What's your favourite sport?

Basketball What team?

Lakers

What's your favorite movie?

They range from every good scary film ever (Conjuring, etc), to the girly movies like The Notebook and My Sisters Keeper. But you can't forget the classic Disney films like Lion King and 101 Dalmations. I'll never be too old for those!

Who's your favorite actor?

Anne Hathaway would be my favourite actress, closely followed by Rebel Wilson. My favourite actor is equal between Johnny Depp and Liam Neeson!

Who's your favorite artist?

At the moment it's between August Alsina and Trey Songz! What was your first ### job?

My first job was actually my favourite to date! I used to work part time at my mums pet shop. Good thing we lived on a farm due to the amount of rescue animals I insisted on bringing home!

Do you have any piercings or tattoos? How many and where?

I have my ear lobes pierced, and my belly button. But no tattoos!

What's one thing you think all men should know?

I think all men should know how to drive a manual! It's embarrassing to be the only person in the relationship who knows how!

What qualities drive you wild in a man?

Honesty, compassion and an animal lover! They're the key elements to driving me wild. If you only have eyes for one woman I'll respect you for ever. It's such a rare quality these days.

What's your idea of the perfect date?

Something simple, but memorable. Picnic with wine and a great view is absolutely perfect! I would much prefer something simple and private where you can be 100% yourself.

How do we win your heart?

You could win my heart if you make an effort, aren't a sleeze and have old school manners. Yes, I'm a sucker for guys that open the door for you, pull your chair out etc.

On an average Saturday night, what are you doing?

Since becoming a Playmate a number of my weekends have been taken up with club appearances. So my average saturday night usually consists of a movie, chocolate and a lot of sleep! I've really learnt to enjoy the simple things. #grandmaalert

If you could go on a date with one person, dead or alive, who would it be?

I would go on a date with Margot Robbie. I'd probably end up raping the poor girl. But seriously. I'm as straight as they get but that woman. Wowie.

Which physical feature do you most often get complimented on?

My nose actually, I'm constantly asked if it's real, yes it is. Over the past year I've lost count of the number of people taking photos of my nose to take to a surgeon. Start looking out for Sarah Harris nose clones!

How did you get started modelling?

I started modeling when I was a lot younger, but decided to stay focused on my education. After gaining a scholarship for Applied Science to Uni, I decided to dip my toes into modeling again. I met the editor of Maxim Australia and it snow balled from there. Wouldn't have it any other way.

Do you have a favorite behind-the-scenes story from a photo shoot?

Hahah. Yes! My first shoot for Playboy was at a remote location in the hills of Santa Barbra. I ended up spending half the day wrenching goats out of the make up artists Mercedes. They were rather interested in the makeup brushes. I'll never forget that shoot!

When do you feel sexiest? When I've got my hair tied back, trackies on, chilling at home.

What's the most memorable pick up line you've ever heard? "Are you the bakers daughter? Cause you're one cutie pie!"

What would your fans be surprised to know about you? Probably that I'm a weirdo lol. A lot of people are super surprised when they meet me. I guess people just presume I'm a shitty human being, stuck up and all the rest. NO WAY! Just to clear that up.

What do you feel most comfortable wearing? Nothing. Who ever said clothes were comfortable was a liar. Free the nipple!

Who is your favorite model?

Ellie Gonsalves, she's an Aussie actually. The only ever inspo I'll ever need! Closely followed by Rosie Huntington of course.

Aside from modeling, what are you focusing on these days?

I've actually recently started focusing on a new project I'm super excited about. I'm teaming up with a group of experts in the areas of health, personal development and psychology to develop an online course called preparetodate.com. I'm particularly excited for our workshops, later in 2015, where I will be personally helping students improve their confidence and dating techniques.

And, finally, what made you want join the GUYS family?

It's hard not to want to join the GUYS family! I love your mag for starters, and the caliber of women in your magazine month after month is amazing. I'm stoked to be among such stunning women, and what a great month to be on the cover since its GUYS birthday!! I'm super excited to be chosen for your birthday issue. Massive Happy Birthday to you guys!

> I am just a small town girl from Louisiana with big dreams that are getting accomplished each day. Growing up I never thought I would be where I am today, but with help from the mastermind BEANS I have far exceeded my expectations. He is truly a blessing to me.

What's your favorite sport?

My favorite music is rap. It just seems to cure any mood I'm in.

Who's your favorite artist?

I can be happy, sad or mad and I guarantee Kevin Gates will fix it all. He's my main therapist.

What's the most memorable pick up line you've ever heard?

He said, "Don't tell me if you want me to take you out to dinner. Just smile for yes, or do a backflip, handspring, dive roll, bridge kick into a front layout for no." And it worked, I smiled before I could even catch myself. What's your idea of ### the perfect date?

To me the ideal date isn't about the place or how expensive it is. A man who I can have fun with who makes me laugh and holds a solid conversation with me is pretty ideal.

How do we win your heart?

For a guy to win me over all he needs to do is show me affection. That being said, don't say cute shit to me 24/7, that is just annoying. Actions speak louder then words and if I'm picking up on the affectionate gestures than he must be doing something right.

On an average Saturday night, what are you doing?

I am usually relaxing with friends and a bottle of wine trying to recover from an exhausting week. My all time favorite place for girls night out is NOLA. You can't go wrong in a place that has everything you possibly need. It's always a crazy night in New Orleans, that doesn't really end until the sun is up!
How did you get started modeling?

My first time modeling was one of the best experiences of my life. I remember just being so nervous and anxious weeks before the shoot hoping I would do well. But of course my photographer is the best all-around which made it super fun and relaxing the second I stepped in the studio.

What would your fans be surprised to know about you?

I am a fruity drink kind of girl. Women are supposed to have feminine drinks, or maybe I just played to much beer pong and lost my taste for it.

Do you have a favorite behind-the-scenes story from a photo shoot?

On one of my more sensual shoots outdoors last winter this weird lady came up to me and started asking me if we were doing a porno and kept interrupting the shoot. Then she suddenly started attacking the photographer. I wanted to hit her myself and tell her to mind her own business, but I was literally freezing my ass off as I was almost fully nude and it was like -15 degrees. So I couldn't help him at all, I just stood there like a frozen icicle and watched. Crazv bitch.

Aside from modeling, what are you focusing on these days?

I am a hairdresser and a makeup artist. I also work out a lot.

What would your fans be surprised to know about you?

I love food, I eat all the time. That is just natural for me, but for some reason people always get surprised by that.

A little girl who built on big dreams and the struggle of stage fright. One day she was looking through magazines and thought, here is something I can do without having to be in front of an audience and still being able to share with the world her art. So she started with nothing but passion to drive her, working and creating day in and day out. Two, three, four photo shoots a day, fulfilling her long awaited ideas as well as others. Not long after people began to notice, and the publishings followed. #### What qualities drive you wild in a man?

The key things that get me are men who can appreciate a hard working woman without being jealous that they're not getting fed attention constantly and a guy I can bring around anyone (friends/co-workers/clients) and they can adapt well to their personalities without causing any ruckus.

Before I knew it I was getting published with all kinds of brands! Passion shows through everything. Do you have a favorite behind-the-scenes story from a photo shoot?

One of my first photo shoots ever, I was shooting in Venice Beach and decided to take a quick pizza break. Lately, tons! I overload my brain with the future, 24/7. Hoping to open my own business shortly, as well as go back to school to study in the medical field.

The importance of being a gentleman! Chivalry isn't dead. If you want your lady to act like a lady, you got to act like a good man!

What's your idea of the perfect date?

I like simple and thoughtful. My favorite date ever was heading out mudding in the sidebysides at night with tons of beer and tons of country music. For a first date, you can take me to eat steaks. I can't go into the bush with a man I don't know or maybe one of us won't be making it out of there.

How do we win your heart?

By taking care of the "blue zone". The blue zone is any man's job: making spaghetti, barbequing, fixing the house, shoveling the driveway. Things real men do!

On an average Saturday night, what are you doing?

It's either Girl's Night Out or Girls Night In!

If you could go on a date with one person, dead or alive, who would it be?

Burt Reynolds! I love that man.

Which physical feature do you most often get complimented on?

My eyes and my butt! What do you feel most comfortable wearing?

Denim shorts and a t-shirt, but I live in Canada, so I can only wear them a couple months out of the year! How did you get started ### modeling?

I answered an open casting call for a motorcycle club's calendar. I wasn't even one of the models picked originally, but I got called last minute after a last minute cancellation! Thank you to whoever that flake was!

Who is your favorite model?

Hard to pick just one!! I'll have to go with fellow Vancouver Islander, Pamela Anderson!

Do you have a favorite

behind-the-scenes story from a photo shoot?

I've never had anything too crazy happen to me on shoots but sometimes I have a hard time saying no to ideas from photographers and assistants. Twice I've ended up in freezing cold glacier-fed rivers or under waterfalls in the Canadian winter wearing nothing but my skivvies!

Aside from modeling, what are you focusing on these days?

Other than modeling, I'm working on growing my little business! I own a home services business that offers everything from housekeeping to senior companionship!

And, finally, what made you want join the GUYS family?

Love the magazine!! It has everything that a real guy would be interested in reading about, and it helps to be loaded with hot chicks!

What would your fans be surprised to know about you? That I'm a trivia champion! Don't let this face fool you, I'm the quiz master! If they ever have a Jeopardy: Models Edition, I'll be the first in line!

Selena Marie is a model and teacher from the Toronto area. She has her BA in Sociology and her Masters of Science in Childhood Education from D'Youville College, Buffalo, NY. She enjoys playing sports and staying active in her free time. She loves to travel and has been to places such as Australia, Asia and the Caribbean. Selena has experience doing all sorts of modeling; lingerie, glamour, editorial, swimwear and fitness. Whatever you throw at her she's ready to take on the challenge!!

What's your favorite sport?

I love all sports, but my ultimate favorite is basketball

What team?

I don't have a favorite team, I just love watching the games whenever I get the chance..... Or I guess I should've said Toronto is my favorite team to show them some love lol

What's your favorite movie?

Wolf on Wall Street, Love and Basketball, IT. I love all genres, just depends on the mood.

Who's your favorite actor? Leonardo DiCaprio for sure!!

What's your favorite song?

Anything by J Lo, Usher, anything with a good beat and you can dance to!

Who's your favorite artist? No favorite artist, if the song is catchy and I can sing along to it or dance to it, I don't care who sings it! Just please don't ask me to actually sing, Iol.

What was your first job?

Good old McDonalds, some of my best memories were made working there! I had so much fun!! Minus the Ronald McDonald pants, those uniforms are terrible!

Do you have any piercings or tattoos? How many and where?

I have 3 tattoos. One on each shoulder blade and one on my wrist. You'll have to see them for yourself.

What's one thing you think all men should know?

Do the small things; hold the door open, leave notes around the house, send a quick message to say you're thinking about her. Believe it or not the small things are what mean the most.

What's the most memorable pick up line you've ever heard?

I work in a bar on the weekends so I've heard them all. Word of advice for all you guys out there. Don't hit on the bartender, tell her she's the hottest girl in the bar, ask her for dinner, and then when she says no, pulls the same line on the next girl he talks too haha. We can hear everything you say regardless of the loud music. You aren't being smooth lol

What qualities drive you wild in a man?

Confidence, athleticism, someone who will challenge me mentally and physically (I'm not just talking in the bedroom, lol, but playing sports as well).

What's your idea of the perfect date?

Again there's no "perfect date" for me. I love going to sporting events, having a beer and eating a hotdog. Horseback riding will definitely give you brownie points, or spending the day outside going for a hike, hitting some baseballs etc. then having a nice dinner on a patio somewhere.

How do we win your heart?

The fun part is trying to figure that out ; )

On an average Saturday night, what are you doing?

I work 7 days a week and every Friday and Saturday I'm ensuring everyone is having a good time at the club and making memories they're probably going to forget the next morning.

If you could go on a date with one person, dead or alive, who would it be?

I would love to go on a date with Marilyn Monroe. I think she played the game perfectly and I'd love to pick her brain on how she became so successful.

What do you feel most comfortable wearing?

I've always been a tomboy, so gym clothes, sweats with an old sweater.

When do you feel sexiest?

I love doing photo shoots because it's amazing how some makeup and a hairstyle can create a different persona. I can be sexy in front of the camera whereas in real life I'm a little more shy.

How did you get started modeling?

I actually got asked on Facebook to do a shoot with a photographer who was known at the time but still creating a name for himself. He is now an internationally published photographer and after doing our first shoot and posting some pictures, I just started getting some requests from other photographers to do some shoots and it's been like that ever since!

Who is your favorite model?

I love Heidi Klume. She's such a natural beauty and a great role model as well.

Do you have a favorite behind-the-scenes story from a photo shoot?

I was doing a shoot with a photographer by the waterfront in Toronto. It was starting to get dark but we were in the zone and wanted to keep going. There was a unique area where there were all these tall grass and trees growing so we actually lined up our cars in the parking lot and turned the headlights on to get some light. It was insane how amazing the photos came out and you never knew the lighting was actually coming from the cars!

Aside from modeling, what are you focusing on these days?

I teach, so that takes up a lot of time. I love working out and play on a coed slo pitch team once a week as well. So I guess focusing on maintaining a healthy lifestyle, which can be tough when working 3 jobs lol

What would your fans be surprised to know about you?

I think they'd be surprised to know that I'm actually an introvert. When I'm working at the bar I'm really outgoing, but outside of that I'm pretty shy. You have to approach me first because I probably won't be the first one to talk. I've been told I'm a snob but that's the furthest thing from the truth.

And, finally, what made you want join the GUYS family?

I've heard great reviews from guys that I know who read the magazine. I think it would be a huge shock for them to actually see my picture in there as they're flipping through the pages!! I love how you guys aren't afraid to touch on topics that other magazines may not want to get into, kind of like the male version of Cosmo. And let's face it, you have hot models in your magazine, so I would be honored to be a part of the elite group of being a GUYS model! Xoxo Which physical feature do you most often get complimented on? My ass!

Nika Noble Photographer: George Duchatelier

What I can say about Nika Noble is that balance is what makes her tick. Life needs to have order, schedules and plans. Having things organized, not only helps achieve her goals but also helps with balance and peace. She doesn't let negativity burden her and keeps everything in perspective. She is goal oriented and focused on moving forward in life and being a stronger her. Nika isn't obsessed with her appearance because for her, beauty is more than skin deep. Candice Elizabeth is a 27 year-old Australian glamour/bikini model. Her social media pages have a following of over 60,000 fans – but it's her natural beauty that has bought her to our attention. Candice took out Playboy Miss Social in August 2014 and has appeared on a selection of men's magazine covers, had multiple magazine features, as well as won numerous online titles. When it comes to modeling, Candice says "redheads really do get a bad rep when it comes to physical attractiveness. I think that compared to blondes and brunettes we are discriminated against and I want to help change that! I think that it's important for people to learn that beauty comes in all shapes and sizes and that diversity should be celebrated." May 2015 will see her as competing in the International Swimsuit Centerfold competition in Cancun, Mexico, alongside 49 other bikini models, all hoping to snag the coveted title. Candice hopes that 2015 will also see her expand her portfolio and magazine publishes to help get her face and name out there and gain more international exposure.

Shiloh Fernandez. It'd probably be a massive fail because I'd just stare at him in silence whilst drooling, but it would be spectacular to gaze on his hotness in person.

Which physical feature do you most often get complimented on?

Depends if it is a male or female complimenting me! Usually it's my boobs (surprisingly this is most often said by females) and men will say eyes, whilst staring at my boobs.

What do you feel most comfortable wearing?

Sexy lingerie! Black lace and satin, Thigh high stockings, suspender belt and a pair of super high heels.

How did you get started modeling? I did my first photoshoot when I was studying drama at university. I wanted to get some photos so that I could apply for student films and doing extras work. I loved it! It wasn't until I quit teaching in 2013 that I decided to give modeling a go.

Who is your favorite model? Tiah Eckhardt.

Do you have a favorite behind-thescenes story from a photo shoot?

I did a beach shoot where the photographer and HMUA were calling me Emma Stone, people kept stopping and staring, obviously thinking they were seeing someone famous.

Aside from modeling, what are you focusing on these days?

Acting, it's hard to find time to get involved in projects since I work full-time and also do weekend work, but I love acting! It's where my passion originally lies.

What would your fans be surprised to know about you?

I am one of 6 children, a regular Brady Bunch with 3 boys and 3 girls! And, maybe not so surprisingly, I'm the poor forgotten Jan haha!

And, finally, what made you want join the GUYS family?

I came across the GUYS on Facebook and recognized many familiar faces gracing the pages. I loved the women that they featured and how the celebrate the female form in a sexy (not smutty) way and really showcase a diverse range of beautiful women.

I worked at a Dunkin' Donuts when I was 16. It was also the worst job I ever had, I got fired within two weeks for refusing to wear the proper uniform.

What's the most memorable pick up line you've ever heard?

On the beach, in broad daylight!

My college career and really just having fun, enjoying my 20's and living my life to the fullest.

Bachelor Pad Do's and Don'ts, as seen through the eyes of women

S MEN WE SOMETIMES LEARN BEST FROM OTHERS MISTAKES. Your High School Shop teacher, Boy Scout Troop Leader, or Driver's Education instructor told you stories that still won't leave your memory [but have probably prevented you from losing a finger or totaling your car]. The information you are about to read is intended to empower you about what the expectations/hopes of women are when visiting your bachelor pad.

Bachelor Haus has enlisted the assistance of Nikki Cole and Paige Hudson to share their experiences of what they've seen, smelled, and loved when visiting a guy's bachelor pad. Both of these highly successful models want to impart their experiences to help boys grow into men when it comes to their bachelor pad.

What's the worst thing you've ever seen in a Bachelor Pad?

Nikki... Throw up down the side of the toilet. I know bachelors like to party, but come on! That is completely disgusting, (and?) made me wonder how long it had been there! Bathrooms are always important to women, what are the areas that gross women out? I am a super clean freak with my bathroom, toilets, showers, mirrors, counters, etc, but the most important thing that needs to be cleaned are the areas where you clean yourself! Shower and sink are a must for me.

Paige... There was garbage and dirty dishes everywhere in the kitchen; it looked like nobody has picked up anything in weeks. The smell and flies were the worst part. Toilet. Importantly, there's nothing worse then using a toilet that it is blatantly obvious it hasn't been cleaned in weeks.

June 2015 GUYS187

BachelorHAUS

When it comes to a guy's bedroom, what type of expectations do you have?

Nikki... I've dated guys who have very well decorated bedrooms and others who are very minimalist. As long as there is not a pile of dirty clothes on the floor I'm a happy girl.

Paige... Always make sure the bed is made, it only takes 30 seconds in the morning and it will help make the room look that much cleaner. Its always surprising when you find a decorated bedroom, it shows you care about your sanctuary (where you sleep) And you don't want it to appear as if your mother or ex-girlfriend decorated for you, so try to keep it masculine looking.

When a guy's cooking dinner for a date for the first time, what expectations does she have?

Nikki... To me there is nothing sexier than a man who can cook! When a guy cooks for me I always expect a good hearty meal. I don't know why, but I always feel men should be great at cooking meat and women should be good at everything else. Dinner doesn't have to be perfect, but the thought and a bottle of wine make a huge impact.

Paige... The attempt in making a nice romantic dinner in itself is charming. Pick out a favorite dish of yours and show a little bit about yourself. Double check with your date on allergies, what they don't eat and serve their favorite drink! That always helps a meal go down no matter how it tastes.

What's the most impressive thing you've ever seen in a Bachelor Pad?

Nikki... A CLEAN bachelor pad!! That is so impressive to me when it smells good and is clean. It is especially impressive if the nooks on the side of the toilet are clean, that is HUGE!

Paige... The view! It was gorgeous, overlooking all of Beverly Hills, I fell in love instantly

What advice would you give to a gentlemen on what you would want to see, or what would really impress you?

Nikki... There are so few men that are real gentleman anymore. I am huge on a women being equal, alternating who pays etc, but its really nice for a guy to do little things like open the door for you or hold your hand while walking. I like a guy who can take the lead without being too independent, that is really impressive! Trust and confidence are also extremely important.

Paige... Listen to what she tells you. It's the little things that you remember that will grab her attention. She mentions she loves dark chocolate, or really loves animals, well next date, you are showing up with some treats and a planned day to the local zoo. I love when my special someone remembers those small details about me.

Men, if you have any of the issues above, you now know what women think. If you're planning a dinner you know the expectations, and if your not doing it already...start making your bed! It's the little things that all add up to something larger.
