MVquest

• → Your family background:

My family is originally from Pennsylvania. After my dad received his doctorate degree, my parents decided to set up his private practice for chiropractic somewhere in the northeast part of the country. They chose Maryland because it had the greatest number of population to doctor ratio. My mom then received her certification and became a massage therapist. I have one brother who is four years younger than me, and who now lives in Florida. My parents divorced when I was 4 years old and both remarried when I was in 4th grade. I have three older step sisters on my mom's side, and a younger step brother and younger step sister on my dad's side. I grew up back and forth between Maryland and Delaware because my mom has a house in Maryland and my dad lives in Delaware.

• → How they help you in modeling career ?

My dad helped me get into John Robert Powers modeling and acting school in Philadelphia when I was in high school. He was the only dad that attended the Modeling Association of America International (MAAI) Convention in NYC at the Waldorf Astoria. Every other model brought their moms.

• → Any special childhood prank or memory ?

My favorite childhood memory was one year when we took a family vacation to Atlantis resort in the Bahamas. The resort was amazing and I turned 18 while on the vacation which meant I was legally able to drink and get into the nightclubs for the first time ever.

• → Educational qualification :

I graduated with my Bachelor's degree in Psychology at Wesley College in Dover, DE. I began taking classes for my Master's degree but put it on hold until I figure out what direction I want to go.

• → How you became a model, how did you experience the first job you did as a model?

My first job as a model was when I was in high school. I was offered a job along with three other girls from my modeling class with NextGen in Philadelphia where we had a mini "Deal or No Deal" setup and held suitcases. It was so much fun and a lot of money to me at the time since I was living at home with my parents and didn't have any bills to pay! I couldn't believe I was getting paid just to smile and look pretty!

• → Why did you choose this line ?

Although I took modeling and acting classes back in high school, it was really through cocktail serving where I was offered a promo modeling job with Jager, that really started it all. I began networking and signed up with an awesome modeling agency that sent me promo modeling jobs in my area. They kept me very, very busy! I love this line of work because I love having my hair and makeup done, and I also love meeting new people!

• → Projects you have worked in ?

I haven't really done any projects.. my past work has consisted of trade shows/conventions, liquor promos, club events, and car shows.

• → Put these factors in order of importance for becoming a successful model: The right looks, hard work, luck :

I would say in order to become a successful model, the right looks is the number one factor because you need to be able to catch everyone's attention. Second comes hard work, because once you have everyone's attention, you need to be able to work hard to keep their attention by improving and moving up the ladder. Luck is the last factor because sometimes you're just in the right place at the right time but you don't want to rely on just that.

• → What's been the best moment of your life ?

After graduating college in Delaware, I moved down to Miami not knowing a single person. I meet people fast and adapt to new places very easily, so it was really fun starting a whole new life. I felt like I was living on vacation because of all the palm trees and the beautiful beaches. That was one of the best moments in my life. After living in Miami for about eight months, I had an opportunity to move to Las Vegas and work as a promo model at conventions with a modeling agency. After about six months I decided Las Vegas wasn't really for me, and moved back to Florida for awhile, and now I'm living out here in Los Angeles. Los Angeles is my favorite city by far that I've ever lived in, and I'll never move again!

• → What would want in the afterlife?

Stress free, no negativity, only positive thoughts and positive people, no illnesses

• → If not modeling, what would u hv done ?

Probably something in the field of psychology.

• → Wild dream :

I would love to one day celebrate every holiday in a different part of the world. I would love to see the ball drop on New Years Eve in NYC, go to Ireland for St Patrick's Day, Germany for Oktoberfest, etc.

MODELZVIEW OCT 2015

• - Hidden fear :

Elevators! Since living in big cities I've gotten a little more used to them but I still hate them! I think it's just because back home in MD/DE elevators aren't used too often, unless its at a hotel. So I never really had much experience with them. After now living in Miami, Las Vegas, and LA, every building I've lived in has an elevator.

• - Hidden talent :

I am very musically inclined. I can hear a song on the radio or on TV and I can play it on the piano.

• - What is the sexiest part of your body ?

Probably my long blonde hair. I love long hair!

• - Your first kiss ?

My first kiss was when I was in 2nd grade

• - First crush/love ?

My first real boyfriend, longer than two weeks, was my freshman year in high school to a guy who all the girls were crazy over. I hardly ever saw him at school though because he was always getting suspended. He was so bad!

• - Define LOVE in your words.

When I think back to all of my relationships, I've realized that you never have the same kind of relationship twice. Every relationship is so different from the last. We all have that one friend who is our workout buddy, and then another friend who is our favorite shopping partner, and a different friend who is always ready to go to the beach whenever you are. But if you can find that one person who is all of these friends all wrapped up into one, then that is the best kind love.

FAVOURITES

Fav song – My favorite song changes all the time, but right now I'm pretty obsessed with Selena Gomez's "Good For You". I love when that song comes on the radio!

Fav movie – I love funny movies. I'd have to say something like "Step Brothers". No matter how many times I've seen that movie I still laugh. Or maybe even "Elf" since the holidays are coming up. Basically anything with Will Ferrel.

Fav dance form– I've never been in dance, but I was on a competitive cheerleading squad in high school and we had a small dance segment in our routine and it was more hip-hop/popular dance.

veg or non-veg– I'm definitely not a vegetarian, although I do get most of my protein from beans and nuts. I try to eat pretty clean, and most of my diet consists of lots of vegetables, fruits, nuts, and beans, seafood, and chicken. I try to stay away from dairy and carbs.

Fav color– Of course pink! I love anything pink! Double points if its pink and sparkly!

fav brand– I'm pretty obsessed with American Apparel right now. I love tight fitting clothing and their stuff fits me really well.

Fav car– Bentleys! They were super rare cars to see in Delaware and I never really saw any until I moved down to Miami. Whenever I would see one I would go crazy!

Fav place 2 spend holidays– I like going back home for the holidays where its cold and snowy, and it just feels like Christmas time.

Fav fruit– I love every kind of fruit! It's probably my favorite food group so its hard to choose my number one favorite. Since I eat an apple every morning for breakfast, I would have to say that is my favorite fruit. The saying, "An apple a day keeps the doctor away" must be true because I haven't been sick in 2 years! (knock on wood!)

fav flower– My favorite flower has always been Lily of the Valley ever since I was little. The scent takes me back to my childhood.

fav cold drink– Coconut water! So refreshing!

• - Message for youth n freshers in this line ?

The best advice I could give young girls interested in modeling is to not care what anyone else thinks or says. There are always people who will be jealous and will try to bring you down, but just eliminate them from your life because you don't need that negativity. You only live once so you need to make sure you don't look back on your life and have regrets because you let other people hold you down!

Lastly, what do you think of Modelz View Magazine n Modelzview.com ?

I love Modelz View Magazine! So many gorgeous girls have been in this magazine, and I feel so lucky to be a part of it now!
