→ Your family background :

My Family is from the Bay Area. Born and raised. My dad although was born in Nicaragua and moved to San Francisco in his early teens. I take pride in where my family comes from and hope to visit Nicaragua one day.

→ How they help you in modeling career ?

My family is so supportive in all my dreams and ambitions. I just finished my 4th season with the San Francisco 49ers as a Gold Rush Cheerleader and my family was and still are my biggest fans.

→ Any special childhood prank or memory :

Best memory would be everyday after school my cousins and I would walk to grandmas house until our parents could pick us up from work. We would get bored so we would try and do anything to keep us busy. One day we decided to pull all the fence planks off the nails, grab my grandmas clean sheets and make little Indian Tipis out of them. Needless to say we were resourcefull.

→ Educational qualification :

I have my Degree in Diagnostic Medical Sonography.

→ How you became a model, how did you experience the first job you did as a model?

My 1st photo shoot ever was with the 49ers. I have never been in front of camera in that kind of setting before and when the calendar came out I was hooked. I knew this what I wanted to pursue after dancing.

→ Why did you choose this line ?

I chose this line because after searching many, many, many companies I really came to respect and admire this line. I wanted to be apart of it.

→ Your inspiration :

My inspiration is myself. I am my biggest critic. I want to top the last thing i just did very time. i never want to settle.

→ Projects you have worked in :

I have been apart of 4 49ers Gold Rush Calendars, currently a Wicked One model and have shot with various local photographers in the greater Sacaremento and Bay Area.

→ Recent projects :

Recently I was just in a 6 page spread in a Magazine. It was huge because outside of the 49ers this was the next biggest thing I've done.

→ Put these factors in order of importance for becoming a successful model: The right looks, hard work, luck:

1. Hard work is #1. you can't get anywhere without putting yourself out there. No one is going to push you harder then yourself. 2. Luck would be 2nd only because in the end you can only hope for the best and wish you are what they are looking for. 3. The right looks I'd say be 3rd because I can't tell you how many times I've sweet way my talked through job opportunities, getting out of a ticket or waiting in line for too long without an once go makeup on. Its all on how you present yourself and if your'e an approachable likable person.

→ What's been the best moment of your life ?

The best moment in my life hands down would have to be the day I found out I made the team for the 2011-2012 49ers Gold Rush. That moment changed my life forever and all the things I got to experience, amazing people I got to meet and being able to say I danced for the best team in the NFL is indescribable. I was in for an experience of a lifetime and I knew it.

→ What would you want in the afterlife?

I would want to eat an abundance of food and not get fat. I think that's every woman's dream.

→ If not modeling, what would you have done ?

I would want to open up my Autism Youth Football Camp. I currently work with children right now that suffer from Autism and I want to be able to give back.

→ Wild dream.

My wildest dream would have to be me on stranded on a desert island with men that have beards and man buns. It's my weakness and they'd be all for myself. I'm not one for sharing men or food.

→ Hidden fear :

My hidden fear is tan lines. I LOATHE tan lines. I tan so easily so I'm constantly making sure my skin is seamlessly one beautiful shade of bronze.

→ Hidden talent :

I'm a phenomenal parallel parker. I give myself mad props and have taught many family and friends my skills. I've got handles, just saying.

→ What is the sexiest part of your body ?

Sexiest part I'd say is my booty. Us Alfaros pride in ourselves with what my Grandma and God has blessed us with. I work hard though to keep up with it. It's not easy by any means.

→ Your first kiss ?

My first kiss was in 7th grade and it was the most awkward experience of my life. It was during passing periods and our friends were pressuring us to do it so I just pulled him in and instead of having this movie moment I planned we smacked our faces together barely touching lips to lips.

→ First crush/love ?

My 1st crush was in kindergarten and I remember thinking to myself he looked exactly like the kid from Terminator. I was knee deep infatuated with that kid.

→ Define LOVE in your words .

LOVE is farting in front of one another and not caring.

Q Your family background : I am one of 6 children – a regular Brady Bunch of 3 boys and 3 girls. I'm also the middle child and we moved around a lot when I was young as my dad was in the Air Force.

Q How they help you in modeling career ? My family are so supportive! When I ran in a magazine's contest, my parents were online every day voting for me and were so proud when I took out the title. I am incredibly lucky to have them supporting my modelling endeavours.

Q Any special childhood prank or memory ? I first learnt that I loved performing from a young age when my sisters and I would dress up as the Spice Girls and perform their songs for our poor parents haha!

Q Educational qualification – I'm trained as an English and Drama teacher.

Q How you became a model, how did you experience the first job you did as a model? I did my first photoshoot when I was studying drama at university – I wanted to get some photos so that I could apply for student films and doing extras work. I loved it! It wasn't until I quit teaching in 2013 that I decided to give modelling a go.

Q Why did you choose this line ? I love being in front of a camera and seeing the final product! Long-term, I'd love to be a glamour model, modelling for men's mags, as well as being a lingerie model for lingerie made specifically for smaller-framed women with larger busts. Bikini modelling is also somewhere I'd like to go, as women with larger busts don't seem to be represented.

Q Projects you have worked in ? Since deciding to pursue modelling, I have been published multiple times in different men's magazines, competed in numerous online modelling competitions, as well as being sought for online features and music videos. My online portfolio/presence has increased in leaps and I hope that my portfolio continues to improve in 2015.

Q Recent projects ? Recent achievements include being crowned, which included a trip to the United States for a photoshoot with a magazine's photographer and a tour of the mansion in December 2014.

Message for youth n freshers in this line?

The most important thing I've learnt is not to take criticism and knock-backs personally. When you start posting things in a public forum, negativity is always going to find its way to you. Even models like Miranda Kerr have to deal with it. You just need to have a thick skin. Another key lesson I've learnt is if something looks too good to be true, it usually is. Make sure you ask around before accepting offers from photographers that don't have a reputation for being professional.

Lastly, what do you think of Modelz View Magazine n Modelzview.com?

Embracing and supporting female sexuality by celebrating the female body is something that should be supported. I love that Modelz View does this in a classy way and helps models get their name and face out there!

Q Your family background - Native American/ French Canadian

Q How they help you in modeling career - My dad and family has always supported my modeling career in any way he could help weather is be emotionally for finacially. I love them very much and they are a very big part of my life.

Q Educational qualification - I have my GED and have done a Tattoo Artist Apprenticeship

Q How you became a model, how did you experience the first job you did as a model? The first job I did as a model was for a calendar company and it was really nice and it helped me get better as a model. I mostly started modeling as a hobby, I have always been told by family and friends that I should try it out so I thought I would and I found it very good for entertainment and self esteem. I have always wanted to be a positive role model to girls who feel down about themselves because their is just too much hatred in the world

Q Why did you choose this line ? I thought it would be a nice way to make money on the side and be a really fun way to raise awareness for things I felt more people should know about such as charities and things going on in countries that people should know about.

Q Your inspiration- My inspiration are people like Khloe Terae and all other Toronto models.

Q Projects you have worked in- I have worked with alot of Motorcycle events and Car shows as well as Sexapalooza.

Q Recent projects - I have recently done alot of promo modeling for a club in toronto called Mingles and a company called R&D Diamonds

Q What's been the best moment of your life ? The best moment in my life is the days my nephews were born, I love them so much and they are the light of my life.

Q What would want in the afterlife? I would want to be with all my family and friends that have past before me.

Q If not modeling ,what would u hv done ? I am also going to be a Tattoo Artist and painter. I love art and painting.

Q Wild dream - My wild dream would be to be a dancer for someone like Miley Cyrus or Iggy Azalia.

Q Hidden talent : I am really good at dancing and kind of good at singing aswell but I dont really do it much cause I always doubt myself

Q What is the sexiest part of your body ? I would have to say my hips, my hair and my face are the sexiest parts of me.

Q First crush/love ? He was an idiot, a boy I knew from one of my friends boyfriend, He was his cousin. He was my first real love and I was so stupid to do so cause he was a selfish asshole who couldnt even tell how I felt about him, but I am thankful he never wanted to be with me cause I see now he wasnt worth any of my time, he couldnt even talk about feelings anywhere but txt messages, he was older than me but more of a child then I have even been and he is still such a child, all he ever did was play games and I think thats all he will ever do with any girl he meets. I am just happy he isnt still around and I smarted up.

Lastly, what do you think of Modelz View Magazine n Modelzview.com ?

I love them, they are an amazing magazine who helps aspiring models reach their dreams of someday making it big. They have some of the hottest girls in their magazine and will definety be one of the big magazines one day :)
