Who  your favorite actor?

Burt Reynolds! I might have a teeny bit of the hots for him.

What's your favorite sport?

NFL Football! Even though I'm from Canada, I just can't get into that CFL!

What team?

New England Patriots!

What's your favorite movie?

I'd say Drop Dead Gorgeous. Best ever 90's movie. You need to watch it!

What's your favorite song?

Wrecking Ball by Eric Church or Let a Little Love In by George Jones

Who's your favorite artist?

If we're talking singers, Waylon Jennings or Johnny Cash. If we're talking painters, my fave is Jackson Pollock cause he has that wild, IDGAF style that I love.

What was your first job?

McDonalds! I started working there when I was 15. It was the hardest job I've ever had in my entire life! One time a lady threw her Filet O'Fish burger at the back of my head because she didn't WANT me to bring out her fries to her once they were done, she wanted her entire value meal at once. I don't think I've ever cried more at a job.

Do you have any piercings or tattoos?

How many and where?

I don't have any tattoos yet! I have virgin skin. I do have a few piercings left! I have my nose and my belly button still.

What's the most memorable pick up line you've ever heard?

Hey! I'm heading outside to make out, care to join me? This is kind of a lie because I didn't hear it from a man, I said it myself to a man. It's one of my standard pick-up lines! Feel free to borrow it.

What's the most unusual place you've ever hooked up?

Ohhhh... hmmm.. I would probably say while on a hike in the woods.

What's one thing you think all men should know?

The importance of being a gentleman! Chivalry isn't dead. If you want your lady to act like a lady, you got to act like a good man!

What's your idea of the perfect date?

I like simple and thoughtful. My favorite date ever was heading out mudding in the sidebysides at night with tons of beer and tons of country music. For a first date, you can take me to eat steaks. I can't go into the bush with a man I don't know or maybe one of us won't be making it out of there.

How do we win your heart?

By taking care of the blue zone. The blue zone is any man's job: making spaghetti, barbequing, fixing the house, shoveling the driveway. Things real men do!

On an average Saturday night, what are you doing?

It's either Girl's Night Out or Girls Night In!

If you could go on a date with one person, dead or alive, who would it be?

Burt Reynolds! I love that man.

Which physical feature do you most often get complimented on?

My eyes and my butt!

What do you feel most comfortable wearing?

Denim shorts and a t-shirt, but I live in Canada, so I can only wear them a couple months out of the year!

How did you get started modeling?

I answered an open casting call for a motorcycle club's calendar. I wasn't even one of the models picked originally, but I got called last minute after a last minute cancellation! Thank you to whoever that flake was!

When do you feel sexiest?

When I'm leaving the gym after putting in a solid workout. I feel so sexy and healthy!

Who is your favorite model?

Hard to pick just one!! I have to go with fellow Vancouver Islander, Pamela Anderson!

Do you have a favorite behind-the-scenes story from a photo shoot?

I've never had anything too crazy happen to me on shoots but sometimes I have a hard time saying no to ideas from photographers and assistants. Twice I've ended up in freezing cold glacier-fed rivers or under waterfalls in the Canadian winter wearing nothing but my skivvies!

Aside from modeling, what are you focusing on these days?

Other than modeling, I'm working on growing my little business! I own a home services business that offers everything from housekeeping to senior companionship!

What would your fans be surprised to know about you?

That I'm a trivia champion! Don't let this face fool you, I'm the quiz master! If they ever have a Jeopardy : Models Edition, I'll be the first in line!

And, finally, what made you want join the GUYS family?

Love the magazine!! It has everything that a real guy would be interested in reading about, and it helps to be loaded with hot chicks!

What qualities drive you wild in a man?

Confidence and a sense of humor. If you can make me laugh, I'm yours!

What's the most unusual place you've

Johnny Depp

What's your favorite song?

Shooter girl.

Do you have any piercings or tattoos? How many and where?

I have 8 piercings, all in my ears and I have 7 tiny tattoos in all different places.

What's the most memorable pick up line you've ever heard?

Once someone asked what I did as a job and I said "Oh I model" which their response was "Well I'm not a photographer but I can picture you and me together" He got points for the quick response and wit but cheesy chat up lines are such a cringe and turn off haha.

What qualities drive you wild in a man?

HUMOUR! A guy has got to have a wicked sense of humour, being able to be silly, down to earth and not take yourself seriously is so attractive.

What's your idea of the perfect date?

I like any date where the other person has put a lot of thought into it or it's a surprise! But I have always wanted a beach date with a meal, drinks, and candles all over, a real soppy romantic scene. I've never had that, so it would be nice for change haha!

On an average Saturday night, what are you doing?

At the moment my Saturdays consist of lying in a glass box, half naked, at the front of a club that I work at, giving drunk people the shock of their life when they realize it's an actual person in a box.

If you could go on a date with one person, dead or alive, who would it be?

Johnny Depp! Such a cool guy, he gets better with age and he's an intelligent guy who could hold a decent conversation and switch to being Captain Jack Sparrow any time he likes!

Which physical feature do you most often get complimented on?

My smile! I have a huge joker style smile which, weirdly, people always comment on.

What do you feel most comfortable wearing?

Nothing! Far too comfortable being in the buff.

What's your favorite sport?

I love watching MMA, but if I was actually playing the sport would have to be kickboxing.

Who's your favorite actor?

Jennifer Anniston (the woman I would turn for as well).

What's your favorite song?

Right now its Losing It All by Anberlin

Who's your favorite artist?

It's a tie between Queen, Anberlin and Mayday Parade but I guess they're bands so it doesn't count.

What was your first job?

McDonalds! I lasted not even 2 months.

Do you have any piercings or tattoos? How many and where?

I have my nose pierced and belly button. A full sleeve on my right arm and a terrible tattoo of a star on my hip (of course that had to be my first and worst).

What's the most memorable pick up line you've ever heard?

"Oh you're a mum?! That's sick, I'm gonna be a dad, in like, a couple months, I totally wanna make out with you." "umm dude go home to your pregnant Mrs."

What's one thing you think all men should know?

To make it known to their lady how much they love and acknowledge everything they do and to definitely make their woman feel sexy.

What qualities drive you wild in a man?

A man that knows how to take control. There's nothing more sexier than when a guy is being a MAN.

What's your idea of the perfect date?

As long as there's a great conversation, I'm laughing and having a great time, I could honestly be taken to McDonalds for all I care. I don't need to be wined and dined.

How do we win your heart?

Find a penguin that I can cuddle and I'm all yours.

On an average Saturday night, what are you doing?

Laying on the couch in my underwear, eating pizza and watching the American Bachelor. Saturday nights are pretty wild for me.

If you could go on a date with one person, dead or alive, who would it be?

Bradley Cooper, just so I could stare at him.

Which physical feature do you most often get complimented on?

My eyes get a lot of compliments

How did you get started modeling?

I actually started when I was 14, I was entered into a competition and won. I did other shoots after that and I loved how much fun it was and always came back to it.

Underwear, but that's not very practical.

What is your favorite food?

My favorite food is Sushi or Vegetarian Pasta. I don't eat meat or dairy, I do eat fish and eggs though.

Do you have any piercings or tattoos?

How many and where?

Yes, I used to have A LOT of piercings but removed pretty much all of them. Including my ears, belly button, eyebrow and yes, my lady friend. I am also covered in tattoos, I have both my sleeves done and now I'm working on my back. I'll probably stop there though. Don't want to lose my femininity.

What's one thing you think all men should know?

Treat ALL women with respect. It will get you far in life. Starting with your mother! A woman looks at your relationship with your mother, so she can get a better understanding of how you would treat her.

What qualities drive you wild in a man?

I like guys who are genuine, a little shy but still confident in who they are. I like a guy who is intelligent and humble. I'm also a big sucker for facial hair and tattoos. I tend to fall for guys who are really into me, so if you play the not so interested game it's most likely it will backfire and I will lose interest in you.

What's your idea of the perfect date?

I like adventure, take me somewhere I haven't been before. I'm more of a day person than a night person, dinner gets boring. I would prefer a picnic in the park during the day over an expensive dinner at night, then take me some where fun, a water park, zip lining, hiking or cruising the beach on beach cruisers anything that gets my adrenalin pumping.

How do we win your heart?

Honestly all women love a gentleman, small things like opening car doors, pulling her seat out, offering your jacket when it's cold. It's not much for a guy but to a girl it means a lot and it never goes unnoticed. It will definitely set you apart from the rest.

On an average Saturday night, what are you doing?

Sitting on my couch, in my sweatpants watching a movie with my dogs

Which physical feature do you most often get complimented on?

My smile or my tattoos. Guys tend to use my tattoos as a way to start up a conversation with me but most people comment on my smile.

What do you feel most comfortable wearing?

When I'm at home I'm in my underwear and a tank top, when I'm out I'm in denim shorts, converse or sneakers and tee. I don't dress up much, makes me feel uncomfortable. You could say I'm a tomboy. I have a huge sneaker collection but only own 2 pairs of heels. Lol

What do you miss most about Australia?

Great white sharks, crocodiles, funnel web spiders and brown snakes. Lol NOT!!!

When do you feel sexiest?

When I'm in front of a camera, it's a way for me to express my emotions and that's when I feel sexy.

How did you get started modeling?

I was scouted by a photographer on the beach in Australia, he took some photos of me and they ended up on the front cover of Maxim magazine, shortly after that I won Australia's hottest bikini model in 2007. I've been modeling now for 13 years!!

Who is your favorite model?

Everyone is unique in their own way, but I'm obsessed with actress Jessica Alba. She is by far the most beautiful woman I've ever seen.

Do you have a favorite behind-the-scenes story from a photo shoot?

One time during a photoshoot, a bunch of fans turned up, the photographer couldn't get the photo she wanted because they were all just standing there staring. She was constantly telling them to move out of the background but they wouldn't, it was kinda funny. I've also had a wave crash over me at a beach shoot and I lost a bag full of all my belongings including wardrobe, shoes, make up and my iPhone, that photoshoot ended quickly.

Aside from modeling, what are you focusing on these days?

I'm focusing more on myself, spiritually. Finding out who I am and what I want in life.

What would your fans be surprised to know about you?

I grew up in the country, in a very small 3 bedroom cottage with a family of 7, We would go fishing, camping, climb trees and had go-carts, I actually had a pet chicken. Very different from the life I live now. But wouldn't have given it up for anything in this world. It made me who I am today. I appreciate so much more.

@macaflocka

Aside from modeling, what are you focusing on these days?

Studying Orthopedic Surgery at the University of Florida.

What would your fans be surprised to know about you?

I have a phobia of wet paper. As ridiculous as that sounds

And, finally, what made you want join the GUYS family?

What the magazine represents. They know how to embrace a woman's body and treat it as it should be, like art. And I want to be a part of that movement

I was born and raised in Reading although I'm half Portuguese, quarter Greek and quarter English. When I'm not working hard I spend my time making and customizing my own clothes, going on random adventures or simply lounging around watching my favourite shows. I'm currently in the crazy world of childcare and throwing myself into new experiences because it's all a part of finding myself. I'm pretty much winging it through life. Aren't we all?

What's the most unusual place you've ever hooked up?

In the woods in the middle of the day. Sorry mum, Marbella fever!

What qualities drive you wild in a man?

Humour, silliness, ambition and fantastic at cuddling. A man who doesn't take himself too seriously. Looks are also a win but I find people 10% more attractive when they're funny.

What's your idea of the perfect date?

I'm not one who needs to be spoiled, a night in or table for 2 is right up my street.

How do we win your heart?

Respect me and I'll respect you. Oh and food.

On an average Saturday night, what are you doing?

Probably partying somewhere or spending quality time with my favourite people.

If you could go on a date with one person, dead or alive, who would it be?

Nick Bateman (look him up) seriously, you won't regret it.

What do you feel most comfortable wearing?

Honestly, absolutely nothing! The second I know I'm alone it all comes off. I've had to do a few risky sprints down the hallway when the house isn't empty though. Nature girl over here.

When do you feel sexiest?

Those matching underwear days. We all know those kind of days don't we ladies.

How did you get started modeling?

I was introduced to a fantastic photographer, Glenn Wallace (Creative Instincts) who was prepared to get me out of my comfort zone and saw something in me that I never saw in myself. He is truly an amazingly talented man. I still don't know how he coped with me for a whole day.

Tips on creating a playlist for any event with the help of DJ [S]

A great party has several characteristics. Your guests, food, location, and music. Of all these variables you have the most control over the music. With today's technology of being able to access music, build play lists, and use portable speakers having great music at a party shouldn't be a problem. However, it is. As easily accessible as music is, often it becomes the last item people think about when they plan a party, and most hosts only think about it the day of their party.

We've enlisted the assistance world renown DJ [S] Heavygrinder and KATFYR to learn from them how you can create a great play list for your next party. This advice should also be used for creating a play list for when entertaining a date at your bachelor pad.

Here are some thoughts from our DJ [S] on what to consider.

1. Pick songs that fit the context of your party

Even if all your friends are into EDM, that doesn't mean you should be blasting drops left and right, disrupting conversations and risking an accidental rave at your place — those tend to get messy and ruin your furniture. Try to be eclectic, yet exciting, and never forget to be considerate to your guests and the social gathering you're hosting.

2. Throw a few wild cards in there

You know that one track by that electro-pop Japanese bedroom producer you love so much? Your friends probably don't. Play a few of those obscure, yet enjoyable, tracks in your mix. You might end up introducing your guests to a whole new world of music — and if they don't like it, at least you get to play it loud for yourself!

3. Pick at least one timeless hit

What better way to get some momentum going — when you're already 4 hours into your party — than a sudden Bohemian Rhapsody or Don't Stop Believin'? No one can go through those without joining in.

4. Create some dynamics

Regardless of the kind of gathering you're hosting — unless the President is coming — you should ensure your playlist has a flow. Cluster a few upbeat tracks together to create some energy, but don't forget to taper it down into a more relaxed mood after. Do this a few times over the span of your party and you're on your road to playlist-making success!

Heavygrinder and KATFYR kept it simple, but equipped you with knowledge on creating that masterpiece playlist for any event at your bachelor pad.

Paris Chanel

Photographer: MUSE Publishing  @themusepublishing

23 year old international model Paris Chanel is the type of woman that leaves a lasting impression. Currently traveling around the world shooting for her latest projects in Cancun, Miami and Los Angeles, she is taking the modeling industry by storm. Reminiscent of Iman and Tyra Banks in their supermodel days, most people would agree that she's gorgeous, but after spending just a few minutes with the 5'8" beauty you begin to realize there's so much more to her than meets the eye. We sat down with Paris to talk about being a self-proclaimed nerd, swimming with piranhas and what life is like from her eyes.

What's the sexiest gift you've given someone?

I gave a guy a Rolex watch. I think that's pretty sexy lol. Can't beat a Rolex.

Paris, where are you from originally?

I'm from Memphis, TN.

What's your regimen for staying in shape?

I drink as much water and juice that I can on a daily basis. I also eat a lot of tilapia or salmon and shrimp light Caesar salads. I do my sit-ups and run on a few miles on the treadmill from time to time. I won't pretend like I'm a health freak lol, but I do keep myself together as much as possible.

What new projects are you working on?

I am working currently on putting together some Cosplay shoots. I really want to get more into the Cosplay world, because I do have an inner geek inside of me. I am also working on enhancing the beauty and bridal portions of my portfolio. Continuing to get published is a huge part of what I am doing now as well.

What do you do to stay cool during Memphis summers?

I stay in the house (laughs). My family and I travel to different countries or other states and enjoy water parks or beaches to cool off.

What do you think is most sexy about yourself?

My intellect. Most people look at my images and think that my body is all that I have to offer, but once they hear me speak about a topic that I am passionate about, they have an entirely different perspective of who I am.

What's the craziest thing you've ever done?

I swam with sharks, stingrays, and piranhas. I was definitely afraid the entire time.

Tell us something men don't know about women?

Some men are so insensitive to women's feelings that it's almost like they don't realize that we are a lot more sensitive than they are. Despite how hard we try to act, in the inside, we care way too much about more things than they do.

What's one thing no one knows about you?

I am a hopeless romantic.

If you had to cast someone else to play you in a film about your life who would it be?

I would cast Brandy Norwood. She is like the exact person that I am. All my life I have been told that we look just alike. I can relate to her on a lot of things as well.

Who inspired you coming up in your modeling career?

I was inspired by Naomi Campbell. I always thought she was absolutely fierce. I was also a huge fan of Tyra, because she was Victoria's Secret Angel and that has always been a dream of mine.

Which piece of men's clothing is the most important?

A tailored suit is the most important. There is nothing like a man in a nicely fit suit.

What's your best piece of advice to men?

Treat your lady like a queen, because please believe that another man will.

What's your best piece of advice to women?

Ladies cook for your man and don't be boring. If you aren't giving him what he needs, he will go and find it elsewhere.

Do you have any plans to travel this year?

I plan to go to Miami as my last out of town trip for 2015, but I plan to have many more exciting vacations like a trip to Australia in mind for 2016.

What's your guilty pleasure food?

My guilty pleasure food has to be shrimp. I love shrimp. It's the key to my heart lol.

Can you tell us about your best modeling experience yet?

The best modeling experience that I have had to date was in Cancun. That was my first time modeling out of the country and the love I received was indescribable.

Where do you go to meet people and be social?

My friends and I usually go to karaoke nights, and we make tons of new friends there.

What's a day on the job like for you?

It's getting hair and makeup done and getting straight to shooting. Some goofy moments in between time are important. I love to keep a fun atmosphere around me.

Where do you see yourself in 5 years?

I see myself owning my own modeling agency and marketing firm. I also see myself as a financial analyst.

What's the sexiest thing a guy can do without realizing it?

A guy that tells me I'm beautiful every day and a guy that opens doors.

What's the most beautiful thing about you as a person?

I believe the most beautiful thing about me is how humble I am. I am also very giving. I just want to see us all make it.

What's on your agenda for 2015?

My agenda is to get published in more magazines like FOR GUYS, GQ, Esquire, and FHM. I also want to be the face of a major hair care or makeup line.

And lastly, can you tell us a joke?

When Susan's boyfriend proposed marriage to her she said: "I love the simple things in life, but I don't want one of them for my husband."

Tell us three things
no one knows about you?

I can draw. I used to play chess.
Last, I want to one day own a monkey (please don't judge me). I am a true animal lover.
