Ø Your family background :

My family consests of the 6 of us. Mom, Dad, myself (19years of age), a 13year old sister, 11year old brother & the youngest being my beautiful 3 year old sister. I have spent most of my life out in the country as my parents own a small OAD dairy farm just out of wanganui. Growing up out there you learnt what it meant to work for your money, there was always plenty to do & if you were willing to go work you'd get paid. Dad is kept busy on the farm, while mom & the kids help out Mom is also a personal trainer, which has been a huge help to me in this industry!

Ø How they help you in modeling career P My family have been so supportive from the get go, they push me to aim high & dream big, becauseif you work hard enough for it, it can become your reality. Just having them there supporting me is a huge help knowing they are there to back me.

8 Any special childhood prank or memory : A childhood memory i have always remembered would be when i got given my first "big girl" bike. I was told to go & shut the cows in after milking, as i was walking to the paddock to close them in a see this bike just sitting near the gate, so i close the cows in & run back to tell Mom & dad what i found only to be told that was my new bike! So off i went back to the paddock to get my new "big girl" bike. haha

I stayed at highschool untill i had NCEA level 2 & decided school wasn't for me. I knew i wanted to be a hairdresser so i graduated at the end of 6th form & began my hairdressing Career at the age of 16. I am now only a month away from sitting the finals for my qualification. Ø How you became a model, how did you experience the first job you did as a model? I competed in a few pageants when i was 10 years of age & then again when i was 15. But didn't think to much of modelling at the time, it wasn't untill a friend of mine approached me to model for her to help build her photography porfolio that i found a passion for this industry. I was so nervous as i had never looked at myself as a model, but the final images made me persue modelling further & i have not yet looked back.

Ø Why did you choose this line ?

I have a passion for the industry, i hairdress full time, model part time & in my spare time i do hair & make-up for photographers & other models. To me it isn't work, i love doing it, it is a passion i thrive on.

B Your Inspiration : I find my inspiration in other models, i follow alot of kiwi models as i admire that they have done what i want to do. They have started from a small town in little New Zealand & made a name for themselves not only locally but nationally.

Ø Projects you have worked in : I have been a promo model for the Drift comp for both 2014 & 2015. I have also done Stock car team champs in Palmerston North & D1NZ in Manfield.

Ø Recent projects : I just recently competed bikini comp 2015 & have been selected as a finalist for the next round in Taupo. I have also just done a commercial shoot for NSD clothing (a local clothing brand).

Ø Put these factors in order of importance for becoming a successful model: The right looks, hard

I would go Hard work, The right looks, Luck

Ø What's been the best moment of your life ? The best moment of my life was when i was 16 years of a age, i was on my way to my dreamk job & starting out in the fashion industry, working in a salon & conmpeted in the regional hair comp's & placed!

8 What would want in the afterlife? This is a hard question as i don't believe in the afterlife, so it's not something i've given alot of thought to.

If not modeling ,what would u hv done ?

I only model part time so I am very lucky I still get to hair dress also, so I guess I would just be in the salon hairdressing more.

In my wildest dreams i would love to be an international glamour model, gracing the covers of magazines in your local book stores, walking the cat walk with the victoria secrets models.

Ø Hidden fear :

I have a fear of the dark, i dont know if it's to many scary movies or what, but have never been a fan of the dark.

Ø Hidden talent: i can change car tyres on my own in less than 15minutes!

Ø What is the sexiest part of your body ?

The sexiest part of my body would have to be my booty! Ø Your first kiss ?

I was 12 when i had my first kiss & i remember being so grossed out by his breath it put me off.

QSTRA QUEST

- YOUR FAMILY BACKGROUND: Chinese-American

- HOW YOUR PARENTS HELP YOU IN YOUR MODELING CAREER ?

Not having parents, I come from an unconventional family. I was raised by my Chinese grandparents, along with my aunts, and uncles. Although they are not supportive of my modeling career, they have accepted it, some have even embraced it as an opportunity for better things to come. I hope to show them someday that modeling can be more than a hobby, but for now, I'm happy just living my passion

I'm happy just living my passion. - ANY SPECIAL CHILDHOOD PRANK OR MEMORY ?

Growing up, during my awkward teen years, I was teased with the nickname, "It" (amongst others) which tormented my self-esteem well into my adulthood. Here I am, a mom that's a model and now I laugh as I think about who's "It" now.

- EDUCATIONAL QUALIFICATION ?

Business Major with a focus in Marketing & Advertising - HOW YOU BECAME A MODEL, HOW DID YOU EXPERIENCE THE FIRST JOB YOU DID AS A MODEL ?

I started modeling in the Spring of 2014, after I discovered The International Bikini Model Search through Facebook. I placed in the top 5 during a regionals competition in Las Vegas. This launched my modeling status through social media, where I began promoting my life through pictures. Networking online has landed me many jobs, as well as introduced me to some of the industry's finest individuals.

AQSTRA CHICS

WHY DID YOU CHOOSE THIS LINE:

This industry chose me. For years, I would attend auditions and casting calls, only to be rejected time and time again. As I approach age thirty, I'm stunned by my own modeling success story, which is attributed to patience, determination, and believing in a dream.

- YOUR INSPIRATION:

I became a model because of my daughter. I want to leave her a legacy that she can be proud of and to give her the courage to do anything her heart desires.

- PROJECTS YOU HAVE WORKED IN:

Since launching my modeling career, I have been involved in several projects throughout the southwest, from being a spokesmodel and promotional model to a brand ambassador at events.

- RECENT PROJECTS:

I was recently a brand ambassador for the Service First Merchandise booth at the Night Club Bar Convention in Las Vegas. This event introduced me to an array of service industry executives who are always seeking models, and has landed me additional branding work for a liquor distributor at UNLVino. ¬ WHAT'S BEEN THE BEST MOMENT OF YOUR LIFE:

The best moment of my life thus far, happened on New Years Day when I married my best friend and our family became complete.

- WHAT WOULD YOU WANT IN THE AFTERLIFE:

I want to see my family in the afterlife, happy, healthy, free of stress, and at peace.

→ IF NOT MODELING ,WHAT WOULD YOU HAVE DONE ?

I would have loved to pursue an acting career, however the great unknown had other plans for me. I am first and foremost, a parent. Parenting is a full-time job, being a mom that's a model is a career. My impression on others, including my daughter, is necessary for my future success. I always have to set an example, but alas I am human, I make mistakes, yet I learn from them. I've learned in this last year that modeling is not forever, but the lasting impression on a child is.

- WILD DREAM:

I would love to become the next Lucille Ball. I want to comfort the world with laughter.

- HIDDEN FEAR:

There is a magnet on my fridge that relates to this, it reads: "Seen it all. Done it all. Can't remember most of it." In summary, I'm afraid of losing my memory completely. ¬ HIDDEN TALENT:

I can make my pectoral muscles move one at a time and simultaneously. I refer to them as my mesmerizing mammaries

- WHAT IS THE SEXIEST PART OF YOUR BODY:

My smile is the sexiest part of who I am, it never fails me, because it's true.

¬ YOUR FIRST KISS:

This happened 15 years ago, all I remember is that it was wet, weird, and felt naughty.

¬ FIRST CRUSH/LOVE:

I never kiss and tell, but I will admit that I'm a huge fan of James Bond.

¬ DEFINE LOVE IN YOUR WORDS:

Love is one's inner-strength to never surrender. It encompasses my soul to be better than I was the day before. I believe that it is the infinite source of all positivity in life.

MESSAGE FOR YOUTH AND FRESHERS IN THIS LINE:

The world is full of negativity, don't let it negate your life. Strive to be the best of all the rest. Set a goal, achieve it, rant about it, and do it over again. Be yourself. Believe in your dream.

LASTLY, WHAT DO YOU THINK OF MODELZ VIEW MAGAZINE & MODELZVIEW.COM ?

I think Modelz View does an amazing job at representing both newbies and veterans in the modeling industry. They take consideration in each and every issue, making sure to correlate both the look of the models and the photographers style. Keep up the great work Modelz View :) I'm very excited to be featured in this publication.

Your family background : I'm an Airforce brat. I never went anywhere cool internationally though. Poop.

How your family help you in modeling career Well my mom is a photographer/model and I used to pose for her for certain projects growing up. She also occasionally takes some of my photos if I beg. Haha

Any special childhood prank or memory : I convinced the children in one of my neighborhoods that if they dug deep enough we'd get to the center of the earth where dinosaurs still roamed.

☑ Educational qualification : BA- Theatre; Acting for the Camera from the University of Nevada Las Vegas

➢ How did you became a model, how did you experience the first job you did as a model? I did it on and off when I was a teenager, however I never took it as serious as I probably should have back then. Because of my height I didn't think I could be a "real" model. My mom's 6'1. I did not get that gene, so I felt it was unrealistic. Besides I've always been more focused on acting so it wasn't such a heartbreak.

☑ Why did you choose this line ? Originally it came from a business point of view. It's more prevalent in Vegas than acting so I figured why not. I ended up enjoying it a lot.

Vour inspiration : Michael Jackson. I loved his performance energy. That guy knew how to entertain a crowd.

➢ Projects you have worked in : Nike Footlocker Commercial, Models For Mutts Fashion Show, Good Will Blue Party, We Never Let Go music video by Stone Paxton.

☑ Recent projects : I modeled for a new Gym supposedly coming out later this year called Exec fit. I've also done a few runway shows for two rave lines; Conspire and Eclectic Soul Apparel.

☑ What's been the best moment of your life ? Oh gosh. I don't even know. There's a lot of life I really enjoy.

☑ What would want in the afterlife? Family and Friends, happiness and harmony. Something similar to earth but without all the horribleness. ☑ If not modeling ,what would you have done? Acting, which is still a huge priority for me.

☑ Wild dream: Becoming a Kung Fu Master/star. I always loved Martial Arts movies growing up.

➢ Hidden fear : I always feared that if I ever somehow made it onto America's Next Top Model Tyra would chop off my hair. I actually auditioned this past season. I didn't get it, but in the application there was a question on fears. I totally put something else for fear I'd get hired for that reason alone. Haha

Hidden talent : I'm not sure I have a hidden talent. I usually like to express the ones I have. What is the sexiest part of your body? I say my stomach. It's pretty sweet.

Your first kiss ? When I was five this kid kissed me on the cheek. I remember running into the house crying.

PHOTOGRAPHY : MICHAEL W. BISHOP

➢ First crush/love [♀] My first crush was in 3rd grade on this boy named Ryan. He was my beastie. One day when he wasn't at school I remember writing in the sand at recess, "I like Ryan." I then turned around. Turns out he came to school late that day. He looked so upset and stomped it out. I remember chasing after him saying, "It's a friendship like!"

Define LOVE in your words. It's commitment. And not just physically, but mentally and spiritually. You have to be willing to go through the ups and downs, forgive and learn. FAVOURITES

Lastly, what do you think of Modelz View Magazine n Modelzview.com ? It's awesome! It's a great source in discovering new/upcoming talent. I'm honored to have been chosen to be a part of it's legacy.

 9 Your family background: Scottish, Irish, Ukrainian, French.
 9 How they help you in modeling career ? My family does not support my modeling career unfortunately, although they will admit they like some of my work. My family background has given me a unique mix of different ethnicities.

Any special childhood prank or memory ? Special childhood memory would have to be when I visited Walt Disney World in Florida when I was ten years old.

8 Educational qualification: High school Diploma, college credit in Psychology, and college certificate in Animal Care.

Ø How you became a model, how did you experience the first job you did as a model? My first photo shoot took place because I had contacted a photographer that shot in my hometown Oshawa. He took a look at what photos I have previously had taken from one of my good friends that owned a decent camera at the time. I instantly knew after my first professional photo shoot that this was what I was meant to do.

8 Your inspiration: My inspiration comes while I am having a great workout at the gym feeling very motivated and pumped up. Having a great workout to me is the best way to start off my day with a fresh inspirational mindset.

8 What's been the best moment of your life P The best moment of my life is a hard one to pick from, there have been many. My best moment of my life was when I visited the Cayman Islands back in 2012 when I was 17 years old. This was by far a trip of a lifetime and I would do anything to go back! The island truly is paradise. I basically lived the life of a local because my mom's boyfriend owns a condo on the island because he owns a store there as well and travels there frequently.

Ø What would want in the afterlife? In afterlife all I would ever hope for would be to reunite with all of my loved ones. And to finally have the feeling of never feeling stressed, sad, or angry.
 Ø If not modeling ,what would u have done ? If not modeling I would probably of went back into Dance or even possibly be doing volunteer work somewhere at an animal hospital.

8 Wild dream: My most wild dream I have ever had I was partying with the whole cast from "This is the End", this dream happened directly after I watched the movie so it was fresh in my head and pretty damn realistic and hilarious/scary at the same time.

9 Hidden fear : My hidden fear that most people would have in common is actually ghosts. I really have a feeling that they are a real thing and have made me fear the dark for years.

9 Hidden talent : My most hidden talent would have to be that I am an amazing actress, not many people know that I used to study at a performing arts high school and have won awards in the past in drama class for the highest achieved marks!

 What is the sexiest part of your body P: I would have to say that the sexiest part of my body is my eyes. This is because of how vibrantly blue they are, I have been told that they are sexy eyes.
 Your first kiss P: I can hardly remember my first kiss, this was probably because I was only 10 years old!

8 First crush/love ?: My first real crush/love was a guy I met and dated back in grade seven. We dated until I was in grade 12.

with whom and how you are celebrating this valentine ?: I will be celebrating this Valentine's day with my boyfriend more than likely just relaxing having a beer, cuddling, and having some romantic time after!

Lastly, what do you think of Modelz View Magazine n Modelzview.com ?

I think that they are a very well known magazine that I could see myself successfully working with.
