→ Any special childhood prank or memory: As a child, My family would gather for our 'Sunday' festivities. Gatherings in honor of birthday's and holiday's. All my friends and cousins would come over, and we would play games outside, games such a freeze tag, and riding bicycles. My childhood best friend, Barbara, we would always team-up and never tag each other. Except one time when I couldn't tag anyone else. I told her "sorry cuz" i have to tag you. So, I warned her that I was going to chase her now, then, as her response mechanism she meant to turn around and run, but she turned around and ran into a car and chipped her tooth. It was quite funny, especially because right after we gave her milk hoping it would fix it. haha good times xoxo

→ Educational qualification: Bachelors in Economics

→ How you became a model, how did you experience the first job you did as a model? I never considered modeling, I was too short I thought, In fact, I still think I am too short. Yet, I have succeeded in modeling. It all began when I was a young girl. I was working at the mall in Las Vegas in a popular retail store. One day, In November. I still remember (lol), this gentlemen came in as he was shopping for his wife. We chatted and got to know one another during his time in our store while he shopped for some blouses. He mentioned that he works in Las Vegas and knows many models and people in the industry. I told him again my thoughts. "That I wasn't tall enough" He told me that 'I was unique' and that I could model because of my 'look'. He gave me his business card and told me he knew a few people that could help me out and it went all down hill from there :)

→ Why did you choose this line ? I don't believe in luck. I feel that when an opportunity comes you either take it or you don't. & life is too short to miss any opportunities. I chose this line because it contains a broad demographic with a niche which I favor. I want something that does not discriminate and is for everyone. Yet, unique and selective. Thats whats adds value. I enjoy it because its tasteful. With that being said, I think that it was a great fit. I am a proud exotic mix and very unique. Therefore I feel that my multicultural background is an asset I can use to unify a community or cyber-community at that.

- Your inspiration: My mother
- Projects you have worked in: My projects are infinite. Currently, I have been working on a few websites that I would want to sell later in the future.
- Recent projects : I recently competed in a Beauty Pageant in Nevada.
- What's been the best moment of your life ? The best moments are usually on Sundays, when my whole family is at home and we act like dorks on purpose. We act silly, laugh and have a good time. Oh and we make funny videos!
- What would want in the afterlife? I want to be able to have sex! -Seriously
- If not modeling ,what would a hv done ? I have been working in the Service Industry in Las Vegas, networking and meeting all sorts of fun and exciting people. I recently applied to UCLA and was accepted to UC Santa Barbara. I enjoy studying and learning new cultures and there roles in our global economy.
- Wild dream: My wild dream is to be a strong successful business woman who is so smart and talented that i don't have to do anything because everything takes care of its self. Then I wanna dedicate all my time to helping others.
- Hidden fear : I always say that there is nothing to fear but fear its self. But to be honest I would be so afraid if losing my mother.
- Hidden talent : Motivational speaking
- What is the sexiest part of your body ? - My Lips
- Your first kiss ? My boyfriend in 9th grade named Brian
- First crush/love ? This boy in 2nd grade, at recess this boy you should chase me but then one day he gave me a flower and it was weird because I liked him but I was so mean to him.
- Define LOVE in your words . Love is accepting someone for who they are in totality, believing in them, being of use for them, helping them and completely respecting and honoring them.

Q Your family background : Born in Donetsk, Ukraine to an alcoholic mother. Took care of my younger sister. I didn't know that one of my neighbors was my older sister until I was about six years old. When I turned ten, our mother passed and we were sent to an orphanage where we were separated until our adoption into an American family, with a slight special needs daughter whom they'd already adopted from Russia.

Q How they help you in modeling career ? They are very supportive and encourage me to go after my dreams.

Q Any special childhood prank or memory : The best memory was when we were traveling to the USA, we stopped in Amsterdam for a couple of days. Amsterdam is so gorgeous and full of friendly people! I loved it! Being adopted was a lifesaving experience.

Q Educational qualification : Psychology major

Q How you became a model, how did you experience the first job you did as a model? I started when I was asked by a photographer friend to model for a shoot. I accepted and he kept pointing out that I was a natural. At first I did not believe him, but chose to try modeling for fun. As I learned more about the industry, I started to take it more and more seriously. My dream is to be the most petite (shortest) model on the runway. Some may say it's aiming high but if I'm not aiming high, where am I aiming?

Q Why did you choose this line ? I very much like the photographer's work!

Q Your inspiration : He is the creative mind behind the shoot. I simply brought clothing suited to my taste. Blue and black are two colors of choice for me.

Q Projects you have worked in : I've worked with print lifestyle, fashion, bikini and some glamour magazines; several music videos; I am in one movie called Pain and Music and am currently shooting for filming one called "I'm Doin' Me"; I'm constantly involved with charitable fashion shows and will be competing in the Mr. & Ms. 7 Cities, May 31. From which the proceeds will go to the Marching Elites Drill Team, a team dedicated to bringing positivity and focus to young kids; I've also been featured at several night clubs with my model partner Tanya.

Q Recent projects : I am constantly shooting and networking. My friend and I just shot for a great themed series called "From the East with Love".

Q Put these factors in order of importance for becoming a successful model: The right looks, hard work, luck. Hard work, looks, luck.

Q What's been the best moment of your life ? Moment? Not one. My entire life has been a wonderful experience of self discovery and exploration! What could be better?

PHOTOGRAPHY : RIAY GAMBOA

Q What would want in the afterlife?

If there is one, I'd want eternal happiness and peace. No anger, no worry, no pain.

Q If not modeling ,what would u hv done ?

Probably gotten more into real estate.

Q Wild dream:

When I was a little girl, I had a dream that my [diseased] mother was wearing my night gown. I assumed it meant it was my time to go also. Very funny.

Q Hidden fear :

Not hidden but I have arachnophobia.

Q Hidden talent :

I'm a pretty good painter. Which most don't know about me.

Q What is the sexiest part of your body ?

My eyes.

Q Your first kiss ?

I was 12 at a summer camp in Ukraine. It was kind of awkward but I enjoyed his company. I never told him he was my first kiss.

Q First crush/love ?

Crush? Oh, I was boy crazy! Which crush? lol. My first love I'd say is my husband. I've never had the connection we have and he is very supportive of everything that I do. Unless, of course, it's unhealthy. We have a bond you cannot possibly describe in words.

Q Your family background :

I am an only child. I have a large family on my dad's side most of which I haven't met and on my mom's side I have a very nice small family. I am a huge daddy's girl and he taught me to be very driven and on my mom's side she's very artistic and creative so I learned a lot of that from her.

Q How they help you in modeling career ?

They are good role models. My father helped by teaching me the meaning of hard work, and taught me how to accomplish something. My mom showed me how to be creative and different from others and showcase my abilities.

Q Any special childhood prank or memory :

Just as a kid remember being a little booger. I remember when I first got into wrestling and my very first show my dad took me too-my favorites were at the time stone cold and billy gunn; well I had a license plate I was holding up and my dad thought I had my middle fingers up being that I was only like 9 I didn't understand a middle finger lol...

Q Educational qualification :

I actually am a go-getter. I was a licensed EMT for four years, and also have gotten my associates in fire science. I was always receiving honors throughout high school too J

Q How you became a model, how did you experience the first job you did as a model?

I actually was always told I was ugly..and as I got older I started to bloom lol I was asked by a photographer to do a shoot and at first I was nervous because I really didn't think I was pretty or wasn't sure I'd even like it-in the end I loved it and thought the pics came out very beautiful.

Q Why did you choose this line ?

I chose modeling because it was something everyone told me I wasn't pretty or good enough to do, and honestly I wanted to prove them wrong. Aside from that I had an abusive ex who took me away from modeling for over a year and I was determined to get back to it because it was calling me-it was then that I realized this is a true passion for me and something I love whole-heartedly.

Q Your inspiration:

I have no one inspiration. I'd have to say my inspiration comes from wanting to be something more in life and be the most I can be.

Q Projects you have worked in:

I've worked on my small projects with many photographers. I currently work as a spokes model for Brew City Wrestling.

Q Recent projects :

I've recently worked as an extra for two episode of Chicago PD TV Show, and one episode of Chicago Fire TV Show. I also took part in Mon Petit Belly Dancer Fashion Show.

Q Put these factors in order of importance for becoming a successful model: The right looks, hard work, luck – Hardwork, The right looks, luck

Q What's been the best moment of your life? I don't think I have one single moment, and I say that because all the opportunity I have to follow my dreams, the people in my life, people that I've meet, family and friends I have, those are all amazing moments.

Q What would want in the afterlife? To be happy and not stressed. To know the people I care about are well taken care of and also happy.

Q If not modeling ,what would u hv done ? Firefighting without a doubt. Its my other passion and a huge family that I'd be proud to be a part of.

Q Wild dream- To be a top model and have life still be simple, but not have to struggle. To be young girls idol and make a difference for the better in the world I

Q Hidden fear : Of not accomplishing what I set out to do, so in a sense failure. Also ending up homeless it terrifies me.

Q Hidden talent: I am extremely talented...all around....

Q What is the sexiest part of your body ? My Abs lol followed by my bootay I'd say :)

Q Your first kiss ? Was in second grade....it was young and a very silly thing..happened out behind my dads shed lol.

Q First crush/love? Sadly it was a security guard my dad had hired lol

Q Define LOVE in your words . When you care for something so much nothing else matters. You'll do whatever it takes for that person or thing.

Q Message for youth n freshers in this line ? Please follow your dreams, and don't let anyone stop you or belittle you. You have what it takes inside you to accomplish any and everything you want. No one but you controls your destiny-work hard and know things don't come easy.

Q Your family background :
persian/romanian.

Q How they help you in modeling career ?
supporting me and giving me great advice.

Q How you became a model, how did you experience the first job you did as a model?

I started working with cali miles & bombsquad , I auditioned and got in !:)

Q Why did you choose this line ?

Being that I had no experience with modeling I did not just want to start on my own, so what could be better than joining a group of girls that are chasing the same dreams.

Q Your inspiration :

Bianca Dragusanu

Q Projects you have worked in:

Many photoshoots with a lot of different photographers including jarette howell, kalen , nick means, jason heath etc , Ray jr music video , publication in gauge magazine, miss around the corner, and hosting and promoting clubs in cleveland area every week.

Q Recent projects :

Submission to modelz view and an upcoming publication in a magazine in Miami

Q Put these factors in order of importance for becoming a successful model: The right looks, hard work, luck

1.luck 2.hard work 3.the right looks

Q What's been the best moment of your life ? Probably my childhood, being that I lived in a totally different country, I did not have access to too much technology which gave me time to concentrate and be happy with the people around me.

Q What would want in the afterlife? I would just want happiness but the kind of happiness that comes from the inside not by materialistic things.

Q if not modeling ,what would u hv done ? Probably motivational speaking.

Q Hidden fear : My hidden fear is that I always wonder where my life is going to be in the next few years.

Q Hidden talent : Can speak spanish, romanian, and little bit of farsi .

Q What is the sexiest part of your body ? boob/ butt

Q your first kiss ? I was in 4th grade, this kid that has always liked me just kind of stole a kiss from me (I wasn't very happy).

Q first crush/love ? William Levy, when I was younger I would always watch spanish movies and he was in a lot of them, I would never let myself miss any episodes that he was in.

Q Define LOVE in your words . When you simply do not care about what circumstances one puts you through, at the end of the day, you still got eachother, in my case that's only my parents haha.

Q Message for youth n freshers in this line ? Be careful, there will be a lot of people trying to take advantage so keep a good head on your shoulders, know what you deserve and always opt for better, this kind of job is not all about just being the prettiest, you kind of have to be "people smart" and know how to approach situations.

LAUREN LEOLA

Q Your family background: I come from a large-ish family. I have one older sister and 4 younger half-siblings. My parents got divorced when I was very young, but I attribute this to making me the independent person I am today.

Q How they help you in modeling career?: Contrary to the Cinderella story of an evil-stepmother, my stepmother has been the most supportive in my career choices and with modeling. She has always been there to bolster my confidence from a young age.

Q Any special childhood prank or memory: At my preschool graduation, each child put their dream job on a little necklace to wear as they crossed the stage. My necklace read "supermodel."

Q Educational qualification: I'm currently pursuing my bachelor's degree, double-majoring in Journalism and Apparel Merchandising. I intend to continue with a master's degree.

Q How you became a model, how did you experience the first job you did as a model?: I was scouted by a mother agency while in middle school. They helped me begin developing the skills necessary to modeling. Throughout my teens, I was sporadically picked up to do small jobs, such as a mini-marketing campaign for a local St. Louis boutique, or helping build the portfolio of a friends photography business. About a year ago I decided to take matters into my own hands and pursue modeling a bit more seriously and with more intent. I'm happy to say that taking that risk has paid off and become rewarding in many ways.

Q Your inspiration: I'm very much inspired by art and fashion. I love looking at Renaissance era paintings and fashion magazines for ideas for shoots and poses – they're totally different mediums, but just as rich in inspiration.

Q What's been the best moment of your life?: Every moment that I've taken advantage of. I think many of us wait for "best" things to happen, but every moment can be the "best moment" if you make the "best" of it.

Q What would you want in the afterlife?: I'm not a religious person, but I am spiritual. I don't necessarily believe in afterlife, because I believe our soul lives on after "death." All I want in life after my soul parts from my physical being is love and continuous development of self.

Q If not modeling, what would you have done?: Modeling has been a great experience for me, and I intend to continue to pursue it for the foreseeable future. In the next few years, I'd also like to begin pursuing a new phase in my career. Using both of my majors of study, Apparel Merchandising and Journalism, I hope to build a career in fashion communications. Ultimately, I'd like to gain in-field experience and also attend grad school. I'd love to become a professor one day.

Q Wild dream: No dream is that wild, to me. Often things are easier to achieve than one thinks. However, in simpler terms, my wild dream involves seeing the world – but I've already begun putting this dream into action!

Q Hidden fear : I try to avoid fear. It only gets in the way of me achieving my goals.

Q Hidden talent: I have a few card tricks that I perform at social gatherings.

Q What is the sexiest part of your body?: My legs, long and lean.

Q Your first kiss?: I was 13 and in middle school gym class. The boy I liked, named Kyle, had silky, dark hair and bright, green eyes. I had no idea the kiss was coming and was in mid-laugh. It was sweet and innocent – everything a first kiss should be.

Q First crush/love?: My first love was such a great learning lesson. It ended in a broken heart, but I still wouldn't give up the experience. I learned a lot about life, men, and feelings through that relationship.

Q Define LOVE in your words: Love is infinite and should be shared as much as possible. Love everyone and everything and love will come to you.

Lastly, what do you think of Modelz View Magazine n Modelzview.com ?

Modelz View Magazine is sexy and fun. The talent is amazing.
