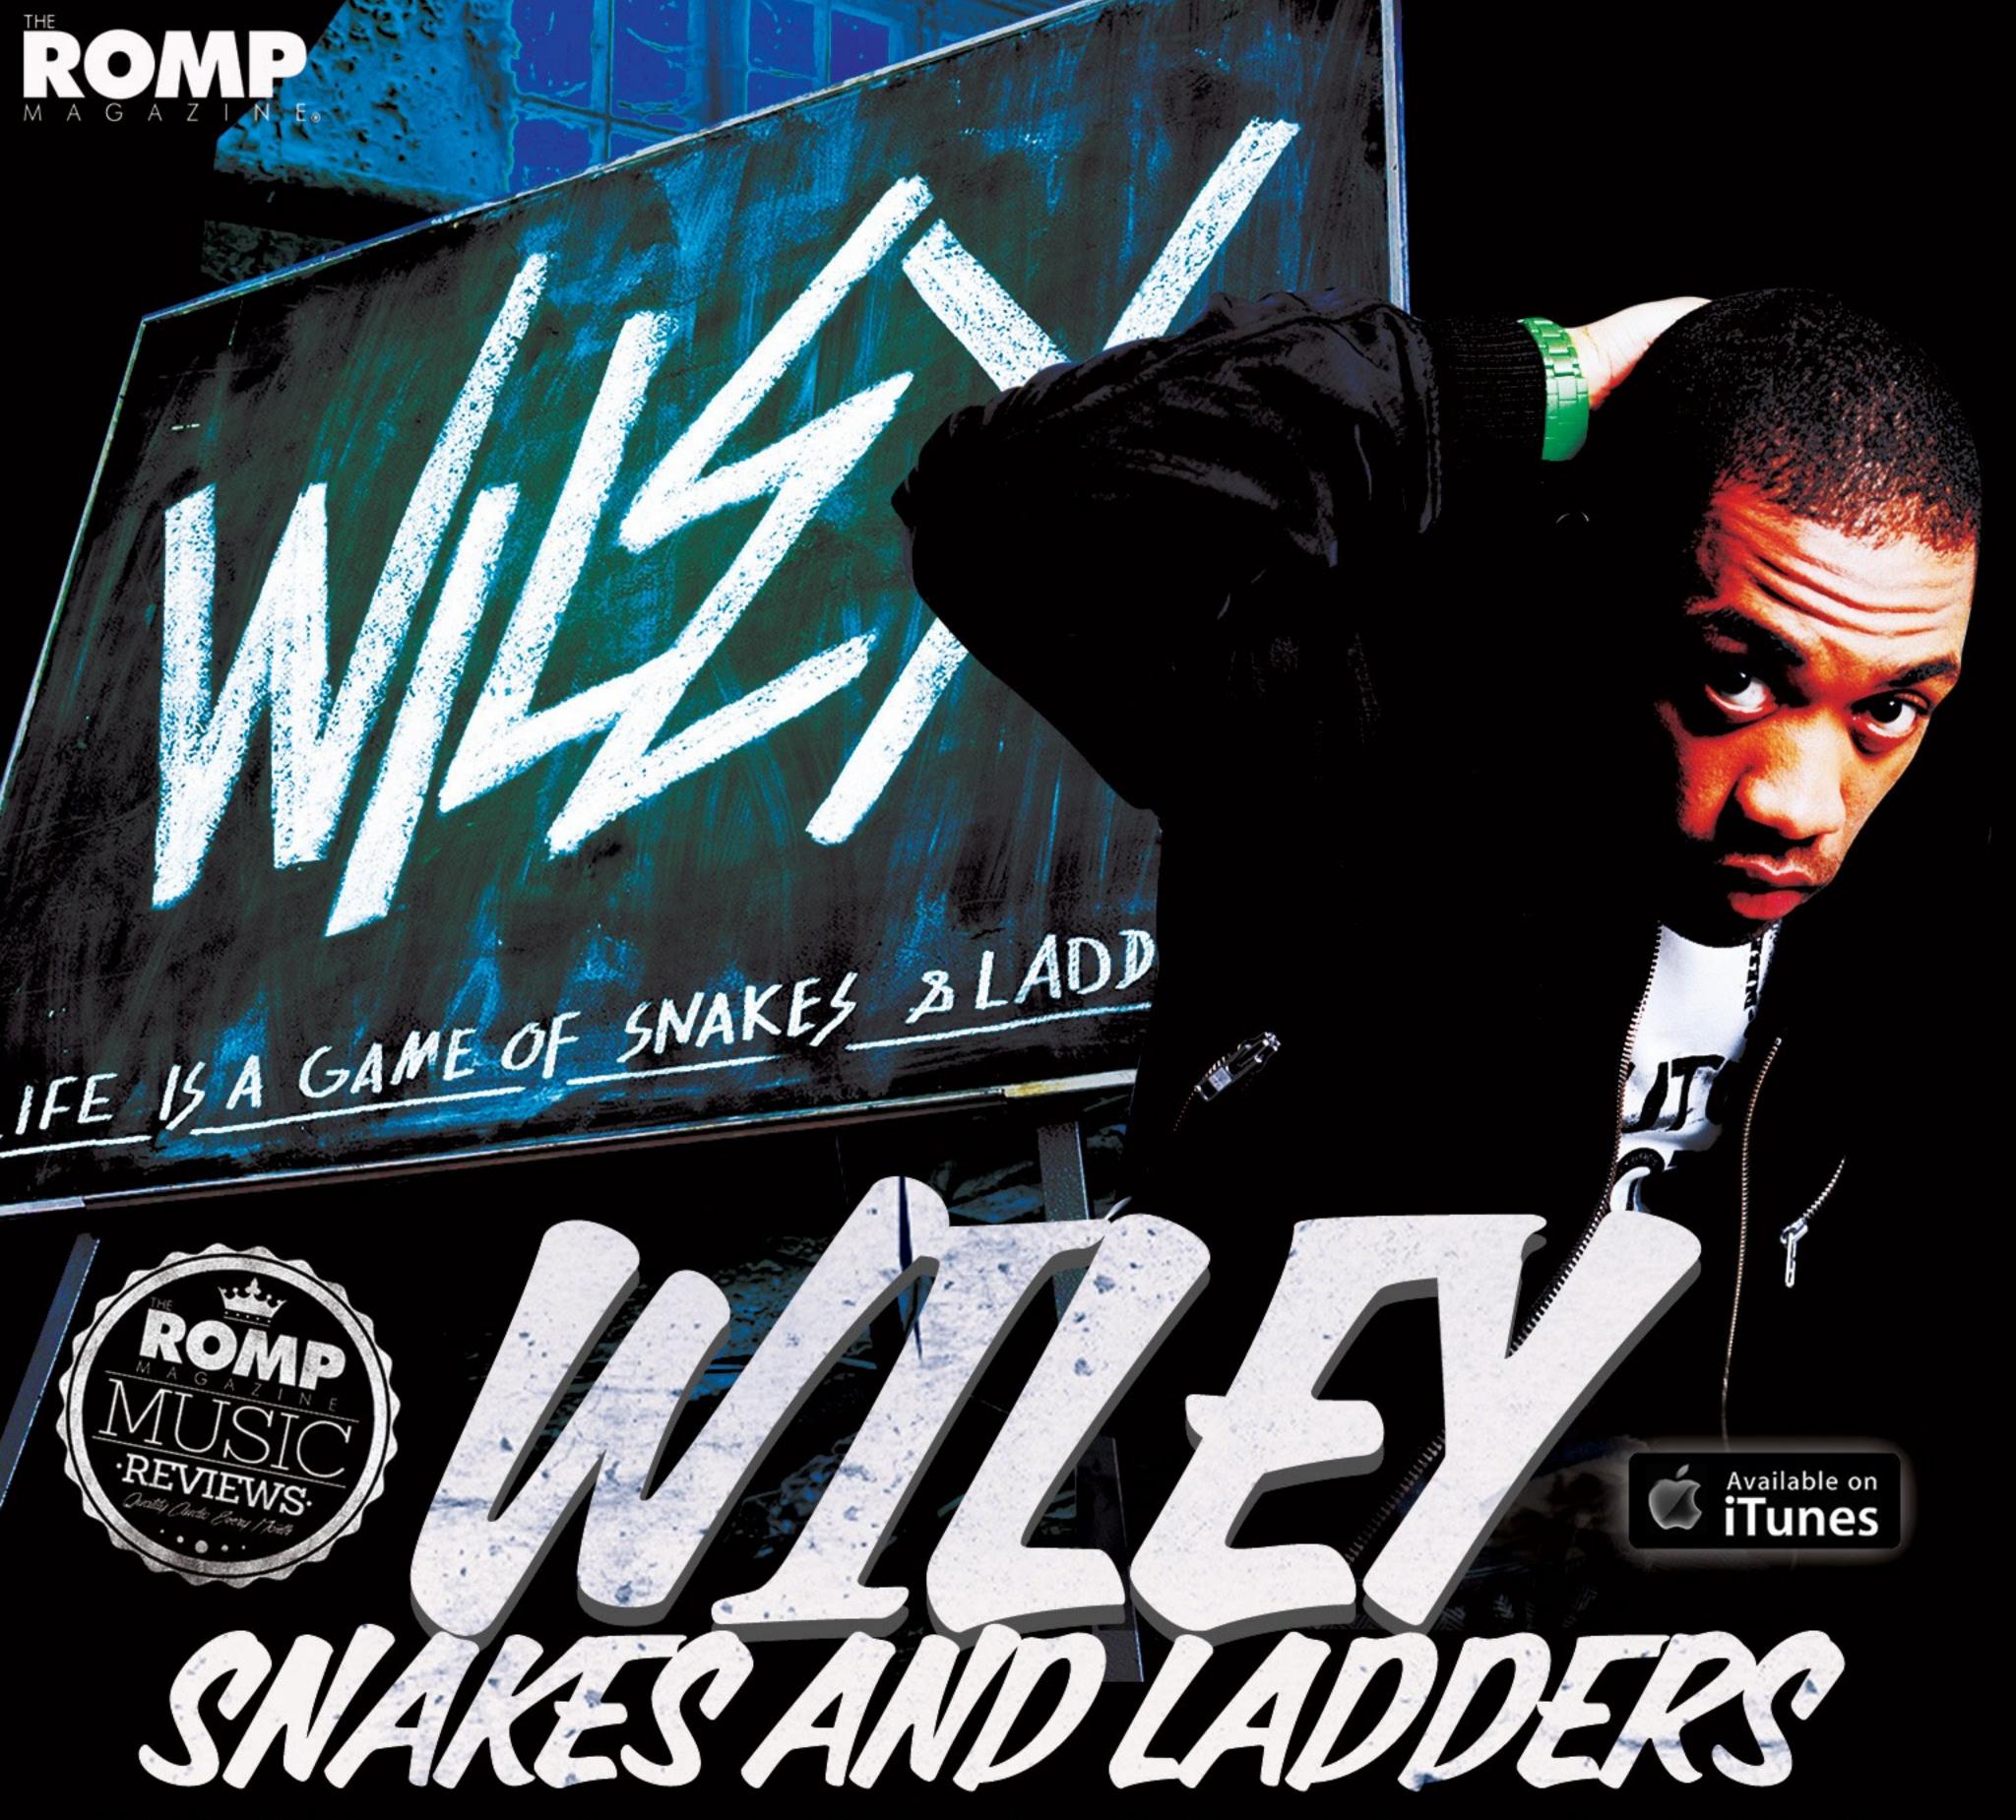

Never letting the listener draw breath, JFK switches up again as acidic swooshes abound in an industrial techno number with Banks providing the diva vocal and the ever-impressive Theophilus London adding extra edge to the cut.

Not everyone will know the name Henry Steinway - but it's a pretty safe bet that most will know the multi-talented Angelano by ear. From his festival-slaying work under the Clockwork moniker to his efforts as part of LA collecitve WeDidIt, the youngster has made sure he has all the bases covered. Under his RL Grime pseudonym, he drops his most respectable release to date this month.

With little fanfare, the artist gets straight down to business with the fantastic opener Always. Slapping down a pitched-up and chopped Janet Jackson sample over a gorgeous key melody and stuttered beat, the track is a phenomenon that sets the tone for an eyebrow-raising long-player.

Prodigy-style rave stabs are front and centre in sinister sub-bass bouncer Danger before Steinway drops the opening trap number Scylla. It is deep dark and heavy, as sirens and horns add to the intensity before a delicate melody allows for a breather on the sweaty dancefloor.

British MC Wiley returns this month with his tenth studio album, the honest and hard-hitting Snakes and Ladders on the Big Dada label.

The 17-track bumper opens with title track Snakes and Ladders (Part One), as spooky keys and deep bass play off in what is ultimately a short scene-setter. Having hit hard this summer, On A Level provides a classic Wiley moment with added Skepta for good measure, complete with on point fast paced vocal over a dubby grime bassline.

As the release swaggers on, From the Outside drops an epic housey lead over a broken beat undertow. A superb guest vocal from Teddy and JME takes it to the next level, before UK meets US in No Skylarking - a track that shares the sensibilities of some of Kid Cudi's most pleasing moments.

The album is chock-full of highlights, from the bouncy video game soundtrack Drive By that showcases why nobody does grime better than its founding father to the threatening vocal assault and wobble bassline of Grew Up In, but it is all shown up as a tasty appetiser for the main course.

BMO Field jumps in as the marquee track of the album, as insistent strings and undulating bass play support to one of Wiley's best flows in recent memory.

Feel the heat with LBBY POWELL this summer :

If you're lucky enough to live in a nice climate, then this will apply to you. The elements can hamper your workouts outdoors, but nature can also provide plenty of good places to work out and they're free! Cycling, running and swimming are the old traditional exercises for cardio and can be done almost anywhere (obviously swimming will require water!). But if your goals are more about gaining strength and muscle, fitness parks are becoming a lot more common. Just a quick search on YouTube and you'll get plenty of ideas for workouts in these outdoor gyms or just great body weight resistance exercises. Even if you're looking to put on mass, your body can act as just as good a weight as a barbell or dumbbell. It's amazing how much you can do on just a simple bench or step. Beginners can start with exercises like step ups, raised push-ups, tricep dips while the more athletic types can step it up to box jumps, feet-on-bench push-ups and raised feet dips.

Classifieds

Gym equipment is expensive. It's amazing what are essentially a couple of bits of metal can cost at the local sports store. But the fact is a good portion of fitness equipment are sold to people on impulse and they lose motivation quickly. It just ends up in the back of the garage collecting dust. Your muscles don't know the difference between a pretty dumbbell and an old rusty one. So if you're not a material girl like Madonna, seek some heavy treasures and turn that spare room into your beast building room!

Make your commute your workout

Something as simple as walking to and from work can burn a lot of calories. It can also relieve a lot of stress too as you'll avoid being stuck in traffic or feeling like a sardine in a can on that bus or train ride. If you live more than an hour's walk from work, getting off a couple stops earlier or parking a bit of a distance away is also an option. Or you could ride a bike (again, checkout those classifieds for barely used second-hand items!). If you work in a suit, it's obviously not ideal exercise attire. But if your workplace has a shower and a locker just keep a couple of suits and the leather boots in the office and get back into your joggers and sports gear once you've clocked off.

INSIDE THIS MONTH

ANGOLEXUS ONUSTANG ATHENEW BOND CAR!

Performance arm Galpin Auto Sports (GAS) has launched a crazy take on the famous Ford Mustang at the Los Angeles Auto Show.

Dubbed 'the Rocket', the 'stang has been beefed up under the hood with a V8 punching out a whopping 540kW while the body has been on a healthy diet of carbon fibre to increase the power-to-weight ratio even more.

The exterior is the handy work of Henrik Fisker, which he says takes inspiration from Mustangs of the past. It looks amazing too with a hexagonal front grille, carbon fibre splitter, flared front guards, and a new bonnet with two intakes to keep the engine bay cool.

Carbon fibre is also used for the side skirts while a large rear diffuser and a set of chunky rear quarter panels to give the Rocket a look that is likely to scare small children.

The Rocket's bodywork has been coated with a colour called Eminence Grise and the Pony sits on a set Staring at the LA Auto Show was the new Lexus LF-C2 concept car, which is set to be the next-gen Lexus IS convertible.

It's likely to be called the RC convertible when it hits production as the concept is based on the current RC coupe. The four-seater gets the fashionable huge grille up front with unique air intakes and sharp LED headlights.

Rumour has it the Lexus 5.0-litre naturally aspirated V8 (which produces 351kW of power and 550Nm of torque) could make its way to the top models though the company hasn't confirmed the powertrain details. The Lexus eight-speed sports automatic transmission would go just nicely with that V8 motor though.

The concept also features LF-C2 include 20-inch alloy wheels, stylish indicator lights, L-shaped taillights and a bright golden yellow multi-layered paint job so bright you could probably see it from the moon.

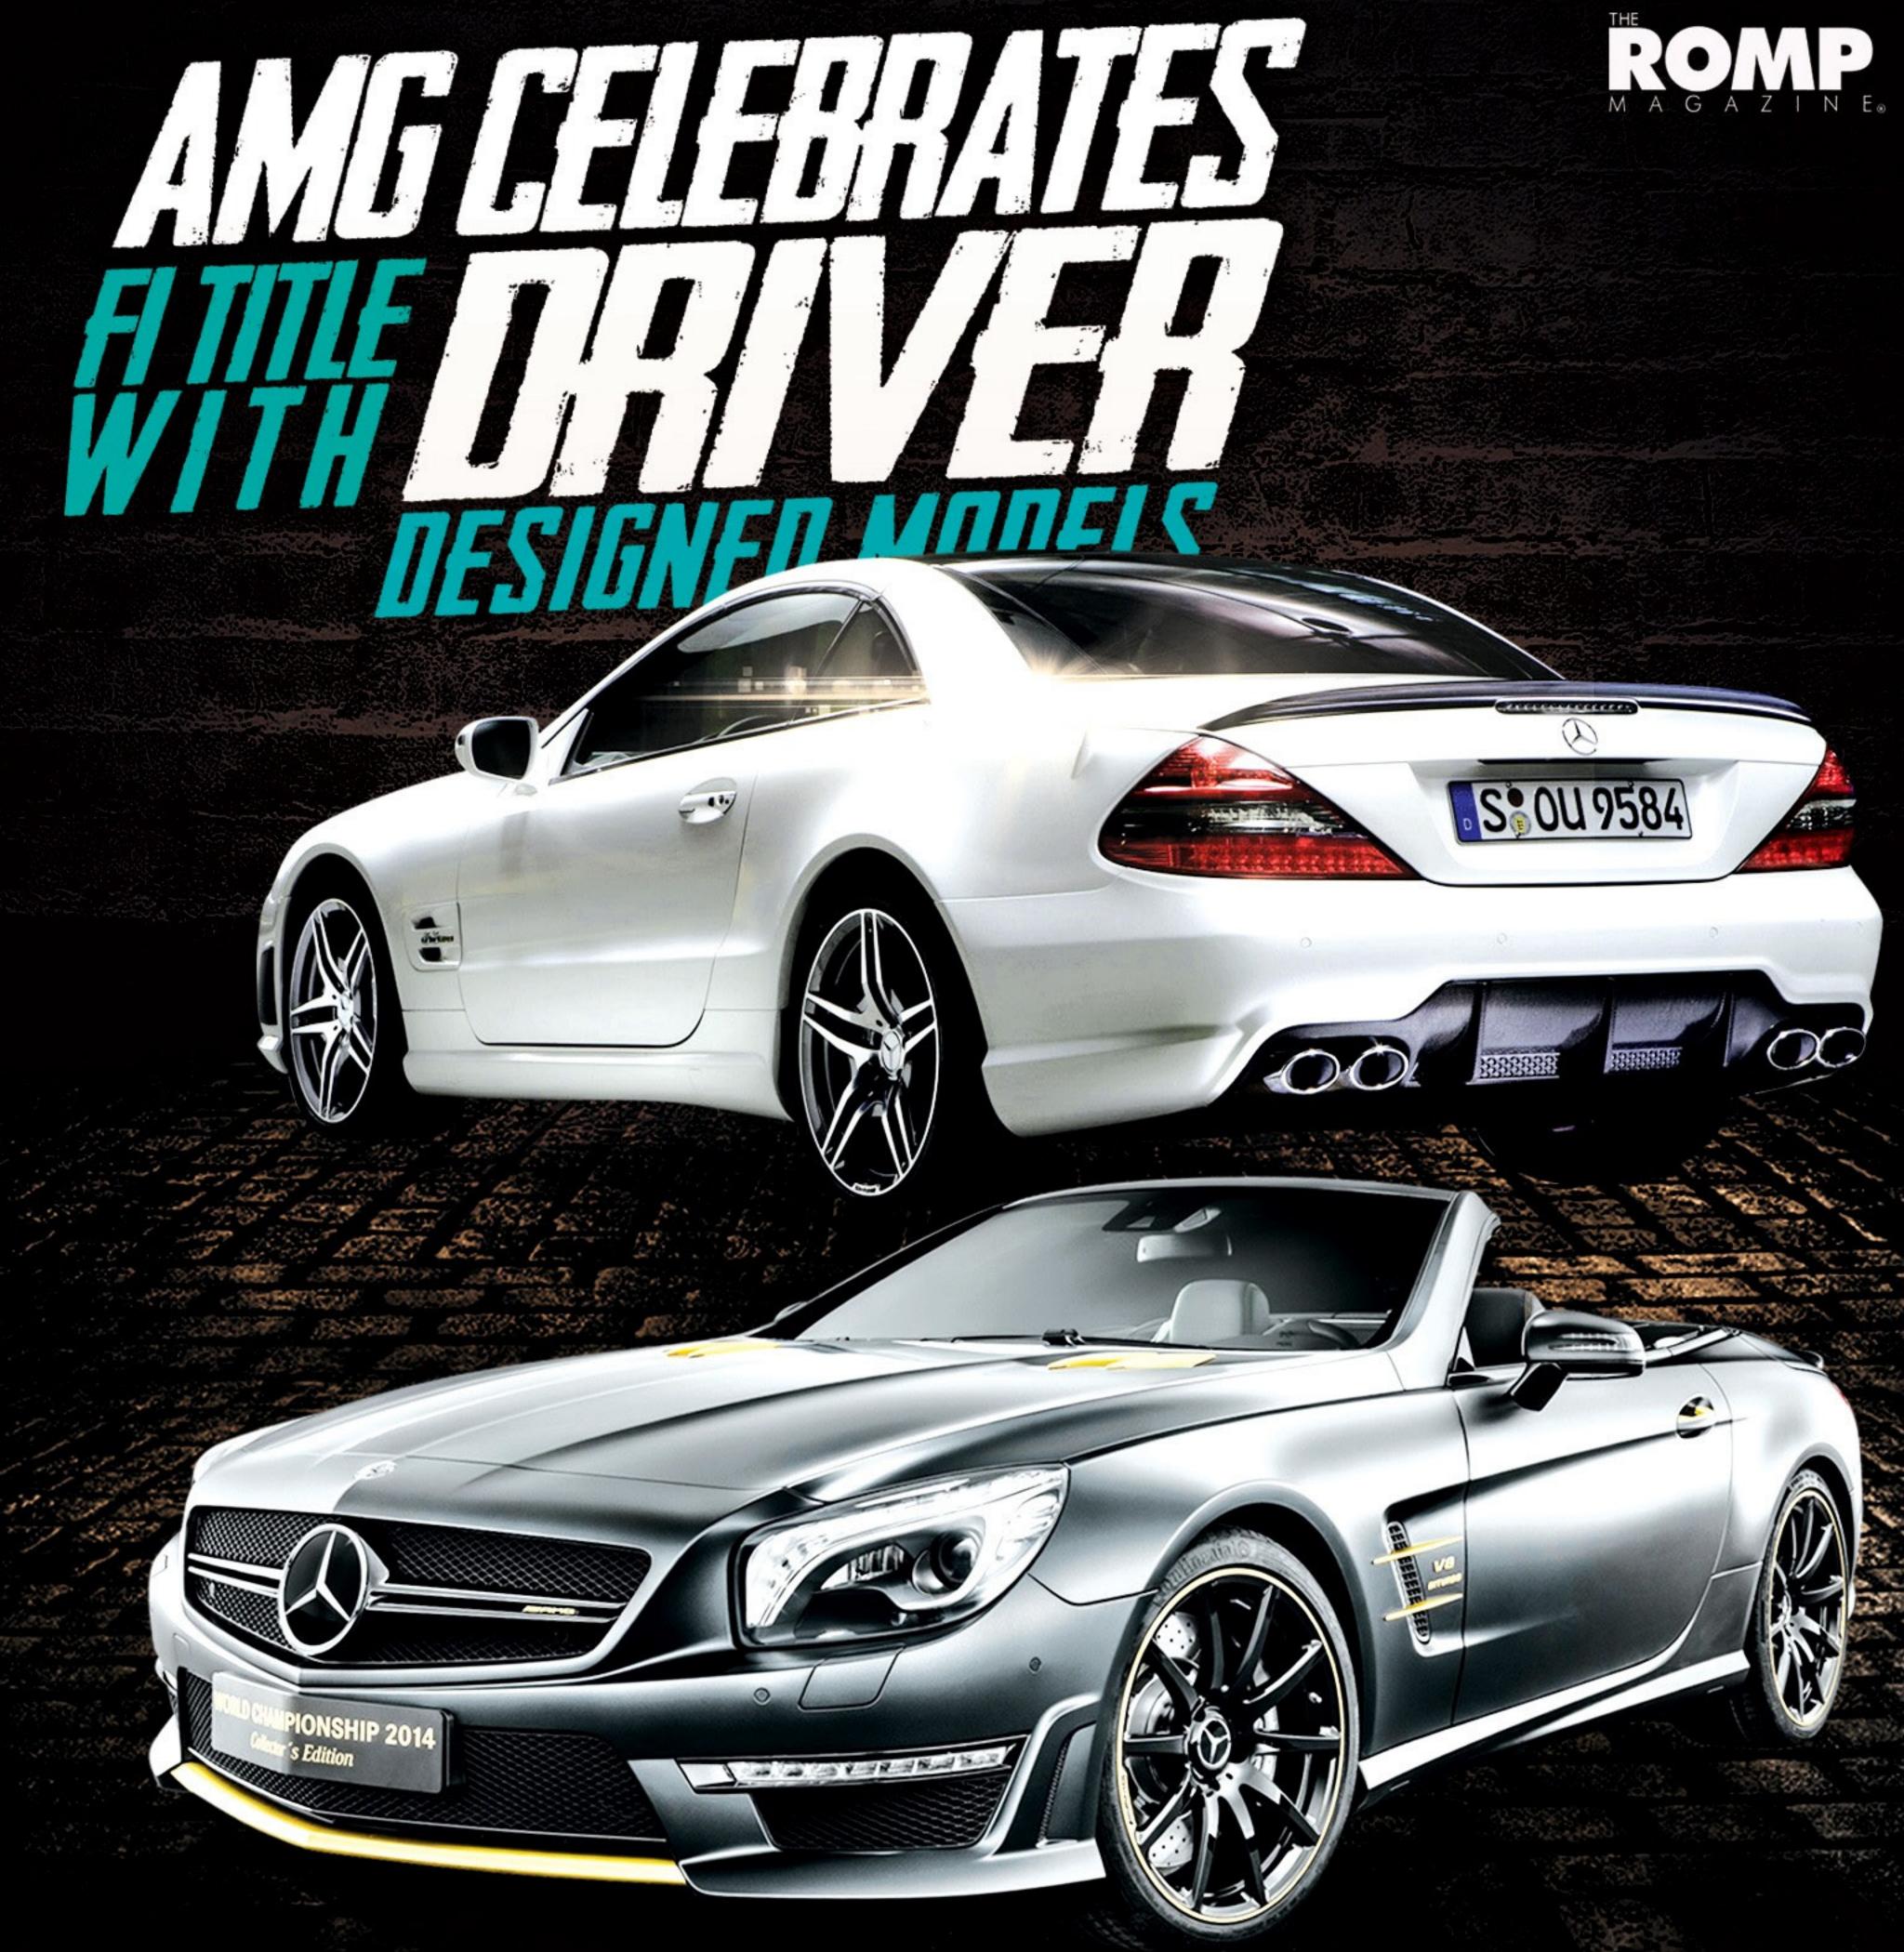

An argument almost as popular as who should play Mr. James Bond himself is what car he should drives in the famous 007 films.

Well the next movie will again star Daniel Craig, however he's going to have downsize when it comes to his car. The traditional Aston Martin has been traded in for a Fiat 500. Yes that's right, the manliest of all men in movie history will be in a little Italian hatchback.

In the previous film 'Skyfall' they shockingly blew up the gorgeous DB5 (which was thankfully only special effects so the car still lives!) so here's hoping they don't ease up on the body damage in the 24th instalment.

The new movie is apparently taking place in Rome and the petit Fiat 500 was chosen to navigate the tight streets of the Vatican city (Italian Job rip off anyone?). Filming is scheduled to begin in the European spring so expect it to hit the screens late 2015.

To celebrate their Formula 1 drivers and manufacturers world championships, Mercedes-Benz has released two special edition SL 63 AMG models, which are designed by championship winner Lewis Hamilton and teammate Nico Rosberg.

Revealed at the 'Stars & Cars' event in Stuttgart, they'll be limited to just 19 units. Prices and exact specs haven't been released, but you can expect them to be north of a few hundred thousand pounds and be held for special customers.

The 'standard' SL 63 AMG runs a twin-turbocharged 5.5-liter V8, which produces 395kW and a whopping 800Nm of torque, and Merc hasn't revealed if they'll get a bit of extra poke. The exterior of the Mercedes flaunts the title with touches of gold paint and a luscious leather interior trim fit for the greatest rap singers around.

The black model was the handy work of F1 champion Lewis Hamilton and features the outlining of his home Silverstone Grand Prix track on the key fob, dashboard, center console and floor mats.

AGE: 21

STAR SIGN: TAURUS

HOMETOWN: Byron Bay / Gold Coast /

LIKES: I love living in my bikinis, travelling the world, pool parties, tropical island hopping and hot summer nights. Chocolate desserts are my weakness but luckily I have a passion for fitness! I love staying fit and healthy by practicing Yoga & Pilates everyday! I was born into swimwear modelling and travelling so anything to do with new adventures, cultures, fashion, languages and food, I love!

DISLIKES: I dislike negativity, irrational insecure people, boredom and being

OCCUPATION: Swimwear Glamour Model

FAVOURITE MOVIE: KICKBOXER- Jean Claude Van Dam

FAVOURITE SONG: The Notorious B.I.G ft Ja Rule - Old Thing Back(Matoma Remix)

HOW DO YOU PREPARE YOURSELF FOR A SHOOT?

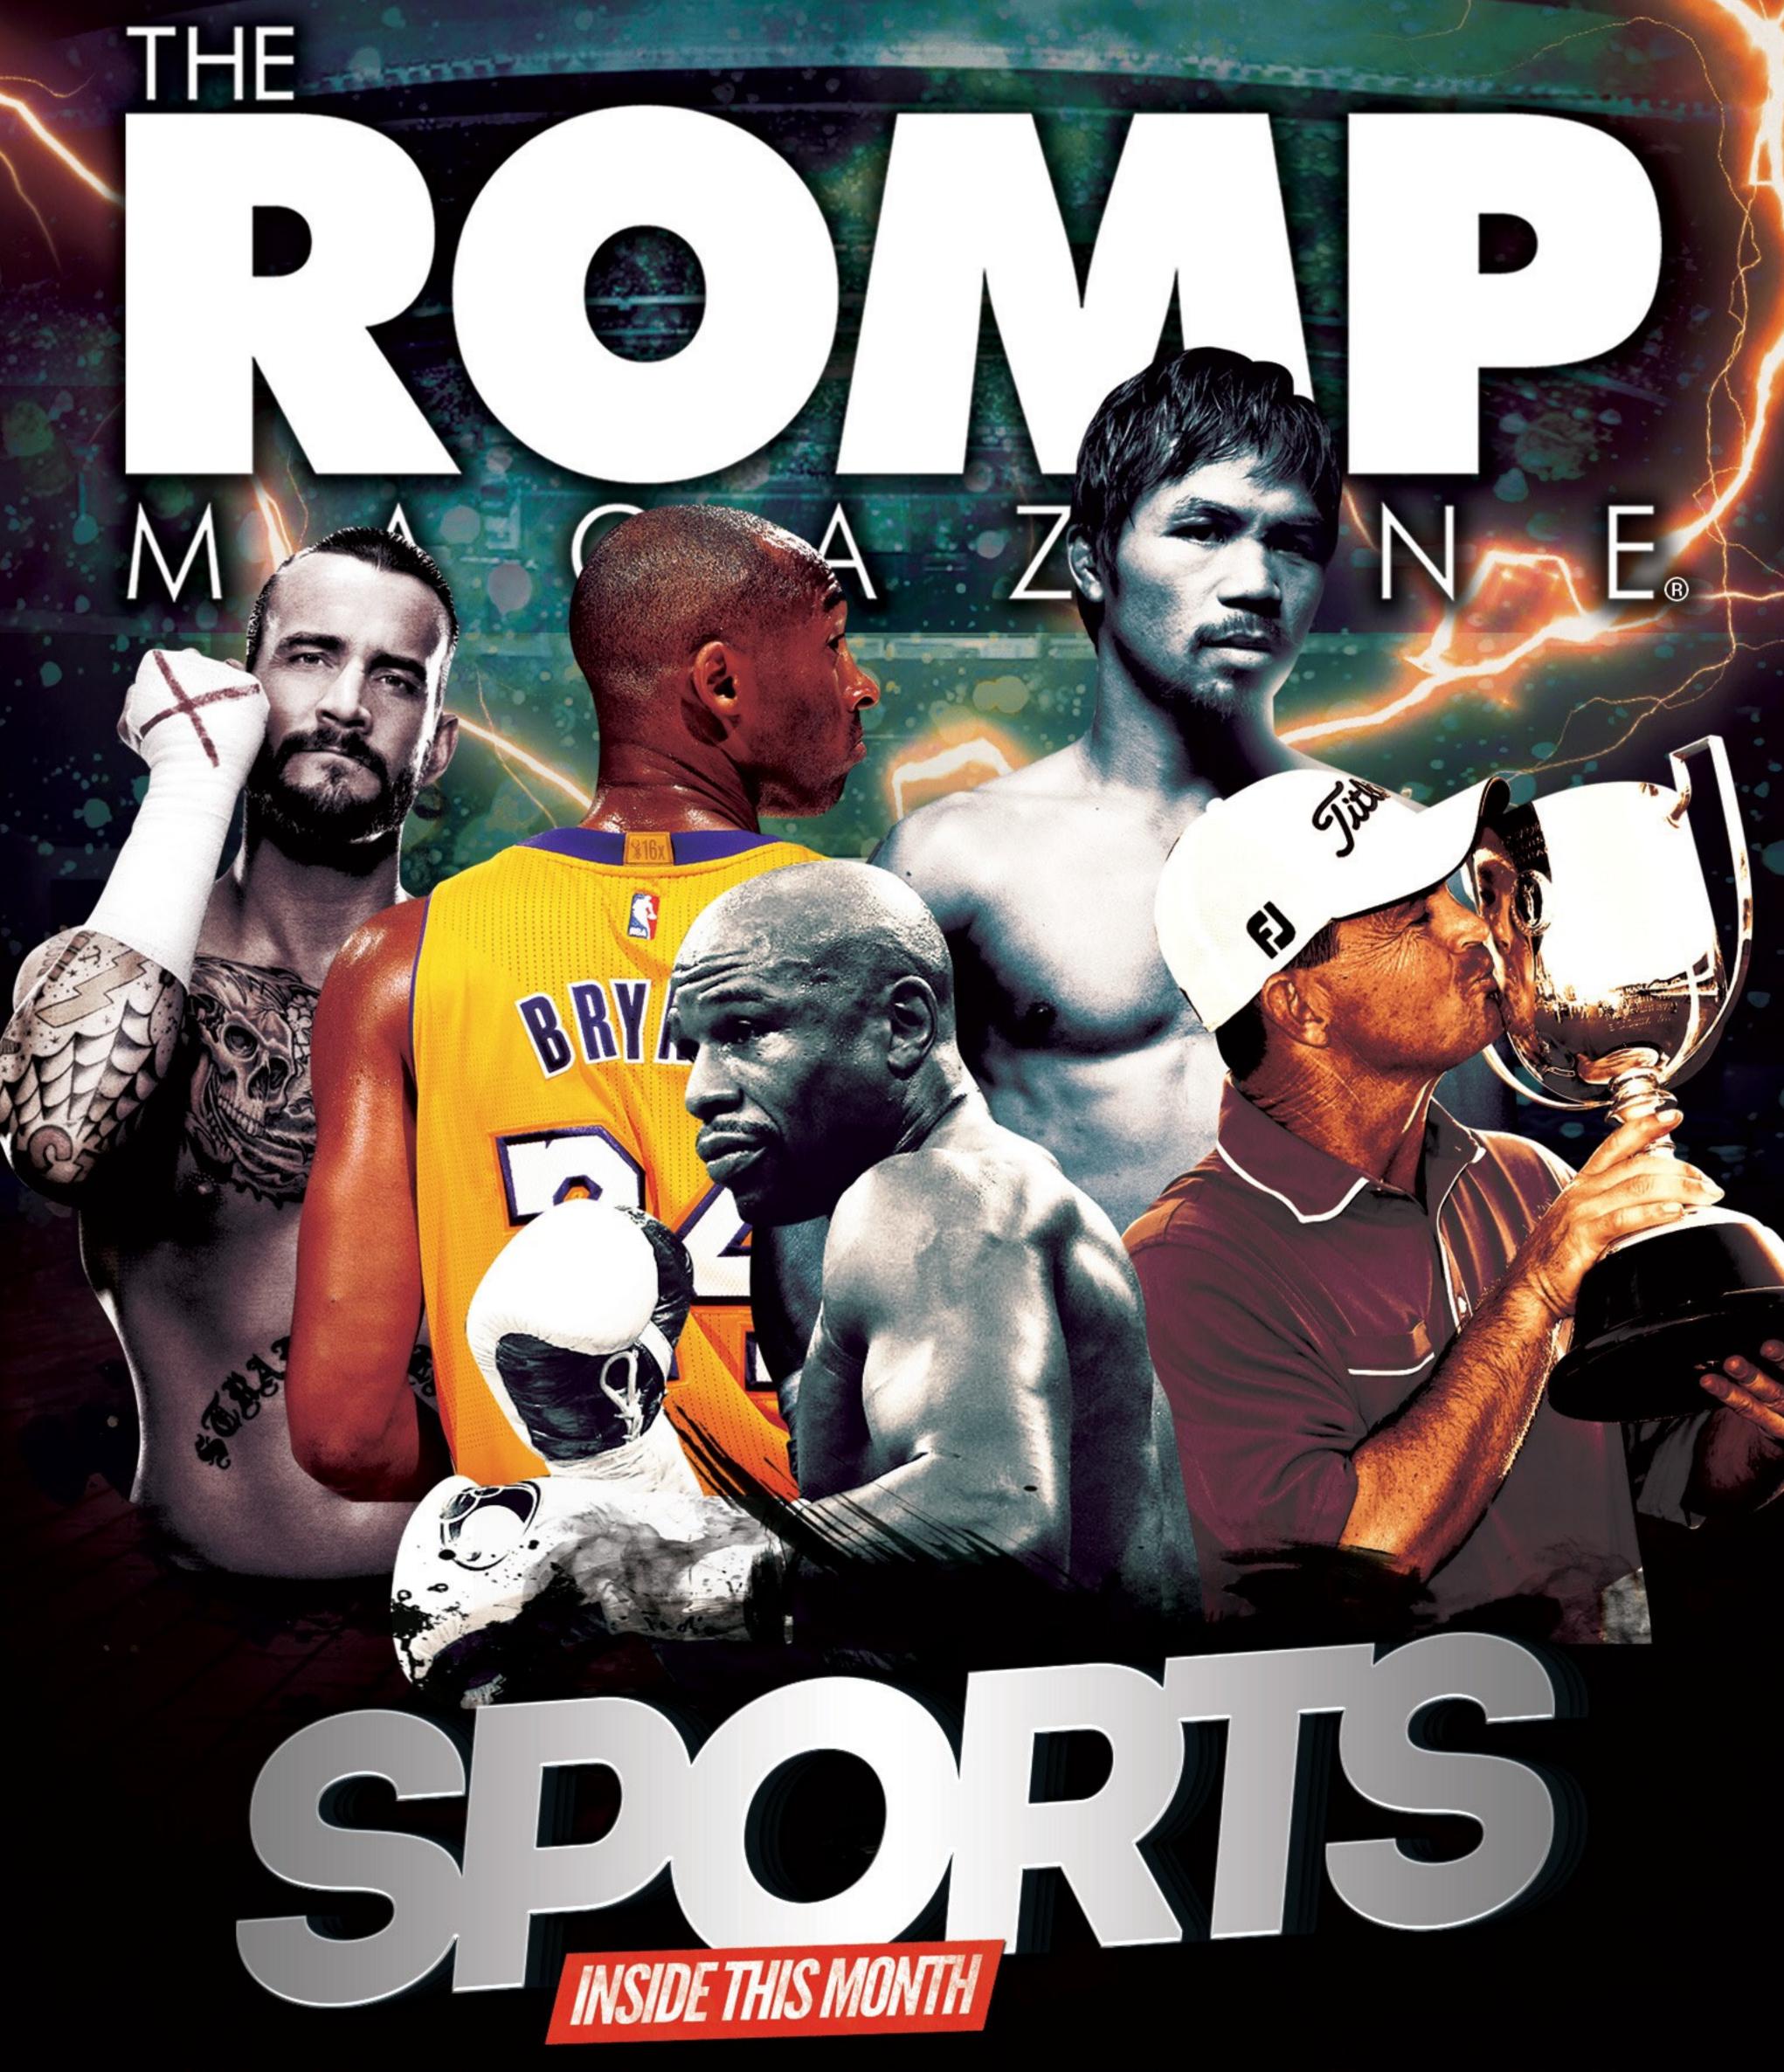

Eat clean, yoga, rest up and prepare all my bikinis! I'm pretty lucky to have a natural tan all year round so I don't have to run around and get spray tans or anything.

KOBE BRYANT II MAYWEATHER VS PAQUAIO GREG CHALMERS II CM PUNK

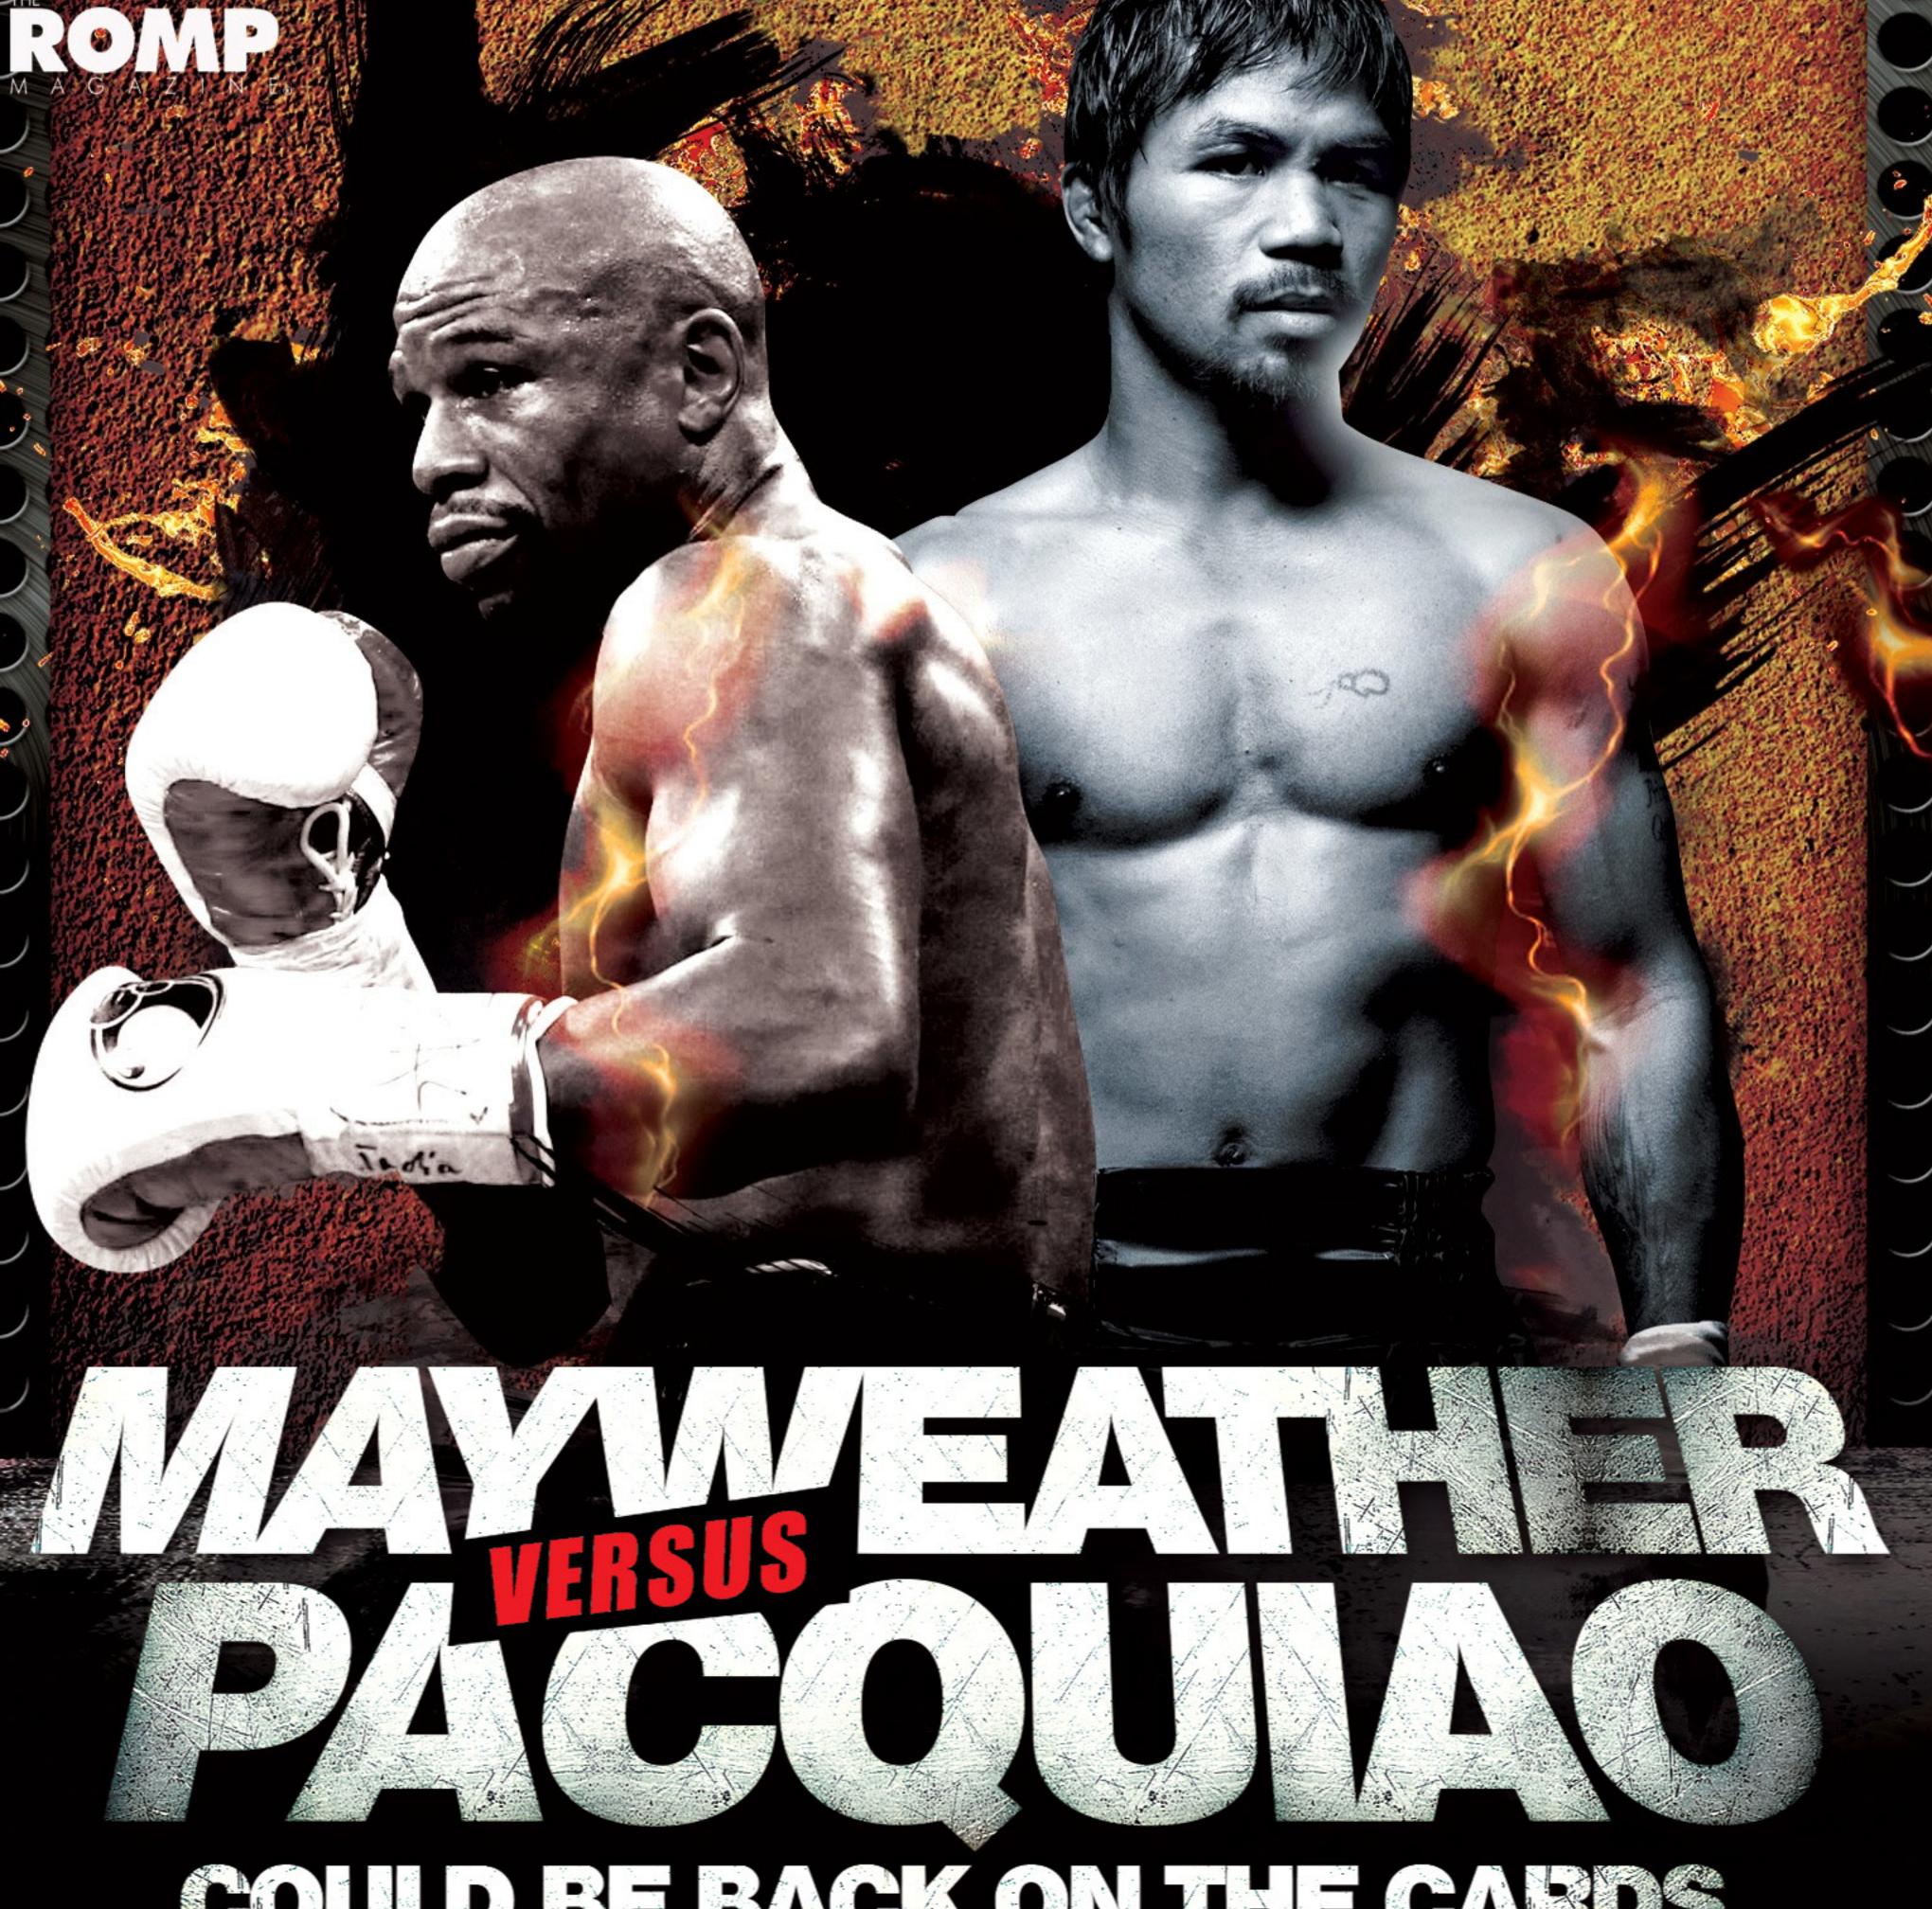

Greg Chalmers has won the Australian PGA Championship after a seven-hole playoff at RACV Royal Pines Resort on the Gold Coast.

Starting the day seven shots off the lead and not even in title considerations, the 41-year-old left-hander reeled off a tournament-low final round of eight-under-par 64, before taking down fellow leaders Adam Scott and Wade Ormsby in a thrilling finale.

The trio headed down the 18th hole three times before South Australian Ormsby dropped out of the race. It took another four holes before Chalmers emerged victorious with a par over Scott, who made bogey.

"It was an epic day," Chalmers said. "I honestly didn't think I'd be sitting here at this point today with the quality of the guys leading the tournament and doing well." Adam Scott was disappointed to have finished the year without a win on home soil.

COULD BE BACK ON THE CARDS

FLOYD MAYWEATHER JR. BROUGHT THE FIGHT WITH MANNY PACQUIAO, A FIGHT THAT THE BOXING WORLD HAS DEMANDED SINCE 2009, BACK INTO PUBLIC SPHERE DURING A RECENT SHOWTIME INTERVIEW. MAYWEATHER SAID THAT HE WANTED TO FIGHT PACQUIAO NEXT AND WANTS THE FIGHT TO BE ON MAY 2, DURING THE CINCO DE MAYO WEEKEND.

"WE ARE READY, LET'S MAKE IT HAPPEN, " MAYWEATHER SAID. "MAYWEATHER VERSUS PACQUIAO, MAY £2, LET'S DO IT." "YOU GUYS HAVE BEEN DUCKING US FOR YEARS," MAYWEATHER BOASTED. "WE'RE TIRED OF YOU GUYS FOOLING THE PUBLIC, FOOLING THE CRITICS."

However, Mayweather, 37, said that the fight would only happen if he receives a much bigger share of the purse than his opponent. Speculation that the fight is close to being made has been rife since Pacquiao

KOBE BRYANT RECENTLY SURPASSED MICHAEL JORDAN ON THE NBA'S ALL TIME SCORING LIST AND MOVED INTO THIRD PLACE BEHIND KAREEM ABOUL-JABBAR (38,387) AND KARL MALONE (36,928) IN CAREER POINTS.

THE 16 TIME ALL-STAR GOT OFF TO A SLOW START, BUT WAS STILL ABLE TO NET THE POINTS NEEDED TO SURPASS JORDAN'S RECORD BEFORE HALFTIME."

The Los Angeles Lakers star, now in his 19th season, passed the Chicago Bulls legend, and the player he has long been compared to, with a free throw in the second quarter against the Minnesota Timberwolves at the Target Centre. After reaching the milestone the game stopped briefly so Timberwolves owner Glen Taylor could award him the game ball. Minnesota fans gave Bryant a nice ovation as he hugged his Lakers teammates.

QUESTION

WHEN IS IT TOO SOON TO TRY AND STICK
MY FINGER IN MY GIRLS BUTT WHILE WE ARE HAVING SEX? WE HAVE BEEN DATING FOR A WHILE AND I WANT TO TRY IT BUT WITH OUT HER SCRATCHING MY EYEBALLS OUT

ANSWER

Every girl is different, and will like different things in the bedroom. Some more adventurous than others! Do not, I repeat, do not just decide to just stick it in next time you're behind her in the throws of passion! The best thing to do, especially if you value your eyes not being scratched out, is to just ask.

QUESTION

I EJACULATE TO QUICKLY WHILE HAVING SEX, I HAVE HEARD OF METHODS SUCH AS A SPRAY THAT YOU PUT ON YOUR PENIS AND TABLETS YOU CAN TAKE. DO THESE ACTUALLY WORK OR ARE THEY ALL GIMMICKS?

ANSWER

Unfortunately being a female and not having the same anatomy as yourself, I personally do not know if any of these methods work. I suggest doing your research before trying them though. There are many products on the market that claim they can make you last longer, whether they are legitimate or not is another question. Speak to your doctor about it, and they should be able to advise you as to what to do.

OUESTION

I FINALLY GOT MY OWN APARTMENT AND I INVITED A GIRL OVER TO HAVE A 1-NIGHT STAND, SHE NOW HAS BEEN HERE FOR OVER A WEEK AND THINKS SHE HAS MOVED IN. HOW DO I GET RID OF HER BUT STILL BE ABLE TO HAVE SEX WITH HER OCCASIONALLY?

Ladbrokes

TAP HERE TO PLACE YOUR BET